Craig Counsell, Luis Gonzalez, Curt Schilling and David Dellucci celebrate Gonzalez's game-ending hit that won the 2001 World Series.

The Road to the 2001 World Championship

Division Series Playoffs Arizona Diamondbacks vs. St. Louis Cardinals October 9-13, 2001

Game #1

Tuesday, October 9 - Bank One Ballpark
Arizona 1, St. Louis 0

Curt Schilling and Matt Morris, who shared the major league lead with 22 wins each, squared off in the opener...Schilling tossed the ninth shutout and fifth complete game in Division Series history, holding the Cardinals to 3 hits while striking out 9 in the victory...Steve Finley's 2-out single in the fifth inning plated Damian Miller, who reached via a hit by pitch, with the game's only run.

St. Louis	000	000	000	-	0	3	1
Arizona	000	010	00x	-	1	8	1
2B	-	Finley, Sanders, Grace, Edmonds, Renteria
Winning Pitcher	-	Schilling (C, 1-0)				Time - 2:36
Losing Pitcher	-	Morris (0-1)				Attendance - 42,251

Game #2

Wednesday, October 10 - Bank One Ballpark
St. Louis 4, Arizona 1

St. Louis jumped out to an early lead when rookie Albert Pujols hit a 2-out, 2-run homer (#1) off of Randy Johnson (8.0 ip, 3 r, 6 h, 9 k, bb) in the first inning...St. Louis starter Woody Williams silenced the Arizona offense by allowing just 1 run on 4 hits and helped his own cause with a leadoff double and run scored in the third inning as the Cardinals tied the series with a 4-1 victory.

Game #3

Friday, October 12 - Busch Stadium
Arizona 5, St. Louis 3

Craig Counsell blasted a seventh inning 3-run home run (#1) off of Mike Matthews - his first off of a left-handed pitcher in his career - to snap a 2-2 tie and propel the D'Backs to victory...Miguel Batista hurled 6.0 innings and benefitted from Counsell's heroics to record his first career post-season victory...Luis Gonzalez snapped out of a personal 0-for-10 slide with a solo homer (#1) in the sixth inning...Byung-Hyun Kim entered with 2 outs in the eighth inning and walked Albert Pujols to load the bases before retiring Jim Edmonds, who had homered earlier in the game, on a fly ball.

Game #4
Saturday, October 13 - Busch Stadium
St. Louis 4, Arizona 1

Following a 3-hour, 36-minute rain delay, St. Louis jumped on starter Albie Lopez for 4 runs in 3.0 innings... Cardinals starter Bud Smith picked up the win, holding Arizona to a run and 4 hits over 5.0 frames... Jim Edmonds hit a solo homer (#2) and robbed Erubiel Durazo of a home run with a spectacular catch in the seventh inning... Fernando Viña lashed a 2-run home run (#1) down the rightfield line in the third... Brian Anderson, Greg Swindell and Mike Morgan allowed 3 hits in 5.0 innings of relief.

Game #5
Sunday, October 14 - Bank One Ballpark
Arizona 2, St. Louis 1

Tony Womack's 2-out single to left in the bottom of the ninth scored Danny Bautista from second base as Arizona advanced to the National League Championship Series for the first time... Curt Schilling and Matt Morris went head-to-head in a rematch of the Game 1 starters... Morris' only mistake was a 447-foot homer off of the bat of Reggie Sanders (#1) in the fourth inning... J.D. Drew tied the game with a 2-out solo shot (#1) off of Schilling in the eighth inning, snapping a streak of 25.0 consecutive scoreless post-season innings for the Arizona righthander... a Steve Kline breaking ball in the dirt appeared to put a damper on a ninth inning rally as Womack was unable to make contact on a suicide squeeze making Midre Cummings a sitting duck between third and home, but Womack regrouped and sent the Diamondbacks into the NLCS with the game-winning hit to left.

Losing Pitcher	-	Kline (0-1)					Attendance - 52,194

Craig Counsell is greeted at home plate by Luis Gonzalez and Midre Cummings after hitting a 3-run homer in the seventh inning of game #3 at St. Louis, staking the Diamondbacks to an eventual 5-3 victory.

National League Division Series Highlights

Danny Bautista slides head-first at home plate on Tony Womack's game-ending single that staked the Diamondbacks to a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals, propelling Arizona into the NLCS against Atlanta.

League Championship Series

Arizona Diamondbacks vs. Atlanta Braves

October 16-21, 2001

Game #1

Tuesday, October 16 - Bank One Ballpark
Arizona 2, Atlanta 0

Randy Johnson snapped his major league record 7-game post-season losing streak with a 3-hit, 11-strikeout shutout...Craig Counsell picked up 2 hits and scored twice and Reggie Sanders was 2-for-3 with a RBI...Chipper Jones recorded 2 of Atlanta's 3 hits...the win was Johnson's first in post-season play since the 1995 Division Series when he defeated the Yankees in a relief role...the only negative of the day was the early afternoon starting time assigned by FOX and Major League Baseball which was responsible for a crowd of just 37,729 in Arizona's first NLCS affair.

Arizona	100	010	00x	-	2	8	0
2B	-	Counsell
Winning Pitcher	-	Johnson (C, 1-0)				Time - 2:44
Losing Pitcher	-	Maddux (0-1)				Attendance - 37,729

Game #2

Wednesday, October 17 - Bank One Ballpark
Atlanta 8, Arizona 1

The Braves and D'Backs were deadlocked in a 1-1 game until the seventh when Atlanta scored twice, then put the game on ice for Tom Glavine with a 5-run eighth...Marcus Giles parked Miguel Batista's first offering of the game over the leftfield fence, then Glavine and Batista engaged in a pitcher's duel, with the Arizona righthander retiring 13 in a row at one point...the Diamondbacks tied the contest on a sixth inning 2-out single by Matt Williams, but Javy Lopez poked a 2-run homer off of the rightfield foul pole in the seventh inning to give Atlanta a 3-1 lead.

Arizona	000	001	000	-	1	5	1

Game #3

Friday, October 19 - Turner Field
Arizona 5, Atlanta 1

Curt Schilling dominated with his third straight complete game of the 2001 post-season, allowing a run on 4 hits while striking out 12 and adding a base hit and run scored offensively...the D'Backs got to Atlanta starter John Burkett for 5 runs (4 earned) on 7 hits in 4.1 innings...Steve Finley had 2 hits, including a double, and 3 RBI and Craig Counsell was 3-for-4 with a run scored.

Atlanta	000	100	000	-	1	4	1

Winning Pitcher	-	Schilling (C, 1-0)				Time - 2:59
Losing Pitcher	-	Burkett (0-1)				Attendance - 41,624

Game #4
Saturday, October 20 - Turner Field
Arizona 11, Atlanta 4

A 3-hour, 47-minute affair, the second longest 9-inning game in NLCS history, saw Arizona take advantage of sloppy baseball by the Braves, scoring 6 unearned runs on 4 errors en route to an 11-4 victory...the D'Backs scored 4 times on 3 errors in the third inning...Craig Counsell, whose 2-run double in the fourth inning knocked Greg Maddux out of the game, was 3-for-6 with 2 doubles, 2 runs and 4 RBI...Luis Gonzalez stroked a 3-run homer (#1) in the ninth inning, capping a 2-for-3 night with 2 runs and 3 RBI...Brian Anderson picked up the win in relief of starter Albie Lopez, who gave up 2 runs on 5 hits in 3.0 innings...Chipper Jones' first inning double plated Marcus Giles with the first run of the game...Andruw Jones tagged Albie Lopez for a solo home run (#1) to lead off the Braves' second and give them a short-lived 2-0 lead, but the Diamondbacks scored 4 in the third and eventually cruised to a commanding 3-1 lead in the series.

Arizona	004	200	014	-	11	12	0

Save	-	Kim (#1)
							Time - 3:47
							Attendance - 42,291

Game #5
Sunday, October 21 - Turner Field
Arizona 3, Atlanta 2

Erubiel Durazo's pinch-hit, tie-breaking, 2-run homer in the fifth inning was all Randy Johnson needed to propel Arizona into its first World Series...Johnson, who gave up 2 runs on 7 hits in 7.0 innings, put an end to Atlanta's seventh-inning rally by striking out Brian Jordan with the bases loaded...Byung-Hyun Kim tossed the final 2.0 scoreless innings for his second save of the series...Julio Franco tied the game at 1-1 with a home run (#1) in the fourth inning, and represented the go-ahead run in the ninth when Kim coaxed a fly ball to centerfield and ignited the celebration...Craig Counsell was named the NLCS Most Valuable Player after hitting .381 in the 5-game series.

World Series

Arizona Diamondbacks vs. New York Yankees

October 27-November 4, 2001

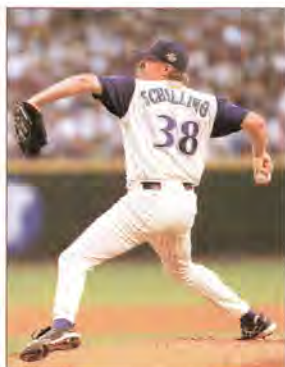

Game #1

Saturday, October 27 - Bank One Ballpark

Arizona 9, New York 1

The Fall Classic made its way to the desert for the first time when the Diamondbacks became the 11th franchise in history to win their World Series debut with a 9-1 thumping of the Yankees in Bank One Ballpark...Curt Schilling delivered yet another spectacular outing, giving up a run on 3 hits over 7.0 innings...New York picked up their only run in the first when Derek Jeter scored on Bernie Williams' double to left...Craig Counsell answered in the bottom of the first with a solo homer (#1) to tie the game at 1-1...Luis Gonzalez's 2-run homer was part of a 4-run third inning that knocked Yankee starter Mike Mussina out of the game...the D'Backs victimized Randy Choate in the fourth inning with 4 runs on 3 hits, including Mark Grace's 2-run double following a Scott Brosius error...Schilling handed the game over to the bullpen as Mike Morgan and Greg Swindell combined for 2.0 innings of hitless relief...the D'Backs capitalized on 2 New York errors which led to 5 unearned runs.

Curt Schilling makes the first of 3 World Series starts, allowing just 3 hits in a 7-inning stint to post a 9-1 win over the Yankees in Game #1 at Bank One Ballpark.

Game #2

Arizona 4, New York 0

Randy Johnson tossed a 3-hit, 11-strikeout, complete game shutout as the D'Backs became just the fourth team in history to win its first 2 World Series games, posting a 4-0 decision...Arizona jumped on the board in the second inning when Danny Bautista belted a double to right-center field scoring Reggie Sanders from first...the pitchers duel continued until the bottom of the seventh when Sanders reached via a fielder's choice...Bautista followed with a line drive single off of the leg of Yankee starter Andy Pettitte, advancing Sanders to second...Pettitte remained in the game and surrendered a 3-run homer to Matt Williams, more than enough for the Big Unit to post a win in his first Fall Classic start...Williams became the first player to homer for 3 different teams in World Series history (San Francisco, Cleveland)...Bautista, Sanders and Williams were a combined 5-for-9 with 4 RBI and 4 runs...Johnson opened the game with 4.0 hitless innings, striking out 7 of the first 9 batters he faced.

Matt Williams delivers a 3-run seventh inning home run off of Andy Pettitte to turn a tight 1-0 Arizona lead into a 4-0 advantage.

Game #3
Tuesday, October 30 - Yankee Stadium
New York 2, Arizona 1

The latest date for a World Series game in history, the night began with President George W. Bush throwing out the ceremonial first pitch, the first President to partake in the pre-game ceremony since Dwight Eisenhower in Ebbets Field in game #1 of the '56 series...Brian Anderson took to the hill in Arizona's first-ever visit to historic Yankee Stadium...Anderson surrendered a solo homer to Jorge Posada in the second inning to stake New York to a 1-0 lead...timely hitting in the fourth inning put Arizona on the board as Steve Finley drew a leadoff walk and made his way to home via a Luis Gonzalez single, a fly ball from Reggie Sanders and a Matt Williams sacrifice fly...in the sixth inning, New York benefited from a dropped pop-up and a wild pitch to end Anderson's night...Scott Brosius then rapped a single to left off of reliever Mike Morgan to score Bernie Williams with the eventual game-winning run...Roger Clemens gave up 3 hits and a run while walking 3 and fanning 9...Mariano Rivera closed out the game with 2.0 perfect innings, striking out 4 of the 6 D'Backs he faced...Erubiel Durazo had 2 singles as Arizona's designated hitter.

President George W. Bush throws out the ceremonial first pitch to conclude an emotional pre-game show in Arizona's first-ever visit to Yankee Stadium.

Game #4
Wednesday, October 31 - Yankee Stadium
New York 4, Arizona 3 (10 innings)

Halloween night had crazy things in store as Curt Schilling was making his first career start on 3 days rest...Schilling, who had downplayed the "mystique" and "aura" of Yankee Stadium, gave up 3 hits and a run with a walk and 9 K's over 7.0 innings...Shane Spencer put the Yankees ahead in the third inning with a solo homer...Mark Grace evened the score with an upper deck blast in the fourth inning, his first career World Series home run...the D'Backs jumped to a 3-1 lead in the eighth when Erubiel Durazo doubled to score Luis Gonzalez from first base with the go-ahead run...Midre Cummings, running for Durazo, scored an insurance run on Matt Williams' fielder's choice...Byung-Hyun Kim entered in the bottom of the eighth and fanned the first 3 batters he faced...in the Yankees' ninth, Paul O'Neill delivered a 1-out single to left, then was followed by Bernie Williams who struck out swinging...with 2 outs and the tying run on first base, Tino Martinez launched Kim's first pitch over the centerfield fence, tying the game at 3-3...Mariano Rivera induced 3 Diamondback ground balls in the top of the tenth...the World Series moved into November baseball as midnight struck and Kim retired Scott Brosius and Alfonso Soriano on flyouts...Derek Jeter worked Kim to a 3-2 count before poking the game-winning homer just inside the rightfield foul pole to even the series.

New York	001	000	002	1	-	4	7	0

Losing Pitcher	-	Kim (R, 0-1)						Attendance - 55,863

Mark Grace rounds the bases after launching a fourth inning upper deck home run in Yankee Stadium to tie Game #4 at 1-1. The blast was Grace's first-ever World Series homer.

Game #5
Thursday, November 1 - Yankee Stadium
New York 3, Arizona 2 (12 innings)

Miguel Batista made his World Series debut with 7.2 innings of shutout ball, but a second straight ninth inning rally by the Yankees sent the Diamondbacks home with as many wins in the series that they had upon arriving in New York...the D'Backs took the initial lead when Steve Finley led off the fifth inning with his first career World Series homer...two outs later, Rod Barajas, making an unscheduled start for the injured Damian Miller, homered to left...Batista left with a 2-0 lead while Arizona missed opportunities to add insurance runs in the seventh and eighth innings, leaving 4 runners on base...Byung-Hyun Kim entered the game in the ninth inning with a 2-0 lead but Jorge Posada led off the with a double to left...Kim appeared to thwart any ideas of a second consecutive ninth inning rally, retiring Spencer on a groundball and fanning Chuck Knoblauch...but, with two outs, Scott Brosius smacked a game-tying 2-run homer to leftfield, sending the game into overtime...Danny Bautista and Erubiel Durazo opened the 11th with back-to-back singles against Mariano Rivera and advanced on a Matt Williams sacrifice bunt...Finley was intentionally walked to load the bases, then Reggie Sanders appeared to have knocked in the go-ahead run with a line drive up the middle, but Yankee second baseman Alfonso Soriano made a diving stab...Rivera escaped the jam on a fielder's choice...Albie Lopez entered the game in the 12th for the D'Backs and gave up a single to Knoblauch, who was then sacrificed to second by Brosius...Soriano followed with a single to rightfield, plating Knoblauch with the game-winning run...the improbable comebacks by the Yankees marked the first time in World Series history that a team won 2 games in the same Series when trailing by at least 2 runs entering the ninth inning...it was also the first time a team has won in the bottom of the ninth or later since Minnesota posted "sudden death" wins in games 6 & 7 of 1991 series vs. Atlanta...the back-to-back extra-inning games in Yankee Stadium marked the fourth time consecutive games have gone into bonus frames, first since games 6 & 7 of the '91 series between Twins & Braves.

New York	000	000	002	001	-	3	9	1

Winning Pitcher	-	Hitchcock (R, 1-0)					Time - 4:15
Losing Pitcher	-	Lopez (R, 0-1)					Attendance - 56,018

Miguel Batista gives up only 5 hits over 7.2 shutout innings in historical Yankee Stadium in first-ever World Series appearance. Unfortunately the Yankees came from 2 down in the ninth inning for a second straight night an eventually posted a 3-2 win 12 innings.

Game #6
Saturday, November 3 - Bank One Ballpark
Arizona 15, New York 2

After the frustrating visit to New York, the D'Backs couldn't wait to get back to Bank One Ballpark and it was evident as Randy Johnson and the offense thumped the Yanks, 15-2...Tony Womack opened the home half of the first with a double to right off of Andy Pettitte, then scored on Danny Bautista's single...Arizona scored 3 more in the second inning courtesy of Womack's 2-run single and Bautista's run scoring single...Pettitte, who allowed 6 runs on 7 hits over 2.0 innings, walked Greg Colbrunn followed by a Matt Williams double to open the third and was removed in favor of Jay Witasick...the rout was on as Arizona scored 8 times in the third inning for a 12-0 lead...the Diamondbacks added 3 more runs in the fourth off of Witasick and Randy Choate while New York managed only 2 hits through the first 5.0 innings...Bobby Witt and Troy Brohawn closed out the game for the D'Backs in place of Johnson, who did not need to go the distance since there was a chance he could be called upon in game #7...the Big Unit also added a hit and scored twice...Arizona set a World Series single-game record with 22 hits.

New York	000	002	000	-	2	7	1
Arizona	138	300	00x	-	15	22	0
2B	-	Greene, Womack, Gonzalez, M. Williams 2, Sanders, Miller
Winning Pitcher	-	Johnson (2-0)				Time - 3:33
Losing Pitcher	-	Pettitte (0-2)				Attendance - 49,707

Danny Bautista was in the middle of the offensive onslaught, going 3-for-4 with 5 RBI in the Game #6 rout of the Yankees.

Game #7
Sunday, November 4 - Bank One Ballpark
Arizona 3, New York 2

The stage was set for a classic showdown as Curt Schilling took the hill against Roger Clemens, the first meeting of 20-game winners in a Game #7 since 1985 when John Tudor of the Cardinals faced Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen...Schilling, working on 3 days rest for the second straight time, allowed only 1 hit through the first 6.0 innings...the D'Backs didn't have much more success against Clemens until Steve Finley led off the sixth with a single to center then scored when Danny Bautista lashed a double to left-center...New York answered with a run in the seventh on an RBI single by Tino Martinez...with the game tied at 1-1, Alfonso Soriano led off the eighth by hitting a low 0-2 pitch into the seats in left to stake the Yankees to a 2-1 advantage...after a 1-out hit by David Justice, Schilling was lifted in favor of Miguel Batista, the pitching star from game #5 in New York and he retired Jeter for the second out...Randy Johnson was then summoned from the pen less than 24 hours after working 7.0 innings in game #6...the Big Unit retired all 4 men he faced over 1.1 innings then left it to the offense...to win a World Series crown, the Diamondbacks would have to beat Mariano Rivera, who allowed a hit and struck out 3 in the eighth inning...Rivera, who had posted 23 consecutive post-season saves, gave up a leadoff single to Mark Grace...the inning unraveled in Arizona's favor when Rivera threw wildly into centerfield on a potential force out at second base...Jay Bell pinch-hit for Johnson and reached base on a fielder's choice with Rivera recording a force out at third base...with Midre Cummings pinch-running for Damian Miller at second, Tony Womack lashed a double down the rightfield line, tying run and sending Bell to third...Craig Counsell was hit to load the bases and pitting Rivera against D'Back slugger Luis Gonzalez, who had launched a team record 57 home runs during the regular season...with the infield drawn in and an 0-1 count, Gonzalez choked up and blooped a ball a little over 100 feet into short left-center...Bell cruised home from third base with the winning run and leaped into the arms of fellow inaugural D'Back Matt Williams to set-off the celebration...in a moment of pure pandemonium, players, coaches and staff surged out of the dugout and bullpen as the tune of "We Are the Champions" played while fireworks went off...in a post-game ceremony on the field, Jerry Colangelo and his Arizona Diamondbacks were presented with the 2001 World Series trophy...co-MVPs Schilling and went a combined 4-0 in 6 total appearances (5 starts) allowing 6 earned runs over 38.2 innings while recording 45 strikeouts...in winning game #6 as a starter and #7 in relief, Johnson became the first pitcher in history to win 5 games in any single post-season.

New York	000	000	110	-	2	6	3
Arizona	000	001	002	-	3	11	0
2B	-	O'Neill, Womack, Bautista

2001 World Series Notebook

- The Diamondbacks entered the World Series with Craig Counsell as the only active player in possession of a World Championship ring while the Yankees were 3-time defending champs.
- Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling were the second co-MVP's in World Series history joining the Los Angeles Dodger trio of Ron Cey, Pedro Guerrero and Steve Yeager...it marked the 20th and 21st time a starting pitcher won the award, first since Florida's Livan Hernandez in 1997.
- It was the third time in World Series history that the home team won every game, joining the Twins against St. Louis in 1987, and Twins against Atlanta in 1991.
- The Diamondbacks outscored New York 31-5 in the 4 wins, and were outscored 9-6 in the trio of 1-run losses in Bronx.
- The Diamondbacks were the fastest expansion team to get to the Fall Classic a year quicker than Florida in '97...other expansion clubs to make the World Series and the year they qualified - Mets (eighth year), Royals (12th year), Seattle Pilots/Milwaukee Brewers (14th year), San Diego (16th year), Toronto (16th year)...remaining expansion clubs that have not appeared in the Series include the Angels, Senators/Rangers, Colt 45's/Astros, Expos, Mariners, Rockies and Devil Rays.
- Arizona pitching held the Yankees to .183 team average (42-for-229), the lowest average ever in a 7 or 8 game World Series... previous low was .185 by St. Louis vs. Kansas City in 1985.
- Arizona's overall staff ERA of 1.94 was lowest in World Series play since Cincinnati's 1.70 mark in a 4-game sweep of Oakland in 1990 and lowest in a 7-game set since Kansas City had a 1.89 mark in '85 vs. the Cardinals.
- The Diamondbacks were the first team in 80 years to win the first 2 games they ever played in the World Series, the fourth team overall joining the 1914 Boston Braves, 1919 Cincinnati Reds and 1921 New York Yankees.
- The walk-off finish to game #7 was the 11th overall "sudden death" ending to a World Series, the third in a row that involved a 7-game series...the last was the '97 finish when Craig Counsell scored the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning as Florida defeated Cleveland...the other was Minnesota's 10th inning win over the Braves in the Metrodome in 1991.
- The Diamondbacks are the 19th team to win the series after trailing 3 games to 2...it was also the 11th time a team won games 6 & 7 at home.
- It was the first time the Yankees were involved in a game #7 of any post-season series since the 1964 World Series went to the limit against St. Louis.
- The Diamondbacks snapped New York's post-season series streak at 11, handing the Bronx Bombers their first series loss since the 5-game Division Series with Cleveland in 1997.
- When Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens hooked up in the final game, it marked the sixth time 20-game winners squared off in the seventh game, first since John Tudor (St. Louis) and Bret Saberhagen (Kansas City) in 1985.
- The 15-2 win in game #6 alone was worth the following tidbits:
 - ...The Diamondbacks recorded a World Series record 22 hits.
 - ...The 15 runs tied with Toronto for third highest in a World Series game.
 - ...The 13-run margin of victory tied for second best ever matching the Yankees' 16-3 win over Pittsburgh in game #2 of '60 World Series, and was the second highest ever, just behind an 18-4 Yankee win in game #2 of the 1936 win over the Giants.
 - ...The 15-0 lead after 5 innings tied the biggest lead by any team at any time in World Series game...the Yankees had a 16-1 lead in game #2 of the '60 series against Pittsburgh.
 - ...Arizona's 8-run third inning marked the best inning since game 6 of 1968 series when Detroit scored 10 times in third inning of 13-1 win over St. Louis.

Jerry Colangelo

Managing General Partner

"Floater, centerfield - the Diamondbacks are World Champions."

The above words from FOX's Joe Buck signaled the end of the seventh game of the 2001 World Series and began a celebration in a region that has not been the same since 1968. It was in 1968 that Jerry Colangelo packed his bags in Illinois and made the move to Phoenix to take a chance with an expansion NBA franchise. He came to Phoenix with hopes of bringing a major sports championship to the southwest, little did anyone know the world title would come via the baseball diamond. Since his arrival in the Valley, the transformation has gone from a Cactus League community to the home of a franchise in the four major sports and now the home to the newly crowned World Champions in major league baseball.

Colangelo built a baseball franchise that not only appeared in but won a World Series in just its fourth year of existence, a year faster than the previous best expansion success story when the Florida Marlins won the crown in 1997. The difference between the two expansion winners starts at the top as the ownership group that is led by Colangelo has not only kept the core of the championship club together, but afforded the baseball department the resources to sign free agent pitcher Rick Helling and award long-term deals to post-season heroes Craig Counsell and Danny Bautista. Conversely, the Marlins were dismantled immediately after winning their title and have been sold twice since the '97 Fall Classic.

The rise to baseball's penthouse didn't come without tough decisions from Colangelo and his staff that were drawn toward streamlining the organization after a disappointing 2000 campaign. The first move was a philosophical change in the managerial role, hiring team television analyst Bob Brenly to handle the day-to-day operation from the manager's office. A looser more casual approach by Brenly proved to be the right mix for a clubhouse full of veterans, something that Colangelo had stated would be the perfect tonic when he made the change.

The tangible result of the work by Jerry and the ownership he represents sits in Bank One Ballpark in the form of a trophy that 30 clubs set as a goal when spring training commences, but only one remains standing at the end. The morning after winning the championship last November, Jerry received a phone call from President George W. Bush, then two days later presided over the first-ever world championship parade through the streets of Phoenix. The celebrations were climaxed by a December 13 visit to the White House in which Colangelo, Joe Garagiola Jr., Rich Dozer, Bob Brenly and the players were commended for their efforts by the Chief Executive.

A highly visible leader, his typical day during the baseball season commences at America West Arena in the early morning and winds up well into the night at Bank One Ballpark. Despite the hectic schedule, Colangelo is available to the field staff, the players and the media on a daily basis. He is so highly regarded in the region, Jerry was named by The Arizona Republic the most influential sports figure in Arizona during the 20th century. He also served as the Honorary Grand Marshal for the 2000 Fiesta Bowl Parade.

The Diamondbacks are the second expansion success story of Colangelo's distinguished career, establishing his reputation in athletics with the Suns, joining the franchise in 1968 as the general manager and climbing through that organization to his present status as Chairman, CEO and Managing General Partner. He has been behind the construction of two of the top venues in professional sports, first spearheading the effort to build America West Arena, then leading the charge for Bank One Ballpark, a necessary commodity for Major League Baseball to grant a franchise to the Valley.

"Losing" is not part of his vocabulary, typifying his upbringing in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. As a youth he was one of the top pitchers on a team that also featured the talents of future New York Yankee Jim Bouton. On the hardwood, Colangelo captured All-State honors, leading Bloom Township to a 49-8 mark and two appearances in the Illinois State Tournament. His athleticism led to 66 college scholarship offers for basketball and seven for professional baseball contracts. He was honored in his old neighborhood with the dedication of the Jerry Colangelo Gymnasium at Bloom Township on November 10, 1996.

He initially chose to attend the University of Kansas, but transferred to the University of Illinois after prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, decided to sign professionally. A high school arm injury to Colangelo limited his playing career to just two seasons of baseball at Illinois, thus his athletic focus turned to hoops. He earned All-Big Ten honors for the Illini, averaging 15 points a game, served as team captain as a senior and was an eventual inductee in the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame.

Colangelo's professional career in athletics began with the Chicago Bulls as head scout and director of merchandising in 1966. Only two years later he made the now historic move to Phoenix, becoming the youngest general manager in pro sports, taking over the reins of the Suns. He held that role until October, 1987, when he led a group of investors that purchased the Suns franchise for $44.5 million, and he has served as the team CEO since.

In 1993, the same year he earned an unprecedented fourth NBA Executive of the Year award, Colangelo began assembling yet another group of investors that would eventually convince the expansion committee that big league baseball was not just a spring fling in the Valley.

The assertive and confident style of management that directed the Suns to seven consecutive 50-win seasons, and three appearances in the Western Conference finals, was now headed to another major sport. On behalf of the potential ownership group, he negotiated a deal with the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors that enabled the county to fund $238 million toward the construction of what is now Bank One Ballpark. During the same time frame, he helped facilitate the relocation of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets, now the Phoenix Coyotes, arranging the lease agreement for major league hockey in America West Arena.

Hard work and a winning attitude have been a way of life for Colangelo, and those characteristics have been instilled throughout the Diamondbacks' organization. A tour of Bank One Ballpark or America West Arena provides insight into the first class way that Colangelo wishes his franchises to be perceived, not only by the athletes who call Phoenix home, but by the opposition as well.

The respect and presence that Jerry Colangelo established in the NBA quickly surfaced around his brethren in Major League Baseball, as he serves on the MLBAM Internet Committee, the Legislative Committee and Equal Opportunity Committee. As for his original venture into the professional sports field - the NBA, Jerry was named last year as the Chairman of the NBA Board of Governors. He is also a member of the NBA Planning Committee, NBA Advisory/Finance Committee, Chairman of the NBA Expansion Committee and Chairman of the NBA Relocation Committee.

A man who believes in commitment, not only professionally, but within the community, Colangelo has distinguished himself as one of the Valley's most active community leaders. The list of his "off-field" activities reads like a veritable who's who in the region. He is on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Art Museum, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Phoenix Community Alliance and Phoenix Suns Charities. He serves as vice president of the Phoenix Downtown Partnership and is chairman of Southwest Leadership Foundation. He is a lifetime member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an organization dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports and the driving force of the Phoenix Open golf tournament, easily the most attended single sporting event in the country. He is past chairman of Arizona State University's Dean's Council of 100, on the Honor Board for Junior Achievement of Central Arizona and is past chairman of the board for the Christian Businessmen's Club. Colangelo currently serves as chairman of the board for the Council of Leadership Foundation, chairman of the board for the Collaboration for a New Century, he's on the board of Athletes in Action and is the director and principal partner of Stratford American Corporation, a real estate development company. He is a former president of Valley Big Brothers.

Colangelo and his wife, Joan, whom he met on a blind date while at the University of Illinois, have raised a family of four children that now includes ten grandchildren. The Colangelo family includes daughters Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker and Mandie Okyere, and son, Bryan, who also maintains the Colangelo name on the basketball side, serving as the Suns' president and general manager.

Though his time is always at a premium, he found time to author a book, titled "How You Play the Game," giving insight into the world of the business of sports. Proceeds of the book sales go to YoungLife of Arizona, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and Phoenix Suns Charities.

Jerry conducts an interview with the FOX Network after accepting the World Series trophy on stage following Game #7.

Richard H. Dozer President

On March 9, 1995, Jerry Colangelo entrusted the day-to-day operation of his newly acquired baseball team to the energetic Rich Dozer, naming him President of the Diamondbacks. Raised in a baseball environment thanks to the role his father held as a nationally renowned sportswriter, Rich has developed a family atmosphere in a work-a-day world that at times carries cumbersome hours. Rich's father, the late Dick Dozer, covered both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox for the Chicago Tribune. In taking advantage of every opportunity to spend time with his growing boy, Dick allowed his son to accompany him to spring training, where Rich lived out any young man's dream serving as a bat boy for each team.

The family aspect has not been lost on the younger Dozer, who has instilled that quality in all who have come aboard from other organizations. His unpretentious, open-door style has made the Diamondback front office one of the most comfortable and successful franchises in sports. His thoughtfulness was never more evident than last fall when he filled a charter aircraft with as many Diamondback employees as possible to attend the NLCS in Atlanta and World Series in New York. He also displayed his compassionate side when the Diamondbacks reached the post-season in 1999, inviting Dwight Patterson to throw out the first pitch prior to the first Division Series game ever played in Bank One Ballpark. Patterson, who lured the Chicago Cubs to the Valley over 50 years ago to start what is now the Cactus League, was one of the most popular sports figures in Arizona. Sadly, the ceremonial first pitch was one of Patterson's final great memories as the Arizona legend passed away just three days later.

He proved to be the ideal candidate for his current role, possessing the knowledge of the inner workings of a Jerry Colangelo operated sports franchise after working for eight seasons with the Phoenix Suns. Dozer joined the NBA franchise in July 1987 as business manager, and climbed the corporate ladder to Vice President and Chief Operating Officer by June of 1989. Responsibilities varied from accounting, finance, ticketing, office administration, insurance, and arena financing and operations. He was also the President of America West Arena and was intimately involved in that facility's development.

Dozer is a former Certified Public Accountant, spending eight years in the Phoenix office of Arthur Andersen, where he specialized as an audit manager for clients in sports, hospitality and retail industries.

Among his many responsibilities, he has the unenviable task of making the call on opening or closing the roof on a daily basis. Though after four seasons some trends have been established, the daily timing of the roof closure is vital to ensure that enough sunlight reaches the grass to keep it growing, and most importantly that the ballpark stays cool enough to allow the air conditioning to make the ballpark comfortable by game time. Dozer not only takes the playing conditions into consideration, but the building temperatures at all seating levels to ensure the comfort of the fans.

Much like Colangelo, Dozer's role is not just about the team, but about community as well. He serves on several boards, including Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, Phoenix & Valley of the Sun Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Goodwill Industries Honor Board. Rich's leadership abilities were recognized last year when he was named by Mayor Skip Rimsza to the 2000 Executive Bond Committee. He is a life member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an arm of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce that stages the Phoenix Open each year, one of the top attended single sporting events in the country, and he's also a member of the Phoenix Civic Plaza - Strategic Planning Task Force. He's on the board of the YMCA, the Dean's Council of 100 for the Arizona State University College of Business, the Arizona Tourism Alliance and the Phoenix Community Alliance.

Dozer also serves as the Chairman of the Alexis de Tocqueville Society 2002 and 2003 campaigns, which is an arm of the United Way. He and his wife Karie are the co-chairs for the $4 million capital campaign of the United Cerebral Palsy, whose current goal is to build the Laura Dozer Center, which will serve the needs of families whose children suffer from various disabilities.

He possesses a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona, graduating in 1979. Rich has a 10-year old daughter, Danielle, and he and his wife Karie have a three-year old daughter, Laura Grace. They make their home in Phoenix.

Rich relishes the view from the top as he and his wife, Karie, ride through the streets of Phoenix in the World Series parade.

Joe Garagiola, Jr. Senior Vice President - General Manager

A lot was made of Craig Counsell as the only active player with the Diamondbacks who possessed a World Championship ring entering the 2001 Fall Classic. There was another graduate of the University of Notre Dame who also owned a World Series ring, and thanks to his work and that of his baseball staff, now every member of the Diamondbacks has a ring. Joe Garagiola Jr., who 25 years earlier served as the general counsel and assistant to the president of the New York Yankees, assembled the roster that prevented the storied franchise from winning a fourth consecutive World Series.

Taking advantage of the resources provided by ownership, Joe was the foreman of a construction team that assembled the fastest World Series winner in expansion baseball history. He fine tuned a club that had finished 12 games out of the hunt in 2000 after winning 100 games the year before. Included were the signings of Mark Grace and Reggie Sanders, both of whom provided outstanding numbers, while the quiet off-season discovery of Miguel Batista turned into one of the top bargains in the game. The energized effort of the baseball department also produced youngsters like Bret Prinz, Junior Spivey and Rod Barajas, all organizational originals who had an impact during Arizona's successful regular season run.

Just days after the parade wound through the streets of Phoenix, Joe did not rest on the laurel of being a World Series winner by identifying priorities for 2002. A pair of those priorities were addressed with the free agent signing of pitcher Rick Helling and a trade with Colorado for lefthanded relief specialist Mike Myers.

Garagiola's effort was congratulated by the highest of powers when President George W. Bush invited the organization to the White House last December 13. During the course of the visit, the President couldn't resist bringing up a comparison between himself and Joe Jr. stating, "I've always been suspicious of guys who have a famous father," referring in jest to his father the former President and Joe's dad who has made a name for himself both on and off the field.

Joe is joined by Bob Brenly, Jerry Colangelo and Rich Dozer in the Diamondback clubhouse just minutes after winning the National League trophy in Atlanta.

Reynoso. Following the recruitment of free agents, Garagiola went to work with other GM's, procuring key pieces to the puzzle via the trade route. One of the least publicized yet now most talked about deals came during the Christmas holidays with Detroit, as the Diamondbacks received Luis Gonzalez and cash considerations from the Tigers in exchange for Karim Garcia. Still in search of a leadoff hitter, Garagiola delivered during the second week of spring training, acquiring Tony Womack from Pittsburgh in exchange for a pair of minor leaguers. Womack has had three strong seasons since arriving in Arizona, highlighted by a pair of huge hits that led to last year's title.

Once the '99 campaign was underway the Diamondbacks hovered near the top in the N.L. West, but it became apparent that more bullpen help was a necessity. Garagiola solidified the pen with the mid-July acquisition of Matt Mantei in a package that sent three players to Florida. The arrival of Mantei helped stake the Arizona bullpen to the second best ERA in the National League.

Garagiola joined the Diamondbacks in March, 1995, when the franchise was awarded to the region, but it

The changes leading up to 2001 were far less dramatic than those he engineered in turning this club from a 65-win inaugural season to the 100-win squad that represented the greatest single-season turnaround in major league history. Featuring players from the expansion draft, trades, free agency and the amateur draft, the Diamondbacks jelled as a team quicker than any previous expansion effort, winning a division title six years sooner than any other first-year franchise. Garagiola's preparatory work for 1999 did not go unnoticed, as he finished third in Executive-of-the-Year balloting.

Garagiola immediately went to work to overhaul the roster, signing key free agents that included the likes of Randy Johnson, Steve Finley, Todd Stottlemyre, Greg Swindell, Greg Colbrunn and was his work on the Arizona Baseball Commission that served as a driving force in procuring major league baseball for the Valley. He served as vice-chairman of the Governor's Cactus League Task Force, and was a member of the Mayor's Professional Baseball Committee. From there he branched out to the Maricopa County Sports Authority, serving as chairman. Garagiola was also chairman of the Arizona Baseball Commission, the group best known for completing the task of convincing existing major league clubs that Phoenix and the region were ready to possess their own club. Garagiola made his move to the Valley in 1982, applying his law practice to the firm of Gallagher and Kennedy. His concentration was on sports law, and he was the chairman of the Phoenix Metropolitan Sports Foundation from 1985-87.

As is a constant throughout the Diamondbacks' organization, Joe also has ties within the community, serving on the Board of Directors of the America West Airlines Educational Foundation. Joe also was the 1998 recipient of the prestigious Institute of Human Relations Award from the American Jewish Committee.

Joe graduated from the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, IN, earning a B.A. cum laude in 1972. He earned his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1975), and is admitted to practice law in Arizona, California and New York. He and his wife, Noel, have four children, Meredith, Valerie, Natalie and Christopher, and make their home in Scottsdale.

Sandy Johnson

Assistant General Manager

Sandy is in his fifth full season as Assistant General Manager, named on April 1, 1998, but has been on board since preparation began to draft and sign the first group of players who made up the original Diamondbacks. Originally a major league scout and Special Assistant to the General Manager, he played an integral part in preparation for the expansion draft, supplying a lifetime of knowledge and scouting experience.

Highly respected throughout the game of baseball, he received a true testimony to the friendships he has gained over his career when the Diamondbacks visited the White House last December 13. His former boss with the Texas Rangers and current President of the United States, George W. Bush, completed his remarks on Arizona's World Championship and while exiting the East Room he spotted Sandy and came over to give him a hug and special hello.

In addition to Johnson's responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he was a member of the USA Baseball Selection Committee, the group that chose the 24-man roster that made-up the Gold Medal winning squad in the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

Signing out of high school with the Pirates' organization, Sandy broke into professional baseball with the Pittsburgh organization in 1959, playing with Hall of Famer Willie Stargell in San Angelo, TX. Johnson finished his career as a player/coach in the Pirates' minor league system. He scouted and managed with the Seattle Pilots organization during their brief history, then followed the franchise to Milwaukee when they became the Brewers. Sandy managed for three seasons in that chain after the move, which included a Midwest League title with Danville in 1971.

After serving as a full-time scout for the Brewers in 1973-74, Sandy joined the Major League Scouting Bureau, serving as the Eastern Supervisor until 1981. He then joined the San Diego Padres as their Director of Scouting working there through the championship season of '84. While with the Padres, Johnson's ability to recognize and sign talent began to show in earnest, with the signings of youngsters Benito Santiago, Mitch Williams and Sandy Alomar, Jr.

The who's who of signings continued as his career moved to Texas, as Assistant General Manager and serving in Player Personnel and Scouting. While with the Rangers, Sandy was instrumental in acquiring Juan Gonzalez, Pudge Rodriguez, Sammy Sosa, Rich Aurilia and pitchers Kevin Brown, Rick Helling and Robb Nen.

Raised in South San Gabriel, CA, Sandy was inducted into the RBI Hall of Fame in February, 1999, joining a list of prestigious previous honorees that include Duke Snider, Eddie Murray, Tom Lasorda and Ozzie Smith.

Sandy and his wife, Linda, make their home in Phoenix. They have three children, Matthew, Bethany Gehrman and Dane, and four grandsons, Stefan, Leo and August Gehrman, and Lars Johnson.

Mike Rizzo

Director of Scouting

Mike Rizzo is in his third full season as the Director of Scouting for the Diamondbacks, a role that has him traveling the globe to procure talent that will hopefully find its way to Bank One Ballpark. Responsible for all facets of scouting, including draft strategy and selections in the June First-Year Player Draft, Rizzo operates a streamlined department of 47 while also controlling the scouting operations budget. There is no off season in the scouting department as Rizzo spent a portion of his winter in Australia and at the Caribbean Series as he continues to expand

Arizona's world-wide coverage.

The 2002 campaign is Mike's 20th year in pro ball, a career that began with a four-year stint as a minor league player in the California Angels' system. Once his playing career ended, he served as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois while completing his Bachelor of Arts in Communications. The Illinois-native began his professional scouting career with the Chicago White Sox, where he served as Midwest and Southeast territorial scout, during which time he inked future two-time American League MVP Frank Thomas. Rizzo earned the Scouting Excellence Award from the Chicago Pitch and Hit Club in 1993.

His stint with the White Sox was followed by a six-year stay with the Boston Red Sox, where his responsibilities ranged from area supervisor, international scout and major league advance scout.

He first arrived in the Valley in 1998, serving the Diamondbacks as the national supervisor of the Central region prior to his promotion to Director. Since coming on board, Rizzo has established scouting relationships in Latin America, the Far East, the Pacific Rim and Australia.

Mike was raised in Chicago, lettering in baseball, basketball and football at Holy Cross High School. He and his wife, Sheilah, have a son, Michael Jr. (2/15/90) and make their home in Scottsdale, where the Rizzo's have been known to get together on the basketball court when Dad isn't on the road.

Tommy Jones

Director of Minor League Operations

An organization original, Tommy Jones has a variety of responsibilities that run year-round, including coordination between minor league general managers, field managers, coaches and trainers. A field manager at virtually every minor league level, Tommy recognizes the necessities of a minor league franchise while still keeping his focus on the development of players at every level.

Jones came to Arizona after a 12-year minor league managerial career that included seven Manager-of-the-Year honors.

After concluding a minor league playing career in the San Diego and San Francisco organizations (1976-81), Tommy went to work as a manager in the Kansas City organization. It was an eventful five years in the Royals' chain, from managing Bo Jackson in his first professional season at Memphis to being a member of the big league coaching staff the year that Kansas City won the World Series in 1985.

Jones' minor league travelogue also included stops in the organizations of the New York Yankees, Seattle Mariners, Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs, managing in each chain. He managed the Rookie League Lethbridge club in 1997.

Jones has a B.A. degree in pre-law studies from the University of the Pacific, where he played collegiately. He and wife, Joan, have two children, Sarah and Tyler, and make their home in Scottsdale.

Bob Miller

Director of Baseball Operations

Bob is in his 20th year in baseball and fourth with the Diamondbacks. As Director of Baseball Operations, he has numerous administrative responsibilities in Scouting and Player Development and assists the Baseball Department in all phases of operation, including contract negotiations, waiver rules and interpretation and computer work. Miller paid his dues prior to arriving in the Valley, working for 16 years in the minors, applying his baseball knowledge to a variety of stops. He was the Executive General Manager of the Amarillo

Dillas of the independent Texas-Louisiana League, joining the organization prior to the '99 season, after a year as the Vice President of Baseball Operations in the league's Abilene (TX) office.

Prior to his work in the Texas-Louisiana League, Miller spent 14 seasons with the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, serving in a variety of roles. He began with the National Association in 1983 as the Director of Records and Computer Operations, overseeing the free agent program, reserve lists, qualification register, approval of Rule 4 Draft signings, free agent signings and rules interpretations. In 1994, he was named the Executive Director of Business and Finance, supervising the Minor League commissioner's office baseball operations finances.

A long-time Florida resident, Bob graduated with honors with a B.S. in Finance from the University of South Florida. He and his wife, Chris, make their home in Phoenix.

...Snake Bite

State of Arizona Lucky #13

Arizona was the 13th state to host a World Series game when the 2001 Fall Classic began last October 27 in Bank One Ballpark. The other states to play host to a World Series are California, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. For the record, the nation's capital Washington D.C. and Toronto, Ontario, Canada have also hosted a Fall Classic.

Arizona was also the youngest state to host a Series as the 48th state born in 1912. The previous youngest was Minnesota, the 32nd state that entered the Union in 1858.

Roger Riley

Director of Team Travel

While taking on additional responsibilities as the Clubhouse Manager, and working for his first World Championship club, Roger capped the dream year by being voted the 2001 Traveling Secretary of the Year award by his peers in major league baseball. Riley joined the D'Backs in the winter of '97 as Director of Team Travel, then added clubhouse duties to expand his role last year. Aside from his regular duties on the road, Riley assists baseball operations when the needs arise regarding player movement and computer work.

Roger doesn't have much of an "off-season" as evidenced by his departure for the MLB clubhouse manager meetings just 72 hours after the Diamondbacks won the World Series title last year. He spends the majority of the winter signing hotel and charter aircraft contracts for the upcoming year. As the season commences he arranges for ground transportation in each city and makes sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Roger is also in charge of dispensing meal money to the traveling party, and handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the Diamondbacks also includes work on the schedule, and making sure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs and coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members as they prepare for the six-week stay in Tucson.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and spent 19 years with a variety of network television assignments, including the Bowl Championship Series title game in the Sugar Bowl in 2000. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Roger was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the '96 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with the General Manager.

He and his wife, Donna, have three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and make their home in Chandler.

Mike Swanson

Public Relations Director

Known simply as "Swanee," Mike is in his 24th year in the majors, fifth with the Diamondbacks. He was named the Public Relations liaison for the Major League Baseball All-Star squad that played an eight-game series in Japan in November, 2000.

His arrival in Arizona marked the second straight franchise start-up for Swanson, who had a similar experience with the Colorado Rockies, joining that organization in 1992, a year before they played their first game in the National League. After six years with the Rockies, Swanee headed south to Arizona, joining the Diamondbacks after the 1997 season ended. He has also worked in the Public Relations departments for the Kansas City Royals and San Diego Padres, also expansion clubs when they began play.

Though baseball is his passion, Swanson has had the opportunity to be involved in all sports throughout his life. His mother, the late Betty Swanson, worked for both the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs over a 36-year span, and oftentimes had the younger Swanson tagging along, working in the equipment rooms for both franchises, and traveling with the Chiefs during their glory years of the early 70's.

From there he became a "numbers nerd," and had the good fortune to work virtually every major sporting event in the country as a television statistician. It all began in 1977 with Keith Jackson on college football and evolved into stints with Monday Night Football, and the sharing of booth space with some of the top announcers in sports. He was recruited to join CBS Sports when current Suns' announcer Gary Bender was calling the play-by-play for NCAA Basketball. All totaled his statistical resume featured six Final Fours, six Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, five Sugar Bowls and six Cotton Bowls.

Diamondbacks Business Vice Presidents

Senior Vice President of Marketing and Sales

In 1995, Scott Brubaker was asked to bring his successful creative marketing skills from the America West Arena across the street to the Arizona Diamondbacks. The move has proven mutually beneficial to Scott and the Diamondbacks, as it was he who has led the charge on some truly innovative marketing and entertaining concepts including the famous swimming pool in the right field bleachers of Bank One Ballpark.

Other innovations at Bank One Ballpark for which Brubaker and his staff are responsible, include the naming of the Infiniti Diamond Level, the first time a level of a stadium or arena has been corporately sponsored, but a practice that is now commonplace in the industry.

Brubaker, 38, joined the Suns as a sales and marketing representative in 1986, soon after graduating from the University of Illinois. He quickly climbed the organization's corporate ladder, serving as director of marketing for the America West Arena and Vice President of Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports, which included the two-time ArenaBowl World Champion Arizona Rattlers.

As the Diamondbacks' Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing, he is charged with guiding the club's marketing efforts through a downturn in sports spending and in the face of unparalleled competition in the Phoenix sports and entertainment marketplace. Brubaker's responsibilities include overall management of the Diamondbacks' sales and marketing efforts, corporate sponsorships, game operations, luxury suite sales, broadcasting, community affairs, Hispanic marketing and Tucson operations.

He is busy outside the office as well, serving as a member of the Lost Canyon Executive Committee for Young Life of Arizona, the American Cancer Society Chairman's Circle and the Arizona Diamondbacks Charities board. He is also a passionate and extremely competitive golfer. Scott and his wife, Krissie, have four children: daughters Hilary, Heather and Hannah, and son Jayce.

Tom Harris
Senior Vice President of Finance

Tom joined the Arizona Diamondbacks as the Vice President of Finance in July of 1995. The man in charge of the entire operating budget, Harris and his accounting staff work in concert with each department to maintain their individual budgets. He also supervises all general accounting activities, and ensures operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives.

Harris came to the Diamondbacks by way of the Phoenix Suns and the America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the Arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years.

A native of Winslow, an Arizona town that the Eagles made famous in the song "Take it Easy," Tom graduated in accounting from Arizona State University, and earned a Master's in Taxation from ASU in December 1992. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Away from the ballpark, Tom serves on the boards of Arizona Diamondbacks Charities and Esperanza, Inc. He is also an advisor to the Arizona State University MBA Sports Business Program. He and his wife, Kathleen, have three children, Sean, Sarah and Kelly and make their home in Phoenix.

Dianne Aguilar Vice President of Ticket Operations and Special Services

Dianne has 25 years of ticketing experience, which included an impressive array of sporting events in the Valley before joining the Diamondbacks. She supervised ticketing for Arizona State's 1987 Rose Bowl appearance, the NBA Finals, the opening of America West Arena and the NBA All-Star Game.

Born in Phoenix and a graduate of both Tempe High School and Arizona State University, her ticketing career began in the Athletic Ticket Office of ASU during her days as a student in 1976. While still a student, she was promoted to ticket manager and during her tenure, the Sun Devils played in the '87 Rose Bowl and Sun Devil Stadium was expanded to its current size.

In 1990, Dianne was named ticket manager for the Phoenix Suns and was later named Director of Ticket Operations for the move to America West Arena. One of her monumental tasks was determining seating assignments for season ticket holders from Veterans Memorial Coliseum into the new facility. This was a skill that came in handy during the seat selection process for the opening of Bank One Ballpark.

Dianne's favorite sport, baseball, was the one she had not worked and she jumped at the chance to join the Diamondbacks as V.P. of Ticket Operations and Special Services. Her responsibilities include supervision of all ticketing, the luxury suites at Bank One Ballpark, guest services, working with the ADA (American Disabilities Act) to ensure the stadium is handicap accessible and overseeing the Tours Department.

Mark Fernandez Vice President of Corporate Sales

Mark was promoted to his current role of Vice President of Corporate Sales in the spring of 2001, supervising all aspects of team sponsorship sales and execution, including new business development. He had spent nearly two seasons as the Diamondbacks' Vice President of Community Affairs. Though now involved on the sales side, Mark remains involved in the club's community efforts, including membership on the Diamondbacks Charities Board.

His initial responsibilities with the organization was a three-year stint as the Director of Operations in Tucson, representing both the Diamondbacks and the Chicago White Sox in the development and construction of Tucson Electric Park while establishing a marketing and community presence in southern Arizona.

Returning to the Arizona office of the Diamondbacks was a homecoming for Fernandez, who joined the America West Arena/Phoenix Suns organization in January, 1992, serving as Director of Marketing and Booking for the arena, setting numerous attendance records for national touring events. Mark also supervised guest services and was Director of Game Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports.

As is consistent with the majority of personnel with the Diamondbacks, Mark gives back when away from the office serving on the Board of Directors of the Valley of the Sun United Way, St. Joseph's Hospital, Cox Charities Christmas House and NCCJ. He and his wife, Trudie, and children, Grace, Jamie and Eden, make their home in Phoenix.

Scott Geyer

Vice President of Broadcasting

Scott's endless hours of work began in 1995 as he prepared the organization for its live television productions, as well as provided design insight into the construction of Bank One Ballpark from the media point of view. The Diamondbacks had the right man providing that information, as Geyer is in his 21st year of sports television, serving the club as the Director for each game telecast throughout the year.

Prior to his move to the Diamondbacks, Geyer spent 10 years as Producer/Director of the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of America West Arena since it opened in 1992. His baseball television resume includes directing a major league package for FOX Sports Net and a five-year stint directing AAA baseball in the Valley in the 1980's.

Scott and his wife Lisa have two sons, Adam (8) and Travis (5).

Rob Kiese

Vice President of Sales

Rob was promoted to his current role as Vice President of Sales during the off-season prior to the 2002 campaign. He has been with the Diamondbacks since 1996, joining the organization as a sales manager with the task of turning 42,000 season-ticket deposits into actual season-ticket holders. He was promoted to Director of Sales in 1997 and held that position until his most recent ascension.

A veteran of 16 years of event sales experience, Kiese was no stranger to the Phoenix sports scene prior to joining the Diamondbacks, making the move to the Valley from Houston in 1984 and joining the Phoenix Suns as a sales representative. He was promoted to sales manager in 1985 and stayed with the NBA franchise until joining the then Phoenix Cardinals as Director of Sales in 1989, working there through the 1993 season.

Rob was a 1978 graduate of Bowling Green State University. His first sales position was with the Alley Theatre in Houston, TX. He and his wife, Bobbi, who is an attorney in the Valley, make their home in central Phoenix. When away from their respective offices, Rob and Bobbi have played softball in the Phoenix Co-ed Rec League for the past 16 years. Kiese is on the Board of Directors for the American Red Cross Grand Canyon Chapter.

Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena Vice Presidents

Alvan Adams
Vice President - Facility Management*

As Alvan Adams makes his rounds at Bank One Ballpark and America West Arena, area fans recognize the former Phoenix Sun whose number "33" jersey hangs proudly at AWA. The Suns' first round choice in the 1975 draft, Alvan earned league Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1976 to jumpstart an outstanding NBA career.

Adams retired from the hardwood in 1988 but returned a year later having turned his attention to the development of America West Arena. He took on the same task with the construction of Bank One Ballpark in 1996. He was named to his present role in 1999, overseeing both sports and entertainment facilities.

Once he completed his NBA career, Alvan returned to the University of Oklahoma, earning a Bachelor's Degree. His civic involvement revolves around his interest in working with youth and the historic preservation of Phoenix.

Alvan and his wife, Sara, have two children, Justin and Emily, and make their home in Paradise Valley.

Russ Amaral
Vice President - Event Services*

Russ is in his third year as Vice President of Event Services after spending over two years as Director of Ballpark Services for Bank One Ballpark. His job scope entails him overseeing guest service issues and event operations at both the Ballpark, America West Arena and the newly constructed Dodge Theatre. He was the behind-the-scenes MVP for the Diamondbacks with his work in preparing Bank One Ballpark for the post-season, overseeing the transformation of interview rooms, auxiliary press seating and photo positions that are necessary for the large number of media that spent nearly a month in the Valley. He saw a World Series operation first-hand in 2000 when he was invited by Major League Baseball to assist with stadium operations at both Yankee and Shea Stadiums.

Amaral has been with the organization for 10 years, holding prior positions as a Guest Services Representative, department manager and Event Coordinator.

Prior to joining the company, Russ was one of the original employees at America West Airlines in Phoenix. He spent close to 10 years working a variety of positions, including the final two years as in-flight manager for B-747 onboard crews.

Amaral is a graduate of Oregon State University, earning a degree in Business Administration. He and his wife, Beverly, make their home in Phoenix.

George Bevans
Vice President - Security and Risk Management*

George is responsible for developing and implementing safety and security plans for Bank One Ballpark, America West Arena and the new Dodge Theatre. Utilizing over thirty years of experience, Bevans has designed and implemented security and safety plans for such major events as the NBA Finals, NBA All-Star Game, the 2001 World Series and numerous concerts and special events.

George began his career in 1968 as a military police officer and continues to provide his hands-on approach to solving organizational safety and security problems to this day.

William Bolt Vice President - Information Systems

When Bill joined the organization in 1991 as the Suns' Director of Information Systems, the computer count totaled five, but that figure has since grown to nearly 600 while he has been promoted to Vice President. He oversees the computer needs for all entities of both Bank One Ballpark, America West Arena and the new Dodge Theatre.

Bill's role with the Diamondbacks and Suns is not his first work in professional sports, spending five seasons as the Director of Information Systems for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings. Bolt split his formative years between Detroit, MI, and Cleveland, OH, growing up fans of both the Tigers and Indians. He then attended the University of Minnesota.

Bill and his wife, Kathie, make their home in north Scottsdale.

Bob Nanberg Vice President - Merchandising

Bob joined the Team Shop in May, 1998, bringing 32 years of retail experience with Major National Retailers. He was the Principal in a national women's accessory chain from 1986-95.

In addition to the Team Shop, Nanberg is involved with the Salvation Army, Arizona Humane Society and Sunshine Acres Children's Home.

Bob and his wife, Cheryl, have two grown sons, and two dogs.

Tom O'Malley Vice President and General Counsel

Tom is in his third season with the Diamondbacks as the chief legal officer as well as the organization's other entities, the Phoenix Suns, the Phoenix Mercury, Arizona Rattlers, America West Arena and Team Shops.

O'Malley worked for the law firm Fennemore Craig and represented businesses in all facets of commercial law. While with the firm Gallagher and Kennedy he assisted in the drafting of documents for Bank One Ballpark and also worked on cases related to trademark infringement, fraud and breach of contract. O'Malley was founder of Insight Computers, growing the company from five employees to multi-million dollars in sales in just four years.

O'Malley graduated from the University of Kansas in 1987 before attending University of Arizona Law School. He and his wife, Laura, are the parents of Erin (5) and Tara (4).

Paige Peterson General Manager of Bank One Ballpark

As the General Manager of Sports and Entertainment Services, LLC, Paige oversees all operations of Bank One Ballpark and the America West Arena. He joined the organization in 1995 as Controller of America West Arena, where his responsibilities included budgeting, financial reporting and settlement of events held at the arena. In 1998, he took the initiative to lead the refinancing of the arena's debt, successfully saving the arena and City of Phoenix millions of dollars.

Prior to coming on board, Paige spent four years in public accounting with Arthur Andersen in Phoenix. He graduated from the University of Arizona, earning a degree in accounting and finance.

Paige and his wife, Jody, have a son, Rex, and make their home in Phoenix.

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 210

Age: 48

Born: February 25, 1954 in Coshocton, OH

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

Former Position: Catcher

15

PHENOMENAL FIRST YEAR—If someone would have told some managers in spring training that they were going to lose their closer (Matt Mantei) and 40% of their starting rotation (Todd Stottlemyre and Armando Reynoso) before the second month of the year was over, that manager might not have believed deep down a World Series title was achievable...that was far from the mindset of Bob Brenly's debut season at the helm, as he attacked every day the same way, convincing himself, his coaches, players and anyone else who would listen that the 2001 club could win it all...Brenly's rookie campaign in the hot seat was nothing short of brilliant as he led the Diamondbacks to the World Series title in the organization's fourth year of operation...capped by the memorable ninth inning comeback in the seventh game against the Yankees, Brenly became the fourth skipper in history with no previous managerial experience to win the Fall Classic, first since Ralph Houk called the shots for the Bronx Bombers in 1961 against Cincinnati...Bucky Harris (1924-Senators) and Eddie Dyer (1946-Cardinals) complete the foursome of first-year success stories who won World Series titles...Brenly was the first rookie manager to reach the Series since Jim Frey led Kansas City against the Phillies in 1980, and the first in the National League since Sparky Anderson of the 1970 Reds...B.B. was also the 20th overall manager to take a team to the World Series in his first full year at the helm, the ninth in the N.L....Arizona's wins in games 1 and 2 of the Series made Brenly the only manager with no previous experience to win his first 2 World Series games...he employed a "hot hand" approach to managing, taking advantage of matchups and at times playing hunches, then continued those tactics throughout the post-season...he used 123 different lineup combinations during the regular season followed by 15 different lineups out of 17 games in the post-season...his approach not only enabled his veteran club strategic rest during the year, but gave opportunities to players like Craig Counsell and Danny Bautista, each of whom flourished during the post-season...no better example of Brenly's style prevailed during the World Series when he chose to put Bautista in the lineup after spending the majority of the season as an extra, and the outfielder responded by hitting .583 (7-for-12) in 5 games against the Yankees...also part of the Brenly approach when the year began was to attempt to eliminate unnecessary innings for his 1-2 punch of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, and the theory paid off with the duo combining to go 9-1 with a 1.30 ERA in the post-season capped by sharing the MVP honors in the World Series...in finishing as the last team standing, the Brenly-led Diamondbacks raised the trophy in a major league record fourth season, a year quicker than the 1997 Florida Marlins...he was also the first rookie skipper to reach a League Championship Series since Toronto's Cito Gaston in 1989, and the first to reach an NLCS since Houston's Hal Lanier in 1986.

ALL-STAR SKIPPER—By virtue of winning the pennant, Bob will manage the 2002 National League All-Star team in Milwaukee.

KNOCK ON WOOD—From the "now it can be told" department, Brenly made it through his entire playing career without being the least bit superstitious, but the run to the world title didn't come without "knuckling under"...the cliché "knock on wood" became reality when he tapped his desk one afternoon during a discussion about what the future held for the Diamondbacks, and the club maintained its division leading pace...as the post-season arrived the ritual continued into the dugout, as Brenly would go to the bat rack and tap on a bat when he felt it necessary to keep positive thoughts...from there he decided to just grab a bat and set it next to him in the dugout, including the lumber of Craig Counsell during his MVP run in the NLCS and Danny Bautista's bat while he was riding a hot streak during the World Series.

FROM THE BOOTH TO THE BENCH—Bob was named the second manager in franchise history when he took over the reins on October 30, 2000, signing a 3-year pact...he became the first manager to go from covering the World Series as a broadcaster to managing in a World Series...Bob's broadcast career began immediately following his retirement as a player, joining the WGN radio crew in Chicago and working alongside Thom Brennaman and Harry Caray for two seasons...Brenly took advantage of an opportunity to return to uniform in 1992, joining Roger Craig's staff as bullpen coach with San Francisco...after Craig's departure he remained on Dusty Baker's staff for the first 3 years of Baker's lengthy stay with the Giants...Bob went to spring training for a fourth year as a coach in 1996, but a couple of weeks into camp received a phone call from his old running mate in Chicago, when Brennaman advised him of the opportunity at FOX...a flight to Los Angeles and a rehearsal tape later, Brenly was once again leaving the uniform for the broadcast booth...Bob's insight into the game earned him annual work in the FOX booth for all of the network's marquee baseball events including the All-Star Game, League Championship Series and World Series coverage...when Brennaman was named to describe the action for the expansion Diamondbacks, he made the recommendation of bringing his network TV partner to Arizona and the duo was together when the club debuted in 1998...the 2001 season also saw the move of Buck Martinez from the booth to the bench in Toronto.

PLAYING CAREER—Bob signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Giants after graduating from Ohio University in 1976...after 5+ years of minor league action, including the better part of 2 seasons with the Phoenix Giants, he was summoned to San Francisco in August, 1981, making his big league debut just a couple of hours away from his hometown of Coshocton, OH, when he played in Cincinnati on August 14...while that was a memorable day in his life, his debut at bat in Candlestick Park on August 28 made an even bigger splash when he homered off Pittsburgh's Rod Scurry...his 1982 season started slowly after breaking his collarbone in spring training but when Brenly appeared for the first time on May 14 he delivered a 2-out single in the eighth inning to break up Steve Carlton's bid for a no-hitter...Bob made a solid impression to open the 1983 season, homering and knocking in 4 on Opening Day, but his most consistent work offensively lasted the entire 1984 campaign...he established career bests in virtually every category, finishing with a .291 average with 28 doubles, 20 homers and 80 RBI...he hit .316 in the first half and was named to the N.L. All-Star team allowing him to play before the home crowd at Candlestick Park in the Midsummer Classic...his season climaxed when he was voted winner of the Willie Mac Award by his teammates...the '84 season also featured his first career grand slam off of Atlanta's Pete Falcone on June 6 in Candlestick...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for August 20-26, hitting .440 with 4 homers and 14 RBI...he started the following week with an inside-the-park, game-winning home run at Montreal on August 29...Bob was Giants' Player-of-the-Month for August, hitting .312 with 8 homers and 29 RBI...though he never duplicated the numbers of 1984, Brenly recorded 73 home runs over a 4-year stretch from 1984-87...with 19 home runs in 1985, he was the first Giant catcher to lead the team in homers in 100 years when Buck Ewing hit 6 of the team's 16 in 1885...the 1986 season had its share of high points, but he will often be remembered for a game on September 14 against Atlanta that was full of the highs and the lows...on that afternoon, B.B. became just the fourth player since 1900 to commit 4 errors in an inning...playing third base, he was charged with 3 fielding and 1 throwing miscue in the fourth inning, but he reciprocated by knocking in 4 runs on 3 hits, featuring 2 home runs including a game-ending blast off of Paul Assenmacher...for the second time in his career he victimized a potential no-hitter by a Phillie hurler, breaking up Don Carman's bid for a perfect game with a leadoff double in the ninth inning on August 20...Bob had his fourth and final double-digit homer season in 1987, featuring a 3-run pinch-hit home run in Candlestick Park on May 12 off St. Louis' Ricky Horton, the 500th hit of Brenly's career...he had blasted the second grand slam of his career just 2 days earlier off of Houston's Mike Scott...his last home run of the year was a 10th inning game-winner to beat Atlanta on the final day of the season, and was the 205th blast by the Giants in 1987 to set a team record...Brenly started 5 games of the NLCS against St. Louis, delivering a home run in Game #4 off of Danny Cox...Bob never got it going offensively in 1988 hitting just .189 in 73 games...he delivered his sixth career 2-homer game on May 8 at Wrigley Field and tied a career-best with 5 RBI on August 7 in Atlanta...1989 was his last as a player and began as a free agent signee in Toronto...he was used mainly as a DH, playing in 48 games before given his unconditional release on July 23...his last big league homer and lone A.L. shot took place on June 14 in Milwaukee off of Mark Knudson...Brenly signed a AAA contract with the Giants affiliate in Phoenix, hitting .255 in 27 games for the Firebirds before his contract was purchased by San Francisco on August 31...the home folks welcomed Brenly back with a standing ovation as he came to the plate for his first at bat on September 2, and he responded with an RBI double off of Frank Viola...he delivered a game-winning RBI in the 12th inning at Candlestick on September 14 off the Reds' Norm Charlton.

PERSONAL—Robert Earl (Bob) Brenly...he and his wife, Joan, have a daughter, Lacey (7/9/82) and son, Michael (10/14/86) and make their home in Scottsdale...Bob was a 1972 graduate of Coshocton (OH) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...he then graduated from Ohio University in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science in Health Education while starring on the baseball diamond, earning All-American honors for his senior season after tying Mike Schmidt's school record for home runs (10)...Brenly was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame on October 29, 1988...known for his television work prior to becoming a World Series winner, Bob actually got his first taste of working in the media while still active as a player with the Giants, hosting "The Bob Brenly Show" after every Giants game in 1988...he was also active with the ALS Society during his career, serving as an honorary chairman...away from the ballpark Bob relaxes by playing the guitar, riding his motorcycle and partaking in an occasional round of golf...he participated in the Phoenix Open Silver Pro-Am in January teaming with touring pro Steve Lowery.

Dwayne Murphy

Hitting Coach

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 220

Age: 47

Born: March 18, 1955 in Merced, CA

Residence: Chandler, AZ

Former Position: Outfielder

21

COACHING CAREER—An organizational original, Murph is in his fifth season on the major league coaching staff and his second as the club's hitting coach...he joined the Diamondbacks in 1996 as manager of the Arizona Rookie League entry, then spent the '97 season as a coach at High Desert (A), as the Mavericks won the California League title...Murph followed that with a stint as the first base and outfield coach for the Grand Canyon Rafter in the Arizona Fall League, then joined the big league club in 1998...he spent his first 3 seasons with the Diamondbacks as the outfield and first base coach, employing his defensive expertise to a group of outfielders that features 4-time Rawlings Gold Glove honoree Steve Finley...Murph was also behind the success of a pair of position switches when Tony Womack and Travis Lee each made successful transitions from infielders to outfielders...Murph was a daily fixture at Bank One Ballpark during the winter working with hitters.

PLAYING CAREER—Recognized as one of the top centerfielders in the game during his time, Murph has the hardware to show for his efforts...he was a 6-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, procuring all of them in consecutive seasons from 1980-85 with the Oakland A's...he spent 12 years in the majors, the first 10 of which were with the Athletics before finishing up in 1988 and 1989 with Detroit and Philadelphia, respectively...though his offensive numbers didn't make the same headlines that his glove work commanded, Murph delivered 166 home runs and 609 RBI...he was named to The Sporting News All-Star team in 1981, leading the A.L. in game-winning RBI...he enjoyed a 33-home run season in 1984 with the A's, knocking in 88 runs, while posting 27 homers and 94 RBI in 1982...he also ended his playing career with 100 stolen bases, twice pilfering 26 in a season...Murph was part of an unusual trivia question in 1980, as he and Wayne Gross each stole home in the first inning of a game vs. Kansas City on May 28.

PERSONAL—Dwayne Keith Murph...he and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Dwayne (5/12/73) and Scott (11/23/74), and a daughter, Christina (9/2/79) and make their home in Chandler...Murph played for one season in Japan in 1990 with the Yakult Swallows, then returned stateside to coach football...a 3-sport athlete at Antelope Valley (CA) High School, football landed him a scholarship to Arizona State, but he turned it down to sign with the Athletics in 1973...he returned to the gridiron in 1991 at Monte Vista (CA) High School, coaching the freshman team, then the junior varsity the following season before taking over the head coach position at California High School from 1993-95...he then returned to baseball, joining the Diamondbacks' organization...an avid golfer, Murph can oftentimes be found on one of the many courses in the Valley.

Third Base Coach

Ht: 5-8

Wt: 170

Age: 43

Born: March 11, 1959 in Havana, Cuba

Residence: Mesa, AZ

Former Position: Infielder

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER—Eddie makes a move across the diamond this year to become the third base coach, a position he is familiar with by filling in there last summer when Chris Speier underwent knee surgery...the third base coaching box was also where E-Rod was stationed for the 2000 Gold Medal winning U.S. Olympic team managed by Tommy Lasorda...2001 was Rodriguez's initial campaign with the D'Backs serving as the first base coach where he greeted Luis Gonzalez after his ninth inning single in Game #7 of the World Series fell untouched into short left-center which ignited the celebration...Eddie took a late-July leave of absence from his managerial role with Queens in 2000, one of Toronto's short-season A clubs, to handle the Olympic coaching chores...Rodriguez joined the Olympians in San Diego for workouts then made the trek down-under where the squad went 7-1 featuring a 4-0 win over Cuba to bring home the Gold...Eddie was in the midst of his second season at Queens after joining the Blue Jays' chain in 1998 as the third base coach for the big league club...prior to arriving in Toronto he spent 15 years in the Angels' organization dating back to Peoria (A) of the Midwest League in 1983...he was twice employed as a player/coach, doing double-duty with Waterbury in 1984 (64 games) and appearing in 9 games during a coaching stint with Quad Cities in 1986...he got his first test as a manager in 1986, serving as the skipper at Quad Cities from 1987-89, then managed at Midland (Texas League) in 1990...Rodriguez was tabbed as the minor league roving defense coordinator from 1991-93, then completed his extended stint with the Angels' chain as their field coordinator from 1994-97.

PLAYING CAREER—Eddie's playing career spanned 6 minor league seasons after signing in 1978 with Baltimore as a January draft selection...he hit a professional-high .289 in his first season with Bluefield (A) in the Appalachian League...he spent the entire 1979 season with Miami and opened the following campaign there, but was moved to Redwood...Rodriguez spent 1981 with Holyoke and was released after the season.

PERSONAL—Eduardo (Eddie) Rodriguez...he and his wife, Mavelin, and son, Joshua (2/14/88), make their home in Mesa, AZ...a native of Havana, Cuba, he graduated from Miami Senior High School in 1977 then attended Miami Dade South Junior College...Rodriguez was selected by Minnesota in the 1977 June draft, but chose not to sign until the following January when Baltimore made him a draft choice.

Wt: 200

Age: 41 (Turns 42 on September 26)

Born: September 26, 1960 in Nahant, MA

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

COACHING CAREER—Glenn is in his fifth season as the bullpen/catching coach, his 22nd overall year in pro ball...his work with the catchers includes drilling them on balls in the dirt, fielding bunts in front of the plate, and throwing to the bases...once the games begin, Glenn keeps track of the opposing team's lineup card allowing relievers to be prepared for the situation when they enter the game...he came to Arizona as the roving catching instructor in 1996 and worked with the minor league catchers in the system prior to the inaugural big league season...he was also tapped for his knowledge and experience during the start-up phase, when the D'Backs were assembled via the expansion draft...a longtime Yankee, Glenn was catching instructor in the Bronx twice, working in the pen in 1992, then once again in 1994 and '95...all told, he was employed for 10 seasons in the Yankee chain either as a minor league player, coach or manager...originally signed by the Astros as their 21st pick in the '83 June draft, he set a NY-Penn League record during his first year for double plays by a catcher...after 4 seasons, Sherlock signed as a free agent with New York, playing for 3 years in their system...he was part of 4 titles as a player, including his final year in 1989, which was also his first taste of the instructional phase, serving as player/coach for Albany (AA), though appearing in just a game...he managed at Tampa in 1990 then led Ft. Lauderdale in '91, and was named a coach for the F.S.L. All-Star Game... Glenn was the catching instructor for the big league club in 1992, then returned to Tampa to manage that club in '93 while also working as an organizational instructor...his 3-year minor league managerial record wrapped up at 121-128 (.486)...he went "down-under" to hone his managerial skills in the winter of 1993, leading the Canberra Bushrangers in the Australian Baseball League.

PERSONAL—Glenn Patrick Sherlock...he and his wife, Lisa, son, Tim (11/30/86), and daughter, Cara (11/4/90), make their home in Scottsdale, AZ...Glenn graduated in 1979 from St. John's Prep in Danvers, MA, earning All-State baseball honors while also playing football...he then earned a B.A. degree in environmental studies at Rollins (FL) College, while playing baseball...Glenn was honored with the Rollins College Hall of Fame Achievement Award and earned Sunshine State All-Star status...he also played ball for 3 summers in the Yarmouth-Dennis Cape Cod League...he operates a catchers camp in the Valley during the off-season.

Robin Yount

First Base Coach

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 180

Age: 46 (Turns 47 on September 16)

Born: September 16, 1955 in Danville, CA

Residence: Paradise Valley, AZ

Former Position: Infielder/Outfielder

COACHING CAREER—Robin has spent the majority of his time since retiring as an active player with his family and working with his son Dustin, who embarked on a professional career as the ninth round draft choice of the Baltimore Orioles last June...this is Robin's first full-time coaching position though he spent several springs instructing Brewer outfielders in major league camp.

HALL OF FAMER—Robin spent his entire 20-year major league career as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers, breaking in as an 18-year old shortstop and finishing up in 1993 as an outfielder with an all expenses paid trip to Cooperstown just around the corner...he was formally elected into the Baseball Hall of Fame on January 5, 1999, in a class that included fellow first ballot inductees Nolan Ryan and George Brett...it marked the first time since the first election in 1936 that 3 players on the ballot for the first time were elected to the Hall in the same season...in 1936, Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Babe Ruth and Honus Wagner were all in the first Hall of Fame class...Yount became the fourth former Brewer to enter the Hall, joining Hank Aaron, Don Sutton and Rollie Fingers, but the first to enter donning a Brewer hat...at age 43, Robin was the youngest inductee since Johnny Bench entered Cooperstown at the age of 42 in 1989...his playing career was also immortalized in Milwaukee's Miller Park as a member of the inaugural class of the Walk-of-Fame and with a statue outside the new ballpark.

PLAYING CAREER—Robin's 20-year career ended in 1993 with 3,142 hits in the books and a pair of American League Most Valuable Player awards...he won the honor while playing a pair of different positions, first earning the vote as the Milwaukee shortstop during their World Series season of 1982, then again as the Brew Crew's centerfielder in 1989...he was just the third player in major league history to win MVP awards at 2 different positions, joining immortals Stan Musial and Hank Greenberg...Yount's professional career began with a quick 1-year stint with Newark in 1973, then he was summoned to the Brewers at the tender age of 18 in 1974 and never saw the minors again...a lifetime .285 hitter, Robin eclipsed the .300 mark 6 times in his career, topping out at .331 during his first MVP season of 1982...he led the A.L. in doubles (46) and hits (210) in '82 while finishing with a career-high 29 home runs and 114 RBI...Yount followed the regular season with a .414 (12-for-29) effort in the 7-game World Series against the Redbirds...his second MVP season featured a .318 mark in 160 games with 21 homers and 103 RBI...he was named by USA Today as the Player-of-the-Decade for the 1980's...Robin became the third youngest player to record 3,000 hits when he singled off of Cleveland's Jose Mesa on September 9, 1992, at the age of 36 years, 11 months and 24 days...only Ty Cobb and Hank Aaron were younger when they recorded career hit #3,000...Yount called it a career after the 1993 season as the Brewers leader in virtually every offensive category...he was a 3-time All-Star (1980, '82 and '83) and won a Rawlings Gold Glove for his work at shortstop in 1982...he made the move to the outfield in 1985 after undergoing shoulder surgery the previous November...Robin's first outfield experience was in left, but on July 11, 1985, he moved over to centerfield and remained there for the rest of his career...not surprisingly, Yount was named the Brewers' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1974...he collected the first of his 3,142 hits on April 12, 1974, off of Baltimore's Dave McNally...he is the only 4-time winner of Milwaukee's MVP award (1982, '87, '88 and '89)...Robin earned the Brewers' President's Award for meritorious service representing the club both on and off the field with exemplary conduct in 1991.

PERSONAL—Robin R. Yount...he and his wife, Michele, and daughters, Melisa, Amy and Jenna, and son, Dustin, make their home in Paradise Valley...Robin was a 1973 graduate of Taft High School in Woodland Hills, CA, where he lettered in baseball and football...he earned All-League, All-City and Player-of-the-Year honors for his prep work on the diamond...he was Milwaukee's first round choice in the 1973 June draft...his brother, Larry, pitched in the Milwaukee and Houston organizations from 1968-75.

Behind The Seams

Paul Lessard
Head Athletic Trainer

The Diamondback training room has been a true test of Paul's abilities as not only a trainer but his expertise in rehabilitation, as he and partner Dave Edwards have excelled at getting players back on the field. The work by the training staff is enhanced by one of the top medical facilities in any professional sports venue, featuring a room dedicated to hydro-therapy and an in-house X-Ray machine with technicians.

Paul's five years of work with the Diamondbacks is his first major league action, but not his first baseball experience, breaking in with the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees in 1987. Prior to returning to baseball, Lessard had a 10-year career as a trainer in collegiate athletics.

The 39-year old Lessard graduated from Northeastern University with a degree in athletic training. He spent two years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Atlanta Falcons, then went to work in the Yankees' chain before returning to the college ranks. Paul was the senior athletic trainer at Boston University from 1988-94, then served as the head athletic trainer at Holy Cross University from 1994-97.

A native of Stamford, CT, he serves as a certification exam coordinator for the NATA and is a member of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Organization of Massachusetts. Paul has a pair of daughters, Grace and Anne.

Dave Edwards
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Dave is in his fifth season as the assistant athletic trainer with the major league club, though he's one of the organization originals, working for a pair of minor league seasons. The 36-year old's baseball training career started in the Arizona chain in 1996 for the Rookie League entry, then it was on to High Desert, working for the California League champs in 1997. Edwards' bilingual skills are a terrific asset in the training room, eliminating any potential medical communication difficulties with Spanish speaking players, as well as serving part-time as an interpreter.

A native of Deming, NM, Edwards received a degree in athletic training from New Mexico State University in 1988. During his final days at New Mexico State, Dave began plying his trade in pro baseball with Pocatello and Everett in the Giants' chain from 1987-90. He earned his Master's in athletic training from the University of Nevada in 1991, then returned to the Valley as the head athletic trainer at Grand Canyon University from 1991-96. He was also the assistant trainer for three seasons for the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League.

Dave is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dave is in his third full season with the big league club, joining the championship squad at mid-stream in 1999 and remaining here since. His Diamondback career began as the minor league strength and conditioning coordinator in 1998, designing both winter and in-season programs for all minor league players. Page also trained and supervised the strength coaches for each affiliate, and worked specifically with the Tucson Sidewinders until his move to Phoenix.

His baseball strength coaching career began in the Marlins' chain, administering an in-season program with the Portland Sea Dogs in the Eastern League, also serving as their bullpen coach.

A four-year baseball letterman at the University of Southern Maine in Gorham, Dave received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1989. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and completed a sports medicine internship in 1997.

Dave and his wife Lori have a son, Jackson, and make their home in Tempe.

Dr. Michael Lee Head Team Physician

Last year was Dr. Lee's first full season as the Head Team Physician after assisting the organization with its orthopedic needs for five years. In his current role, Dr. Lee oversees a support team of orthopedists and primary care physicians to provide whole-spectrum medical care to the entire Diamondbacks organization. He is board certified in orthopedic surgery and is an active member of the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association.

He had previously taken care of other major league clubs, as well as serving as orthopedic consultant to the Arizona State University sports teams. Dr. Lee grew up in Phoenix, then graduated from the University of California-San Diego and attended the University of Arizona, where he completed Master's coursework in Exercise Physiology, graduating from the College of Medicine with honors in 1988. He completed his orthopedic residency at the University of Kansas, then was awarded a Sports Medicine fellowship with the University of Illinois School of Medicine.

Dr. Lee returned to Phoenix eight years ago with his wife, Martha, and three children, Conor (20), Allison (18) and Brendan (17).

Dr. Roger McCoy Team Physician

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the Diamondbacks' family since the organization's start-up, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the '98 major league season. He is a Board Certified Family Physician with special training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school.

Aside from his responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he is also team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

Greg Latta Head Minor League Trainer/Rehabilitation Coordinator

Greg joined the Diamondbacks at the end of the 2000 season as the club's coordinator of rehabilitation and minor league head trainer. Working out of the Tucson complex, 42-year old Latta continues the work he did most recently for the Chicago White Sox minor league system.

After graduating from Western Michigan University in 1982, Greg took his degree in education and went in another direction, being hired by the White Sox and assigned to their AA team in Glens Falls, NY. He moved up to AAA in 1985 and through 1997 made stops in Buffalo, Hawaii, Vancouver and Nashville before making his way to Tucson and settling in as the minor league head trainer and rehab coordinator for the Sox.

Greg and his wife, Sue, and son, Nicholas, make their home in Tucson.

Bob Doty

Visiting Clubhouse/Equipment Manager

A native San Diegan, Bob made a tough decision but made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, assuming the same role he held in San Diego for a dozen seasons. Adept in all phases of the equipment operation, Doty is also in charge of ordering and stocking equipment for the major league and minor league clubs. He joined the Diamondbacks after a 20-year stay in his hometown with the Padres.

The role of the visiting clubhouse attendant is an all-encompassing position including unpacking each team when their equipment arrives at Bank One Ballpark, regardless of the time of day, while also cleaning all of the uniforms and making sure the clubhouse is properly catered for the visiting players.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Bob and his wife Angie have a pair of daughters, Lauren and Sarah, and make their home in Phoenix.

Clubhouse Video Operations

Jim Currigan and Chris Carlock provide the players and coaches with all of the video material necessary to hone their games or scout upcoming opponents. The duo is responsible for taping every game the Diamondbacks play as well as the games available on satellite of the opposition to help in game preparation.

Currigan has been with the Diamondbacks since their inception, but in 2001 assumed his new role as video coordinator. A member of the organization's in-house television production crew since 1997, Currigan was a 1997 Broadcast Journalism graduate of Arizona State University. He and his wife Mary, and newborn son, Riley James (5/4/01) make their home in Phoenix.

Carlock, who travels with the club during the entire regular season, was a 1999 graduate of Arizona State University with a BA in Broadcast Journalism. Raised in Suisun, CA, his Diamondback career began as a production assistant on the Emmy award winning "D'Backs Playin' Hardball." He is single and resides in Phoenix.

Tony Dello

Pitch Chart

Jeff Motuzas

Bullpen Catcher

The behind-the-scenes uniform roles go to a pair who get the full workout during the course of a day, either home or road, in Tony Dello and Jeff Motuzas.

Dello, a Chicago, IL, native, is in his fourth season of throwing batting practice from the left side for the D'Backs, hitting pre-game ground balls, then taking a shower and heading into the seats behind home plate to chart every pitch of the ball game. He was a 1985 graduate of Woodstock High School in Chicago, then played for two seasons at Los Angeles Pierce Junior College in Woodland Hills, CA, earning all-league honors, and for two years at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA.

Motuzas also throws batting practice every day, then puts the gear on and heads to the bullpen where he warms up relievers and outfielders during the contest. He became one of the more publicized BP pitchers last summer when he was the pitcher in the All-Star Home Run Derby won by Diamondback Luis Gonzalez. Formerly a catcher in the Yankees' chain, Jeff was a 13th round pick of New York in 1990 after earning All-American status at Nashua (NH) High School.

Tony and Jeff spend an abundance of the "off-season" at Bank One Ballpark available to the players who choose to use the stadium facilities and batting cage during the winter months.

Both are single and make their off-season homes in Phoenix.

HOW OBTAINED

Selected from the Cleveland Indians as the first choice in the first round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Brian had a tough regular season finishing with a 4-9 mark and 5.20 ERA while twice going on the disabled list...he closed the year in a relief role with his last 6 outings coming out of the pen...his relief work toward the end included a key game at home on October 4, just 4 days from the end of the season...he entered with Arizona leading 5-3 and a man aboard, but retired 7 of the 8 men he faced over 2.1 innings to record the win, his first since July 22, and first in relief since August 29, 1999...his year began with consecutive losses to the Dodgers in which he allowed 11 earned runs over 7.0 innings...his first disabling injury occurred 2 days before his third scheduled start when he awoke on the morning of April 20 with a low back strain...the back injury could actually have been a blessing in disguise, as Anderson had been bothered since his final spring training tune-up with an injury to his left thumb, the result of a line drive off of Glenallen Hill's bat in an exhibition game against Anaheim on March 31...he tried to pitch through the thumb bruise, but once he was shelved with the back strain he was afforded time for the thumb injury to heal...after a rehab start on April 27, Brian returned to work on May 2 in Montreal, allowing 3 runs (1 earned) over 5.0 innings, suffering a 4-3 loss...he followed with a pair of no decisions before finally breaking into the win column on May 17 at Cincinnati, but the 7-2 triumph was far from routine...the game took nearly 6 hours to complete due to a 2-hour, 53-minute rain delay, with B.A. working 3.0 innings prior to the showers, allowing a second inning 2-run homer to Jason LaRue, then returning for 3.0 shutout frames once play resumed...he followed that with a 12-8 win at home over the Giants on May 22, but that would be his last victory for exactly 2 months as he went 0-3 in 6 starts and had another stint on the disabled list...Brian was performing well at the time of the second injury, allowing just 1 earned run over 7.0 innings of a no decision at San Diego on May 27...he followed 5 days later on June 2 with 6.1 shutout innings against the Padres before leaving with a left groin strain that occurred on a pitch to Ryan Klesko...Brian had allowed only 3 hits with no walks and 3 K's in a game the D'Backs eventually won, 2-1, but returned to the D.L. immediately and was out of action until a AAA rehab assignment on June 26...he was reactivated for a start on July 1 against Colorado, working 7.0 frames of a no decision that the D'Backs won 5-4 in 13 innings...Anderson then lost consecutive starts to the A's, Angels and Mariners in interleague play, as the D'Backs could muster only 2 runs in the 3 games combined...the most dominating performance against him was the 3-0 loss at home to Oakland, as Mark Mulder was perfect until Danny Bautista's eighth inning single which was Arizona's only runner of the night...Brian snapped his 2-month victory drought in San Francisco on July 22 with 8.0 innings in a 12-4 triumph, retiring the first 12 Giants he faced until they struck for back-to-back-to-back homers to open the fifth...unfortunately, it was Anderson's last win until October 4, going 0-3 in a 6-start stretch that resulted in a move from the rotation to the bullpen after a loss in Philadelphia on August 24...Brian led the pitching staff with 8 pickoffs and has nabbed 34 runners since joining the D'Backs for the 1998 season.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Brian made 4 appearances for the Diamondbacks, working 3 times in relief before incurring a tough 2-1 loss as the starter in Game #3 of the World Series against Roger Clemens and the Yankees...on an evening that began with President George W. Bush throwing out the first pitch, Anderson allowed 2 runs on 5 hits over 5.1 innings in the Bronx, finishing with 107 pitches in his longest outing since working 6.0 frames on August 31...B.A. earned the opportunity to start in the Fall Classic after an outstanding relief performance in Game #4 of the NLCS in Atlanta, posting an 11-4 win to give the D'Backs a 3-1 lead in the series...he entered in relief of Albie Lopez and worked 3.1 innings allowing a run on 4 hits for his first post-season victory since October 15, 1997, in the ALCS with Cleveland over Baltimore...Brian was called upon in consecutive games in St. Louis in relief during the Division Series against the Cardinals, working an inning in Arizona's 5-3 win in Game #3, then tossing 3.0 shutout frames the following afternoon in Game #4, a contest the D'Backs eventually dropped, 4-1...all told, B.A. was 1-1 with a 2.84 ERA in 4 post-season appearances allowing 4 earned runs over 12.2 innings...his career post-season numbers feature a 2-1 ledger and 2.43 ERA with 8 earned runs surrendered over 29.2 frames.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Brian opened the year going 5-0 through 10 starts to extend his personal winning streak to 11 straight dating back to July 24, 1999...in that span he was the starting pitcher in 17 consecutive Arizona victories tying the Yankees' Whitey Ford (1961) for the third longest streak in the post expansion era (since 1961) according to Elias Sports Bureau...only Tom Filer (1982-88 with the Cubs, Blue Jays and Brewers) and Chuck Finley (1997-98 with Anaheim) had longer streaks...B.A. finished second in the N.L. in fewest walks per 9-innings with a 1.6 mark...had a streak of 117 consecutive batters faced without issuing a walk (May 12-June 7)...he led the staff with 10 pickoff/caught stealings, tying Al Leiter and John Halama for the major league lead...he finished with 14 no decisions, tops among all N.L. starting pitchers. 1999—He opened the year in the pen and was 0-1 with a save in his first 8 appearances, allowing 11 earned runs in 10.1 innings (9.58 ERA)...the save was the first regular season rescue of his career, working the final 3.1 innings vs. the Giants on April 16...he was optioned to AAA on May 8, made a pair of starts, then returned to the big league club 12 days later to replace the injured Todd Stottlemyre in the rotation...Brian tossed a 3-hitter in a 4-0 win at home over the Cubs on August 17, his second career shutout...he closed the year with a career-high 6-game winning streak with a 2.09 ERA, spanning 13 appearances (9 starts)...he also contributed with the long ball, hitting the first of his major league career on August 4 at home, taking Mark Gardner deep in an 8-4 win over the Giants...he went 7-0 at home with a 2.97 ERA in 18 outings (12 starts). DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Brian made his only post-season appearance of '99 in the fourth game of the series against the Mets, tossing 7.0 outstanding innings in Shea Stadium on October 9...he allowed a pair of runs on 7 hits, with no walks and 4 K's in a 7-inning performance in what proved to be the deciding game of the series, as Arizona fell by a 4-3 count in 10 innings. 1998—Arizona's first choice in the expansion draft, he led the majors by allowing just 1.0 walk per 9-innings, surrendering 24 freebies, besting Rick Reed and Jose Lima (1.2) in the N.L., and David Wells (1.2) in the A.L....he closed the year with 1 walk in his last 6 starts, featuring a streak of 156 consecutive batters faced between free passes...Anderson picked off 12, tying Florida's Jesus Sanchez and Detroit's Justin Thompson for the major league lead...he tossed the first complete-game shutout of his career, a 3-hitter in Pittsburgh that resulted in a 1-0 decision...the home run ball was his achilles heel, allowing 39, tying Colorado's Pedro Astacio for most in the majors...he was voted the initial winner of the team "Good Guy" Award by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA. 1997—Injuries made for a slow start to the year, missing a shot at Cleveland's opening day roster with a left knee sprain, then served disabled time with left shoulder tendinitis in mid-July. POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: After an idle Division Series, he combined the ALCS and World Series for 10.0 innings of relief in 6 appearances, allowing 2 earned runs for a 1.80 ERA...he appeared 3 times vs. the Orioles in the LCS, earning the victory in the deciding sixth game, fanning a pair in the 10th inning, then watched as Tony Fernandez snapped a scoreless tie with an 11th inning homer...was used 3 times vs. the Marlins in the World Series, earning the save in game #4, working the final 3.0 innings of a 10-3 Tribe win. 1996—Was acquired by Cleveland from the Angels on February 15 and had 3 stints with the Indians...his work in Buffalo (AAA) earned him lefthanded pitcher honors on the American Association Post-Season All-Star team. 1995—Made 18 appearances (17 starts) for Angels, despite missing over 6 weeks after straining a left biceps in a May 5 start vs. Seattle...posted his first major league complete game, a 6-hit, 13-3 win on July 22 vs. Detroit...he tied a major league record by surrendering 4 homers in an 8-pitch sequence in the second inning of an 8-0 loss at Baltimore on Sept. 5. 1994—Opened the year with Vancouver (AAA), but was recalled on April 9 after Mark Langston was diagnosed with bone chips in his elbow...B.A. earned his first major league win the day after his recall, 4-1 in Milwaukee...was injured on May 6 when Oakland's Geronimo Berroa hit a first inning grounder off of his left thumb causing a non-displaced fracture...he finished the inning but was removed while warming up for the second, and he was subsequently placed on the D.L...18 starts were the most among rookies, while 7 wins ranked second. 1993—He signed and was assigned to Midland (AA) on August 18, making a pair of starts before heading to Vancouver (AAA) on August 31...just 2 outings later, the quick climb was complete as his contract was purchased by the Angels on Sept. 7...made big league debut on September 10 at Toronto, then made his first major league start on the final weekend of the season, September 30 at Minnesota, making Brian the youngest Angels' starter since Mike Witt in 1981.

PERSONAL

Brian James Anderson...he and his wife, Anna, and rottweiler, Lexi, make their off-season home in Bratenahl, OH, where they remain season ticket holders to the Cleveland Browns...Brian was a 1990 graduate of Geneva (OH) High School, lettering twice in basketball, 3 times in golf and 4 times in baseball...from there he attended Wright State University in Dayton, compiling a 28-8 ledger in 46 career games (39 starts), with a 2.23 ERA...he was the Mid-Continent Conference Pitcher and Player-of-the-Year in 1992, going 12-3, then went 10-2 with a 1.14 ERA in '93, walking just 6 men in 95.0 innings...Anderson was named first team All-American by Mizuno and Baseball America and was selected to the GTE All-American Team...he was also a finalist for the 1993 Golden Spikes Award...his work on the field at Wright State was rewarded with his induction into the school's Hall of Fame and the retirement of his familiar #34, as well as earning the Distinguished Alumni Award...despite his Ohio ties, Brian is a die-hard University of Nebraska football fan.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a non-drafted free agent on February 12, 1996. Signed by Steve Springer.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Rod made the big league club out of spring training for the first time in his young career after being part of the September roster expansion in each of the 2 previous seasons...serving as Damian Miller's back-up, he made 19 starts through June 15 then he was optioned for the first of 2 trips to AAA...Rod opened the year going 6-for-18 (.333) including 3 home runs in his first 7 games, his only 3 blasts of the regular season...his offensive numbers tailed off, slumping into a 6-for-47 drought (.128) before being optioned...Barajas spent exactly a month at Tucson and was recalled on July 17, appearing in 5 games before returning to the minors the day after the trade that brought Albie Lopez and Mike DiFelice to Arizona...once again Rod spent a month in Tucson and was recalled back to the big league club on August 24 for the duration of the campaign...he was 4-for-27 at throwing out potential base thieves, his best day taking place on May 15 in Cincinnati when he nabbed both Pokey Reese and Deion Sanders to help protect a 5-1 Arizona win...he also conspired with Mark Grace on a huge play in Arizona's October 4 win over Colorado, as the Rockies had runners at first and second with 2 out in a 5-4 game...Rod fired behind Juan Uribe at first base to end the Colorado threat and help preserve the 1-run win, the day before the D'Backs closed out the N.L. West crown...though jockeyed back-and-forth between AAA and the majors, Rod batted .321 in 45 games for Tucson (52-for-162) with 13 doubles, 9 homers and 32 RBI...his best offensive work for the Sidewinders was during his final stint there in August, hitting .370 (27-for-73) over 23 games with 7 doubles, 5 homers and 15 RBI...a catcher by trade, Rod also appeared in 21 games at first base for Tucson.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

An injury to Damian Miller during the World Series gave Rod the opportunity to display his talents on the biggest stage of all as he made the start in Game #5 at Yankee Stadium...Miller was scratched from the lineup after succumbing to a right calf strain and Barajas stepped in to contribute with a pair of hits while also nabbing a baserunner attempting to steal...Rod singled in his first-ever post-season at bat in the third inning, then hammered a solo homer to left off of Mike Mussina in the fifth, his first home run since April 21...the home run was Arizona's second blast of the inning, joining Steve Finley and was the 34th time in Series history that a team homered twice in an inning, 15th by a National League club...from behind the plate he nabbed Alfonso Soriano attempting to steal second base in the third inning...Rod's only other post-season action came as a defensive replacement in Game #2 of the Division Series against the Cardinals and in Game #6 of the World Series vs. the Yankees.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Rod had his first career look at AAA action spending the entire season with Tucson, leading the club in home runs (13) and RBI (75)...he was recalled to the major league club when the roster expanded in September, appearing in 5 games for the Diamondbacks, starting 3 times...Rod homered in his first big league at bat of the season, hitting a 2-run shot off of Atlanta's Terry Mulholland at home on September 16. 1999—Rod got a surprise phone call in mid-September that found him heading to the majors for the first time in his career...after completing his first full year of AA ball at El Paso, he received the news on September 18 that his contract was purchased to add depth to a depleted catching corps due to a hand injury to Damian Miller...Rod made 5 starts for the D'Backs, collecting his first big league hit on September 27 off of Colorado's Brian Bohanon...he was also behind the plate in the season finale on October 3, when Arizona posted its 100th win, contributing a double and his first major league homer, a second inning solo blast off of San Diego's Heath Murray...Rod hit .318 in 127 games with El Paso, finishing with the third best batting average among all minor league catchers. 1998—Playing for High Desert (A) in the California League, he led the entire Diamondback organization with 23 home runs...he recorded a 3-homer game on April 7 vs. Lancaster...that kicked off a stretch of 6 homers in 6 games (10 RBI), earning California League Player-of-the-Week honors...finished 5th in California League in hitting (.303) and 2nd in home runs (23)...went 5-for-6 with 3 doubles vs. Bakersfield on August 2 in the midst of an 11-game hitting streak. 1997—Missed the first half of the season because of a back injury, but came back to give High Desert 30 RBI and 7 HR in just 57 games. 1996—Started the season on loan to Visalia in the California League and struggled until joining Lethbridge in the Pioneer League where he hit .337 in 51 games.

PERSONAL

Rodrigo Richard (Rod) Barajas...he and his wife, Stacie, welcomed their third child on January 26, daughter, Aunalilia joining sons, Andrew (10/23/95), and Bryce (12/26/00)...Rod earned first-team all-conference honors at Santa Fe Springs High School and repeated the honor at Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, where he was also team MVP...Barajas went undrafted, but was signed by Arizona after attending a tryout camp.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Miguel proved an invaluable piece of the pitching puzzle during the 2001 season, serving in a variety of roles on the mound while compiling a career-high with 11 victories, 3 more than with Montreal in 1999...he was a quiet off-season free agent acquisition that didn't get a lot of publicity, but he was in a battle for a spot in the starting rotation through spring training and though he opened the year in the pen, he assumed a starting role entering the post-season...he closed the year an integral part of the rotation allowing just 2 earned runs over his final 3 starts, spanning 19.0 innings, a 0.95 ERA...included were wins over N.L. West rival Los Angeles during the stretch run, combining a pair of 7-inning performances to allow only 1 run on 8 hits...he was a 10-0 winner in Dodger Stadium on September 29, then just 8 days later he backed it up with an 8-1 win...dating back to a relief appearance on September 2 at San Diego, Miguel gave up only 6 earned runs over his final 25.1 regular season innings for a 2.13 ERA...after 6 relief appearances to open the season, Miguel was summoned for his first of 18 starts...he had consecutive no decisions at home against Florida and Atlanta to close April, then returned to the pen for 7 outings...he posted his first win as a Diamondback on May 9 vs. Cincinnati, working a perfect inning of relief in a 5-2 decision...a consistent performer all year, Batista grabbed everyone's attention during Arizona's late-May road trip through San Diego and San Francisco...he was the starter in Qualcomm Stadium on May 24, allowing no earned runs over 4.2 innings of a game the D'Backs dropped, 3-1...only 4 days later on May 28 in San Francisco he was summoned from the bullpen to work 2.0 innings in Pacific Bell Park, retiring all 6 men he faced and reaped the benefit of a 12th inning homer by Mark Grace for a 2-1 victory...the next night he was called upon once again in Pac Bell to toss 4.0 frames of relief, allowing 3 hits in earning the victory in Arizona's longest game on record, a 1-0 triumph in 18 innings that took 5 hours, 53 minutes to complete...all told, that road trip signaled the start of a stretch for Batista in which he worked 7 times totaling 17.0 innings allowing 7 hits and no earned runs, dropping his overall ERA to a season-low 2.85...his first win as a starter came on July 16 in his ninth start of the year, knocking off the team with baseball's best record, a 5-3 triumph over the Mariners in frenetic Safeco Field, holding the A.L. West champs to 3 runs over 5.1 innings...it was his first win as a starter since May 17, 2000...when called upon out of the pen he retired 24 of the 30 first batters he faced, an 80% success rate including 16 in a row from June 2-September 26.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Miguel's first career post-season test featured 6 overall appearances, working once in relief and once as a starter in each tier...it began in Game #2 of the Division Series against the Cardinals with 0.2 of an inning, followed just 2 nights later with a win as the starter in Game #3 at Busch Stadium to give the D'Backs a 2-1 lead in the series...the resilient righthander worked 6.0 frames in the 5-3 victory allowing 2 runs on 3 hits with a walk and 4 strikeouts...Batista's lone loss occurred as the starter in Game #2 of the NLCS against Atlanta, dropping an 8-1 decision...he surrendered a home run to Marcus Giles on the first pitch of the game, the third game opening homer in NLCS history...Miguel settled in after the roundtripper and kept the Braves off the board until Javy Lopez hit a 2-run shot in the seventh...all told, Batista allowed 3 runs on 2 hits over a 7-inning stint...he was summoned in relief in Arizona's 11-4 win in Game #4 at Turner Field, allowing a run on 3 hits in no official innings...Miguel's next experience was as the starter in Game #5 at Yankee Stadium and he responded with a magnificent 7.2 shutout innings, his longest outing of 2001, allowing only 5 hits with 5 walks and 6 K's...he threw 126 pitches and left the contest with a 2-0 lead, but the Yanks tied the contest with 2-out in the ninth and took a 3-2 series lead when they snapped the tie in the 12th...Miguel's final appearance of the year was in Game #7 when he retired the only Yankee he faced and help set the stage for Arizona's ninth inning heroics...all told, Batista worked 21.2 innings in the post-season allowing 6 earned runs for a 2.49 ERA while limiting opposing hitters to an overall .173 average.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Began the year with Montreal then was traded to Kansas City on April 25 for pitcher Brad Rigby...he tossed 4.0 shutout innings of 1-hit ball in his KC debut to defeat Seattle...the outing earned him a spot in the starting rotation, appearing 9 times but going 1-6 with a 6.56 ERA...he returned to bullpen duty, working 4 times before being designated for assignment on June 28...Batista was outrighted to Omaha on July 7, finishing the year with the AAA affiliate. 1999—Worked in a variety of roles on the Montreal pitching staff, serving as a starter, long reliever and set-up man...he made the start in Montreal's home opener against the Mets working 7.1 innings in a 5-1 victory...fired his first career complete game on April 14 vs. the Brewers, tossing a 6-hitter in a 15-1 victory...he posted a 6-2 mark and 3.56 ERA to open the year...spent 25 days on the disabled list with a strained left oblique muscle from July 16-August 9...a career 0-for-42 at the plate, Batista snapped the 0'er with an infield hit on April 8...he connected for the only home run of his career on May 24 in Philly, hitting a 2-run shot off of Joel Bennett in the fifth inning...earned first career save on October 2 at Philadelphia with 3.0 innings. 1998—Proved versatile in his first full season in the majors, working predominantly in relief but was called upon for 13 starts, going 2-2 with a 3.08 ERA in that role...posted first major league win on May 15 in Los Angeles, tossing 7.2 innings of a 4-2 triumph, his 33rd big league appearance. 1997—Lone season in the Cub chain, he opened the year with Iowa (AAA) appearing in 31 games (14 starts)...had his contract purchased by the big league club on August 10 and spent the final 6 weeks with Chicago, going 0-5 with a 5.70 ERA in 11 games (6 starts)...first major league start was a 2-1 loss to Chan Ho Park and the Dodgers in Los Angeles on August 11. 1996—Spent the majority of the season with Charlotte (AAA) in the Florida organization, but was recalled on August 8 and made his Marlin debut with a scoreless 9th inning against the Mets...it was Miguel's first big league action since the '92 season. 1995—Split the year between starting and relieving for Charlotte, his first year in the Marlins' chain. 1994—Appeared in just 3 games for Harrisburg (AA) due to a season-long stint on the disabled list with a right shoulder strain. 1993—Finished second in the Eastern League with 13 victories for Harrisburg...gave up just 11 home runs in 141.0 innings. 1992—Opened the year on Pittsburgh's major league club by virtue of being a Rule V selection the previous December...pitched once allowing 2 runs in 2.0 innings at Philly on April 11 and was returned to the Montreal organization on April 23...made 24 starts for West Palm Beach (A) upon his return. 1991—Surrendered just one home run in 133.2 innings of work with Rockford (A). 1990—His first action on U.S. soil, Batista totaled 12 appearances with Gulf Coast (Rookie) and Rockford. 1988/89—Signed with Montreal as a non-drafted free agent on February 29, 1988, and spent two seasons with the Expos' Rookie League club in his native Dominican Republic.

PERSONAL

Miguel Jerez Batista (Decartes)...Miguel is single and makes his home in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic where he graduated from Nuevo Horizontes High School in 1986 in San Pedro de Macoris...he was signed by the Diamondbacks after catching the organization's attention during the 2000-2001 Winter League season with the Azucareros, leading the Dominican League in strikeouts...his work in the World Series last fall was actually his second "post-season" test of the year as he was the starting and winning pitcher in the Caribbean World Series championship game on February 7, 2001, against Hermosillo, staking the Dominican Republic to their fourth title in 5 seasons...he appeared just twice this past off-season for Escogido in his home land, choosing to spend a lot of his winter writing a novel...last year he made a guest appearance to discuss poetry at the National Hispanic Women's Conference...he takes time out of his days during the season to visit schools and talk to kids about education and leadership...Miguel was also a "runway model" at the Holiday Angel fund raiser.

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Florida Marlins in exchange for infielder Andy Fox, June 9, 2000.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Danny was a vital part of manager Bob Brenly's bench, one of the strong-suited of the 2001 Diamondbacks, appearing in 100 games including a stretch of starting assignments during the pennant drive...he closed the year hitting safely in 13 of his last 14 regular season games at a .397 clip (23-for-58) with 11 runs scored, 6 doubles, a triple, 2 homers and 12 RBI...included was a 10-game hitting streak from September 7-28 when the offense needed it most, as Danny hit .439 (18-for-41) with 8 runs scored and 3 driven in...dating back to August 26, he batted .391 (27-for-69) in his last 22 games to raise his season average 41 points to hit over .300 for the first time in his major league career (.302)...he homered on September 22 in Dodger Stadium, leading off the 11th inning of a tie game but the D'Backs couldn't hold the lead and dropped a 6-5 decision...Danny's best single-game performance was in the heat of the race, matching a career-best with 2 home runs in the first game of a doubleheader in San Diego on August 31 to stake the club to a 4-1 win...it was his second career 2-homer game, first since July 27, 2000, at St. Louis, and snapped a 111-at bat home run dry spell dating back to May 18 in Chicago...he went 11 for his last 26 (.423) as a pinch hitter with 4 doubles, a homer and 6 RBI...on the year he was a .350 pinch hitter (14-for-40) which included a club record tying 4 consecutive pinch hits from May 18-June 3, starting with the homer in Wrigley Field on May 18, his fifth career pinch blast, first with Arizona...one of his early-season pinch hits keyed an Arizona victory, snapping a 1-1 tie in the ninth inning at Montreal with a 2-out single off of Graeme Lloyd...Bautista was used sporadically during the first half of the year, but excelled in a stretch from May 18, when he hit the pinch homer in Chicago, through July 7, a 31-game span in which he batted .355 (22-for-62)...included was a 3-for-5 affair at home against Colorado on July 1.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

A key component in Arizona's World Series success, Bautista hit .583 (7-for-12) against the Yankees, starting 3 of the 5 games he participated in while providing outstanding defense...he made the start in Game #2 against Andy Pettitte and went 2-for-3 with a double and RBI in Arizona's 4-0 win...he was 1-for-2 in abbreviated work when the series shifted to Yankee Stadium, then provided a huge offensive spark as the D'Backs rebounded to win the final 2 games and claim the title...Bautista started against Pettitte again in Game #6, providing 3 hits and 5 RBI, becoming the 19th player in World Series history to knock in 5 runs, first since Florida's Gary Sheffield in Game #3 of the '97 series against Cleveland...Danny came up an RBI shy of the Fall Classic record of 6 set in 1960 by the Yankees' Bobby Richardson...his work in Game #6 gave manager Bob Brenly the confidence to play a hunch in Game #7 against Roger Clemens and Bautista delivered again, staking Arizona to a 1-0 lead with a run scoring double in the sixth inning...Danny was used sparingly in the first 2 rounds of post-season play, making a start in each series...he was 0-for-6 vs. the Cardinals in the Division Series, but was in the center of the first celebration when he slid across home plate in the bottom of the ninth to end Game #5 on Tony Womack's single that sent Arizona into the NLCS with a 2-1 win...Bautista's lone start in the NLCS against the Braves game #5, going 1-for-4 with an RBI and a diving catch that kept Atlanta off the board in what turned out to be a 3-2 victory propelling the D'Backs into the World Series...Danny entered Game #5 against the Braves a lifetime 3-for-20 (.150) in 16 previous post-season games but closed 2001 by going 8-for-16, including his 7-for-12 World Series work.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Danny joined the D'Backs in exchange for Andy Fox on June 9 and batted .317 over the remainder of the year with Arizona...he established career bests in every offensive category including at bats (351), runs (54), hits (100), doubles (20), triples (7), home runs (11) and RBI (59)...his first hit as a Diamondback was a solo homer vs. Anaheim on June 11 to give Arizona a 3-2 win...Danny had a career-best 15-game hitting streak from August 15-September 1, hitting .351 (20-for-57) with 3 doubles, 2 triples, a homer and 17 RBI...he also had a 10-game hitting streak from July 17-28, hitting .438 (14-for-32)...he recorded his first career 2-homer game on July 27 in St. Louis. 1999—Was released by the Braves at the end of spring training and signed a minor league contract with Florida on April 8...opened the year with Calgary (AAA), but hit .319 in 38 games and had his contract purchased on June 11...hit safely in 36 of his 47 starts for the Marlins...made his return to Atlanta on July 6 and homered against his former mates...hit his 4th career pinch home run on September 1 at St. Louis. 1998—Mainly used as a defensive specialist for the Braves, appearing in 82 games but starting just 27...was on the disabled list from April 17-May 7 with a partial tear of the labrum in his left shoulder, then returned to the shelf from August 27-September 17 with a partial tear of the right medial collateral ligament. POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Saw action in a pair of Division Series games as a defensive replacement, working in 5 of 6 games of the NLCS, including starts in games #3 and #6. 1997—Began the year with Richmond (AAA), remaining there until June 23 recall to Atlanta...visit to the Braves was short-lived as his contract was designated for assignment on July 5...he was purchased from AAA on July 10 and returned to the Braves...hit pinch-hit leadoff homer in the bottom of the 9th on August 6 to defeat the Cardinals 4-3...hit his first 2 home runs as a Brave in consecutive games on July 22-23 in Wrigley Field. 1996—Opened the season with the Tigers making 18 outfield starts before being dealt to Atlanta on May 31 for outfielder Anton French...season came to an abrupt end when he was hit by a pitch from Cardinals' Jeff Parrett on June 27, incurring a broken nose, a fractured orbital floor under the left eye and blurred vision...underwent successful surgery performed by Dr. Robert Crow on June 29...vision in left eye cleared as season progressed and Danny was able to participate in pre-game workouts in September. 1995—Spent the first 4 months of the season with Detroit before being optioned to Toledo (AAA) on August 8...was recalled on September 1...homered in 3 consecutive games from September 16-24. 1994—Danny was Detroit's opening day rightfielder but was hitting just .227 through 10 games and was optioned to Toledo on April 19...recalled on May 26 and started 13 straight games before breaking the middle finger on left hand while attempting to make a diving catch on June 7 vs. Boston. 1993—Spent the entire year with London (AA), hitting .285 in 117 games and was rewarded with a September recall to the big league club...debuted as a pinch-runner on September 15 vs. the Blue Jays...made his first major league start on September 17 against Cleveland, collecting an infield hit off of Jason Grimsley in first big league at bat...hit his first major league homer on October 1 in Yankee Stadium off of Frank Tanana. 1992—Displayed outstanding outfield arm with Fayetteville logging 17 assists from rightfield.

PERSONAL

Daniel (Danny) Bautista...he and his wife, Frandy, have a daughter, Daniela (3/20/98), and sons, Gerald (4/20/94) and Daniel (9/20/00), and make their winter home in the Dominican Republic...Danny signed first professional contract with the Detroit organization as a 16-year old...his stepfather, Jesus de la Rosa, appeared in 3 games for Houston in 1975.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, November 17, 1997.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Jay's year began in his familiar role as the starting second baseman, but by season's end he was coming off the bench serving mainly as a pinch hitter and spot starter...he was in the starting lineup in just 9 of Arizona's final 23 games, including the final 2 contests of the year in Milwaukee, going 5-for-8 with a pair of doubles...he started the season strong offensively, hitting .341 (28-for-82) through the first 24 games of the year with 5 homers and 19 RBI...included was his first 4-hit game of the year on April 17 in St. Louis featuring a 2-run homer...he had an 8-game hitting streak from April 23-May 2, including 4 homers and 12 RBI...Jay snapped a career 0-for-18 drought against Livan Hernandez on May 30 in Pacific Bell Park, homering in the third inning to halt the O'fer and finish the night with 3 hits...Bell continued to swing the hot stick in Arizona's next game on June 1 as the D'Backs opened a series at home with San Diego, going 4-for-4 with another home run, a double and 2 RBI...an injury to Matt Williams, and emergence of Craig Counsell and Junior Spivey saw Jay make a move across the diamond to third base the majority of June into the All-Star break...he started at third on June 9 in Kansas City, his first work at the hot corner since starting 3 straight games there for the Royals on September 7-9, 1997...upon Williams' return to the lineup, Bell found himself as part of a rotation at second base with Counsell and Spivey, but Jay's offensive numbers tailed off dramatically...he dropped from .286 after play on June 29 to a .240 average as late as October 4 while sharing playing time on the infield...Jay wound up making 33 starts at third base, which included 11 games as the cleanup hitter in late-May and early-June, hitting .324 (12-for-37) with 8 runs, 4 doubles, a triple, 2 homers and 6 walks when slotted in the fourth spot...he recorded his 1,900th career hit on June 24 at Colorado, a solo homer off of Denny Neagle...he had the big blow in Arizona's 7-5 win over Houston on June 27, hitting his sixth career grand slam, a second inning blast off of Scott Elarton, Bell's second slam as a Diamondback...he served as the designated hitter in 2 of 3 games in Anaheim in the first games after the All-Star break and delivered a game-tying home run in the seventh inning of the July 14 affair as Arizona rebounded from a 4-0 deficit to post a 7-5 win...unfortunately his numbers tailed off from there, hitting just .201 (27-for-134) after the mid-season break.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

One of the 3 players on Arizona's inaugural Opening Day roster in 1998 and made it into the World Series, Jay will be forever remembered jumping into Matt Williams' waiting arms with the tie-breaking run that ended the 2001 Fall Classic...he reached base safely on a failed sacrifice bunt attempt, then moved over to third base on Tony Womack's game-tying double to right...after Craig Counsell was hit by a pitch to load the bases, Bell scored the biggest run in franchise history when Luis Gonzalez hit his blooper into the outfield grass to ignite the celebration...Jay made his first career World Series start the night before in Game #6, going 1-for-5 with 2 runs scored and an RBI...he opened the post-season going 1-for-4 against the Cardinals in the Division Series with the hit coming in his lone start in Game #2...Bell appeared only once in the NLCS, going 0-for-4 as the starting second baseman in Game #2.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Known as a consistent performer throughout his major league career, Jay entered the 2002 campaign with 1,934 career hits, 193 home runs and 846 RBI...the home/road breakdown is amazingly close with 969 hits in his home parks and 965 on the road, 95 home runs at home and 98 on the road and 426 home RBI and 420 on the road.

2000—Though he didn't attain the same number recorded in 1999, Jay's overall stats were better than his career average in virtually every category...he was hitting .300 as late as June 9, but tailed off batting .246 (83-for-338) the rest of the way...he had a pair of multi-homer games, July 13 vs. Texas and September 28 in Colorado, a contest that featured a career-best tying 5 RBI...his lone 4-hit game occurred on June 2 as the designated hitter in Texas...Jay scored the 1,000th run of his career on May 28 vs. Milwaukee. 1999—A career-year for Jay, posting his best overall offensive numbers while making the move from shortstop to second base...he was elected to start in the All-Star Game at Boston...he shattered his previous single-season bests in home runs (38), RBI (112) and runs scored (132)...36 of his 38 home runs came as a second baseman, making Jay the seventh at that position to achieve 30 homers in a season, the 11th time it has been accomplished...he earned the first National League Player-of-the-Week award in franchise history hitting .355 (11-for-31) from April 12-18, with 4 homers, 10 runs and 9 RBI, featuring his first of 3 multi-homer games (April 13 vs. the Dodgers)...he also went deep twice in a game on April 25 in San Diego and July 17 in Texas...one of the most exciting of his homers took place at home on July 11, the final game before the All-Star break, hitting a grand slam that not only snapped a 3-3 tie with Oakland, but won a lucky fan $1 million, Jay's fifth career slam...went 7-for-12 (.583) with 18 RBI when batting with the bases loaded...he went 0-for-1 with a walk as the starting second baseman for the National League All-Star team at Fenway Park, his first Midsummer Classic appearance since 1993 with the Pirates. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Jay went 4-for-14 (.286) in the 4-game set with the Mets...he had a pair of hits and scored twice in Arizona's lone post-season victory, a 7-1 win at home in game #2 on October 6...he also delivered a clutch 2-run double in the 8th inning of game #4 at Shea, barely missing a home run, that gave the D'Backs a short-lived 3-2 advantage. 1998—Homered in the season finale to achieve the 20-homer mark...collected his 1,500th big league hit with an RBI single off of Atlanta's Greg Maddux at B.O.B. on Sept. 18...milestone hits #500 and #1,000 came off of pitchers also in the park that night, collecting those off of Andy Benes and Tom Glavine, respectively...a shortstop for the majority of his career, he was moved to second base on Sept. 11 for the final 15 games of the year. 1997—Only year with K.C., he set a club record for shortstops with 21 homers and 92 RBI, earning team Player-of-the-Year honors...set a career-best with 5 RBI on June 27 vs. Milwaukee, including a grand slam off Bryce Florie...had 3 doubles on Sept. 6 vs. Oakland...finished tied for second in the A.L. in fielding pct., matching Cleveland's Omar Vizquel with a .985 mark. 1996—Was Pirates' opening day shortstop for the eighth straight year, the longest streak since Dick Groat started 8 in a row (1955-62)...led major league shortstops with a .986 fielding pct., committing 10 errors in 703 chances...included was a personal best 46 straight games without an error from April 22-June 15 (209 chances)...hit third career slam on April 16 in St. Louis off Tom Urbani...shared N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors with Hideo Nomo for Sept. 16-22...he was named by Baseball America as the N.L.'s second best bunter...Jay was traded to Kansas City with Jeff King on December 13, in exchange for 4 players. 1995—Made first career appearance at third base as a starter on June 27 in Wrigley Field...collected 1,000th major league hit on July 25 off Atlanta's Tom Glavine. 1994—Hit second career grand slam on May 31 at San Diego off of A.J. Sager...matched a career-best with 5 hits on August 7 vs. St. Louis...led league shortstops in assists and total chances. 1993—Won first Rawlings Gold Glove, snapping Ozzie Smith's 13-year reign, the second Pirate shortstop ever to win the award (Gene Alley, 1966-67)...led all N.L. shortstops in fielding pct. (.986), committing league-low 11 errors...named to the Silver Slugger team and The Sporting News All-Star team...was named to first All-Star team. 1992—Had the N.L.'s longest hitting streak of the year, a 22-gamer (August 24-Sept. 16)...led all N.L. shortstops in putouts, assists, double plays and total chances. 1991—Was the third Pirate shortstop to hit at least 16 home runs in a season, joining Glenn Wright (18 in 1925) and Arky Vaughan (19 in 1935)...led the majors in sacrifice bunts (30) for the second straight year, and was the first player with 15 homers and 30 sac's in the same season since Johnny Logan with the Milwaukee Braves in 1956...hit second career inside-the-park homer on May 8 off Cincy's Norm Charlton...had 5-hit game on June 26 vs. Chicago...had first career 2-homer game on July 27 at Houston...hit first career grand slam on Sept. 30 off New York's Doug Simon. LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Led Pirates in LCS with .414 mark vs. Braves, tying the 7-game series record for most singles (9)...topped N.L. shortstops in assists and total chances. 1990—Led majors with a team record 39 sacrifice bunts...led N.L. shortstops in putouts and total chances. 1989—Acquired from Cleveland on March 25 in exchange for infielder Felix Fermin and was the Buc's Opening Day shortstop, but was optioned to Buffalo (AAA) on April 21...had first inside-the-park home run on Sept. 18 off Philly's Chuck McElroy. 1988—Was Cleveland's opening day shortstop, but was optioned on July 10...recalled on Sept. 6, and hit .341 in final 16 games. 1986—Made a big splash in major league debut on Sept. 29 vs. Minnesota, homering on his first pitch seen in big leagues off of Bert Blyleven, the 11th player ever to homer on first pitch thrown to him, a year after being traded for Blyleven...Jay was also the 55th player to homer in first major league at bat...was named to Eastern League All-Star team. 1985—Traded to the Indians with Curt Wardle, Rich Yett and Jim Weaver in exchange for Blyleven. 1984—Was the eighth overall player taken in the June draft, reporting to Elizabethton, starting the trend of leading his league in putouts and assists.

PERSONAL

Jay Stuart Bell...he and wife, Laura, have a daughter, Brianna (8/5/91), and sons, Brantley (11/16/94) and Brock (3/18/98)...a Florida native, Jay graduated from Tate High School in Gonzalez, FL, guiding his senior team to the Quad-A State title, while earning a spot on the Florida State All-Star team...he was named the Dapper Dan Man-of-the-Year in 1993, an award given annually to a Pittsburgh sports figure in recognition of outstanding achievement on a national level...he was also the '93 recipient of the Pittsburgh Points of Light Foundation Award for his community service work...he also works locally with Young Life...when not working out at Bank One Ballpark, Jay spends a good portion of his off-season on the links...following the 2000 season, he partnered with Tiger Woods in the Pro-Am of the Williams World Challenge at Grayhawk.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

P.J. vaulted from a virtual unknown to one of the organization's top pitching prospects following an intense offseason workout program in which he added 35 pounds while changing his delivery from over-the-top to three-quarters...he opened the year as Yakima's closer and the extra work proved effective as he notched a team-leading 8 saves in 12 appearances with a 0.64 ERA...in his first 10 appearances he tossed 11.2 shutout innings while recording 7 saves, including rescues in 5 straight outings from June 20-29...he surrendered the game-winning run, his first of the season, against Vancouver on July 19, tossing 1.1 innings before taking the loss...P.J. was promoted to El Paso (AA) and started another scoreless innings streak...he held opponents scoreless over 10.2 innings in his first 9 appearances, racking up 5 saves...his 14 combined saves between Yakima and El Paso tied him with Missoula's Jesus Silva for the second most in the farm system, 2 behind Greg Belson of South Bend...a native of Queensland, Australia, P.J. represented his country at the XXXIV Baseball World Cup in Taipei...he pitched 3.0 innings and earned a save in 4 appearances.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Finished third in the Pioneer League with a 3.33 ERA and fourth in innings (83.2) and walks per 9-inning (2.25)...went 2-0 with a 0.95 ERA in first three starts...was 1-6 with a 4.04 ERA over remaining 11 starts. 1999—Tied for fifth in the Pioneer League with 6 victories...worked 6.0 no-hit innings, but got a no decision in 4-2 loss to Billings.

PERSONAL

P.J. (Peter Jon) Bevis...graduated in 1997 from Cavendish Road State High School in Queensland...pitched for the Australian junior national team as a youth.

HOW OBTAINED

Selected in the 36th round of the 1997 June Free Agent Draft.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Alex continued his quick climb through the organization by getting his first taste of both AAA and a preview of what's to come as a big leaguer, spending nearly 6 weeks of the campaign with Arizona...he opened the year with Tucson, hitting over .300 for the first 2 1/2 months of the year...included was a 16-game stretch from May 24-June 8 in which he batted .394 (26-for-66) with 16 runs...he was summoned to the major league club for the first time on July 23 when Tony Womack went down with a calf strain, but his playing time was limited to just 3 at bats while appearing in 4 games over a 2-week stretch...Alex recorded his first major league hit with a single off the Mets' Donne Wall on August 3...he was optioned back to AAA on August 6 when Womack was deemed healthy and Cintron completed the season with the Sidewinders...he returned to the Diamondbacks as part of the September roster expansion, but had limited playing time during Arizona's stretch run...he recorded the first extra-base hit of his major league career when he tripled off of Chad Fox in Milwaukee on October 6...the switch-hitting infielder was amazingly consistent from both sides of the plate with Tucson, hitting .292 (92-for-315) as a lefthanded batter and .291 (32-for-110) from the right side.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—His first year at the AA level, he eclipsed the .300 mark for the second straight year, hitting .301 for El Paso...started the season strong hitting safely in 15 of the first 18 games at a .386 clip...after going consecutive games without a hit for the first time, Alex hit safely in 24 of the next 27 contests, featuring a season-high 11-game hitting streak, closing the streak with at least one RBI in 7 consecutive games...the only thing that slowed Cintron in the early going was a week-long stint on the disabled list with a lower back strain (May 19-26)...he earned a spot on the Texas League All-Star team, then continued to swing a solid bat in post-season play hitting .429 (9-for-21) in the 5-game series against Round Rock. 1999—His first full season as a pro, Alex hit .307 in 128 games for High Desert (A), sharing the shortstop spot on the California League post-season All-Star team with Lake Elsinore's Nelson Castro...Cintron hit safely in 18 straight games from August 4-22, batting at a .378 clip...his 17 sacrifice bunts ranked first in the league and fifth overall in the minors...was out of action for a week in May with a right ankle sprain. 1998—Spent the entire year at Lethbridge (A) hitting .264 in 67 games...hit .450 during an 11-game hitting streak from July 28-August 9.

PERSONAL

Alexander (Alex) Cintron...he is single and makes his home in Yabucoa, PR...he spent a portion of his "off-season" playing winter ball for Caguas in his native Puerto Rico.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, November 11, 1998.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Greg was haunted through the first half of the campaign with a left knee injury that began acting up in spring training and required 2 stints on the disabled list, the second an extended stay as he had the knee arthroscopically repaired...despite nagging pain, Colby attempted to play through the injury, serving in his familiar role as a pinch hitter as well as seeing time at first and third base...he made 8 starts at third, with his first major league starting assignment at the hot corner taking place on April 16 in St. Louis...he hit safely in 5 consecutive starts spread out from May 4-25, batting .471 (8-for-17) with 3 doubles, a home run and 3 RBI...unfortunately the knee injury worsened to the point where Greg was placed on the disabled list for the first time on June 6, remaining on the shelf until June 25...he returned to work on June 26, appearing as a pinch hitter on that night, but it was his only appearance before returning to the disabled list on July 1 (retroactive to June 27), succumbing to arthroscopic surgery on July 5...Greg rehabilitated the injury and returned to the active roster on August 17...he hit a pinch homer on August 19 off the Cubs' David Weathers, at the time setting the major league record for team pinch homers in a season, the 13th by the Diamondbacks in 2001...the Giants would later tie that mark, but Colby broke the tie against San Francisco on August 30, only to see the Giants tie it again on September 8...the knee injury was a contributing factor to an unusual slow start for Greg as a pinch hitter, going just 1-for-19 in that role to open the year, with the lone hit a 2-run homer off of the Dodgers' Jeff Shaw on April 12...once repaired, Colby was 5-for-11 as a pinch hitter with a double, 2 homers and 5 RBI...he tied a career best with 4 hits on October 2 vs. Colorado, the seventh 4-hit game of his career, while tying Arizona's team mark with 3 doubles, the fifth 3-double game in franchise history...after the birth of his daughter Kelsey Paige on the September 24 off day, Colby went 7-for-13 with 5 doubles and 4 RBI spanning 6 games.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Colby combined the 3 tiers of Arizona's playoff run to hit .333 (4-for-12) with a pair of RBI...his lone appearance in the World Series was in Game #6 when he arrived at Bank One Ballpark to see his name in the lineup card as one of manager Bob Brenly's "hunches" and it paid off with a pair of hits, 2 runs scored, a walk and RBI in Arizona's 15-2 win...he was on base twice and scored each time during the 8-run third inning, leading off the frame with a walk, then driving in a run later in the inning...Colby's sixth inning single was the 21st hit of the game for the Diamondbacks, setting a World Series single-game record (the D'Backs finished the night with 22 hits)...his most extensive action came in the Division Series against the Cardinals, appearing in the last 4 games of the set, including a start in Game #4...Colby delivered pinch-hit singles in games 2 and 3, knocking in a run in the Game #3 win in Busch Stadium...he was intentionally walked in the ninth inning of Game #5, then was pinch run for by Danny Bautista, who scored the tie-breaking tally that sent the D'Backs into the NLCS...he appeared only once in the NLCS against the Braves, pinch hitting in Game #2.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Greg is a lifetime .314 pinch hitter (59-for-188) with 7 homers and 44 RBI...his career numbers demonstrate an overall offensive consistency, hitting a lifetime .289 (351-for-1213) in his home park while posting a .288 mark (374-for-1300) when on the road...he has also batted .288 (275-for-954) against lefthanded pitchers and a similar .289 mark (450-for-1159) against righthanders.

2000—Greg opened the year coming off the bench and spot starting when needed, but wound up the everyday first baseman after Erubiel Durazo succumbed to wrist surgery in mid-August, his most extensive work since serving as Florida's first baseman in 1995-96...he set a franchise record by reaching base in 9 consecutive plate appearances from April 22-30...the streak consisted of 6 hits and 3 walks, featuring a career-high tying 4-hit game on April 29 in Chicago...he batted .349 (66-for-189) in his last 50 starts with 16 doubles, 9 home runs and 38 RBI...once becoming a lineup regular on August 6 his longest RBI drought was 4 games (September 18-21)...other than the 4-game dry spell, Colby never went more than 2 straight without knocking in a run from August 6 through the end of the season, spanning 47 starts...he had his second 4-hit game of the year, sixth career, on July 27 in St. Louis featuring 2 doubles and 3 RBI in 17-5 win...Greg went 6-for-24 (.250) as a pinch hitter but was not used in that role after August 14. 1999—His first year with the D'Backs, Greg's .375 (9-for-24) pinch-hit contribution off the bench helped provide Arizona with the best overall pinch-hit average in the National League at .319 (60-for-188)...signed to offset the opposition's lefthanded pitching, Colby hit .361 (35-for-97) against southpaws. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Greg made a pair of starts vs. the Mets, playing first base in games #2 & #4, collecting an extra-base hit in each contest...he doubled, walked, was hit by a pitch and scored a run in the second game, Arizona's lone win in the series, then tied the fourth game with a fifth inning solo homer in Shea off of Al Leiter. 1998—The second consecutive year that he opened with a new club, but found himself participating in post-season play as a member of the Atlanta Braves...this time, he inked a free agent contract with Colorado, playing there through July 29, before being shipped to the Braves on July 30...in '97, he had signed a free agent deal with Minnesota, only to be moved to Atlanta on August 14...all told in '98, he led the majors in pinch-hit average, batting .364 (16-for-44) with 3 doubles and 11 RBI, while his 16 hits ranked second to Houston's Dave Clark...he went 2-for-8 in the post-season, with both hits coming in consecutive pinch-hit appearances vs. the Padres on October 7 & 8. 1997—Had first career post-season experience, courtesy of the mid-season trade from Minnesota to Atlanta...appeared in 70 games for the Twins, making 52 starts at first base...had third career 4-hit game on May 12 vs. Toronto...hit his second career grand slam vs. Blue Jays on August 4 off of Omar Daal...was hitting .281 with 5 homers and 26 RBI at the time of his August 14 trade to Atlanta...went 8-for-16 as a pinch hitter after joining the Braves, including a home run...enjoyed a terrific post-season, delivering a 2-run single in a pinch-hit appearance vs. Houston in Division Series, then went 2-for-3 off the bench in the LCS vs. the Marlins. 1996—The end of a 3-year stay with the Marlins, he was the everyday first baseman for the second straight campaign, establishing career bests in doubles, walks and games...also had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from May 31-June 23, hitting .386 (34-for-88)...was disabled from July 24-August 8 with a right wrist bruise...he set a Marlin record and ranked sixth in the N.L. with 12 HBP's. 1995—Set a Marlin club record and personal single-game best with 7 RBI on July 18 at San Francisco, his first career 2-homer game, featuring his first career grand slam (off of Chris Hook)...blasted 2 homers on August 18 at Pittsburgh in the second game of a doubleheader...set a then club record with a 17-game hitting streak (August 20-Sept. 6). 1994—Injury riddled campaign, he made the Marlins' Opening Day roster just 9 months after undergoing surgery to repair a ligament tear in his right elbow...was disabled from April 9-May 27 with torn cartilage in his right knee...was once again disabled from July 15-30 with a pulled rib cage muscle...he returned to hit .324 with 30 RBI over final 38 games. 1993—Final year in the Montreal chain, the campaign began on the D.L. due to bursitis in his right elbow...had first career 4-hit game on April 29 in Los Angeles...had first career pinch-hit home run on May 30 at Chicago off of Randy Myers...had season-ending surgery on August 10 to repair ligament tear in right elbow (Dr. Frank Jobe and Dr. Larry Coughlin)...was claimed off waivers by Florida on October 7. 1992—Opened the year in AAA at Indy, but was recalled by the Expos and made major league debut on July 9 at San Francisco, collecting first big league hit that day off of Francisco Oliveras...hit first major league homer on July 22 off Giants' Rod Beck...was disabled August 4-18 with a muscle strain in the left side of his back. 1991—Missed the entire season after Dr. Jobe performed surgery to repair a tendon in his right elbow. 1990—Led Jacksonville (AA) in hits, doubles and at bats, earning league and Class AA All-Star honors as a catcher by Baseball America, who also named him the top offensive catcher in the minor leagues. 1989—Split the year between West Palm (A) and Jacksonville (AA), earning Baseball America's tag as Montreal's 10th best overall prospect. 1988—Signed as a sixth round choice in the June draft, he reported to Rockford to begin pro career as a catcher.

PERSONAL

Gregory Joseph (Greg) Colbrunn...he and his wife, Erika, and daughters, Danielle (10/13/98) and Kelsey Paige (9/24/01) make their home in Mount Pleasant, SC...the 1998 post-season with Atlanta was a hectic time for the Colbrunn family, as Danielle was born on the "travel day" between games #5 and #6 of the NLCS, as the Braves returned home from San Diego...Greg was able to get to Florida in time for Danielle's arrival and was back in uniform for the continuation of the series...a native of Fontana, CA, he graduated in 1987 from Fontana High School, earning All-State honors in baseball, while also nabbing All-Conference kudos on the gridiron...he turned down a baseball scholarship to Stanford University to sign with the Expos as their sixth pick in the '87 June draft.

Best National League Bench of 2001

Bob Brenly's pinch hitters led the National League with an overall .278 average (76-for-273) with 13 doubles, 14 home runs and 54 RBI. The hits, doubles and RBI all led the majors in 2001, while the home run total ended up tied with San Francisco to set a major league record.

David Dellucci led the Diamondbacks with a club record 18 pinch hits and 16 pinch RBI. Dellucci and Durazo each hit 5 pinch homers, the first duo in major league history to hit that many pinch blasts in the same season.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, March 20, 2000.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Craig proved an invaluable member of the 2001 Diamondbacks, appearing on a regular basis during the course of the year, though he had to check the lineup card each day to see where on the infield he'd be performing...he established career highs in virtually every offensive category including games (141), at bats (458), runs (76), hits (126), and was rewarded in the off-season with a 3-year contract...Craig finished the year strong, hitting in 25 of his last 27 starts at a .324 clip (35-for-108) with 19 runs, 9 doubles and 15 RBI...the 25 games he hit safely in during that stretch were consecutive starting assignments from August 28-October 4...the stretch began with a career-high 12-game hitting streak which was snapped when he struck out after entering a game on September 17 as a defensive replacement...Counsell was back in the starting lineup the next night and began a new hitting streak that lasted 13 games to trump his 12-gamer as a career-best...he opened the season starting 3 of Arizona's first 20 games, appearing mainly as a pinch hitter or a late-inning defensive replacement...he began to accrue playing time in late-April when Tony Womack was forced to take a leave due to the untimely passing of his father...Craig became a staple in the lineup in mid-May when Matt Williams went down with a pair of leg injuries, spending nearly 3 straight weeks as the starting third baseman...Jay Bell moved to the hot corner in early-June and Counsell took over the majority of the chores at second...his transfer around the infield continued in late-July when he began working at shortstop with the emergence of Junior Spivey at second base...all told, Craig was in the starting lineup for 124 games, including 56 at short, 46 at second and 22 at third, committing only 8 errors all year...he also got his first professional taste at first base, playing a couple of innings there during the first half of the season...Craig's extensive playing time was directly attributed to his work as a lead-off hitter, batting .300 (71-for-237) when at the top of the order...he recorded 7 of Arizona's 9 bunt hits during the 2001 season...Craig tied a career-high with a pair of 4-hit games, the third and fourth of his major league career...he went 4-for-4 with a double and 3 runs scored on July 25 vs. San Diego, then was 4-for-5 with a double and team record tying 4 runs scored in a key September 5 win in Pacific Bell Park over the Giants...though not known for home runs, Counsell's fourth and final blast of the year staked Arizona to a 6-5 win over Colorado on June 30, entering the game defensively in the seventh and snapping a 5-5 tie in the eighth with a solo shot off of Kane Davis...when called upon as a pinch hitter, Craig was 4-for-8 with 4 walks and a hit by pitch.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Craig made his second career trip to the post-season in 2001 and for the second time was a key component to a successful run to the World Series title, playing in 16 of Arizona's 17 games...he closed out the 1997 Fall Classic by scoring the winning run for the Marlins in the 11th inning of Game #7 vs. the Indians, then in his next World Series plate appearance 4 years later scored Arizona's first run in last year's World Series by homering in the first inning of Game #1 off the Yanks' Mike Mussina...unfortunately it was Counsell's last hit in the Series until the third inning of Game #7, an overall 0-for-19 drought...despite the hit drought against the Yankees, Craig still contributed to the cause by tying a 95-year old World Series record by dropping sacrifice bunts in his first 3 plate appearances in Game #4 at New York, matching Joe Tinker's performance with the Cubs against the White Sox in the 1906 series...Counsell was also in the middle of the title clinching heroics in the ninth inning of Game #7, getting hit by a Mariano Rivera pitch to load the bases just ahead of Luis Gonzalez's series ending hit...Craig was coming off an MVP performance against the Braves in the NLCS, voted the honor after hitting .381 (8-for-21) with 5 runs scored, 3 doubles and 4 RBI while providing outstanding defense in the 5-game set...he was a modest 2-for-8 in the 2 games played in Phoenix then recorded back-to-back 3-hit efforts in games 3 and 4 in Turner Field, including 2 doubles and 4 RBI in the 11-4 triumph that gave the D'Backs a 3-1 series lead...Counsell hit .188 in the Division Series against the Cardinals, but one of the hits provided the margin of victory for the Diamondbacks in Game #3 at Busch Stadium, a 2-out, 3-run home run off of lefthander Mike Matthews that staked Arizona to a 5-3 lead.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Craig was released by the Dodgers in spring training and signed a minor league contract with Arizona on March 20...he hit .348 with Tucson (AAA) before his contract was purchased on May 31...he didn't see much action as a regular until the waning days of the season when he started 12 of the last 15 games...he hit .377 (26-for-69) in his last 19 starts...hit .333 (40-for-120) when employed in the starting lineup (33 total starts)...Craig recorded his second career 4-hit game in his second start as a Diamondback, reaching base 5 times on June 4 at Texas featuring a double, home run and a walk...the home run was his first in the majors since July 24, 1998, a span of 210 AB's between blasts...he hit his second (and last) homer of the year just 2 nights after his 4-hit game in Texas, breaking up Kevin Tapani's bid for a shutout with a ninth inning roundtripper in Wrigley Field...he delivered a ninth inning pinch-hit single vs. Texas on July 13, breaking Greg Colbrunn's franchise record with his fourth consecutive pinch hit...Craig was the first Diamondback in franchise history to reach on catchers interference when he made contact with Colorado catcher Ben Petrick to begin the game on September 25 in Coors Field. 1999—Craig opened the year with Florida, but hit just .152 in 37 games and was traded to the Dodgers on June 15 in exchange for minor league pitcher Ryan Moskau...the deal made Counsell the 7th member of the '97 World Champion Marlins to become a Dodger (Kevin Brown, Bobby Bonilla, Jim Eisenreich, Gary Sheffield, Devon White and Charles Johnson)...committed just 1 error in 38 games at second base for the Dodgers, including 23 starts. 1998—Started the year in the majors for the first time in his career, but had his season cut short on one pitch at Pro Player Stadium on August 3, suffering a compound displaced fracture of his jaw bone when he was hit on the right side of his face by a pitch from Houston's C.J. Nitkowski...Craig underwent surgery at Holy Cross Hospital in Fort Lauderdale where he had several lacerations repaired and had his jaw bone internally stabilized by Dr. James Driscoli (oral surgeon) and Dr. Roberto Palma (plastic surgeon)...Counsell had established himself prior to the injury committing only 5 errors in 539 chances at second base and earning a spot on The Sporting News N.L. East All-Star team...hit his second career grand slam on April 16 in Florida off the Phils' Tyler Green. 1997—Craig capped a storybook season by going from the minors in one organization to scoring the game-winning run in the bottom of the 11th inning in Game #7 of the World Series for another organization...he began the year with Colorado Springs, his third season with the Rockies' AAA affiliate, then after a one-game stint with the big league club, he was traded to the Marlins for pitcher Mark Hutton on July 27 where his career took an upward turn...Craig batted .299 in 51 games for Florida and continued his outstanding second half in the post-season, batting .293 with a .429 OBA...Counsell not only scored the deciding run in the '97 Series against Cleveland, but his sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth sent the contest into extra innings...a pair of his major league firsts surround him in the Diamondback clubhouse, as Counsell collected his first big league hit off of then Cincinnati hurler Mike Morgan in his first big league start on July 29...he added his first major league home run on August 24 off of then St. Louis hurler Todd Stottlemyre, which was also a grand slam. 1996—Injuries limited him to just 25 games with Colorado Springs, suffering a right shin contusion that led to a stress fracture on April 30...Craig returned to action in mid-July but appeared in just 3 games before fracturing the same shin on July 17 and missing the rest of the season. 1995—Hit .281 as the regular shortstop for the PCL Champion Colorado Springs Sky Sox, leading the league in total chances (598) and doubles plays (86)...earned his first recall to the majors on September 15, appearing in 3 games. 1994—Injuries once again impeded Craig's progress, starting the year with New Haven (AA) on May 3 after suffering a broken right foot due to a spring training foul ball...played until breaking his nose on July 29, tried to make a comeback a week later picking up a hit in his lone at bat, then returned to the disabled list. 1993—Topped all California League shortstops in total chances (621), while leading his Central Valley club (A) with doubles (26) and ranking second on the club with 132 hits. 1992—An 11th round selection in Colorado's first-ever draft class, Counsell opened the year as Bend's second baseman, the first time he'd ever played that position...his year was cut short when he suffered a broken right instep on a foul ball just 18 games into the season.

PERSONAL

Craig John Counsell...he and his wife, Michelle, have been together since high school and they make their home in Mequon, WI...Craig was a 1988 graduate of Whitefish Bay (WI) High School, then graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1992 with a degree in accounting...he was a 4-year baseball letterman for the Fighting Irish, playing for current Arizona State head baseball coach Pat Murphy...Craig's father, John Counsell, was an outfielder in the Minnesota Twins' organization from 1964-68, then worked in the Milwaukee Brewers' organization as Director of Community Relations in the 1980's...the spikes that Craig wore when he scored the game-winning run in the 1997 World Series are on permanent display at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, and he had the opportunity to view those shoes when the Diamondbacks played in the 2000 exhibition game at Doubleday Field.

HOW OBTAINED

Selected from Baltimore as the ninth choice in the second round of the Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

David established himself as one of the premier pinch hitters in the game while also serving as a quality backup outfielder when called upon...despite part-time duty, his 10 home runs in 217 at bats were 3 more than his major league total through 602 career AB's entering 2001...half of his roundtrippers were as a pinch hitter, as he was a huge contributor in Arizona's tying of the major league single-season team pinch home run record with 14...David finished the year hitting .321 in a pinch (18-for-56) with pinch hit club records in hits, homers and 16 RBI...his first pinch homer was on May 9 against Cincinnati when he delivered a 3-run pinch blast in the eighth inning to snap a 2-2 tie and stake the D'Backs to a 5-2 victory...on June 23 in Colorado, David drilled a 2-run shot off of Pedro Astacio in the seventh inning to tie the contest at 5-5 and the Diamondbacks eventually won a 9-5 decision...Dellucci didn't stop there, hitting the first pinch grand slam in franchise history on July 21 in Pacific Bell Park, driving a Brian Boehringer delivery that turned a 1-0 Arizona lead into a 5-0 advantage, in a 9-2 win...it was the first grand slam of David's career and first career 4-RBI game...he matched his career RBI best with 4 on July 28 at home also against the Giants...he then hit a ninth inning pinch homer off of Robb Nen the next day, the 12th pinch blast for the D'Backs in 2001 which at the time tied the single-season major league record...he proved to be a thorn in the Giants' side all season, hitting .385 against them with 3 home runs and 12 RBI in 15 games...David staked Randy Johnson and the D'Backs to a 4th of July win in Enron Field with a 2-out pinch RBI single to give Arizona the 3-2 decision...his contributions weren't limited to pinch hit work, as he was a key component in Arizona's 6-4 win at San Diego on May 27, going 3-for-4 featuring a 2-run homer in the seventh off of Woody Williams and a 1-out single off of Trevor Hoffman in the ninth just prior to Reggie Sanders' game-winning home run...he made 39 outfield starts, the majority of which were in rightfield...Dellucci's most consistent offensive work came in the first 2 months of the season, hitting .373 (22-for-59) after his 3-hit game of May 27.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

David finished the post-season going 2-for-4 with a run scored in abbreviated action...things started slowly as he made it as far as the on-deck circle in the Division Series, but was hit for after forcing a pitching change...he finally made it to the plate in the post-season as a pinch hitter in the second game of the NLCS vs. the Braves, grounding out...Dellucci contributed a pinch single and scored a run in Arizona's 11-2 win in Game #4 of the NLCS...his next action was a week later in the sixth game of the World Series entering as a pinch runner in the fourth inning for Luis Gonzalez and finishing the evening 1-for-2...David pinch ran again 24 hours later in Game #7 and wound up in a collision at second base with Derek Jeter when Mariano Rivera's throw went astray on Damian Miller's sacrifice bunt attempt.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—David made the Opening Day roster after missing the second half of the previous year due to wrist surgery...he made 3 pinch-hit appearances before being optioned to Tucson (AAA) on April 17...was recalled on August 14, but started just once in his first 18 appearances after being recalled, working mainly as a pinch hitter and defensive replacement...he finished the year 7-for-20 (.350) as a pinch hitter including a pair of RBI. 1999—David was in the midst of a terrific sophomore season in the majors when a nagging pain in his left wrist turned into a season-ending disaster...he was diagnosed with a disorder that required immediate surgery and left him on the disabled list for the remainder of the year...unfortunately for David and the Diamondbacks, he had just upped his season average to .394...Dellucci closed the year with 8 hits in his last 14 at bats before being diagnosed with the injury...while healthy he raised his mark as high as .419 on May 23 after 4 hits in Colorado. 1998—Began the season with Tucson, his first career AAA action, but was there only 17 games before getting the call to the major league club for the remainder of the year...recalled on April 27, his Arizona debut was a 2-for-4, 2-RBI game...though not an everyday player, he wound up leading the N.L. in triples with 12, just the second rookie since 1984 to lead the league in 3-base hits (Ray Lankford with St. Louis in 1991)...his first National League homer was a 2-run shot on May 1 at Montreal off of Javier Vazquez...had first career 4-hit game, including 3 doubles, on June 2 at Colorado, just the 4th expansion player in history to pick up 3 doubles in a game (Rusty Staub, Doug Rader and Charlie Hayes). 1997—Opened the year with Bowie, but made the jump from AA to the majors in June, appearing in 9 games for Baltimore...he hit his first big league home run on June 25 in Milwaukee off of Cal Eldred...he was also part of the September recalls, appearing in 8 games during the final month. 1996—Had the sixth best overall average among Baltimore farmhands, hitting a combined .305 with Frederick (A) and Bowie (AA)...was promoted to Bowie on June 26 and went 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, 2 runs and 2 RBI in debut game. 1995—Enjoyed the home field at Frederick, batting .340 (17-for-50), while hitting only .217 (10-for-46) on the road.

PERSONAL

David Michael Dellucci...he is single and resides in his native Baton Rouge, LA, where he graduated from Catholic High School in 1991, earning team MVP in both baseball and football as a prepster, while earning All-State honors on the diamond...he was also voted "Man of the Year" in high school for his success as a student athlete and being a role model for youth, and last winter was inducted into the Catholic High School Hall of Fame...followed high school with 3 outstanding years of baseball at the University of Mississippi, where he was an All-Southeastern Conference selection in both 1994 and '95 and earned All-American status in '95, setting 10 school records while leading the SEC in hitting...was also named Athlete-of-the-Year at Ole Miss in 1995... David was a 10th round pick of the Orioles in 1995...he is active in the Valley with Special Olympics and Easter Seals.

Erubiel Durazo

Infielder/Outfielder

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 240

B/T: L/L

Age: 27

Born: January 23, 1975 in Hermosillo, MX

Residence: Hermosillo, MX

M.L. Service: 2 years, 71 days

HOW OBTAINED

Contract purchased by the Arizona Diamondbacks from the Monterrey Sultans of the Mexican League, December 16, 1998.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Erubiel started and finished strong, but a concussion and sore back contributed to a mid-season slide that included a stint on the disabled list, his second straight season interrupted by injury...he was one of baseball's most feared pinch hitters through the first 3 months, but a late-June concussion compounded later by a low back strain dropped his overall numbers significantly...the year got off to a strange start when he was optioned to AAA in the final days of spring training but recalled to the big league club on Opening Day when Danny Klassen was disabled...Durazo didn't waste any time displaying his power, hitting the first of his 5 pinch homers on April 5 off the Dodgers' Andy Ashby...just 10 days later on April 15 in Colorado he delivered a 2-run, ninth inning pinch blast off of Jose Jimenez that sent the game to extra innings, though the D'Backs eventually lost a 10-7 decision...on April 17 Durazo hit his third homer in 7 pinch at bats with a solo shot in St. Louis off of Bobby Bonilla, who was finishing up on the hill in a 17-4 Arizona rout...Erubiel delivered his fourth pinch homer in his first 9 AB's on April 26 at home off of Atlanta's Matt Whiteside...he then hit his fifth and what proved to be his final pinch homer of the regular season on May 20 in Wrigley Field, taking Tom Gordon out with a 2-run shot that ignited a 5-run ninth inning for the D'Backs, only to fall a run short in a 6-5 setback...though the pinch homers ceased, Erubiel still delivered some key hits for Arizona during the first half...a trio of those key hits took place over 3 days from May 27-29 as the D'Backs were in the midst of a club record tying 9-game winning streak...it began on May 27 as a starter when he had a 2-run opposite field homer in San Diego off of Trevor Hoffman to tie the contest at 4-4 and set the stage for Reggie Sanders' subsequent 2-run game-winning blast...the next day in San Francisco, Erubiel had a pinch-hit 10th inning RBI single that gave Arizona a 1-0 lead, and though the Giants tied the game in the 10th the D'Backs prevailed on Mark Grace's 12th inning home run into McCovey Cove...the next night, Durazo delivered an 18th inning double to end the longest game in franchise history, a 5-hour, 53-minute affair, driving in Steve Finley with the game's only run...Erubiel managed one more hot streak that began with a pinch hit RBI double on June 3 against San Diego and spanned 13 games in which he hit .316 (12-for-38) with 11 runs scored, 4 homers and 13 RBI...one of the home runs was a tape-measure blast into the second tier of the fountain display in right-center field at Kauffman Stadium on June 10, a 3-run blast while he was serving as the designated hitter...unfortunately Erubiel's season took a turn for the worse on June 24 at Colorado when he was involved in a collision with Terry Shumpert who was covering home plate as part of a rundown play...Durazo suffered a Grade 2 concussion that sidelined him for a week, but impacted his numbers for the remainder of the regular season...to compound his physical problems, Erubiel was placed on the 15-day disabled list on August 17 with a low back strain and did not return to work until the first of September...all told, his pinch hit double on June 3 was the last pinch hit he registered until September 25, going 0-for-20 between pinch hits...he made a pair of starts against Milwaukee after snapping the pinch hit drought and went 4-for-7 with 4 runs scored in consecutive games on September 26-27...the off-season signing of Mark Grace obviously impacted Durazo's playing time at first base, thus he spent part of spring training working in rightfield, and made a pair of starts there in the early going on April 16 in St. Louis and May 7 against Cincinnati.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Erubiel was used sparingly in the early portion of the post-season, but when given the opportunity in the latter half he made his presence felt...he had made only 2 pinch hit appearances entering Game #5 of the NLCS, but a right hamstring strain to Mark Grace set the stage for Durazo heroics that were reminiscent of the first 2 months of the regular season...called upon to pinch hit for the veteran Grace, Erubiel hit a 2-out, 2-run opposite field homer off of southpaw Tom Glavine to snap a 1-1 tie and lead the Diamondbacks to the National League crown...it was the 11th pinch homer in League Championship Series history, fifth in the NLCS...the blast at the time was Erubiel's second career post-season hit, his first also a home run in Game #2 of the 1999 Division Series against the Mets...after his NLCS clinching blast, Durazo was idle once again until the World Series moved to New York and manager Bob Brenly employed him as the designated hitter for games 3 through 5...Erubiel was a combined 4-for-10 with a double during the visit to Yankee Stadium...he reached base 3 times in Game #3 with a walk and 2 hits, then walked and doubled in a run the following night, part of a 2-run eighth inning that gave the D'Backs a 3-1 lead at the time.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Erubiel had a right wrist injury in spring training that haunted him all year...he was disabled from May 30-June 24 due to a surgical procedure, returned for 3 games then went back on the D.L. on June 29...he hit .225 (9-for-40) after returning and was optioned to AAA on August 1...he appeared improved hitting .387 in 10 games and was recalled on August 11, but appeared in just 5 games after his recall before succumbing to another wrist operation on August 24...both surgical procedures were performed by Dr. Donald Sheridan...he opened the year 2-for-17 (.118) but broke out of the slump with a 2-homer game to spoil San Diego's home opener on April 10, knocking in 4...he hit .412 (7-for-17) on the team's initial road trip through San Diego and San Francisco...Erubiel had a career-high 10-game hitting streak from April 23-May 7, hitting .412 (14-for-34). 1999—One of the top success stories of the 1999 season was Erubiel's rise through the minors and huge contribution to Arizona's N.L. West title run...after hitting .404 in a combined 94 games of AA and AAA, he was a major leaguer on July 25...had 3 hits in his first major league start on July 28 in San Diego, collecting his first hit off of Brian Boehringer...Durazo kept himself in the lineup with a .350 beginning, going 21-for-60 through his first 22 games, featuring 5 home runs and 9 RBI...his first big league homer was in Philadelphia on August 7, a 446-foot shot to center off of Curt Schilling...his first 6 extra-base hits in the majors were homers, not recording a double until September 1 in his 28th game...from August 18-Sept. 14, Durazo hit 10 home runs over a 22-game span, encompassing 77 at bats for a ratio of 1 in every 7.7 at bats...his first career multi-homer game gave Arizona a 5-4 win in Atlanta on September 4, taking John Smoltz deep twice...Erubiel closed the regular season hitting .400 (22-for-55) in his last 19 games, including his lone pinch-hit homer, a 2-run blast in Milwaukee off of southpaw Rafael Roque on September 9...defensively, Durazo appeared in 44 major league games at first base, handling all 344 chances without an error...his half-season effort earned the respect of the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA, as Erubiel was tabbed the team Rookie-of-the-Year...Erubiel's first taste of pro baseball in the U.S. was with El Paso, Arizona's AA affiliate, hitting .403 in 64 games, with 14 homers and 55 RBI with El Paso...he was promoted to Tucson (AAA) on June 19, hitting .407 (48-for-118) in 30 games with 10 homers and 28 RBI...his combined minor league average of .404 totaled enough plate appearances to qualify him as the first player to hit .400 in the minors since Aaron Pointer (.401) of the Houston (Colt 45's) Astro organization in 1961...he also led all minor league players with a .703 slugging pct...he twice earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month honors, hitting .489 with 10 homers and 33 RBI for El Paso in May, then following that with a combined .387 performance with 9 home runs and 23 RBI with El Paso and Tucson in June. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Erubiel appeared in a pair of games vs. the Mets, starting at first base in games #1 & #3...he homered in his second post-season at bat, a solo blast in the opening game at Bank One Ballpark off of New York's Masato Yoshii.

PERSONAL

Erubiel Durazo Cardenas...he is single and makes his home in his native Hermosillo, Mexico...Durazo's story began as a 15-year old when Derek Bryant, then the director of player personnel for Hermosillo and formerly a manager in Arizona's minor league system, saw Erubiel play as a youth...after attending Tucson's Amphitheater High School and Pima Community College, Durazo returned to his native Mexico undrafted, signing to play for the Monterrey Sultans in the Mexican League, earning both summer and winter Rookie-of-the-Year honors...since the Diamondbacks had a working agreement with Monterrey, they signed Erubiel at the urging of Bryant...Durazo returned to Hermosillo once again last winter to play in the Mexican Pacific League, hitting .328 with 2 homers and 12 RBI in 19 games for the Orange Growers...a year ago his club went to the Caribbean World Series, where they lost in the finals to the Dominican Republic yet he was named series MVP, hitting .455 (10-for-22) with a double, 3 homers and 6 RBI in 6 games.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Steve managed to dig out from under an extremely slow start offensively to finish the year with a .275 mark, matching his career average entering 2001...he began play on June 7 with a .207 average, 2 homers and 16 RBI through 53 games, but a 3-hit effort against the Dodgers was the first step in an offensive revival that saw him hit .316 (97-for-307) with 12 homers and 57 RBI over the final 86 games of the year...he had a 3-for-41 start to the year accelerated by an 0-for-30 drought from April 5-18...Fins snapped out of his initial dry spell by hitting in 16 of his next 17 games at a .338 clip (23-for-68), but then fell into another slide in which he was 13-for-79 (.165) over 23 games before the 3 hits on June 8...he dropped into one more drought just prior to the All-Star break, going 4-for-30 from June 24-July 5 and was taken out of the starting lineup for the 3 games prior to the break and 3 contests afterward...the final turnaround began on July 14 in Anaheim when he delivered a pinch hit single and scored the tying run in the eighth inning, then drove in an insurance tally with a double off of Troy Percival in the ninth to help stake the D'Backs to a 7-5 win...from that date, Fins batted .330 (70-for-212) over 63 games with 9 home runs, 32 runs scored and 40 RBI...his streaky nature was personified over a 4-game stretch in Arizona's final homestand of the year when he knocked in 12 runs...it began in a game he didn't start on September 26 against Milwaukee, entering as a pinch hitter in the sixth and delivering a run scoring single, then tacking on a grand slam in the eighth, Steve's eighth career slam and 200th career home run...he followed the next night with a 4-RBI affair, then after going 1-for-2 with no RBI in a non-start against the Dodgers on September 28, he hit a 3-run homer the next afternoon off of LA's James Baldwin to help stake the D'Backs to an 8-1 win...Steve closed the year by hitting .344 (31-for-90) in his last 25 games with 12 runs, 7 doubles, a triple, 4 homers and 27 RBI...included in his late-season run was his first 2-homer game of the year on September 8 against San Diego, the 15th multi-homer game of his career, 12th of the 2-homer variety...he was intentionally walked on August 12 in Atlanta, snapping Gred Maddux's streak of 72.1 consecutive innings pitched without allowing a free pass...Fins' diversity was displayed on August 30 when he was summoned from centerfield to work an inning of relief in a blowout loss to the Giants at Bank One Ballpark...featuring a knuckleball, he walked a man and hit Jeff Kent, but escaped any damage on the scoreboard by recording an inning-ending double play.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Steve had a terrific post-season, hitting safely in 11 of 14 starts at a .365 clip (19-for-52)...Fins began by hitting .421 (8-for-19) in the Division Series against the Cardinals, starting with 3 hits in the game #1 win, featuring an RBI single that was all Curt Schilling needed in a 1-0 decision...Steve came up big again in the pivotal third game of the NLCS in Atlanta, going 2-for-3 with a double and 3 RBI in the 5-1 win, then sealed Arizona's first trip to the World Series by catching the final out of game #5 ending the 3-2 victory...as Arizona advanced to the World Series, Steve's production continued as he batted .368 (7-for-19) against New York, a complete reversal from his 1-for-12 experience the first time he faced the Yankees in the Fall Classic while with the Padres in 1998...he had 3 hits in game #5 at Yankee Stadium including a fifth inning solo homer off of Mike Mussina that gave Arizona a 1-0 lead, his first post-season home run in his 35th career post-season game (113th at bat)...it was also the first of 2 homers in the inning for the D'Backs with Rod Barajas also going deep, the 34th multi-homer inning in World Series history, 15th by a National League club...Fins also had a big impact in the seventh and deciding game of the Fall Classic, picking up a pair of hits and scoring the first run on Danny Bautista's double in sixth inning...Steve also made a terrific running catch in center to retire Shane Spencer to end the second inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Steve carried the club during the first half, hitting 27 homers and driving in 75 by July 21...he was a late-addition to the All Star team, replacing Ken Griffey Jr...Fins also earned his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove, the fourth of his career...he was named the team co-Player-of-the-Year with Luis Gonzalez by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...he made an eighth inning game-saving catch against the wall in left-center of Houston's Enron Field on July 6, aggravating a lower back injury...he missed only one game after the run-in with the wall, but the area required a pair of injections as the season progressed...Steve hit his career-high 35th home run of the year on September 9 in Florida, a 2-run shot off of A.J. Burnett in a 4-1 Arizona win...he suffered a costly hit by pitch on his left hand on September 12 when hit by LA's Onan Masaoka...finished year just 4-for-39 (.103) after the plunking...he hit a pair of 2-run homers in San Diego off of Sterling Hitchcock on April 13, staking the D'Backs to a 5-4 win...Fins reached base by hit, walk or hit by pitch in 29 consecutive games from May 5 through June 5...by the end of the streak, he had reached base in 53 of his 56 starts since Opening Day...Steve entered the All-Star Game as a defensive replacement in left, then knocked in the N.L.'s final run with an RBI single in the ninth...Fins started the only triple play in franchise history vs. St. Louis on May 31 when he caught Mark McGwire's fly ball and threw home to catch Placido Polanco attempting to score from third...Damian Miller then fired to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack caught Edgar Renteria trying to advance from second...Steve's ailing back was surgically repaired by Dr. Volker Sonntag at St. Joseph's Hospital after the season, a procedure that consisted of clipping a portion of the ruptured disk that was irritating the nerves and causing the pain.

1999—Steve's first year with the D'Backs featured a career best in RBI, while earning his third career Rawlings Gold Glove, first since winning in 1995 & 1996...he accomplished it all while suffering from a back ailment that twice required injections during the season...Steve eclipsed the 100-RBI mark on Sept. 28 vs. Colorado, joining teammates Matt Williams, Jay Bell and Luis Gonzalez in the century club, as Arizona became the seventh N.L. club in history with a quartet of 100-RBI men...he was hitting just .231 on May 19 then started a 15-game stretch in which he batted .452 (28-for-62) with 6 homers and 29 RBI, totaling 58 bases for a .935 slugging pct., raising his season average 63 points to .294...included was a 5-game stretch against New York, Montreal and Texas in which he went 16-for-23 (.696) with 4 doubles, a triple, 5 homers and 18 RBI, totaling 37 bases for a slugging pct. of 1.609, earning N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...the stretch began with 4 hits on May 30 in Shea, featuring a double, 2 homers and 5 RBI, but he trumped that 2 days later with another 4-hit effort, hitting 2 more home runs, while setting a club record with 6 RBI...he would later tie the RBI mark with 6 on September 8 in Milwaukee, the result of a club record 3-homer game, the third of his career...he hit the seventh grand slam of his career on May 10 at home vs. Montreal's Javier Vazquez...with the leather, Fins set a Diamondback record with 109 consecutive errorless games, snapping the streak with a miscue at home on August 30 vs. the Mets... Steve collected the 1,500th hit of his career on June 13 in Anaheim off of Omar Olivares.

DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Fins hit safely in all 4 games vs. the Mets, finishing the series with a .385 mark (5-for-13), with a double and 5 RBI...the double and 5 RBI all took place in the second game of the series, Arizona's lone win, providing a 2-run single in the third inning and 2-run double in the fifth, then coaxing a bases loaded walk in the seventh...he entered that contest with 18 career post-season games under his belt, totaling 4 RBI.

1998—Final year with the Padres he had a pair of 4-hit games, the first included a club record-tying 3 doubles and 5 RBI vs. the Rangers in Arlington on June 7...he hit his fifth career first inning leadoff homer, taking the Giants' Shawn Estes deep to open the scoring on September 9 in San Diego...it was his second with the Padres, after hitting 3 with Houston...he hit the sixth grand slam of his career on April 10, delivering a 2-out blow to the D'Backs, taking Felix Rodriguez deep to end the game.

POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Steve rode the offensive rollercoaster during the Padres' run into fall ball, finishing October play with a .209 mark, going 9-for-43 in 13 games...he struggled through a 1-for-10 in the Division Series vs. the Astros, but rebounded to hit .333 (7-for-21) in the 6-game NLCS...Finley was not as fortunate in the Fall Classic against the Yankees, going just 1-for-12 appearing in 3 of the 4 games.

1997—Led the Padres in homers, triples and runs, earning his first trip to the All-Star Game...added his name to the record book by becoming the sixth National Leaguer and 11th player in big league history to homer 3 times in a game twice in the same season (May 19 at Cincinnati and June 23 at San Francisco)...he recorded 13 total bases in the June 23 game, 1 more base than Nate Colbert's previous club record on August 1, 1972...the second 3-homer game led to N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors, finishing the week of June 23-29 with a .520 mark (13-for-25) with 6 homers and 9 RBI...he slugged career home run #100 on August 23 at Shea Stadium off of Dave Mlicki.

1996—He finished 10th in the N.L. MVP balloting, establishing Padres' records in runs, doubles, extra-base hits and total bases...he had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from June 20-July 14, hitting .419 (39-for-93)...he had a streak of home runs in 3 consecutive at bats on June 29-30 in San Francisco, hitting a 3-run blast off Mark Leiter and a 2-run shot off of Rod Beck on the 29th, then a solo homer off of William VanLandingham the following day...Finley set a career-high with 5 hits on May 23 at Philly...he hit his third career grand slam on June 1 at Philly off of lefty Dave Leiper...notched career hit #1,000 on June 5, a double off St. Louis' Donovan Osborne...had a milestone evening on Sept. 10 vs. the Pirates, joining the 20/20 club with his 20th steal, then setting the club record for doubles in a season, and ending the contest with a 2-out, 0-2, 2-run homer to give the Friars a 6-5 win...defensively, he earned his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove...he wrapped up 1996 by earning MVP honors on an 8-game Major League Baseball All-Star tour through Japan, hitting .400 (8-for-20) in 7 games.

1995—First year in San Diego, he was the only National League player to achieve 100 runs, 10 homers and 35 stolen bases (Minnesota's Chuck Knoblauch was the only A.L. player), while earning his first Rawlings Gold Glove...was used in the leadoff spot in 73 games, hitting a major league best .338 (103-for-305) in that slot...stole a career-high 4 bases on August 12 vs. St. Louis...was in the delivery room on Sept. 1 when son Reed was born, then went to the ballpark and played the last 2 innings of San Diego's 6-3 win over Philly.

1994—Steve appeared in 94 games because of an injury and strike-shortened season, missing nearly a month after being hit by a pitch on June 8 in Montreal, breaking the third metacarpal bone in his right hand...he was placed on the D.L. on June 13 and did not return until July 3...he hit his second career grand slam on July 17 at Pittsburgh off of Paul Wagner...Finley was part of the 11-player trade with San Diego on December 28.

1993—Slowed by an early-season ailment and injury, he did not play full-time until mid-May...was slowed in spring training by Bell's Palsy, a viral infection of a nerve in the upper neck, resulting in numbness that prevented him from closing his left eye...he then played the first 16 games of the year before getting plunked by a John Candelaria pitch on April 24 in Pittsburgh, resulting in a hairline fracture, which forced him on the D.L. from April 27-May 14...upon returning, he did not collect his first triple of the year until the 41st game and still led the N.L. with 13. 1992—Steve and teammates Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell were the only 3 N.L. players to participate in all 162 games...he finished in the league's top 10 in hits, triples, stolen bases and sacrifice bunts. 1991—Finley's first year as an Astro, he was acquired on January 10 with pitchers Pete Harnisch and Curt Schilling in exchange for Glenn Davis. 1990—Led the Orioles with 22 steals, while ranking second in hits. 1989—Made his major league debut with Baltimore on opening day, and on first big league fielding chance, Steve made a diving catch while crashing into the wall in right-center, suffering a right shoulder sprain that necessitated D.L. time...was activated on April 22 and picked up first big league hit that night, a single off of Minnesota's Fred Toliver...hit first major league home run on April 25 off California's Willie Fraser...blasted first grand slam on June 5 at Yankee Stadium off of southpaw Chuck Cary. 1988—Steve was named International League Rookie-of-the-Year, leading the league in batting and hits to help Rochester to the title...it was a quick climb, playing in 8 games at Hagerstown (A), then participating in 10 games at Charlotte (AA), before heading to Rochester. 1987—Signed with Baltimore as a 14th round choice in the June draft and reported to Newark, earning a spot on the New York-Penn League All-Star team.

PERSONAL

Steven Allen (Steve) Finley...he and wife, Amy, and sons, Austin (10/8/93), Reed (9/1/95) and Blake (2/23/97), and new-born daughter, Franchesca (9/10/01) make their home in Del Mar, CA...Steve graduated from Paducah (KY) Tilghman High School, then went to Southern Illinois at Carbondale, earning a degree in physiology...he was accepted to chiropractic school (Logan College in St. Louis), but opted to play pro ball...he was drafted by Atlanta in the 11th round of the '86 June draft, but chose to remain at S.I.U., where he was a 2-time All-Missouri Valley Conference player, and a third team All-American in 1986...Finley's 1984 and '86 S.I.U. clubs each captured conference titles...he was a member of Team USA in 1986 that won the Bronze medal in international competition in the Netherlands...Steve's father is a retired middle school dean in Paducah, while his mother is still teaching middle school...Steve earned the 1997 Chairman's Award with San Diego, as the Padre who best exemplifies the community spirit of team owner John Moores and his family...both Steve and Amy have been extremely active in the communities that Steve has called home, inspiring the Padres Scholars program in 1995...they also began a program in which they purchased 20 tickets for every game to enable underprivileged children to attend games, and have continued the program in Bank One Ballpark since joining the Diamondbacks...they toured Indonesia in '95 and Hungary in '92, conducting youth baseball clinics and providing equipment to help form leagues...the family also formed the Steve Finley Charitable Youth Fund in 1993, encouraging kids to stay in school, earn a degree and live drug free...Steve is also a contributor to the "Touch 'em All" Foundation formed by country music legend Garth Brooks.

Diamondbacks Best with Leather

Arizona committed only 84 errors during the 162-game slate last year, 7 fewer than the second place Philadelphia Phillies in the National League. The Diamondbacks shattered their previous team record set in 1998 when the inaugural club was guilty of 100 errors.

The Seattle Mariners were the only team in the majors with fewer miscues in 2001 with 83. The D'Backs made just 12 errors in their last 30 games while sewing up the N.L. West crown.

As for the post-season, Arizona committed 10 errors in its 17 games, while the opposition was guilty of 18 miscues.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Though he will be forever remembered for a ball that traveled a little over 100 feet last November 4, Gonzo's regular season work was recorded as one of the top power displays in big league history...he homered on the final day of the season to finish with 57, the eighth different player ever to hit at least that many roundtrippers in a season...Luis finished third in the MVP balloting behind Barry Bonds and Sammy Sosa...he obliterated his previous bests in virtually every category while placing his name among baseball's elite...his 419 total bases finished second in the N.L. and tied Lou Gehrig for the 10th highest total in big league history, while his 100 extra-base hits made him just the 12th player (15th time) to ever break the century mark in long hits...Gonzo set the tone for a phenomenal year in the first series in Los Angeles, hitting a 2-run homer off of Dodger Jose Nuñez to stake the D'Backs to a 3-2 win...Luis followed the next night with 2 more home runs and was on his way to setting a National League record and tying Ken Griffey Jr.'s major league mark with 13 home runs in April...Luis set the N.L. mark and tied the big league record on April 26, hitting a solo homer off of Atlanta's Greg Maddux in the first inning, then connecting on a 3-run blast off of southpaw Damian Moss in the eighth...Gonzalez was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for April, then remained hot in May, fashioning a 14-game hitting streak in which he batted .429 (24-for-56) with 6 home runs and 13 RBI...included was his fourth 2-homer game of the young season on May 17 in Cincinnati, becoming the fastest ever to 20 home runs, achieving the mark in 40 games, a game quicker than Mickey Mantle in 1956...Luis recorded the 1,500th hit of his career by tripling on May 30 in San Francisco...he was awarded the league Player-of-the-Month award for June, hitting .417 (43-for-103) in 27 games with 26 runs, 7 doubles, 12 homers and 35 RBI, totaling 86 bases for a June slugging pct. of .835...included was the first 3-homer game of his career, going deep to all 3 fields of Kansas City's Kauffman Stadium to lead the D'Backs to an 11-4 win...Gonzo hit another hot streak at mid-month, homering 6 times and driving in 15 in a 7-game stretch to earn co-N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors with Houston's Lance Berkman...included was a 2-homer, 6-RBI affair on June 19 in Los Angeles, then 2 nights later in Colorado he hit a grand slam off of Colorado's Gabe White, Gonzo's first slam since June 20, 1997...he recorded his seventh multi-homer game of the season on July 3 in Houston's Enron Field, taking Scott Elarton deep twice, including his second grand slam of 2001, third of his career...he continued the long ball momentum into the All-Star break, though Gonzo did not take a break, as he was voted into the N.L. starting lineup, going 1-for-2...he was also the surprise winner of the Home Run Derby the day before in Safeco Field, knocking off Sammy Sosa in the finals...when regular season play resumed, Luis snapped the longest home run drought in franchise history with a 2-run blast in Anaheim off of Ismael Valdes to give Arizona the lead en route to a 6-2 win and halting a stretch of 58.0 innings in which the D'Backs had not homered...he hit his 39th and 40th homers in Arizona's 100th game on July 24 against San Diego, driving in 5 in an 11-0 victory, his eighth and final multi-homer game of the year...Gonzalez became only the fifth player ever to hit 50 home runs before September 1 when he took Kirk Rueter deep at home on August 29, joining Bonds, Sosa, Mark McGwire and Roger Maris... though he finished the year with 57 home runs, #54 was one of his biggest, his only "walk-off" blast of the year to stake Arizona to a 4-3 win in 11 innings over the Dodgers on September 28...he played in all 162 games for the second consecutive year, closing the season with the majors' longest active streak of games played at 327...counting the post-season, Luis was the first player to participate in 179 games in a year...2001 was his third straight 100-RBI season with Arizona after never driving in more than 79 in any of his 8 prior seasons...his homer on July 13 in Anaheim was the 200th of his career...he has homered 137 times in his last 4 seasons, totaling 2,388 at bats, a 17.4 at bat per home run, after hitting just 84 in his first 8 big league seasons totaling 2,767 AB's for a 32.9 ratio...Gonzo's final numbers matched him with Babe Ruth's 1921 campaign as the only players in history to hit at least .320 with 35 doubles, 50 homers, 120 runs, 130 RBI, 100 walks, 100 extra-base hits and 400 total bases in a season...Gonzalez also completed his first career errorless campaign playing in 161 games in left...his only non-start of the year was on May 27 in San Diego, but he appeared as a pinch hitter...one of the down sides to becoming a power hitter was that he finished the year tied for fifth in the N.L. in hit by pitches with 14, then was plunked 3 times in the post-season.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Luis entered the bottom of the ninth inning of the seventh game of the World Series hitless in 4 at bats, but by the end of that at bat he would be in the midst of the greatest celebration to ever hit the Valley of the Sun...with the bases loaded and a drawn-in infield he sent teammates and fans into a frenzy with a bloop single off of Mariano Rivera to drive home Jay Bell with the winning run that staked Arizona to a remarkable 3-2 win and its first World Championship...Gonzo prefaced the game #7 heroics with 2 hits in the 15-2 runaway in game #6, including a 2-run double in Arizona's 8-run third inning...he jumpstarted the World Series experience with a 2-run homer off of Mike Mussina in game #1, giving the D'Backs a 3-1 lead en route to a 9-1 triumph...it was Gonzo's third roundtripper of the post-season and 60th overall on the year...the Fall Classic also featured a sidebar in which Gonzalez and his childhood best friend, Tino Martinez, each played a huge role in their club's success...raised in Tampa, FL, they played on the same Jefferson High School team that went to the state finals in 1985 and even worked in the same cigar factory that was run by Martinez's grandfather...Gonzo's overall post-season batting average was an uncharacteristic .246 (16-for-65), due in a large part to an injured right wrist from being hit by pitches and a right hamstring strain...he still provided key offensive contributions throughout Arizona's run to the title, including a big night in Atlanta in game #4 of the NLCS when the D'Backs took a 3-1 lead in the series...Luis was on base 5 times going 2-for-3 with 2 walks, a hit by pitch while scoring twice and knocking in 3 with a ninth inning homer to blow open the 11-4 victory...he closed out the Division Series against St. Louis by reaching base safely in 7 of his last 11 plate appearances over the final 3 games, including a solo homer off of Darryl Kile in Arizona's 5-3 win at Busch Stadium in game #3.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Luis became the first D'Back in franchise history to appear in and start all 162 games and earned co-Player-of-the-Year honors with Steve Finley as voted by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...Gonzo was also named to his second consecutive Good Guy Award...Luis opened the season going 10-for-19 (.526) through the first 5 games, featuring a club record-tying 3-double affair on April 7 vs. the Pirates...he was hitting .229 as late as May 6 before kicking off a stretch in which he never went more than 2 straight games without a hit the rest of the way...he recorded his 300th career double on June 18 vs. San Diego...he earned his first career N.L. HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, December 8, 2000.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

When Mark was not given the opportunity to return to the Chicago Cubs after 13 big league seasons, his goal was to sign with a club that he could help put over the top and hopefully be the last team standing...the Diamondbacks got what they wanted, a consistent bat and terrific glove, and in turn Gracie wound up a major contributor to a World Series winner...the #1 doubles producer during the decade of the 90's hasn't slowed down in the 21st century, posting his seventh consecutive season with at least 30 doubles, the 10th of his major league career...once the 2001 regular season was complete, Mark ranked fifth among active players with 487 career doubles, and 46th on the all-time list...he had an 18-game hitting streak from May 18-June 10 in which he batted .422 (27-for-64) and fell just a game shy of his career best set 10 years earlier in 1991 with the Cubs...the streak came to an abrupt end on June 12 when he suffered a contusion on the middle finger of his left hand when a ball hit by Matt Stairs in the fifth inning took a bad hop and not only knocked Mark out of that contest, but the next 5 games...the hitting streak was filled with key moments beginning with an eighth inning grand slam off Philly's Ricky Bottalico on May 13, the third slam of Gracie's career...he followed 2 nights later with a tie-breaking 2-run blast in the eighth inning off of Cincinnati's Mark Wohlers to jumpstart Arizona's 3-game sweep of the Reds in Cinergy Field...the sweep in Cincy geared Gracie up for his highly publicized return to Wrigley Field and his first game back at the corner of Clark & Addison couldn't have been better scripted as he snapped a scoreless tie with a 2-run single in the sixth inning on May 18...he added a double in the eighth then was intentionally walked in the ninth as Randy Johnson posted a 4-0 win...a week later on May 25, Mark keyed a 6-run third inning in San Diego with a 3-run homer off of Bobby Jones, as the D'Backs kicked off a club record tying 9-game winning streak...though not known for the long ball, it was a factor again just 3 days later on Memorial Day (May 28) in San Francisco, as Gracie snapped a 1-1 tie in the 12th inning with a solo blast into McCovey Cove...the shot was the third by a Giants' opponent at the time to splash down outside Pacific Bell Park, joining Luis Gonzalez and Todd Hundley...after the All-Star break, Mark hit safely in the last 9 games of Arizona's longest road trip of the year, batting at a .424 clip (14-for-33) featuring 3 doubles and 3 homers...he recorded the 2,300th hit of his career on August 1 and ended the season ranking eighth among active players with 2,343 career hits...he had 4 RBI in a game on 4 occasions...when not in the lineup, Mark was a key component to the pinch-hit corps that led the National League with a composite .278 average...he was 4-for-8 as a pinch hitter with 4 RBI...his pinch hit work was climaxed with a run scoring single off the Dodgers' Jesse Orosco in the eighth inning on September 28 in Bank One Ballpark, enabling Arizona to tie the game at 3-3 and set the stage for Luis Gonzalez's "walk-off" home run heroics in the 11th inning...Gracie finished the regular season hitting safely in 5 straight going 8-for-17 (.471).

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Mark's first extended visit to the post-season had a fitting climax as the veteran first baseman started the rally that iced the World Championship for the Diamondbacks...with 2 hits already in the books in game #7, he delivered a leadoff single against Mariano Rivera to ignite the 2-run rally that ended on a Luis Gonzalez single...Gracie hit his first World Series homer in game #4 at Yankee Stadium, a fourth inning upper deck blast to right-field off of Orlando Hernandez to tie the game at 1-1...it was Mark's second career post-season home run, first since game #1 of the 1989 NLCS against the Giants...he had a 6-game hitting streak during Arizona's run to the title, hitting safely in all 5 games of the NLCS against Atlanta, then picking up a double and 2 RBI in his World Series debut in game #1 vs. the Yanks...Gracie and the D'Backs received a scare in game #5 of the NLCS against the Braves when he was forced out of the contest after 4 innings with a tight right hamstring...his replacement Erubiel Durazo delivered a 2-run pinch-hit home run off of lefty Tom Glavine to provide the margin of victory propelling Arizona into the Fall Classic...he hit at a .375 clip (6-for-16) in the NLCS...since the D'Backs knocked the Braves off in 5 games, Grace was able to rest his hamstring for 5 days prior to the start of the World Series.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

A 3-time All-Star and 4-time Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner, Mark was voted to the Cubs' all-century team in 1999...he is a 2-time N.L. Player-of-the-Week and once a Player-of-the-Month honoree...he entered 2002 fourth among active players in doubles (487), and ranks 46th on the all-time list...he is also sixth among active players in hits (2,343), 103rd all-time, and 11th among the active in walks (1,013), 87th all-time...Grace led the majors during the decade of the 90's with 1,754 hits and 364 doubles, while his 1,238 singles ranked second to Tony Gwynn...by leading the 90's in hits, Grace joined such greats as Honus Wagner, Ty Cobb, Rogers Hornsby, Paul Waner, Lou Boudreau, Richie Ashburn, Roberto Clemente, Pete Rose and current Diamondback coach Robin Yount as decade hit leaders in the 20th century...Mark has walked more than he has fanned in every professional season and entered 2001 with 1,013 career walks and just 597 K's...during the 1990's, Grace became just the second player in Cubs history to start every season opener of a decade at the same position, joining Cap Anson (the 1880's at first base)...Mark has finished in the N.L. Top 10 in batting on 8 occasions...defensively his .995 career fielding pct. was the highest in Cub history at first base, while his 1,890 games at that position rank second in franchise history to Anson (2,058).

2000—Mark's final season as a Cub, he tied for eighth in the N.L. with 41 doubles and tied for ninth in walks with a career-high 95...reached a pair of milestones during the year, scoring his 1,000th career run on May 2 against the Astros, the eighth player in Cub history to achieve that mark, while recording his 1,000th career RBI on September 23 against St. Louis, the seventh player in franchise history to attain that total...Mark had his first career 5-hit game on August 6 in San Diego...also had a pair of 4-hit affairs (July 26 at Philadelphia and September 11 in Cincinnati), giving him 19 career games of at least 4 knocks...the 4-hit effort in Philly drove in a career-high 6 runs, including his second career grand slam (off of Paul Byrd)...Mark was the opening day first baseman for the 12th consecutive year, homering in the March 29 lid lifter against the Mets in Tokyo...he continued his mastery with the leather leading all N.L. first basemen with a .997 fielding percentage, committing only 4 errors in 1,205 total chances, including just 1 miscue after the All-Star break...Mark was one of four captains on the 2000 roster (Sammy Sosa, Kevin Tapani and Rick Aguilera), the first Cub captains since Ron Santo in 1973...he was disabled for just the fourth time in his 13-year career from May 11-30 with a left hamstring strain. 1999—Mark hit .309 for the second consecutive season, sixth straight season above .300...his 107 runs were a career-high and 91 RBI marked his third best total...he recorded the 400th double of his career against the Diamondbacks on August 9 off of Omar Daal...he surpassed Ernie Banks for second on the Cubs' all-time doubles list on September 8 vs. Cincinnati...he collected his 2,000th major league hit in his 1,709th career game on August 2, a single off of Montreal's Dustin Hermanson...Mark hit the first grand slam of his career on May 4 at Wrigley Field off of Colorado's Darryl Kile. 1998—Had a career-high 17 home runs while providing a flair for the dramatic during the course of the season...he celebrated Mark Grace/Authentic Starting Lineup Collectible Figurine Day on April 19 by going 3-for-4 against the Dodgers, featuring the game-winning hit...on the 10th anniversary of his major league debut on May 2, Grace had 3 hits and scored the winning run in Chicago's 4-3, 11-inning victory over the Cardinals...he also provided the perfect ending for "Gracie the Swan" Beanie Baby Day on September 13 vs. the Brewers by delivering a game-winning home run in the bottom of the 10th...Grace began the season in pain playing with a fracture of the distal phalanx of his right big toe, suffering the injury in his final spring at bat on March 29 vs. Montreal. 1997—Hit his 100th career home run on July 6, a 2-run shot off the Phillies' Mark Leiter...he made his third trip to the All-Star Game, going 0-for-1 at the game in Cleveland...he was disabled from April 4-19, straining his right hamstring while running out a triple on April 3 in Florida. 1996—Mark hit a career-high .331 while earning his fourth Rawlings Gold Glove...his .331 average was fifth in the N.L. and the highest mark by a Cub since Bill Madlock hit .339 in 1976...he was the first Cubs lefthanded batter to break the .330 mark since Billy Williams hit .333 in 1972...he recorded career hit #1,500 on September 13 with a single off the Phils' Rich Hunter...was on the disabled list for the second time in his career, first since 1989, missing time from June 11-28 with a mid-back strain. 1995—One of his best overall seasons, recording a league leading and career-high 51 doubles, while adding 16 home runs, 92 RBI and earned his third Rawlings Gold Glove...he shattered the Cubs record for doubles in a season by a lefthanded batter, breaking Charlie Grimm's mark of 42 in 1932, the fourth overall 50-double campaign in team history, first in 59 years, joining Kiki Cuyler (50 in 1930) and Billy Herman (57 in 1935 and 1936)...Grace was the first N.L. player to achieve 50 doubles since Pete Rose (51) in 1978...Mark made his second All-Star Game appearance, playing the final 3 innings at first base in The Ballpark in Arlington...he walked 6 times in an August 10 doubleheader against San Diego, just the sixth N.L. batter to accomplish the feat...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for the final week of the season hitting .516 (16-for-31) with 9 RBI...he was named to Baseball America's post-season N.L. All-Star team. 1994—Led the club with 106 games played in the strike-shortened season. 1993—Finished fifth in the league batting race with a .325 mark, while establishing career bests in hits (193) and RBI (98)...he won his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove, committing just 5 errors in 1,573 chances (.997 fielding pct.)...led all major league first basemen in total chances and putouts (1,456) for the third consecutive year...on May 9 vs. San Diego he became the 14th player in Cub history to hit for the cycle, doubling off of Greg Harris in the first inning, singling off Harris in the third, tripling off Harris in the seventh, then homering off of Rich Rodriguez in the ninth...made his first trip to the All-Star Game, going 0-for-3 as the N.L. designated hitter at Camden Yards in Baltimore...Grace recorded his 1,000th career hit on August 31 off Philadelphia's Ben Rivera (879th career game). 1992—Mark won his first of 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves, finishing the season with a .998 fielding pct., while leading all major league first basemen in chances (1,725) and putouts (1,580)...he finished ninth in the N.L. batting race with a .307 mark...was the second toughest to strikeout in the N.L. with a 1 in 19.1 ratio. 1991—Led the N.L. in at bats (619), ranked second in games played (160) and ninth in hits (169)...he recorded a career-high 19-game hitting streak from July 24-August 13, batting .439 (36-for-82)...had the second 2-homer game of his career on July 4 vs. Pittsburgh, climaxing with a game-winning solo shot off of Bill Landrum...finished with a .995 fielding pct., leading all major league first basemen in putouts (1,520), assists (167) and total chances (1,695). 1990—Tied for sixth in the league with a .309 average...he set a major league record in assists by a first baseman with 180...had a major league record-tying 3 assists in an inning on May 23 vs. Los Angeles (fourth inning). 1989—Mark's first full season in the majors, he finished fourth in the N.L. batting race with a .314 mark, and topped the Cubs with 79 RBI...was the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for July when he batted .347 with 5 homers and 24 RBI in 27 games...had his first career 2-homer game on August 19 in the Astrodome...was disabled for the first time on June 5-23 with a right shoulder strain...had an outstanding NLCS against the Giants, batting .647 (11-for-17) with 3 doubles, a triple, homer, 8 RBI and a 1.118 slugging pct. 1988—Opened the year with Iowa (AAA), hitting just .254 in 21 games, but had his contract purchased on May 2 and has never looked back...his .296 average ranked sixth in the N.L. and he earned The Sporting News' N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year award, the first Cub to win the honor since Ken Hubbs in 1962...Mark finished second in the BBWAA Rookie of the Year balloting behind Cincinnati's Chris Sabo, and was selected to the Topps Major League Rookie All-Star team...Mark made his big league debut on May 2 in San Diego, just a couple of miles from the campus of San Diego State University, where he had played just 3 years earlier...he had 2 hits in his debut game, with his first hit coming off of Jimmy Jones...he recorded his first big league double the next night off of Greg Booker, then added his first career home run in the series finale on May 4 off of Keith Comstock...Mark had his first career 5-RBI game on July 1 at Los Angeles. 1987—Was selected the Eastern League Most Valuable Player after driving in a league-high 101 runs at Pittsfield (AA)...he hit .333 with 54 extra-base hits and had a .545 slugging pct. 1986—Made his pro debut with Peoria (A), winning the Midwest League batting title with a .352 mark...earned mid-season and post-season league All-Star honors.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, December 18, 2001.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Jose suffered a left knee sprain 40 games into the season and was unable to recover from the injury, playing in a career-low 41 games...at the time of the injury, he had started 23 of the last 27 games for Tampa Bay and appeared to have regained his hitting stroke batting .319 over a 13-game stretch...known for his defense, he had registered a major league leading 7 outfield assists before the setback...his initial rehab stint with Durham in June was delayed by a 10-game suspension he received following his ejection from the June 12 contest at Louisville for using an illegal bat...Jose attempted to come back from the injury in late-June but ended up back on the disabled list until the end of July when he was activated and optioned to Durham...he suited up 33 games for the Bulls, hitting .294 with 7 home runs and 29 RBI...he returned to action for the final month of the season and continued the hot hitting he had displayed prior to the injury, batting .344 in 13 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Right shoulder tendinitis shelved him on April 1 to start the season...he returned from the D.L. and was optioned to Durham (AAA) on April 12...appeared in 19 games prior to being recalled when Tampa Bay traded Dave Martinez...during his brief stay in Durham, he led the International League with a .423 (33-for-78) batting average, 9 home runs, 31 RBI and a .923 slugging percentage...he earned Player-of-the-Week honors for April 17-23 and May 8-14...he blasted home runs in 3 straight games to start off both weeks...Jose hit for the cycle in a 13-9 win on April 22 against Norfolk, becoming only the second person in Tampa Bay organization history to achieve the feat...returned to the Devil Rays on May 12 and started 43 of the next 50 games in right...rapped a season-high 3 hits against Seattle on May 28, including a pair of 2-run doubles in an 11-run eighth inning...became the only Devil Ray with 2 extra-base hits in one inning...tied 2 team records with 2 triples and 3 extra-base hits on June 7 at Philadelphia...launched 5 home runs in 11 games (34 at-bats) from June 14-25 but closed out the season with only 3 homers in 231 plate appearances...from July 6 through the end of the season, started in only 36 of last 79 games...had a career-high 10-game hitting streak from August 4-13...ranked 4th in the league and set the new club record with 13 hit-by-pitches. 1999—Made his third consecutive opening day start in rightfield for Pittsburgh...played in 35 games in a pair of stints for Nashville (AAA) before he was traded on July 23...homered on June 9 at Detroit, his only home run for Pittsburgh on the season...he was traded to Tampa Bay on July 23 along with pitcher Jeff Sparks in exchange for catchers Joe Oliver and Humberto Cota...played for Durham (AAA) in a short 9-game stop before joining Tampa Bay on August 8 for the final 52 games, starting 47 in rightfield...launched his first homer for Tampa Bay at home on August 26 off of Chicago's John Snyder. 1998—He got the Opening Day starting nod in rightfield for the Pirates and finished the year with 16 outfield assists, fourth in the National League...started out hot at the plate, batting .326 (72-for-221) through June 12, a span of 61 games...batting average plummeted in his final 92 games as he went 81-for-352 (.230)...launched his first major league grand slam off of Jeff Juden on June 21 in Milwaukee...knocked in 20 runs in 15 games from September 5-19. 1997—The 20-year old jumped from Lynchburg (A) into the starting rightfield spot on Opening Day, making him the Pirates' youngest opening day starter since Bill Mazeroski in 1957 (20)...singled off of San Francisco's Rich Delucia on April 3 for his first major league hit...took Pete Schourek deep on April 19 at Cincinnati for his first major league home run...he led the team with 9 outfield assists...a member of the TOPPS All-Rookie team, he trailed fellow N.L. rookies Scott Rolen of Philadelphia (21) and Andruw Jones of Atlanta (18) in home runs and tied Jones for the second-highest RBI mark behind Rolen's 92 RBI...finished behind Rolen (159) in the hits department but registered a rookie-best 39 multi-hit games...competed in the Rookie Home Run Contest at the All-Star Game in Cleveland...played for Escogido in the Dominican Republic winter league. 1996—The Carolina League MVP at Lynchburg (A), he led the league in hits and tied for the home run lead with teammate Freddy Garcia, while finishing second in RBI and third in extra-base hits (51)...selected to the All-Star Game on June 18...batted .400 (42-for-105) with 9 home runs and 29 RBI in 26 contests to earn Player-of-the-Month honors for July...he topped all Pirate farmhands in RBI and finished third in batting...registered 16 outfield assists in 125 rightfield appearances...selected to the TOPPS/NAPBL Class A All-Star team. 1995—An All-

Star for Erie (A) of the New York-Penn League, he paced the league in home runs and finished second in slugging pct. and extra-base hits (30)...earned a promotion on August 25, playing in 10 games for the league-champion Augusta Green Jackets. 1994—Played for Bradenton, the Pirates' rookie league affiliate, in the Gulf Coast League. 1993—Earned July Player-of-the-Month honors for the Dominican Summer League Pirates...led the team in home runs, placing fifth in the league, and RBI...had 12 outfield assists.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Rick led the Rangers in wins (12), starts (34), complete games (2), innings (215.2) and strikeouts (154)...he finished tied for third in the American League in starts, while it was his fourth consecutive year with at least 10 victories, the longest such streak for Texas since Charlie Hough reeled off at least 10 wins in 9 straight years (1982-90)...Helling made a nice recovery after an uncharacteristic slow start in which he was 0-3 with a 10.24 ERA through his first 4 outings...won only 1 of his first 7 decisions through 10 starts on May 19, before turning his year around by going 4-0 through his last 8 starts of that stretch...Rick tossed Texas' only complete game shutout of the season, a 4-hit, 2-0 victory on July 29 against Tampa Bay, the first by a Ranger in 303 games dating back to Aaron Sele on August 22, 1999, vs. Boston...Helling worked 9.0 innings without a decision on June 26 at Anaheim...he worked 8.1 shutout frames on August 31 in Kansas City before allowing a home run to Mike Sweeney...known as a workhorse, he lasted at least 6 innings in 26 of his 34 starts on the year, and pitched less than 5.0 frames only once in his last 31 starts...he left with a lead in 6 straight starts from August 20-September 23, going 3-0 while the pen was charged with 3 blown saves...the slow start contributed to Helling becoming the first pitcher to lead his league in runs, hits and homers allowed since Atlanta's Phil Niekro in 1979, and first in the American League since Washington's Pedro Ramos in 1961.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Rick entered 2001 with a streak of 145 consecutive starts without missing a turn since joining the Texas rotation on August 18, 1997...his 137 starts over the last 4 seasons (1998-2001) were the most in the American League, and third most in the majors in that span, trailing only Randy Johnson and Tom Glavine, who have each made 138 in that span...he left the Rangers with the third highest winning percentage in club history at .571.

2000—Led the Rangers in wins (16) and strikeouts (146), while tying Toronto's David Wells for the A.L. lead in starts (35)...Rick was the first pitcher to lead the A.L. in starts in consecutive full seasons since Mike Moore with Oakland in 1992-93...Helling was named the Rangers' Pitcher-of-the-Year for the second time in 3 seasons by the Dallas-Ft. Worth Chapter of the BBWAA...the 2000 campaign was a year of streaks, opening the season going 7-1 with a 3.22 ERA through May 23 (10 starts)...followed by dropping 6 straight decisions from May 28-June 23, the longest drought of his career...he snapped that dry spell with a win on June 28 in Oakland to jumpstart a 6-0, 3.25 stretch through August 2 (8 starts), a win shy of his career best streak...Helling was the Rangers Player-of-the-Month for July going 4-0 with a 3.12 ERA in 6 starts...he limited opposing batters to a .236 mark (49-for-208) with runners in scoring position, fifth lowest in the A.L. 1999—Topped the A.L. in starts (35) while leading the Texas staff in complete games (3), ranked second in strikeouts (131) and tied for second in wins (13)...he tied a career best by winning 7 straight over a 10-start stretch from July 20-September 6...Rick tied for first in the A.L. and third in baseball in runners caught stealing when pitching (14)...set a club record by allowing 41 home runs, one more than Ferguson Jenkins in 1979. 1998—Tied Roger Clemens (Toronto), David Cone (New York Yankees) and Tom Glavine (Atlanta) for the major league lead with 20 wins...it marked the third highest win total in franchise history trailing only Jenkins in 1974 (25) and Kevin Brown in 1992 (21), and the best winning pct. (.741) in team annals...Helling had 11 career wins prior to the '98 season, the fewest for a 20-game winner since Scott Erickson had 8 prior to his 20-8 season with the Twins in 1991...Rick went 11-4 with a 3.88 ERA in 18 road starts, a team record for away victories and the second most in the majors...he was named the Rangers' Pitcher-of-the-Year by the Dallas-Ft. Worth chapter of the BBWAA...he was the first pitcher in Ranger history to win his first 6 starts, and third starter to go 6-0 (Jeff Russell in 1988 and Bobby Witt in 1997)...Rick tied a club mark with a 5-0 April...he closed the year going 13-4 in his last 21 outings...he shared the Rangers' September Player-of-the-Month award with current teammate Todd Stottlemyre...Helling teamed with Curt Schilling as a member of the Major League Baseball All-Star contingent that competed in an 8-game exhibition series in Japan in November, allowing a run over 9.0 innings while going 2-0. 1997—He made 41 appearances for Florida and Texas to go 5-9...Rick was 2-4 in 8 starts and 0-2 in 23 relief appearance for the Marlins before being traded on August 13 for reliever Ed Vosberg...Helling worked twice in relief before joining the starting rotation on August 18, then went 3-3 with a 4.82 ERA in 8 starts...he combined with John Wetteland on a 1-hit, 2-0 victory in his start on the 18th in the second game of a doubleheader vs. Milwaukee...it was the fourth combined 1-hitter in team history, with the only hit a 2-out single by Fernando Viña in the sixth inning...he did not allow a run in his first 10.2 innings as a Ranger...Rick fanned a career-high 12 on September 4 at Toronto. 1996—He was the American Association Pitcher-of-the-Year, going 12-4 with a league leading 2.96 ERA and 157 K's for Oklahoma City...he was the righthanded pitcher on the post-season All-Star team...Rick pitched the only perfect game in pro ball in '96 and the first in 89ers history on August 13 vs. Nashville, retiring all 27 men in a 4-0 victory...he had a trio of abbreviated stints with the Rangers, twice getting spot starts due to injuries to Kevin Gross...Helling was sent to the Marlins on September 3 as the player-to-be-named with Ryan Dempster to complete the August 8 trade for John Burkett...Rick made his N.L. debut as a reliever on September 5 vs. Montreal, then went 2-1 with a 1.69 ERA in 4 starts to close the year. 1995—He began the year in the Texas rotation for the second consecutive season, going 0-2 in 3 starts before being optioned to Oklahoma City on May 15 for the remainder of the year...he pitched for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League. 1994—Reported to spring training as a non-roster invitee and earned a spot in the Rangers' starting rotation...he debuted with a no decision on April 10 at Baltimore allowing 4 runs in 4.0 innings, then was 3-0 with a 2.68 in his next 5 starts...Helling posted first big league victory on April 15 against the Orioles in Arlington...the final outing of that 5-start stretch was a 9-hit shutout over the Twins on May 6, the first Texas rookie to fire a complete game shutout since Ray Hayward on May 18, 1988 at Toronto...Rick went 0-2 with a 15.55 ERA over his next 3 starts and was optioned to Oklahoma City on May 22 for the remainder of the season. 1993—He was the Rangers' Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Year, going 13-9 with a 3.49 with 205 K's in 188.1 innings over 28 starts for Tulsa (AA) and Oklahoma City (AAA)...his strikeout total was the highest by a Ranger minor leaguer in history, surpassing the 201 by Mike Griffin with Asheville in 1977...he fanned 9.54 batters every 9.0 innings and held the opposition to a .227 average, both second best among Texas League starters. 1992—Rick joined Charlotte after the Olympics and was 1-1 with a 2.29 ERA in 3 starts...had an impressive pro debut, retiring the first 16 men he faced against Vero Beach on August 21 before runners reached on an error and a walk... had a 3-0 lead and no-hitter into the seventh inning before allowing a leadoff double.

PERSONAL

Ricky Allen (Rick) Helling...he and his wife, Tomasa, have a son, Randall Scott (2/18/00) and were expecting their second child during the first month of the 2002 season...Rick graduated in 1989 from Shanley High School in Fargo, ND, starring in baseball, basketball and football...he had attended Fargo's Lakota High for 3 years, lettering each year in baseball, basketball and football...overall, he was a 4-time All-Conference selection at third base as teams won the state title 3 times...he led North Dakota in scoring during his senior basketball season and was a 3-time All-Conference performer in football...his collegiate career began as a linebacker at the University of North Dakota in Fargo, then Rick made the move to baseball in 1991 at Kishwaukee Junior College in Malta, IL...from there he transferred to Stanford where he was 9-4 in 17 games (14 starts) in 1992, leading the Cardinal in wins, strikeouts (100) and ranking second in complete games (4)...Helling earned honorable mention All-Pacific 6 Conference honors...he was a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic Team, with each of his Olympic starts coming against eventual Gold Medal winning Cuba...he graduated from Stanford in 1993...a good fit for the Diamondbacks, Rick is a community minded player, sponsoring "Helling's Heroes", a ticket incentive program for students in the DFW Metroplex based on academic and attendance performance...he has also worked with D.A.R.E., M.A.D.D. and the Touch 'Em All Foundation...Helling is on the Executive Board of the Major League Baseball Players Association...he was named the 1999 USA Baseball Alumnus of the Year...Rick's 72 career big league victories make him the biggest winner among North Dakota natives easily passing Lynn Sheldon, who had 33 major league wins.

Unit Records Third Best in Fewer Innings

Randy Johnson's 2001 season total of 372 strikeouts was the third best single-season ever, trailing only Nolan Ryan's 383 in 1973 and Sandy Koufax's 382 in 1965. The biggest difference was that it took the Big Unit only 249.2 innings to record his total while Ryan and Koufax were each employed for over 300 innings in their respective record seasons. The Ryan Express fanned 383 in 326.0 innings, a 10.6 per 9-inning ratio, while Koufax recorded his 382 K's in 335.2 innings for the '65 Dodgers, a ratio of 10.2 per 9-innings. Johnson's ratio last year was the best single-season mark in history at 13.4.

Randy's career total of 3,412 K's has been amassed over 2,748.1 innings for a career ratio of 11.2. Comparatively, Ryan finished his career with 5,714 K's over 5386.0 innings which was a ratio of 9.5 per 9 frames...the Big Unit's career total is second among active hurlers to Roger Clemens' 3,717, but it has taken the Rocket 3,887.0 innings for an 8.6 ratio.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The legendary career of the Big Unit took another historic turn in 2001 as he etched his name alongside baseball's elite all-time pitchers...voted by the BBWAA to his third consecutive Cy Young Award, fourth in his illustrious career, Randy is the fourth pitcher to win the honor at least 4 times joining Greg Maddux, Steve Carlton and Roger Clemens...Johnson established a career-high 21 wins while leading the majors in strikeouts for the eighth time in his career with 372 over 249.2 innings...his strikeout per 9-inning ratio of 13.4 ranks as the best single-season mark in major league history eclipsing Pedro Martinez's previous record of 13.2 with the Red Sox in 1999...the Big Unit's final ERA of 2.49 was good for his second ERA title in the last 3 seasons...his 372 K's also established a career best, the third best single-season total in major league history, just 11 K's behind Nolan Ryan's all-time mark of 383...Randy also had his third consecutive year with 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying a major league record he already shared with Ryan...Johnson's strikeout total combined with Curt Schilling's 293 made them the top tandem in big league history, fanning 41 more than Ryan and Bill Singer when they K'd 624 with the Angels in 1973...Johnson concluded his remarkable year by going 16-2 with a 2.21 ERA in his last 24 appearances, allowing 42 earned runs over 171.0 innings...his 21st and final win of the year was also the 200th of his career as RJ defeated the Rockies by a 10-1 count, allowing a run on 4 hits over 7.0 frames...he became the 98th pitcher in big league history to reach the 200-win mark, fourth active hurler (Roger Clemens, Greg Maddux and Tom Glavine)...Randy was 12-1 in his last 13 decisions dating back to a win over Colorado on June 29...he went 2-0 in September to up his record for that month to 23-1 dating back to 1993 with a 2.23 ERA in 34 games (62 earned runs in 250.2 innings)... he recorded at least 16 K's in a game on 4 occasions, 3 of which were of record proportion...he fanned 20 on May 8 at home against Cincinnati joining Roger Clemens (twice) and Kerry Wood as the only hurlers to strikeout 20 in a 9-inning span...unfortunately, Randy left the game in a 1-1 deadlock with the Diamondbacks eventually posting a 4-3 win in 11 innings...his first 16 strikeout game occurred in a rare relief appearance when he took the ball the day after the July 18 contest in San Diego was suspended due to an electrical box explosion in the light ring that darkened Qualcomm Stadium in the third inning...in relief of Schilling, Randy worked the final 7.0 innings allowing an eighth inning single for San Diego's only hit in the game while fanning 16 of the 23 men he faced to establish a major league record for K's in a relief appearance (Walter Johnson had 15 in 11.1 innings in 1913)...RJ also set a National League mark for relievers with 7 straight strikeouts, his second of 3 outings that featured 7 straight K's...the Big Unit's third 16-K game also found its way into the record book on August 23 in Pittsburgh, working 7.0 innings in a 5-1 loss, his only setback in his last 18 trips to the hill...his first inning strikeout of Jack Wilson was RJ's 1,000th in less than 3 full seasons as a D'Back...he fanned Wilson again in the sixth to become his 300th victim of the 2001 season, the first time in history that a pitcher recorded at least 300 K's in 4 straight seasons...the sixth inning was also when Randy tied a big league record with 3 K's on 9 pitches, the 23rd time it has occurred in N.L. history, 33rd time in the majors...RJ opened the year 12th on the all-time strikeout list but his career total of 3,412 catapulted him into the ninth spot passing Hall of Famers Bob Gibson, Ferguson Jenkins and Phil Niekro during the 2001 season...Randy appeared in 17 games after an Arizona defeat, going 10-2 featuring an 8-0 mark and 1.21 ERA in his last 13 post-loss outings, giving up just 13 earned runs in 96.2 innings...Johnson had a team record 8-game winning streak from June 29-August 18, spanning 10 games...he upped his career record on Opening Day to 4-0 in 9 starts with a 3-2 win in Los Angeles on April 3...he finished second in the N.L. by limiting opposing hitters to a composite .203 average...he was touched for 19 homers on the year, but only 5 in his last 15 appearances, spanning 110.0 innings...RJ started the All-Star Game in Seattle, his eighth overall trip to the Midsummer Classic, second straight start...the Big Unit's 373 strikeouts came while walking only 71 hitters, a differential of 301 which is the second best in major league history...when Sandy Koufax set the N.L. strikeout record with 382 in 1965 he walked only 71 men, a difference of 311.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Randy had a career full of mound accomplishments for his regular season work, but until he flourished in the post-season he would always have his critics...he was able to silence those critics with his work in the 2001 fall season, culminated by being named the Co-MVP of the World Series with mound-mate Curt Schilling...it could not have ended any better for the duo who combined to go 9-1 with a 1.30 ERA in a dozen outings...the Fall Classic ended with Randy as the starter in the 15-2 runaway triumph in game #6, then he returned to the hill less than 24 hours later in relief to record the final 4 outs prior to Arizona's amazing come-from-behind effort to win game #7 and the World Series title...he became the first pitcher in 55 years to post a win as a starter in game #6 and reliever in game #7 since St. Louis' Harry Brecheen (1946)...the Big Unit became the first 5-game winner in post-season history and the 13th pitcher to win 3 times in the same World Series, first since Detroit's Mickey Lolich (1968)...RJ's first-ever World Series experience began with an efficient 4-0 win in game #2, going the distance on a 3-hitter with a walk and 11 K's, the 47th double-digit strikeout game in Series history...it was the first Fall Classic complete game since Greg Maddux vs. Cleveland in game #1 of the '95 Series, and first complete game shutout since Schilling's game #5 triumph over Toronto in 1993...the 3-hitter also marked the fewest hits allowed in a World Series complete game shutout since Orel Hershiser 3-hit the A's in game #2 in 1988...the blanking of the Yankees was the first time the Bronx Bombers had been victimized by a complete game shutout in World Series competition since the Dodgers' Don Drysdale fired a 3-hitter in game #3 of 1963...Randy returned to the hill in game #6, a 15-2 triumph allowing 6 hits over 7.0 innings...his first inning strikeout of Derek Jeter was RJ's 412th overall strikeout of the year (372 regular season/40 post-season) surpassing Sandy Koufax for the highest combined single-season total in big league history (Koufax had 382 regular season/29 World Series in 1965)...Randy was also a factor at the plate in game #6, delivering a run scoring single during Arizona's 8-run explosion in the third inning...he also scored twice, the first pitcher to do so in a World Series game since Bob Gibson in game #4 of the '68 series against Detroit...Johnson followed the next night with his impressive 1.1-inning relief stint, his first post-season bullpen work since going 3.0 frames against the Yankees in game #5 of the '95 Division Series while with Seattle...Randy's game 6 & 7 performances made him the first hurler to start a World Series game and pitch in relief in the next game since Baltimore's Dave McNally in 1971 vs. Pittsburgh, when he started game #5 and relieved in games 6 & 7...all told, the Big Unit compiled a 1.04 ERA allowing 2 earned runs in 17.1 World Series innings, limiting the Yankees to a .150 average (9-for-60) with 3 walks and 19 K's...his 5-game post-season winning streak began in the NLCS against Atlanta, winning game #1 by going the distance allowing 3 hits with a walk and 11 K's in posting a 1-0 win, the exact pitching line he later recorded in game #2 of the World Series...RJ allowed a first inning single to Chipper Jones then fired 7.0 straight hitless innings to set an NLCS record, an inning more of consecutive no-hit ball than Jack Billingham recorded with Cincinnati in game #1 of the '73 series vs. the Mets...Randy also tied the overall LCS mark set by the Orioles' McNally in game #2 of the '69 ALCS vs. Minnesota...he followed with a win in the N.L. pennant clincher in game #5 at Turner Field, working 7.0 frames allowing 2 runs on 7 hits with 2 walks and 8 K's, a 3-2 decision...one of the biggest moments of the post-season, yet lost in the World Series hype was the last pitch that Johnson threw in the NLCS, fanning Brian Jordan with the bases loaded and 2-out in the seventh inning to maintain the 3-2 lead...B.K. Kim entered in the eighth and retired 6 of 7 men he faced to record the save and send the D'Backs to the Fall Classic...Randy's 19 K's in his 2 starts against the Braves set an NLCS record, 2 more than the Mets' Tom Seaver in 1973...RJ's lone Division Series appearance awoke the critics as his post-season losing streak extended to 7 games (8 starts) with a 4-1 loss in game #2 against the Cards...he gave up 3 runs over an 8-inning stint, but a 2-run opposite field first inning homer by Albert Pujols provided St. Louis and Woody Williams with the early lead...Randy's 5-game winning streak after the loss to the Redbirds featured a 1.08 ERA allowing 4 earned runs over 33.1 innings with 6 walks and 38 K's...despite the highly publicized 7-game slide, the Big Unit has a lifetime 2.82 ERA in 15 career post-season appearances, going 7-7 while fanning 120 men in 102.0 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Randy's career strikeout total of 3,412 is ninth on the all-time list and he entered 2002 just 96 K's behind Walter Johnson for the eighth slot on the all-time list, 122 behind Gaylord Perry (3,534), 162 behind Don Sutton (3,574) and 228 in back of the fifth all-time total held by Tom Seaver (3,640)...the Big Unit's total is second among lefthanders, trailing only Steve Carlton (4,136)...Johnson's 1,083 strikeouts over the last 3 seasons is the best 3-year total in major league history, 4 more than Ryan had from 1972-74...RJ has kept lefthanded hitters to a .190 overall average in his career (194-for-1020), and while allowing 241 regular season home runs during his career, only 11 have been hit by lefties (Von Hayes and Jim Eisenreich-1989; Wally Joyner and Mike Greenwell-1991; Mo Vaughn-1992; Darren Bragg-1996; Darin Erstad, Mo Vaughn, Jim Edmonds (2)-1997 & Larry Walker-2001)...Randy had a personal 16-game winning streak that ran from August, 1995 through May 2, 1997, falling a win shy of the American League record for consecutive games won in a career.

2000—Randy led the majors in strikeouts for the third consecutive season with 347, while topping the N.L. in winning percentage (.731) and tying for the top spot in complete games (8), shutouts (3) and starts (35)...he became the third N.L. pitcher to win the Cy Young Award consecutively, and first lefthander to do so since Sandy Koufax in 1965-66...he also earned his second straight team Pitcher-of-the-Year honor by the area BBWAA...he became the 12th pitcher in history to reach 3,000 career strikeouts when he fanned Florida's Mike Lowell on September 10 in Pro Player Stadium...Johnson also recorded his 300th strikeout of the year in that game to join Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers in history to achieve that mark in 3 consecutive seasons...Johnson started the season by winning co-N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors and was 6-0 in April with a 0.91 ERA to earn league Pitcher-of-the-Month honors...he was just the third pitcher in history to win 6 games before May 1, joining Vida Blue (1971) and Dave Stewart (1988)...he was 11-1 with a 1.40 ERA through 14 starts and 15-2 with a 2.01 mark at the All-Star break, earning the starting nod for the N.L....offensively, he set a club record for pitchers with 8 RBI, breaking the mark he set the previous season (7)...he had a 5-game hitting streak from April 14-May 5, going 6-for-17 (.353) with a double and 4

RBI. 1999—Randy's first year with Arizona translated into his second career Cy Young Award, joining Gaylord Perry and Pedro Martinez as the only pitchers in history to win the honor in each league...he had a major league best 364 K's while setting personal highs in complete games (12) and innings (271.2), leading the majors in each category...he won the division clincher in San Francisco on Sept. 24, allowing 3 unearned runs in the first, then limiting the Giants to 2 hits the rest of the way in an 11-3 win...he fanned 15 on April 10 in a win at Atlanta, the first of 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying Nolan Ryan's major league record for most in a season, 2 more than the previous N.L. mark set in 1965 by Sandy Koufax...the Big Unit also set a big league record by achieving the 300-strikeout mark faster than any hurler in history, fanning the Marlins' Kevin Millar for the milestone 'K' on August 26 in his 29th start, 2 starts quicker than any other pitcher...he earned N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors after allowing a run over 17.0 innings on May 25 & 30...he blanked Seattle on July 20 for the first-ever shutout in Safeco Field while jumpstarting a stretch in which the D'Backs finished the year 51-17 to run away with the N.L. West...Randy came up on the short end of 4 consecutive shutouts from June 25-July 10 to tie a major league record...the oddity of the streak was that Arizona was no-hit by the Cards' Jose Jimenez in the first loss, followed by a 1-hitter, 2-hitter and 3-hitter in succession...it marked the 10th time in major league history that a starter was blanked in 4 consecutive games, joining Willie Hernandez (1980 Cubs), Jim McAndrew (1968 Mets), Ray Sadecki (1968 Giants), Chuck Estrada (1962 Orioles), George O'Donnell (1954 Pirates), Paul Derringer (1933 Reds), Hub Pruett (1932 Boston Braves), Jesse Petty (1927 Brooklyn Dodgers) and Irv Young (1907 Boston Braves)...during the inexplicable drought, R.J. posted a 1.41 ERA, allowing 5 earned runs in 32.0 innings...he fanned 17 on June 30 in a 2-0 loss at Cincinnati starting a streak of 3 games in which he totaled 43 strikeouts, tying Doc Gooden's 3-game N.L. record set in 1984...he also earned a spot on his sixth career All-Star team, first as a National Leaguer...he was league Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, despite a 2-3 record while posting a 1.13 ERA (6 ER in 48.0 IP) while recording 64 strikeouts...he also garnered another N.L. Player-of-the-Week award for August 16-22.

1999 DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Randy appeared once vs. the Mets, absorbing an 8-4 loss in the series opener in Bank One Ballpark...he was charged with 7 earned runs on 8 hits over 8.1 innings, walking 3 and fanning 11...he left the game with the bases loaded and the score tied at 4-4 in the ninth, but Edgardo Alfonzo hit a grand slam. 1998—A record setting 10-year career with the Seattle Mariners came to an end at the trade deadline, joining a pennant race in Houston...R.J. was 9-10 with a 4.33 ERA in 23 starts for the Mariners, but turned his year around after joining the Astros, going 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts...he totaled a then career-high 329 strikeouts, accruing 213 in Seattle and 116 with the Astros...Johnson was acquired on July 31 with Houston clinging to a 3 1/2-game lead in the Central...after the deal, the Astros enjoyed the best overall month in franchise history, going 22-7 in August, upping the division lead to 11 games...he closed the regular season with wins in his final 7 starts, posting a 1.16 ERA (7 earned runs in 54.1 innings)...he earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for August, going 5-1 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 starts, leading the league in shutouts (3) and strikeouts (61)...after a win in Atlanta over Greg Maddux on Sept. 2, Randy fired his fourth straight shutout in the Dome, 1-0 over Cincinnati on Sept. 7...he posted his eighth win in an Astro uniform on Sept. 12 vs. St. Louis, a 3-2 triumph that ended his consecutive scoreless inning streak in the Astrodome at 36.0, allowing both runs in the first inning...all told, in 5 starts in the Dome during the regular season, Johnson held the opposition scoreless in 42 of the 43 innings he pitched, allowing 2 earned runs (0.42 ERA)...he wrapped up September the same way he ended August, winning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award, going 5-0 with a 1.41 ERA (6 ER in 38.1 IP). 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: All Randy had to show for a pair of starts in the Division Series against San Diego were great numbers and a pair of tough losses...he went up against Kevin Brown in the opener in Houston, losing 2-1, allowing 2 runs over 8.0 innings, while fanning 9...he then worked what ended up as the series finale, losing 6-1 to Sterling Hitchcock, allowing 1 earned run on 3 hits over a 6-inning stint, with 8 K's. 1997—Randy rebounded from an injury shortened 1996, to set a personal and Seattle franchise record with 20 wins, leading the A.L. in opponents' batting average (.193), winning pct. (.833) and K's per 9-innings (12.3), finishing second to Roger Clemens in the Cy Young balloting...he had a streak within a streak from May 13-June 19, a stretch that witnessed a 7-game win streak (8 starts), but included was a 5-game period in which he allowed only 1 earned run over 40.0 innings (0.23 ERA)...he had a streak of 31.0 straight scoreless innings halted by an Eric Young homer on June 13 in the Kingdome...the 7-game winning streak was stopped by Oakland on June 24, a 4-1 loss featuring 19 K's by Johnson in a complete game that included a 538-foot home run by his former college teammate Mark McGwire...Randy's effort matched the major league record and set an A.L. mark for K's in a game by a lefthanded pitcher, while also tying the big league mark for K's in a loss...Johnson earned A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for June (4-1 and 0.92 ERA)...he made his second career All-Star Game start with 2.0 shutout innings in Cleveland...he fired a shutout on August 8 vs. Chicago, a 5-hitter, fanning 19, tying his own A.L. record for K's by a southpaw...it was the eighth 19-strikeout (9-inning) game in history, the first time it was done by the same hurler twice in a season...he worked 2.0 innings of relief on Sept. 27 vs. Oakland to pick up 20th victory, his first career relief win, fanning 3, featuring his 2,000th career strikeout (Ben Grieve). 1996—Randy was 5-0 but worked only 14 times due to a lower back injury that eventually required season-ending surgery...he made his final start of the year on May 12, going 5.0 innings in a win over K.C. but was placed on the D.L. the next day with an irritated nerve in his lower back...he was on the 60-day disabled list, making 1 rehab appearance for Everett (A), then was activated from the D.L. on August 6, and worked 2.0 scoreless frames of relief that day vs. Cleveland...he fanned 8 in 4.0 innings on August 13 vs. KC, earning his second career save...he gave up 6 earned runs over his final 2 outings, including a grand slam to Darren Bragg on August 24 at Boston, the first homer he surrendered to a lefthanded hitter since 1992...Johnson was placed on the D.L. on August 27 and underwent surgery (a micro endoscopic discectomy) to correct an extruded disc herniation in his lower back on Sept. 12, a procedure performed by Dr. Robert Watkins in Los Angeles. 1995—Randy went 18-2 with a 2.48 ERA to win his first Cy Young Award, and only one in Seattle history, garnering 26 of 28 first place votes...he was also named to The Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star Teams, and was named the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Year by The Sporting News...he finished sixth in the league MVP balloting...the first Mariner to ever win the ERA title, he led the league in strikeouts and batting average against (.201), while ranking second in wins...he won his fourth consecutive league strikeout crown and established an A.L. record for best winning pct. in a season (minimum 20 decisions), breaking Ron Guidry's .893 mark (25-3) for the '78 Yankees...Seattle was 27-3 in his 30 starts...he equaled a career-high with a 160-pitch complete game at Cleveland on July 7, the first time he did not walk a man in a complete game...suffered his second (and final) loss of the year on August 1 at California...missed 3 starts over a 4-week stretch due to inflammation in his left shoulder...finished strong, earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for Sept. 18-24, going 2-0 with a 0.59 ERA, fanning 25 in 15.1 innings...was 7-0 with a 1.45 ERA for his final 10 starts, including a 3-hit, complete game in the 1-game playoff on October 2 vs. California for the A.L. West crown. 1995 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: He was the winner in game #3 of the Division Series vs. the Yankees, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...came back on a day's rest to work in relief in game #5, fanning 6 in 3.0 innings as Mariners advanced to the LCS...he had a no decision in game #3 of the LCS vs. Cleveland, allowing a run over 8.0 innings, a game that Seattle won, 5-2 in 11 innings...he was the losing pitcher in game #6, giving up 3 runs in 7.1 frames...R.J. had off-season surgery on his right knee performed by Dr. Larry Pedegana. 1994—Finished third in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors in K's, while topping the A.L. in K's per 9-innings (10.7), complete games and shutouts...Randy was Seattle's opening day starter in Cleveland on April 4, and with President Bill Clinton in attendance, he no-hit the Tribe until Sandy Alomar Jr. singled in the 8th, winding up with a no decision, an eventual 4-3 Seattle loss in 11...missed a turn in early May due to a medial meniscus cartilage tear in his right knee...he returned to work on May 15 and started a 7-game winning streak, featuring 3 consecutive shutouts from May 25-June 4, winning at Oakland (1-0, 4-hitter on May 25), at Minnesota (12-0, 2-hitter on May 30) and vs. Toronto (2-0, 6-hitter on June 4), earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors...he ran the scoreless streak to 29.0 innings before unusual circumstances brought it to an end...in the third inning of a June 10 start at the Kingdome, a power outage forced a 20-minute delay, then after play resumed, the A's scored a run on back-to-back doubles. 1993—Led the majors for the second straight year with a club record 308 K's, the first pitcher to top the 300-K plateau since Nolan Ryan in 1989 (301) and the first lefthander since Steve Carlton in 1972 (310)...Johnson won the A.L. strikeout crown by 112 K's, then the fifth largest margin in history...ended year with an 8-game winning streak, spanning last 11 games, with a 2.11 ERA and a save...had second career 1-hitter on May 16 at Oakland, a 7-0 win, fanning 14 and taking a perfect game through 7.1 frames, then had the no-no broken up by Lance Blankenship with 1 out in the ninth...he tossed 2.0 perfect innings in the All-Star Game at Camden Yards, including a memorable strikeout of Philly's John Kruk...Johnson volunteered to work in relief following Norm Charlton's season-ending injury and earned first big league save vs. Baltimore on August 16, snapping a streak of 146 straight starts...he recorded the 1000th strikeout of his career fanning Chuck Knoblauch on July 28 (the same night that Ken Griffey Jr. homered for an eighth straight game)...R.J. finished second to Chicago's Jack McDowell in Cy Young balloting, receiving 6 first place votes...he also appeared in a game as an outfielder, though he did not have any chances. 1992—Led the league in strikeouts, batting avg. against (.206) and hit batsmen (18)...he was hit by a line drive off the bat of Mike Greenwell on May 31, bruising his left elbow...after 10 days of rest, he attempted a return to action on June 10 at Texas, but pain persisted and he was placed on the D.L. until June 27...tied Ron Guidry's then-A.L. record for K's by a lefthanded pitcher with 18 strikeouts on Sept. 27 at Texas...despite record-tying performance, he left after 8.0 innings and 160 pitches with score tied 2-2...over a 3-game stretch from Sept. 16-27, he went 0-1 with a 1.80 ERA and 45 K's, the second highest 3-game strikeout total in major league history. 1991—Despite early-season back problems that led to a 3-6 start, Randy finished second in the A.L. in K's...best outing of the year was August 14 vs. Oakland, a 4-0 win featuring 12 K's, taking no-hitter into the 9th before Mike Gallego singled for the A's only hit...he had arthroscopic surgery after the season to repair a lateral release and a patellar shaving to remove a rough area on the back of his kneecap. 1990—He fired the first no-hitter in Mariner history, a 2-0 victory on June 2 vs. Detroit, walking 6 and fanning 8, an accomplishment that earned him A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...he was 5-0 with a 2.40 ERA in June, winning the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award. 1989—He began the year with Montreal going 0-4 with a 6.67 ERA in 7 games (6 starts), with the Expos scoring 7 runs in the 4 losses...was optioned to Indy (AAA) on May 9, then was included in trade with Seattle on May 25, joining the Mariners with pitchers Brian Holman and Gene Harris in exchange for pitcher Mark Langston and a player to be named (Mike Campbell)...made his Mariner debut on May 30 at Yankee Stadium, a 3-2 win. 1988—Spent the majority of the year with Indy...he was out of action from June 14-July 31 with a hairline fracture of the 5th metacarpal on his right hand...was named the #3 major league prospect in the American Association by Baseball America...was recalled by the Expos after the minor league playoffs, and won his big league debut on Sept. 15 vs. Pirates...he fanned 11 in first career complete game vs. Cubs on Sept. 20. 1987—Spent the season with Jacksonville, leading the Southern League in strikeouts...he was 6-0 with 65 K's and only 17 hits allowed in his first 8 starts, totaling 46.0 innings...he was the S.L. Player-of-the-Month in May and closed the year ranked by Baseball America as the #2 prospect in the league. 1986—At West Palm Beach, Randy caught the eye of Baseball America for the first of 3 straight years, earning #3 prospect status. 1985—Signed with the Expos as their second choice in the June draft and reported to Jamestown.

PERSONAL

Randall David (Randy) Johnson...he and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Tanner (4/5/96) and daughters, Samantha (12/28/94), Willow (4/23/98), and Alexandria (12/4/99)...Randy was a 1982 graduate of Livermore (CA) High School, where he tossed a perfect game in his final prep start...he then attended the University of Southern California on a baseball/basketball scholarship, but concentrated solely on baseball after his sophomore season...he had a college teammate who has also nabbed his share of headlines, teaming with Mark McGwire while with the Trojans...Johnson was originally drafted out of high school by the Atlanta Braves in the third round of the '82 June draft, but chose to attend USC...once an avid photographer, Randy had his work featured at Art Expo '90 in Los Angeles...following the 1990 season he made his first of two trips to Japan with fellow major leaguers, and combined with Angel southpaw Chuck Finley on a no-hitter on Nov. 11 in Tokyo...Randy made a cameo appearance in the baseball movie "Little Big League"... he is the only winner of the Warren Spahn Award, as the most outstanding lefthanded pitcher in the majors, attending the ceremony in Guthrie, OK, the first 2 times before weather prevented his attendance this past January...R.J. has also won each of the first 2 Leroy "Satchel" Paige Legacy Awards, given annually to major league baseball's "Pitcher-of-the-Year" by Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in Kansas City...Randy was voted the Seattle Post-Intelligencer's Sports Star-of-the-Year for 1993...community minded when not on the hill, Randy's success has been felt throughout the Valley, donating $95,340 to Diamondbacks Charities since joining Arizona in an effort to "Strikeout Homelessness"...R.J. has recorded a Public Service Announcement that is playing in area Harkins Theaters to raise public awareness of the homeless issue...he was the 1999 recipient of the Bronze Sierra from the Arizona Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for his continued work with C.F., including his years in Seattle...Randy is also involved in the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Salvation Army...R.J. participated in the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic in January, teaming in the Pro-Am with Dallas Cowboy runningback Emmitt Smith, while rotating on a daily basis among touring professionals which included John Daly, David Duval, Mark O'Meara and the legendary Arnold Palmer...Randy participated in the Phoenix Open Silver Pro-Am for a third straight year and joined teammates Curt Schilling, Mark Grace and manager Bob Brenly in the Celebrity Skins Game and putting contest, each of which benefitted area charities...the Big Unit also had the opportunity to live a golfer's dream by playing Augusta National the home of the Masters just prior to reporting to spring training.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

B.K. opened the year in a set-up role but was thrown into closer mode just 3 weeks into the season when Matt Mantei went down with an elbow injury that eventually required "Tommy John" surgery...Kim responded by setting a career-high with 19 saves in 23 opportunities while going through stretches in the year where he was virtually unhittable...he finished the campaign with 113 strikeouts in 98.0 innings for a ratio of 10.4 K's per 9 innings...he led all National League relievers by limiting opposing hitters to a collective .173 average, keeping righthanded hitters to a .151 mark (27-for-179) and lefties to a .199 average (31-for-156)...he also shattered Arizona's single-season appearance record, working 78 times to break Greg Swindell's mark of 64...after allowing a run on 2 walks in 1.1 innings on May 2 in Montreal, B.K. took the hill the next night and posted a 2-1 win in relief with a shutout inning, starting a 9-game stretch in which he worked 13.0 shutout innings allowing only 3 hits while fanning 18...his most impressive performance was on May 18 in Wrigley Field when he struck out 7 in a 3-inning stint...Kim recorded a 1.89 ERA in May, which was good but wound up his third best monthly ERA of the year...he opened July with 3.0 shutout innings at home against the Rockies, jumpstarting another extended stretch in which his numbers were better than those in May...B.K. worked 13.2 consecutive shutout innings from July 1-27, featuring a streak of 36 batters faced without allowing a hit until Ben Davis doubled on July 25...the hitless streak featured 30 at bats and 6 walks with 22 strikeouts...the 13.2-inning shutout streak was brought to an end in his final appearance of the month on July 29, giving up a 2-run opposite field home run to the Giants' Marvin Benard to incur a 4-3 loss...overall in 11 July appearances, Kim had a 1.23 ERA allowing 2 earned runs and fanning 24 in 14.2 innings while holding the opposition to a .087 average (4-for-46)...from June 9-July 29, he retired the first man he faced in 21 consecutive appearances, a streak that was broken up by a Geoff Blum single on August 1...the month of August featured Kim's best monthly ERA of the year, posting a 1.08 mark in 14 appearances allowing only 2 earned runs in 16.2 innings...his first trouble of the year coincided with the calendar switch to September beginning on the first night of the month as B.K. entered a bases loaded situation and gave up a grand slam to Ray Lankford that staked San Diego to a 7-5 decision...those were the only inherited runners that he allowed to score after May 22, totaling 18 runners...it was also the first of 3 games in September where the long ball wound up saddling Kim with a loss...he allowed a leadoff homer to Ryan Klesko in the 13th inning on September 2 at Qualcomm for a 1-0 Padre win, then in Colorado on September 18, Todd Helton and Jeff Cirillo went back-to-back to turn a 9-8 Arizona lead into a 10-9 defeat...of the 8 earned runs he was charged with in September, 6 were the direct result of 5 homers...despite the long ball troubles, B.K. proved he was ready to pitch in a pennant race, facing the Dodgers 4 times in a 9-day stretch in late-September and allowing only 2 hits in 7.0 shutout innings...Kim recorded 108 strikeouts in his first 62 appearances of the year, spanning 80.1 innings, but fanned only 5 batters in his last 16.2 frames...he also delivered his first major league hit during the 2001 regular season, an eighth inning, 2-run single off of the Cubs' Jeff Fassero on August 17 in B.O.B., upping Arizona's lead to 7-2.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

It's true that B.K. had a tough World Series, twice coming within an out of recording saves on consecutive nights in Yankee Stadium only to fall victim to a pair of 2-run homers that eventually led to D'Back losses...but, had it not been for Kim's work in the Division Series against St. Louis or the NLCS against the Braves, the Diamondbacks might not have been able to enjoy a trip to the Fall Classic and eventual crowning as World Champs...his first career taste of post-season play occurred in game #3 of the Division Series in Busch Stadium against the Cardinals, as he entered a 5-3 game with the go-ahead run at the plate in the eighth inning...after a walk to N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year Albert Pujols that loaded the bases, Kim escaped any damage with a fly ball to center...he then recorded the rescue by coaxing pinch-hitter Mark McGwire to hit into a game-ending double play and stake the Diamondbacks to a 2-1 advantage in the series...Kim's next work was in the NLCS vs. Atlanta, working a scoreless inning in Arizona's game #2 loss at home to the Braves, followed by saves in games 4 & 5, capped by the rescue in the National League title clincher...he entered game #4 with the bases loaded and none out in the eighth inning and the D'Backs holding a 7-3 lead...B.K. got a double play ball and lineout to escape any major damage, then worked a 1-2-3 ninth inning to post the save...he followed the next night in what turned out to be the final game of the NLCS in relief of Randy Johnson and Arizona holding a 3-2 lead, retiring 6 of the 7 men he faced, including Julio Franco on a fly ball to center to propel the D'Backs into the World Series...it would be 10 days before his next action, as Kim worked game #4 of the Fall Classic on Halloween night in Yankee Stadium...entering in the eighth inning with Arizona in possession of a 3-1 lead, he struck out the side then coaxed a groundout by Derek Jeter to open the ninth before allowing a single to Paul O'Neill...Kim fanned Bernie Williams for the second out in the ninth, but Tino Martinez connected for a game-tying home run that sent the contest into extra innings...Jeter untied the game in the 10th with a 2-out fly ball that cleared the 314-foot barrier in right field to complete the Yankee comeback just after the clock struck midnight for the first-ever game to be played in the month of November...figuring that lightening couldn't strike twice in 24 hours, manager Bob Brenly summoned Kim from the pen in the ninth inning of game #5 with the D'Backs holding a 2-0 lead, largely due to Miguel Batista's 7.2 innings of shutout ball...B.K. gave up a leadoff opposite field double to Jorge Posada, then retired the next 2 hitters before Scott Brosius became the villain with a game-tying shot to left...the Yankees dodged a bases loaded situation in the 11th then won the contest in the 12th to send the series back to Arizona...all told, Kim allowed only 1 hit over 6.1 innings of shutout ball leading up to the World Series, but was responsible for 5 earned runs in 3.1 frames over his 2 outings in Yankee Stadium...by facing the Yankees, B.K. became the first native of Korea to ever appear in World Series competition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—His first full year in the majors, he went 2-3 with 14 saves in 16 opportunities and a 1.82 ERA spanning his first 33 appearances...B.K. wasn't nearly as successful in his final 28 outings (1 start), going 4-3 with no saves in 4 opportunities with a 7.84 ERA...he finished the year with 111 strikeouts in 70.2 innings, a 14.1 strikeout per 9-inning ratio while holding opposing hitters to a .200 average...B.K. twice fanned 5 in relief (April 11 at San Diego and June 11 vs. Anaheim)...he was optioned to Tucson on July 30 after giving up 9 earned runs in 7.1 innings in late-July...he made 2 starts for Sidewinders in an attempt to regain his pre-All Star break form, pitching 8.1 innings and giving up just one hit while fanning 13, then was recalled by Diamondbacks on August 10...he allowed just 1 hit in his first 5 appearances (7.2 innings) after returning from Tucson, striking out 10...B.K. made his lone major league start on September 26 in Colorado allowing 4 earned runs in 2.1 innings of a no decision. 1999—Kim signed with Arizona in spring training, opening the year with El Paso...he made it look easy, going 2-0 with 32 K's in 21.1 innings, then went to Tucson (AAA), posting a 2-0 mark with 21 K's in 17.1 frames and was summoned to the majors...20 years old at the time of his recall, he was the youngest player in the majors, 6 months younger than Odalis Perez (6/7/78), and 10 months younger than Adrian Beltre (4/7/78)...B.K. made his big league debut in Shea Stadium on May 29, retiring the Mets in order in the ninth, ending the game with a strikeout of Mike Piazza to save the 8-7 Arizona win...Kim earned his first major league win on October 2 over San Diego, working 0.1 of an inning...he was disabled from August 2-September 7 with a neck strain. 1998—A member of the Korean National team he got his first taste of competition on U.S. soil performing against the U.S. Olympic team in Tucson in the summer of 1998, fanning 15 in 6.2 innings...he then accompanied the Korean National team to Italy for the World Championships, where they competed in the finals, once again facing the U.S. squad, earning a save with 3.0 innings of hitless relief to preserve a 3-1 Korean win...he was a member of the Gold Medal winning club in the Asian Games, a tournament that also included teams from Chinese Taipei and Japan...B.K. fanned 12 against China in the Asian Games, featuring a stretch of 8 consecutive K's...his work in the Asian Games earned him the opportunity to sign a baseball contract, receiving a deferment from any military commitment for the Korean government. 1997—He was the winning pitcher over the Cuban National Team in the Four Nations Invitational Games played in Osaka, Japan.

PERSONAL

Byung-Hyun Kim...he is single and makes his home in Gwangju, Korea...he graduated from Kwang-ju First High School in 1997, and at the time he signed he was a sophomore at Sungkyunkwan University in Seoul...he was named both the Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Pitcher for the National High School championships in Korea...he was selected as a delegate to the Korea Junior National Team in 1996, then named to the National Team in both 1997 and 1998...Kim made the trek from his native Korea to the U.S. in December to participate in Arizona's visit to the White House.

Danny Klassen

Infielder

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 190

B/T: R/R

Age: 26 (Turns 27 on September 22)

Born: September 22, 1975 in Leamington, Ontario, Canada

Residence: Stuart, FL

M.L. Service: 2 years, 100 days

HOW OBTAINED

Selected from the Milwaukee Brewers as the fifth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Danny made the big league roster out of spring training, but when the club was prepared to open the season in Los Angeles, he returned to Phoenix for an examination of his right foot...he was diagnosed with a stress fracture of the second metatarsal that eventually required surgery to place a pin in the injured area...Danny wound up spending the entire season on the major league disabled list.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—A middle infielder throughout his career, Danny made the big league club after Matt Williams broke his foot in spring training...Klassen made 20 starts at third base committing only 2 errors when stationed at the hot corner...he was optioned to Tucson (AAA) on May 23 when Williams returned to active duty, but was recalled 12 days later...he was with the big league club for only 3 days and was optioned back to AAA on June 8...Danny was recalled on June 25 when Williams was placed on the D.L. with a quadriceps strain and returned to third base, getting the nod in 10 of Arizona's next 12 games...he suffered a strained flexor tendon in his right big toe while rounding second base on July 7 in Oakland and was sidelined until September. 1999—Danny had an injury-shortened campaign, spending better than 2 months of the season on the shelf with arthroscopic right knee surgery...his big league work was limited to one at bat, providing a pinch-hit single on September 9 in Milwaukee against the club that made him available in the expansion draft...he appeared in only 64 games for Tucson (AAA)...he went on the disabled list on June 11 and didn't return to active duty until August 26. 1998—Danny spent the majority of '98 in Tucson (AAA), but had a small dose of big league action, appearing in 29 games...he was recalled on July 4 and made his big league debut that night, going 0-for-1 with 3 walks and a run scored as the starting second baseman in a 7-4 win in the Astrodome...he had an impressive Bank One Ballpark initiation, going 3-for-4 on July 10 vs. Cincinnati, featuring his first major league hit, a single in the second off of Brett Tomko, then his first big league homer, a ninth inning 2-run shot off of Danny Graves...Klassen reached base safely in 13 of his first 14 big league games, including a 7-game hitting streak from August 12-19...a 4-for-44 slide forced an option back to Tucson on August 9...as for his minor league work, he was successful at the plate, but his year ended abruptly with a left shoulder fracture just 2 games after returning from a month-long stint in the majors. 1997—The everyday shortstop at El Paso (AA) finishing with a .331 average, tops among all shortstops in AA or AAA in '97, and a 56-point increase over any previous minor league season...for his effort, he was named the Texas League "Star of Stars" by Howe Sportsdata...did not go more than 2 consecutive games without a hit...scored at least once in 11 consecutive games from May 14-25, totaling 13 runs. 1996—Spent the entire season at Stockton (A), hitting .269 in 118 games...set a then-pro best with 22 doubles (surpassed with 30 in '97). 1995—His second straight year at Beloit, hitting .275 in 59 games. 1994—First full year with Beloit (A), established pro best with 28 stolen bases. 1993—Signed as an 18-year old and reported to Chandler (Rookie)...finished the season with Helena, but scuffled offensively, hitting .200.

PERSONAL

Daniel Victor (Danny) Klassen...he and the former Jennifer Marx were wed last November 17 in Tallahassee, FL, and make their home in Stuart, FL...Danny graduated from John Carroll High School in 1993, lettering for 4 seasons in baseball...he was named third team All-State for his junior year, then second team All-American and first team All-State as a senior...he was also selected to play on the USA Junior National South team...Klassen signed a letter of intent to play at Florida State University, but chose to sign as Milwaukee's second round pick...a native of Canada, Danny was born in Leamington, Ontario.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as Arizona's 29th round selection in the 1998 June free agent draft

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Mike joined the Diamondbacks after an outstanding finish to his minor league season and was used in a variety of key situations during the pennant race due to the late-season injury to Bret Prinz...he made his major league debut in San Francisco on September 6 allowing hits to the first 2 men he faced but they would be the only hits he surrendered over his first 5 big league outings...his second appearance was a 3.1 inning stint against San Diego on September 8, keeping the Padres off the board while the D'Backs rebounded from a 5-3 deficit and posted an eventual 8-6 win in 10 innings...Mike followed that with shutout frames in Colorado on September 18, and in Los Angeles on September 20, before running into some control problems that cost him a game in Dodger Stadium on the 22nd...he entered the contest with a man aboard and a 5-3 lead in the 11th, but he walked 2 and hit a man as L.A. rallied for a 6-5 win, Mike's first big league decision...he had a streak of 28 consecutive batters without allowing a hit from the last out of his big league debut until surrendering a home run to Milwaukee's Luis Lopez on September 26, though he issued 5 walks and hit 2 men in that span...Koplove's year began in El Paso (AA), posting a 3-2 record with 4 saves and a 2.66 ERA in 34 games, then was promoted to Tucson (AAA) where he pitched in 17 games and recorded either a win or a save in 13 of his outings, going 4-1 with 9 rescues and a sparkling 2.82 ERA...he was particularly tough on AAA righthanded hitters allowing only 8 hits in 53 at bats by righties, a .151 average...from July 1-August 21, Mike combined 21 appearances between AA and AAA to go 5-0 with 8 saves and a 0.66 ERA.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Mike was on the active roster for the Division Series and NLCS, but did not pitch...he was inactive for the World Series.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Mike opened the year at High Desert (A) and allowed 3 earned runs in 0.1 of an inning in his season debut...he then surrendered only 1 earned run over his next 19 outings (none in his last 16 games) before a promotion to El Paso (AA) on June 3...was 1-0 with 2 saves and a 0.73 ERA in first 9 games with El Paso...he held opponents to a .225 batting average, third-best average among Texas League relievers...during the playoffs, Mike was 1-0 with a save and a 1.69 ERA in 4 appearances against Round Rock...was 1-1 with a 2.86 ERA for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League. 1999—Led South Bend (A) in appearances...fell 9.0 innings short of qualifying for the organizational lead in ERA. 1998—Paced all Pioneer League relievers with a 0.75 walks per 9-inning ratio.

PERSONAL

Michael Paul (Mike) Koplove...he is single and spends the winter in his native Philadelphia, PA, where he graduated from Chestnut Hill Academy in 1995...Mike first attended Northwestern University but transferred to the University of Delaware for the 1998 college season, helping lead the Blue Hens to the 1998 America East Championship and the NCAA Atlantic II Regional...though drafted by Arizona in the 29th round of the 1998 June Free Agent Draft, Mike made the time to complete his degree and graduated in June of 1999 from Delaware....played shortstop for the Delaware Valley Gulls of the Atlantic Collegiate League in 1996.

Matt Mantei

31

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 210

B/T: R/R

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on July 7)

Born: July 7, 1973 in Tampa, FL

Residence: Pembroke Pines, FL

M.L. Service: 6 years, 131 days

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Florida Marlins in exchange for pitchers Vladimir Núñez and Brad Penny, and a player-to-be-named (outfielder Abraham Núñez), July 9, 1999.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Matt's season was abbreviated to say the least as he suffered a right elbow injury just 8 appearances into the season...the injury occurred against the Marlins on April 24 in Bank One Ballpark and eventually required "Tommy John" surgery to bring his season to an abrupt end...he was 2-for-2 in save opportunities prior to the injury, earning a rescue in the season opener on April 3 in Los Angeles, preserving a 3-2 win, then posting a rescue in a 2-1 triumph on April 16 in St. Louis.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Matt's year started slowly due to an early stint on the D.L., then finished strong with saves in 15 of his last 16 chances...he began on the 15-day disabled list with tendinitis in his right biceps and a returned to the D.L. from May 5-20 with shoulder weakness...his injury troubles began in spring training with an ankle problem that hampered him throughout camp and eventually led to the biceps and shoulder ailments...due to the injuries he didn't record his first save until May 25 vs. Pittsburgh...he was 1-1 with 2 saves in 4 chances after 19 outings, allowing 18 earned runs in just 16.2 innings for a 9.72 ERA, but finished the year allowing just 5 earned runs in his last 28.2 innings for a 1.57 ERA...he had 12 consecutive save conversions from July 6-September 12...he tied Byung-Hyun Kim's record for consecutive strikeouts by fanning 8 straight batters over 3 appearances from July 27 to August 3. 1999—A key acquisition two days prior to the All-Star break, Mantei was 22-for-25 in save situations after joining the D'Backs, fanning 49 in 29.0 innings for a 15.2 strikeout per 9-inning ratio...the trade was consummated with the Marlins on July 9, the same night that 15,000 pins were being distributed in Pro Player Stadium in honor of Mantei, but while fans were receiving his likeness on a pin, the Diamondbacks got the real thing...dubbed the "Iceman" during his stay in south Florida, Mantei recorded a save in his first appearance as a D'Back on July 11, working a scoreless ninth at home vs. Oakland...had a stretch of 12.0 consecutive scoreless innings from August 14-September 14, allowing 7 hits with 25 strikeouts...all told, he was 32-for-37 in save situations, rescuing 10 of 12 while a member of the Marlins...during his stint with the D'Backs, Matt held lefthanded hitters to a .140 average, surrendering just 7 hits in 50 at bats...overall, opposing hitters finished with a composite .189 average against the him (44-for-233). DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt was called upon once in the post-season, working 2.0 innings in the fourth game of the series at Shea...he was saddled with the 4-3 setback, surrendering a 1-out homer to Todd Pratt in the 10th inning...it was the only hit that Mantei allowed, though he walked 3 (1 intentionally). 1998—Started the year with Charlotte (AAA), making 16 appearances before a May 20 recall to the Marlins, appearing that night with an inning against the Diamondbacks...gave up only 1 earned run in first 11 outings after recall, spanning 14.0 innings (0.64 ERA)...led the Marlins with 9 saves, earning club Rolands Relief Man Award...earned first win on June 12 vs. the Mets...was disabled from August 19-September 4 with a right ankle sprain. 1997—Opened the year on the D.L. following off-season rotator cuff surgery...was transferred to the 60-day list on May 16...appeared in 9 minor league games as part of rehab work. 1996—Made the Marlins opening day roster and fanned 24 in his first 16.0 innings of year...earned first big league win on May 19 at Chicago, tossing a scoreless 10th inning...was optioned to AAA just 8 days later, then was recalled on June 21, but placed on the D.L. with a sore right shoulder. 1995—Was on the D.L. at the outset due to off-season back strain...activated on June 18 and made major league debut that day in Philly, working an inning with a walk...suffered first big league loss on July 6 at St. Louis. 1994—Spent entire season with Appleton in the Mariners chain, leading the club with 26 saves and 2.06 ERA...left unprotected by Seattle, he was acquired by Florida in the Rule 5 draft on December 5. 1993—Led the Northwest League with 12 saves for Bellingham...earned the save on August 16 by striking out the side in the ninth inning of a 1-0 win over Spokane in Bellingham's annual game in the Kingdome...was named the righthanded relief pitcher on the league's All-Star team and earned Rolands Relief Man-of-the-Year honors for the league...also named the ninth best prospect by Baseball America.

PERSONAL

Matthew Bruce (Matt) Mantei...he and his wife, Erica, make their off-season home in Pembroke Pines, FL...the couple is expecting their first child during the 2002 season...Matt graduated in 1991 from River Valley (Michigan) High School, earning All-State honors in baseball...he signed as Seattle's 25th round choice in the '91 June draft.

Damian Miller

26

Catcher

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 218

B/T: R/R

Age: 32 (Turns 33 on October 13)

Born: October 13, 1969 in La Crosse, WI

Residence: La Crosse, WI

M.L. Service: 4 years, 23 days

HOW OBTAINED

Selected from the Minnesota Twins as the tenth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Damian established himself among National League catchers by setting or equaling career highs in virtually every offensive category while delivering Gold Glove caliber defense...he finished the year hitting .271 while setting personal bests in runs (45), hits (103) and home runs (13), and tying his best RBI season (47)...all of this while playing for the majority of the second half with a left achilles strain, then missing the majority of the last couple of weeks with a right shoulder strain...he came out of the chute slowly at the plate, hitting as low as .218 on May 29, while driving in just 9 runs, 6 of which came over a 2-game span on April 25-26...he recorded consecutive 2-hit games on May 30-June 1 to kick off a 48-game stretch in which he upped his average to .285 by August 11...in that span he hit at a .335 clip (52-for-155) with 24 runs, 12 doubles, 8 homers and 25 RBI, then remained consistent for the remainder of the season to remain near the .270 mark...his best offensive stretch was from July 21-27 when the D'Backs were playing games within the N.L. West and Miller provided a 6-game streak in which he batted .591 (13-for-22) with 6 runs scored, 5 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI...included was a 4-hit game on July 26 at home against San Francisco, the second 4-hit contest of his career...he twice victimized Colorado's Kane Davis for home runs that turned games around...he delivered an eighth inning solo shot in Phoenix on June 30 that tied the game at 5-5 and set the stage for Craig Counsell's game-winning homer 2 batters later, then on September 17 in Coors Field in the first game back after the tragic break in the schedule, Miller took Davis deep again with a 2-run home run in the seventh inning to turn a 3-2 deficit into a 4-3 lead and eventual 7-3 victory...if the Diamondbacks discovered anything about Damian, it's don't play him in the 151st game of the year...he suffered a right shoulder strain in Arizona's 151st game of the 2001 season against Milwaukee when attempting to throw out Devon White at second base in the seventh inning...in the N.L. West title season of 1999, Miller suffered a hairline fracture near his right thumb in game #151 at Colorado and it prevented him from participating in the Division Series against the Mets...the following year he incurred a sprained right foot in game #151 which ended his 2000 campaign...just prior to suffering the shoulder injury last year, Damian had a 7-game streak from September 9-23 in which he batted .375 (9-for-24), kicking it off with a 4-RBI affair at home against San Diego, featuring a 3-run homer off of Bobby Jones in an 8-2 Arizona win...it was also during that hitting streak on Sept. 22 that he recorded his 100th hit of the year to make the Diamondbacks just the seventh team in National League history to have 9 players reach the century mark in hits, the first N.L. club since the 1979 St. Louis Cardinals...behind the plate he handled one of the most diverse pitching staffs in baseball, providing near flawless work whether he was catching Randy Johnson, Curt Schilling or Byung-Hyun Kim, each of whom possess a wide variety of pitches...Damian finished the year nabbing 34% of the runners attempting to steal (32-for-95), but those numbers were skewed during the last month as he had nabbed 30 of 73 (41%) as late as August 28.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Last fall was Damian's first-ever taste of post-season action working behind the plate in all but one of Arizona's 17 games after missing the '99 Division Series with a right thumb injury...he missed game #5 of the World Series when he reported to Yankee Stadium with a right calf strain and was scratched from the lineup just prior to game time...his best overall series at the plate was the Division Series against the Cardinals, hitting .267 (4-for-15)...Miller scored the only run in Curt Schilling's 1-0 victory over the Redbirds in game #1, getting hit by a Matt Morris pitch in the fifth inning, then after a sacrifice bunt he was singled home by Steve Finley...Damian had 2 hits in Arizona's 5-3 win in game #3 at Busch Stadium...he was just 3-for-17 at the plate in the 5-game series against Atlanta, then opened the Fall Classic with a pair of hits in his first 2 World Series at bats, including a run scoring double to assist in the 9-1 game #1 win...Miller was hitless in his next 3 games before snapping the drought with a pair of hits in game #6, featuring a double, walk and 3 runs scored in the 15-2 triumph...though 0-for-4 in the World Series finale, it was Damian's bunt that created havoc in the ninth inning when Mariano Rivera tried to force pinch runner David Dellucci at second base, but threw the ball into centerfield to ignite the 2-run title winning rally.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Damian made 91 starts before his season ended for the second straight year on September 21, this time with a sprained right foot...he made the first Opening Day start of his career vs. Philadelphia on April 4 and delivered Arizona's first runs of the year with a 3-run homer in a 6-4 victory...Damian was hitting .294 through his first 11 games of the year before being sidelined for 9 days with a left hamstring strain...his return featured a 2-homer, 5-RBI affair on May 9 vs. the Dodgers climaxed with a game-ending grand slam off of Orel Hershiser for an 11-7 win in 12 innings...the slam was the third of Miller's career, second as a Diamondback, while the 5 RBI established a career-best...he was the middle man in the franchise's first triple play on May 31, tagging out St. Louis' Placido Polanco trying to score from third base after Mark McGwire flied out to Steve Finley...Miller then relayed the ball to shortstop Tony Womack, who tagged out Edgar Renteria at third as he tried to advance from second...Damian recorded the first 4-hit game of his career on August 16 in Philadelphia...Damian threw out 31% of the potential base thieves (21-for-68). 1999—Damian's first full season with a big league club he split the catching chores with Kelly Stinnett...Miller's season ended on Sept. 21 in Colorado when he blocked a pitch and suffered a hairline fracture near the thumb on his right hand, spoiling the night of his first career multi-homer game, taking Brian Bohanon deep twice in Arizona's 7-6 win...while healthy, Miller and Stinnett combined for 25 home runs and 88 RBI...he hit his second career grand slam on August 26 at Florida off of southpaw Brent Billingsley...Damian tied one of the more obscure big league records on May 25 by throwing out 3 Padres on the back end of double plays, as they attempted running while Randy Johnson was pitching...it was the first time in 68 years that a catcher had finished up a trio of "strike 'em out, throw 'em out" double plays, tying Shanty Hogan's mark set in 1931 with the New York Giants. 1998—Opened the year with Tucson (AAA), hitting safely in 15 of 18 games (.349), then was recalled on May 6, remaining with the major league club for the duration...he went 2-for-3 in his Arizona debut, kicking off a 3-game stretch in which he went 7-for-11...he had a successful return to his home state, as the LaCrosse, WI, native was 4-for-7 in a pair of games at County Stadium in Milwaukee, including a 3-for-3 tilt on August 2, including a walk and home run. 1997—Spent most of the year with Salt Lake, his third straight campaign at AAA, but earned a recall to the Twins in mid-August, appearing in 25 games...he hit his first major league homer on August 19 at Detroit off of Willie Blair...hit his first career grand slam on Sept. 22 off of Milwaukee's Jeff D'Amico. 1996—Led PCL catchers in chances (695) and assists (70), while nabbing 42% of potential base thieves (41-for-97). 1995—First year in AAA he finished strong by hitting .349 in last 23 games...led PCL catchers in fielding with a .998 pct. 1994—First full year at Nashville, he began a trend of strong finishes, hitting .359 (28-for-78) in August...threw out 42% (49-for-116) of potential base stealers. 1993—Struggled offensively at Ft. Myers (A), but was promoted to Nashville for the final week. 1992—Earned a spot on the Midwest League All-Star team, hitting .292 for Kenosha (A)...finished eighth in the league in batting, while his .385 on-base pct. was 10th. 1991—Opened the year in extended spring, earning Twins' Minor League Player-of-the-Week honors for April 30-May 4, hitting .846 (11-for-13)...was sent to Kenosha on May 10, playing in 80 games. 1990—Signed as a 10th rounder in the June draft and homered with 3 RBI in pro debut on June 22 with Elizabethton...suffered a thumb injury in home plate collision on August 6, missing remainder of season.

PERSONAL

Damian Donald Miller...he and wife, Jeanne, and daughters, Josephine, (6/2/98) and Jesse (3/6/00) make their home in La Crosse, WI...Damian lettered in baseball, basketball and football at West Salem (WI) High School, graduating in 1987...he then attended Viterbo College in La Crosse, majoring in business, earning NAIA District 14 Player-of-the-Year honors while falling one game short of the NAIA World Series...while in college, he played for the La Crosse Angels summer team...a huge Green Bay Packer fan...he also made the trek to Bristol, CT, last December to join teammate Curt Schilling in a commercial for ESPN's SportsCenter.

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Minnesota Twins in exchange for infielder Hanley Frias, March 28, 2001.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Chad was acquired from the Twins in exchange for infielder Hanley Frias just as the D'Backs were breaking camp in Tucson and preparing for the start of the season...he arrived in time to homer in his first at bat in an Arizona uniform on March 29 during an exhibition game against the Dodgers in Las Vegas, then opened the regular season on the Tucson roster (AAA)...he was summoned to the big league club for the first time on June 6 and made 9 starts, providing a trio of 2-hit games in that span...his first RBI as a Diamondback was a suicide squeeze bunt that drove home David Dellucci on June 20 in Los Angeles...Chad was optioned back to Tucson on July 16, finishing up the year with the Sidewinders before rejoining the big league club as part of the September roster expansion...Moeller's play was limited during the second stint with the Diamondbacks until Damian Miller went down with a shoulder injury, then he split the catching chores with Rod Barajas...Chad caught Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling in consecutive wins on September 27 & 28 over the Brewers and Dodgers, respectively, while combining to go 3-for-6 at the plate...included was his first home run as a D'Back in the win over Milwaukee, hitting a solo shot to left off of Ruben Quevedo...it was Moeller's second career big league homer, but first to leave the premises as his initial roundtripper was a race around the bases in the Metrodome on July 29, 2000, off the Yankees' Ramiro Mendoza...he caught 10 times as the season wound down including 7 appearances while Miller was out in late-September...as a Sidewinder he hit .274 in 78 games (75-for-274) with 20 doubles, 8 homers and 36 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Chad's last year in the Twins' organization, he opened in Salt Lake for his first taste of AAA action, but wound up getting his first big league test at mid-season...he was recalled and made his major league debut on June 20 at Texas...he recorded first big league hit on June 22 at Texas off of Matt Perisho...Moeller's first major league homer was an inside-the-parker on July 29 off the Yankees' Ramiro Mendoza...he was on the disabled list from August 13-30 with a torn meniscus and ligament damage in his right knee. 1999—Spent the entire year at New Britain (AA), hitting .248 in 89 games...best stretch was over 15 games from May 27-June 15 in which he batted .462 (18-for-39), including a season-high 9-game hitting streak...Chad played for Grand Canyon in the Arizona Fall League, leading the league in batting. 1998—Moeller began the year at Ft. Myers and batted .327 through 66 games...he earned Twins' Minor League Player-of-the-Week for May 1-7...he was selected to the Florida State League All-Star game on June 20 at Ft. Myers, and was named to FSL post-season All-Star squad...he was promoted to New Britain after All-Star appearance, finishing the year in AA. 1997—Spent the entire year with Ft. Wayne, hitting .289 in 108 games and was elected to the Midwest League All-Star game on June 17 at Lansing...he threw out 41 of 120 runners attempting to steal (34%) and was rated the "Best Defensive Catcher" in the Midwest League by Baseball America...Moeller was named to the Midwest League post-season All-Star team...he played for Sun Cities in the Arizona Fall League. 1996—First year as a pro, Chad hit .356 through 17 games for Elizabethton before suffering season-ending right knee injury that required surgery on July 12...he threw out 12 of 26 (46%) of runners attempting to steal before falling victim to injury.

PERSONAL

Chad Edward Moeller...he and his wife, Nicole, make their home in Manhattan Beach, CA...Chad was a 1993 graduate of Upland (CA) High School, lettering in baseball and football...he followed with a collegiate career at the University of Southern California, earning Pac-10 All Conference honors in 1996...Chad was Minnesota's seventh round pick in the 1996 June draft...he spent a portion of last winter playing for Licey in the Dominican Republic.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, January 3, 2002.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Mike's season started slowly due to injury, but the 20-year major league veteran provided outstanding work out of the pen as the pennant race heated up to become one of Bob Brenly's "go to" guys in the final days...known as the Mo-Man, he was scored on in just 2 of his last 21 appearances and prefaced one of the season's most exciting moments with some pitching heroics of his own...in front of a sellout crowd on September 28 in Bank One Ballpark, Mike entered an 11th inning jam against the Dodgers with runners on first and second, fanning Bruce Aven and Adrian Beltre to keep the score tied at 3-3 and setting the stage for Luis Gonzalez's walk-off, 1-out homer in the bottom of the frame and a key 4-3 victory in Arizona's drive to the division title...Mike's year didn't start quite as positively as he suffered a foot injury in spring training that allowed him to make only 4 appearances before landing on the disabled list on April 15 with a strained right arch...no injury comes at a good time, but on this occasion Morgan was getting the opportunity to return to work as a starter after 3 relief appearances due to injuries to Bobby Witt and Brian Anderson...Mike was only able to make 1 start, allowing 5 runs in a 4-inning stint at Colorado on April 14 before the injury forced him to the shelf...after missing 3 months of action he made a pair of rehab appearances in Tucson (AAA) then returned to the big league club on July 22...his return to the D'Backs started with 3.0 innings of scoreless relief in 2 outings against San Diego before allowing 6 earned runs over his next 6.2 innings spanning 4 appearances...it was an abbreviated outing in Atlanta on August 10 that turned the tide for the Mo-Man, retiring the only man he faced with 2 aboard to start the season-ending 21-game stretch...from August 10-September 26 he gave up just 1 earned run in 16.2 innings, a 0.54 ERA which dropped his season mark from 6.75 to 3.86...his ERA jumped over 4.00 on the year when he was tagged for 3 runs on September 27 vs. Milwaukee, but he was provided with a redeemer the following night and came through by recording the 2 strikeouts against the Dodgers prior to Gonzo's game-winning blast.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

While every player's dream is to perform in a World Series, the 2001 Fall Classic was particularly satisfying for Mike, who made just his second career trip to the post-season in a professional career that began in 1978...he worked 8 times over the 3 different tiers of post-season play capped by 4.2 innings of 1-hit relief in 3 outings against the Yankees...after 575 major league appearances, Mo-Man made his World Series debut in game #1 against the Yankees working a perfect eighth inning in Arizona's 9-1 triumph...he was the oldest hurler to work in the Fall Classic since Joe Niekro pitched for Minnesota in game #4 of the '87 Series against St. Louis at the age of 43...Morgan followed with 1.1 innings in game #3 at Yankee Stadium, allowing a hit to the second man he faced that drove home an inherited runner...his final World Series appearance was game #5 in the Bronx, retiring all 7 men he faced after entering with the score tied at 2-2 in the ninth inning...he was summoned 3 times in the Division Series against the Cardinals, allowing a run in no official innings in game #2, then tossing a combined 1.1 frames of 1-hit scoreless relief in games #3 and #4...Mike worked twice in the NLCS vs. the Braves allowing 3 runs in an inning over 2 appearances.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Though used predominately in relief since joining the Diamondbacks, Mike still ranks fifth among active pitchers in career starts (411) and eighth in innings pitched (2,738.1)...he is also the active leader in losses (185)...he didn't get his first taste of post-season action until the 1998 season, 20 years after he inked his first pro contract, working twice in relief in the Division Series for the Cubs...he is the only active player who appeared in a major league game in the 1978 season...Rickey Henderson, Jesse Orosco and Tim Lincecum all made their debuts in 1979...Morgan has defeated 28 of the 30 teams in the majors, the exceptions Tampa Bay, whom he has faced 3 times, and the Diamondbacks, whom he has never faced...has had the misfortune of 16 different visits to the D.L....a tribute to Mike's longevity, since his debut in June, 1978, 16 major league stadiums have closed and 20 (including the 1993 and 1998 expansion teams) have been opened.

2000—Mike established a career-best with 60 appearances, 20 more than his previous high set in 1989 with Los Angeles...he made his D'Back debut on April 5, working 4.0 shutout innings in relief to pick up his first save since 1991, a span of 230 appearances between rescues...that appearance made him the 25th major leaguer (9th pitcher) to appear in 4 decades...at the same time, he set a record for any major sport by appearing with his 12th team...he earned saves in each of his first 3 appearances as a Diamondback, totaling 9.0 innings from April 5-13...his 5 saves were 3 more than he had totaled in his career entering the 2000 season...he joined 4 pitchers to record more saves after his 40th birthday than before (Woodie Fryman, Jim Kaat, Dave Stieb and Steve Carlton).

1999—Mike finished second on the Texas staff with 13 wins...he set a major league record by collecting wins with 10 different clubs, winning with every team he pitched for except Toronto...he was on the D.L. from May 24-June 8 with inflammation in his right leg...he went 6-2 through his first 11 outings after returning from the injury, raising his season win total to 12, but he was able to record only 1 more win over the last 2 months...he fired the 46th complete game of his career on June 28 in Anaheim, losing a bid for a shutout on a Todd Greene homer with 2 out in the ninth, his first route-going effort since Sept. 26, 1997, at Montreal...he became the 99th pitcher to start 400 games when he took the hill on July 29 in Baltimore...his win at Detroit on April 7 was first in relief since July 27, 1989, while pitching for the Dodgers...his April 13 victory at Seattle was his first win over the Mariners since August 4, 1979, snapping a drought of 19 years, 8 months and 9 days between victories vs. the M's, the longest dry spell in major league history for a pitcher between wins against one club...the previous mark was set by Cal McLish, who defeated Pittsburgh on May 31, 1944, with Brooklyn, then didn't beat them again until July 29, 1962, with the Phils, a span of 18 years, 1 month and 29 days between wins over the Pirates. 1998—Mike opened the year with Minnesota, going 4-2 in 18 games (17 starts)...had a pair of stints on the D.L., suffering a rib cage injury and witnessed only 7 days on the active roster between June 26-August 16...made his final start for the Twins on August 19, then was dealt to the Cubs on August 25, his second stint on the north side of Chicago...his lone decision after the trade was a 3-2 loss in St. Louis on Sept. 7, allowing 2 runs, including Mark McGwire's major league record tying 61st home run in the first inning.

1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: The first post-season work in Mike's career occurred in the Division Series with Chicago, his 21st season as a professional...he faced the Braves twice in relief, totaling 1.1 shutout innings. 1997—Led the Reds in starts and innings pitched...walked 2 or less in 23 starts, featuring a span of 26.2 straight innings without a walk from May 10-31...disabled from June 8-23 with strained rib cage muscle...lone complete game on September 26 at Montreal. 1996—Started on the St. Louis disabled list after off-season shoulder surgery, working in minor league rehab from April 20-May 15 before activation...went 4-8 through 18 starts before release on August 28...was signed by Cincinnati on Sept. 3, going 2-3 in 5 starts. 1995—Opened the year on the Cubs' D.L. with right shoulder inflammation and a rehab stint with Orlando...was activated on May 25, making 4 starts before being traded to St. Louis in Todd Zeile swap on June 16...worked 8.1 no-hit innings on July 3 vs. Montreal, finally surrendering an infield hit to Wil Cordero...was disabled from July 4-24 with a left hamstring strain...achieved milestones including 2,000th inning (August 20 vs. Atlanta), 100th victory (August 25 at Colorado) and 1,000th strikeout (Sept. 9 vs. San Diego). 1994—Mo-Man was Chicago's Opening Day starter on April 4 vs. the Mets, but year began winless in 7 decisions through June 1...was disabled 3 times, May 9-27 (inflammation in right elbow), June 2-22 (migraine headaches) and July 28 through remainder of the season (back spasms). 1993—Led the Cubs in starts and innings, while ranking second on the club in strikeouts...he made his first career Opening Day start on April 5 vs. the Braves...was on the D.L. from June 14-29 with a capsular strain in his right knee...hurled last complete game shutout on July 15 vs.

Colorado...doubled for his first career extra-base hit on August 25 at Montreal, snapping 311 plate appearance drought...Cubs averaged 1.7 runs in his 15 losses. 1992—Tied for third in N.L. with 16 wins, while his starts, innings and .667 winning pct. ranked fourth...earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for May, going 5-0 with a 2.32 ERA...had a career best 7-game winning streak from May 2-June 26. 1991—His last year with the Dodgers, Mike ranked third in the N.L. with 236.1 innings, while his 2.78 ERA was seventh best...he opened the year without allowing an earned run through first 19.0 innings (April 14-24)...earned N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for June 17-23...recorded last big league save on July 7 vs. Atlanta...pitched a scoreless inning in his lone All-Star Game appearance at Toronto...Morgan was a complete game 2-0 loser in Dennis Martinez' perfect game on July 28 vs. Montreal. 1990—Tied for the league lead with 4 shutouts...opened the year 4-1 with a 1.40 ERA. 1989—Set then personal bests in games and relief appearances (21) with the Dodgers, while posting a career low ERA...went 6-11 with a solid 2.74 ERA in 19 starts, with L.A. averaging just 1.45 runs in his 11 losses...recorded 2 of his 3 career 9-K games. 1988—Mike was 0-6 in 10 starts for the Orioles, while winning his lone decision in relief...was disabled with right calf strain (June 9-July 19), then missed remainder of year after suffering bone chips in his right big toe on August 12...surgery was performed on August 18 to repair abnormal bone growth in right foot. 1987—His third season with the Mariners, averaged just 2.3 walks per 9-innings. 1986—Finished second on the Mariners' staff with 9 complete games, but his 17 losses tied for the A.L. lead...earned his first big league save on April 15 at California. 1985—Opened year in Seattle's rotation, but suffered severely pulled right groin in second start on April 16 at Oakland, missing remainder of the year. 1984—Spent year at Syracuse (AAA), leading the International League in innings and tying for the top spot in shutouts. 1983—Went 0-2 in 4 starts and 0-1 in 12 relief appearances for Toronto...was disabled (July 2-August 23) with right shoulder tendinitis. 1982—Lone year with the Yankees, made his first big league relief appearance on May 14 in Oakland, the site of his major league debut 4 years earlier. 1978—Made big league debut a week after graduating from high school, losing a 3-0 decision to Baltimore on June 11 in Oakland...lost his next 2 starts and was optioned to Vancouver on June 23 for the remainder of the year.

PERSONAL

Michael Thomas (Mike) Morgan...he and his wife, Kassie, and daughters, Mattison (6/16/95) and Mikhail (2/16/97), make their home in Park City, Utah, home of the 2002 Winter Olympics...Mike was a 1978 graduate of Valley High School in Las Vegas, lettering in baseball and football...he had a 7-1 record and 0.68 ERA with 111 K's in 72.0 innings during his senior year, getting the attention of Charlie Finley and the A's, joining Oakland as their #1 selection in the June draft and immediately pitching in the major leagues, just a week after his high school graduation...he is one of only 17 players (10 pitchers) to make his professional debut in the majors since the inception of the draft in 1965...his appearance during the first week of the 2000 season joined Rickey Henderson, Jesse Orosco and Tim Lincecum as the newest members of the 4-decade club.

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Colorado Rockies in exchange for outfielder Jack Cust and catcher J.D. Closser, January 7, 2002.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

The durable southpaw specialist made 73 appearances for the Rockies, his sixth consecutive season of at least 70 trips to the hill to establish a major league record...he made his 70th appearance on September 26 vs. San Diego to set the big league mark, then was tied 10 days later by Baltimore's Buddy Groom...no other major league pitchers have ever appeared in 70 games in 5 straight seasons and only 7 hurlers have ever recorded at least 70 appearances in 4 consecutive years...in a strange coincidence, the 2 newest big league record holders were swapped for each other on August 7, 1995, when Groom was dealt by the Tigers to Florida for a player-to-be-named who turned out to be Myers...Mike's longest stretch without appearing in 2001 was 5 games on a pair of occasions (May 15-21 and August 28-Sept. 3)...he was 2-3 on the year with a 3.60 ERA, with both of his wins coming against the World Champion Diamondbacks (April 14 and September 18, both in Coors Field)...he's going to have to find another "favorite" team to face because he appeared 15 times out of the 19 games contested between Colorado and Arizona last year...Mike stranded 51 of the 65 runners he inherited for a 78% success rate, the eighth best figure in the National League...he retired 49 of the 73 first batters faced, a 67% success rate...he continued his stingy attitude toward lefthanded hitters, limiting them to a collective .231 mark (21-for-91)...strangely, both of the home runs he surrendered were to lefthanded hitters, Ray Lankford on April 5 and Jeromy Burnitz on September 28, each time in Coors Field...he entered 2002 with lefthanded batters possessing an all-time average of .201 against Myers (115-for-571) with 189 strikeouts...he finished the year with an overall ERA of 3.60, including a better than credible 3.65 mark in hitter friendly Coors Field...Mike had a 2.88 season ERA entering the month of September, but was tagged for 5 earned runs over his final 5.2 frames of work on the year...he has yet to allow an earned run in 14 career appearances in Bank One Ballpark, totaling 8.1 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Over the last 3 seasons Mike has stranded 83% of the runners he has inherited (172 of 207)...when taking the hill with runners in scoring position in that time frame, opposing batters have hit a paltry .179 (25-for-140)...known as a specialist against lefthanded hitters, Myers has held lefties to a collective .176 mark (58-for-330) in his last 4 campaigns, 2 of which were spent at elevation in Coors Field...he has made 476 career relief appearances and owns 98 career holds and only 14 blown saves.

2000—Mike finished third in the N.L. with 78 appearances for the Rockies, tying Chuck McElroy's team record from 1998...Myers compiled a career-low 1.99 ERA, eclipsing Steve Reed's 1995 team relief mark of 2.14...he retired 73% of the first batters faced (57 of 78), and when beginning an inning the success soared to 84% (56 of 67) which was eighth best in the league...he stranded 55 of the 64 runners he inherited, an 86% success rate which was second only to Curtis Leskanic's 90% mark (28-of-31), the pitcher for whom he was traded prior to the 2000 season...Mike's lone save of the year was against his former mates on June 2 at Milwaukee, his 10th career rescue and first since May 15, 1998, with the Brewers against the Rockies...he finished the year with a sparkling 2.05 ERA in 43 appearances at Coors Field...Myers did not allow a run in 2000 until Colorado's 76th game of the year, his 34th appearance, opening the campaign with 18.1 consecutive shutout innings...the streak was halted with a Ryan Klesko home run at San Diego on July 1...Myers held opposing left-handers to a .120 average (11-for-92)...he was honored for his overall effort by being selected to travel to Japan in November as part of MLB's All-Star Goodwill tour. 1999—Mike's last year with Milwaukee, only 15% of the runners he inherited scored, the second best mark in the N.L. to Colorado's Jerry Dipoto (13%)...Myers worked a career-high 2.1 innings on June 12 against the Twins...he established a career-best for strikeouts in a game when he fanned 4 Diamondbacks on September 8. 1998—Led the N.L. with 23 relief holds...control was an issue as he walked 22 men in 50.0 innings, a 3.96 per 9-inning ratio...he surrendered only 1 earned run from Opening Day to May 20, spanning 16.2 innings...he had a better stretch from May 26-July 16, working 22 games without allowing an earned run...Myers had a 0.58 ERA at the All-Star break, but posted a 6.16 mark afterwards. 1997—His 88 games were 2 shy of the A.L. appearance record while establishing a Tiger club record for the second straight season, bettering his 83 in 1996... Mike's 88 games were 10 more than any A.L. hurler. 1996—Myers made 83 appearances to break the Detroit record set in 1984 when Willie Hernandez worked in 80 games for the World Champions...Mike also set a major league rookie appearance record, 3 more than Mitch Williams with Texas in 1986. 1995—Myers pitched for 4 teams in 4 leagues, including big league action with Florida and Detroit...he made Florida's Opening Day roster and made his big league debut in the April 25 opener, tossing a shutout inning against the Dodgers...he was optioned to Charlotte (AAA) May 6, and pitched there until the Tigers acquired him on Aug. 8 as the player-to-be-named in the Buddy Groom trade...Mike made 11 relief appearances for Detroit, including his first major league win, Sept. 19 vs. Baltimore. 1994—He started the year at Edmonton (AAA), making 1 start before landing on the disabled list April 13 with bone spurs in his left elbow...he opened a rehab assignment July 11 with Brevard County (A). 1993—Mike recorded a team leading 27 starts at Edmonton (AAA), tying for second in the PCL. 1992—Mike split the season between the Giants' affiliates, Clinton and San Jose...combined at the 2 stops, he was 6-3 with a 1.85 ERA...Mike allowed just 1 home run during the entire season (92.1 innings) with the roundtripper occurring in his final outing on August 30. 1991—A Midwest League All-Star, he helped Clinton clinch the Midwest League championship. 1990—Mike's professional career began with Everett in the Northwest League.

PERSONAL

Michael Stanley (Mike) Myers...he and his wife, Robyn, and sons, Christian (2/13/96) and Daryl (10/7/97), and daughter, Laryssa (12/22/00), make their home in Port St. Lucie, FL...Mike is a graduate of Crystal Lake Central (Ill.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and soccer...he attended Iowa State University (1988-90) and earned 1989 All-Big Eight honors in baseball...he helped Team USA win a silver medal in the 1989 IBA Presidential Cup in Taiwan...he won a gold medal with Team USA at the 1987 U.S. Olympic Festival...in 2000 he contributed funds to build a youth field in Steamboat Springs, CO.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent on November 7, 1996...originally selected by Montreal Expos in first round (fifth overall) of June, 1996, draft, but was declared a free agent.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

John began his season on the disabled list for the second straight year as he finished his rehabilitation from elbow surgery...he was roughed up in his first start in more than a year, giving up 5 runs on 8 hits in 3.1 innings on May 13 for Lancaster (A)...he bounced back in his next outing on May 18, tossing 6.0 frames while surrendering only a homer and was promptly sent to El Paso (AA)...the tougher competition got to him in his first start at El Paso as he allowed 6 runs on 9 hits in 4.2 innings on May 24...he made significant strides leading up to his first win of the season on June 13, holding Tulsa to 1 run over 6.2 innings, and was sent to Tucson (AAA)...he was saddled with the loss on June 24 after giving up 5 runs in 4.2 innings but notched the victory in his next outing, allowing 2 runs over 6.2 innings on June 29...he was impressive in his only relief appearance, holding New Orleans to 4 runs (2 earned) over 5.0 innings on July 18...he battled Las Vegas for 7.1 innings on July 28, his longest outing since a complete game effort for El Paso on June 28, 1999, a span of 26 games...he ended his season on a high note, earning the victory in a 7.0 inning outing, allowing 5 hits and an unearned run...on the season, the righty struck out a combined 68 batters over 102.1 frames.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—John missed the majority of the season with elbow surgery...he opened the year on the disabled list due to a right elbow strain, not making his debut until April 25 with 5.0 innings of relief in a no decision vs. Tacoma...he followed with a pair of losses as a starter, then was shelved on May 6 for the remainder of the year...he was operated on by Dr. James Andrews on May 25 in Birmingham, AL. 1999—John opened the year with El Paso (AA), making 18 starts for the Diablos before his season was interrupted with the excitement of pitching for the U.S. in the Pan American Games...he was an integral part of Team USA that qualified for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia, by earning a silver medal...he made a pair of starts in Winnipeg, including the opener against the host country, working 5.0 innings allowing 2 runs on 4 hits with no walks and 5 K's...he was not involved in the decision, an eventual 7-6 Canada win in 11 innings...he followed that with a most impressive win over Panama in the quarterfinals, working 5.2 innings of no-hit ball, finishing with an 8-inning stint, allowing 2 hits and 2 unearned runs, with no walks and 7 strikeouts...all told, Patterson posted a 1.38 ERA finishing with 13.0 innings, allowing 6 hits and 4 runs (2 earned), with no walks and 12 K's...upon returning from international action, he finished the year with Tucson, his first taste of AAA...with El Paso he opened up going 0-3 in 5 starts before posting a win on May 7 that began an 8-3 stretch prior to his Pan Am departure...he was the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week for June 7-13, then was tabbed organizational Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...he finished at AA with 117 K's in 100.0 innings, leading T.L. starters with a 10.53 strikeouts per 9-inning ratio...after a 3-week stint with the Pan Am team, John returned to the organization and made his debut in AAA on August 5...he was 0-4 through 5 starts for the Sidewinders before knocking off Colorado Springs in his next-to-last start on August 31. 1998—His second year as a professional, John led the California League in ERA and ranked fourth in strikeouts...he also had the lowest opponents' batting average (.217) of any starting pitcher in the league...had 80 K's and 15 walks after June 2...his efforts were rewarded by a Baseball America poll of managers, naming Patterson the second best prospect in the California League. 1997—Spent his first pro season at South Bend (Class A Midwest League) where he was much better than his 1-9 record indicated...produced a solid 3.23 ERA and fanned 95 batters in 78.0 innings (10.96 per 9 innings).

PERSONAL

John Hollis Patterson...he is single and resides in Houston, TX...as a senior at West Orange-Stark High School in Orange, TX, he was named to USA Today's prep All-America squad with a 7-2 record and a 0.77 ERA in 72.1 innings, fanning 142...John had a full year in 1999, not only making 2 minor league stops and a stint with the Pan Am team, but he also made 8 starts for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League.

- 1996 Signed by the Arizona Diamondbacks as a free agent, November 7.
 2000 Disabled list from April 6-24 (right elbow strain). Disabled list from May 6 through the remainder of the season (right elbow surgery).
 2001 Disabled list from April 5-19 (right shoulder surgery rehab). Disabled list from April 25-May 13 (right shoulder strain).

Series Ends in "Sudden Death"

Arizona's dramatic win in Game #7 over the Yankees was the first World Series decided in "sudden death" since 1997, when Craig Counsell stepped on home plate in the 11th inning to bring the World Championship to Florida. Similar to Arizona's predicament, the Fish trailed Cleveland by a 2-1 margin entering the bottom of the ninth, but tied the game on Counsell's sacrifice fly, then won the contest 2 innings later. Last year marked the third straight 7-game Series to end in "sudden death" as Minnesota won in such manner in 1991 over Atlanta.

The Diamondbacks became the sixth home team in World Series history to win in the bottom of the ninth or later to capture the crown. The complete list of last at bat title winners:

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as Arizona's 18th round selection in the 1998 June Free Agent Draft.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Bret completed a meteoric climb through the organization by getting the staff's attention during his first big league spring training, then only 3 weeks into the season received his first call to the majors...drafted in the 18th round in the 1998 draft and a '95 graduate of Peoria's Centennial High School, the 24-year old ended up experiencing a bittersweet season, recording outstanding rookie numbers before right shoulder tendinitis ended his year prematurely...his 9 saves still led all major league rookies, 8 of which took place prior to the All-Star break...he debuted the day of his recall on April 22, allowing a sacrifice fly to the only batter he faced...Bret recorded a victory and a save in his second and third big league appearances, respectively...he tossed 2.0 shutout innings against Florida on April 24 then benefited from a 5-run eighth inning rally as the D'Backs rebounded for a 9-8 win...Prinz followed the next night against the Marlins with a scoreless ninth inning to closeout Arizona's 10-7 triumph...he opened his major league career with 12.1 consecutive shutout innings spanning 13 appearances...over a longer haul had a season ERA of 1.00 through his first 29 trips the mound, allowing 3 earned runs in 27.0 frames while going 4-0 with 8 saves...the injury bug began to bite on August 25 in Philadelphia when he was forced from a game after just 1 hitter due to a left hamstring strain...Prinz rebounded from the hamstring soreness to work 1.2 innings against the Giants just 4 days after the injury occurred...he worked both ends of the doubleheader on August 31 in San Diego, earning a save in game #1, but allowing a run in 1.2 innings in the nightcap and the shoulder tendinitis cropped up the next day...Bret appeared just once after the diagnosis, allowing 2 hits and a walk with 2 of those runners scoring in no official innings pitched on September 18 in Colorado.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—At the urging of the minor league coaching staff, Bret adjusted his delivery from conventional to sidearm and became a dominating closer...after only 6 appearances at South Bend (A), where he did not allow an earned run, Prinz was promoted to El Paso on April 25...he allowed just 1 earned run in his first 9 outings for the Diablos, spanning 11.2 innings for a 0.77 ERA...Bret wound up finishing second in the Texas League with 26 saves, while walking just 16 men and fanning 69 in 60.2 innings to earn the Texas League Rolaids Relief Man Award with 94 points (9-1 record with 26 saves)...he was a member of the T.L. All-Star team in the Tex/Mex All-Star series...he jumpstarted El Paso's run that led to a playoff berth, as the Diablos were 7-12 prior to his arrival, but went 67-54 after Prinz came on board, as he figured in 35 of the wins...while at South Bend, Bret combined with 3 other hurlers on a no-hitter at Peoria on April 21. 1999—Was employed mainly as a starter in his first full season pro stop, going 6-10 for South Bend (A) in 30 games (23 starts)...tied for fifth in the Midwest League with 16 home runs allowed. 1998—Signed with the Diamondbacks as their 18th round choice in the June draft, making 4 relief appearances for the Rookie League club in Tucson, then going to Lethbridge for the remainder of the year...worked 11 times for Lethbridge, featuring 10 starts.

PERSONAL

Bret Randolph Prinz...he is single and makes his home in Peoria, AZ...Bret was a 1995 graduate of Centennial High School in Peoria, then attended Phoenix College for three years before being drafted by the D'Backs...he was a member of the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League after the 2000 regular season...the Valley resident spent a large portion of the off-season making appearances on behalf of the D'Backs.

A Championship Oddity

The RBI single by Luis Gonzalez in the seventh game of the World Series and Adam Vinatieri's game-winning 48-yard field goal to closeout the last Super Bowl marked only the second time in history that Major League Baseball and National Football League titles were decided on the final play of that particular season.

The state of Pennsylvania profited the first time that both championships were determined on either the final swing or final tackle. The 1960 World Series was settled when Bill Mazeroski homered to defeat the Yankees in the bottom of the ninth of game #7 in Forbes Field, a 10-9 final. Later that year, Philadelphia's Chuck Bednarik, who played all 60 minutes in the game, stopped Green Bay's Jim Taylor on the 8-yard line to preserve a 17-13 Eagle win, their last NFL Championship.

Signed as a free agent, November 25, 1998.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Armando was Arizona's fourth starter as the season began, but he was sidelined twice with a right shoulder strain that eventually ended his year after only 9 starts...Armando opened the year 1-4 through 6 starts before missing a scheduled assignment on May 9 with shoulder soreness...Reynoso landed on the disabled list, retroactive to May 5, in hopes of resting and rehabilitating the shoulder back to health...he managed to make just 3 more starts, dropping 2 of those to fall to 1-6 on the year, before succumbing to the injured shoulder again causing him to return to the D.L. on June 10 for the remainder of the year...it was later determined that the injury was the result of a disc injury in his neck that was surgically repaired by Dr. Volker Sonntag during the off-season...his lone win was on April 17 in St. Louis, allowing 3 runs over 6.0 innings of a 17-4 decision...Armando was the starting pitcher in Arizona's home opener on April 6, but suffered a 12-9 loss allowing 7 earned runs in 4.1 innings...the long ball was Reynoso's nemesis, surrendering 13 home runs in just 46.2 innings

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Armando's second consecutive double-digit victory season (11)...he held the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in 21 of his 30 starts, but was roughed up for 5 earned runs or more in his other 9 starts...his most consistent work was from August 1-16, a 4-start stretch in which he went 3-0 allowing 7 earned runs in 28.1 innings, a 2.22 ERA...included were mirror-image wins in Pennsylvania allowing a run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings in a 6-1 victory over the Pirates on August 11, followed by a 5-1 win at The Vet on August 16, giving up a run on 6 hits in a 7.1-inning stint...he finished the year on a high note snapping a career-high 5-game losing streak with a complete game victory in Denver on Sept. 28, just hours after learning about the birth of his third child, Jesus...Armando arrived at Coors Field three hours before game time and learned that his wife Yolanda had entered a Phoenix hospital in labor...though tempted to return to the Valley for the child's birth, Jesus arrived a couple of hours before the scheduled first pitch and Armando chose to stay and make his final start of the year...he went the distance for the second time in 2000, allowing 3 runs on 7 hits in a 12-3 victory...his other complete game was a 6-1 win at home over the Rangers on July 14, a 6-hitter in which he walked none and fanned 5, his first complete game since June 5, 1997. 1999—His first year with Arizona, he won 10 games for the division champs...Armando suffered an 11-0 loss in Houston on April 27, but it was his last defeat for nearly 3 1/2 months, posting a club record 7-game winning streak that spanned 17 starts...the streak was highlighted by 8.0 scoreless innings in San Diego on July 26, allowing 5 hits in a 2-0 victory...the winning streak was halted with a 4-2 loss at home vs. Milwaukee on August 14, before posting 2 more wins, giving him a 9-1 mark from May 2-August 28. 1998 —A member of the Mets, his season opened on the D.L. as he continued to recover from a pair of arthroscopic procedures that were performed on August 18, 1997...the first was to remove bone chips from his right elbow, while the other was to debride the rotator cuff and labrum, both of which were partially torn...the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, the same surgeon who worked on Reynoso's elbow in 1994...after 7 minor league rehab starts, he finally took a big league mound on July 24 at Wrigley Field, his first start in the majors in a year and 8 days, and answered any questions regarding his health, winning a 5-0 decision with 8.0 innings of 5-hit ball...that win ignited a 5-game winning streak in which he posted a 1.54 ERA (6 earned runs in 35.0 innings)...he wound up going 7-1 through his first 8 starts. 1997—Armando made 16 starts for the Mets, his first year with the New Yorkers after a 4-year stint with Colorado...he was 6-3 before tendinitis struck his right shoulder during a July 16 start at Shea vs. the Cubs, his final appearance of the season...he underwent a pair of arthroscopic procedures by Dr. Andrews (August 28)...while healthy, Reynoso tossed the first shutout of his career, a 6-0 decision over the Marlins on June 5 at Shea, a 5-hitter, his first complete game since May 3, 1994...he no-hit his former mates from Colorado for 6.2 innings on May 19 in New York, before a Jeff Reed homer spoiled the no-no bid...Reynoso hit his third (and most recent) career homer, a solo shot off of Houston's Mike Hampton on May 13. 1996—His final year with the Rockies, as he was dealt to the Mets on November 27 in exchange for reliever Jerry Dipoto...Armando tied a career best with 30 starts, while helping his cause with 8 pickoffs, featuring a trio of games with 2 picks. 1995—Didn't get to work in the majors until June 18 relief appearance vs. the Braves, missing the first 2 1/2 months while recuperating from elbow surgery the previous May...made first start on June 22, winning a 3-2 decision at San Diego, working 5.0 innings, his first win in the majors in 57 weeks (May 15, 1994)...still picked off 7 runners during abbreviated campaign. 1994—Was Colorado's Opening Day starter, working 6.0 innings in a no decision at home vs. the Phillies...he made just 9 starts until undergoing surgery on May 26, when Dr. James Andrews transplanted a ligament from Armando's left wrist into his right elbow, strengthening the injured area...Reynoso also had his right knee arthroscopically repaired at that time by Dr. Andrews... despite the shortened year, Armando recorded 5 pickoffs. 1993—Though he did not make the 25-man club out of spring training, he ended up Colorado's Pitcher-of-the-Year, falling one victory short of the then-expansion record of 13, finishing 12-11...was recalled from Colorado Springs (AAA) on April 30, making his Rockies' debut that night in Florida, going the distance in a 6-2 win over the Marlins...he twice fanned a career-best 8 men, each coming in complete games (May 10 and June 26 vs. the Giants)...11 of his 12 wins came after Colorado losses...he was 7-3 in 11 starts at Mile High Stadium...his 8 pickoffs were the most by an N.L. righthander...first major league hit was a home run in Mile High off of SF's Trevor Wilson (May 10)...his second home run was a 3-run shot at Shea off the Mets' Bobby J. Jones on August 28, leading to a 7-5 win. 1992—Spent the majority of the year with Richmond (AAA), finishing second in the International League in ERA, while tying for second in complete games...was promoted to Atlanta in September, earning his lone career big league save on October 3 vs. San Diego...was unprotected in the off-season and selected in the third round of the expansion draft by Colorado. 1991—Tied for the I.L. lead in shutouts, while earning a spot in the AAA All-Star Game...had his contract purchased by Atlanta on August 8 and won major league debut on August 11 with 6.0 shutout innings vs. Houston, allowing 2 hits...followed with a win in his second start, August 16 at San Diego, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...had 6 pickoffs over a 4-start stretch (August 16-31), 5 of which came in the first inning. 1990—Went 20-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in the Mexican League, featuring 12 complete games and 5 shutouts... included was a 7-inning no hitter vs. Monterrey...Reynoso signed with Atlanta on August 15 and made 4 appearances for Richmond.

PERSONAL

Martin Armando Reynoso (Gutierrez)...he and his wife, Yolanda, and daughter, Alejandra (11/3/89), and sons, J. Armando (3/16/93) and Jesus (9/28/00) make their home in Chandler, AZ...Armando graduated in 1984 from Escuela Secundaria Mista del Estado in his native Jalisco, Mexico...after participating in semi-pro ball in Mexico, he signed as a free agent with Saltillo in 1988, where he was 44-23 with 29 complete games until signing with the Braves in 1990.

20-Game Winners Square Off in Game #7

The matchup of Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens in Game #7 of the 2001 World Series marked the sixth time a pair of 20-game winners faced each other in the seventh and deciding game of that year's Fall Classic. Though both were outstanding neither Schill or the Rocket were involved in the decision, with Arizona scoring twice in the ninth to post a 3-2 win and take the World Championship.

Following is the list of 20-game winners who faced each other in the seventh game of the World Series:

Date	N.L. Pitcher/Team	A.L. Pitcher/Team	Location	Result
Nov. 4, 2001	Curt Schilling/D'Backs (ND)	Roger Clemens/Yankees (ND)	Phoenix	D'Backs, 3-2

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a non-drafted free agent, October 16, 1996.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Duaner began the season at El Paso (AA) but wound up finishing the year at Lancaster (A)...he was 1-5 with a 5.28 in his first 8 outings...he halted the rough stretch with two consecutive wins on May 20 and 26, holding opponents to 4 runs over 13.0 innings...he was placed on the disabled list on June 12 with a right elbow ligament sprain, reinstated on July 16 and was transferred to Lancaster that same day...from July 28-August 13, he went 2-1 in 4 starting assignments and posted a 0.93 ERA (3 ER in 29.0 IP)...Duaner's numbers were skewed by a 4-appearance stretch to close the year allowing 25 runs (15 earned) in 20.1 innings...he spent the majority of his winter playing for Pollos in the Dominican League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Duaner made a solid impression in his first year at South Bend (A), leading all Diamondback minor leaguers in starts (28), complete games (4) and innings pitched (165.1)...his start total also topped the Midwest League charts, while he finished fourth in the loop in innings...he had a 5-start stretch in which he allowed just 5 earned runs over 34.1 innings for a 1.31 ERA from May 21- June 11...the streak climaxed with a complete game 12-1 victory at home over Dayton, facing just 2 batters over the minimum for his second straight route-going effort...he gave up just 6 home runs in 165.1 innings, a 1 in every 27.2-inning ratio. 1999—Opened the year with High Desert (A), his first professional experience on U.S. soil after spending 2 seasons with Boca Chica (R) in the Dominican Summer League...after making 3 starts without a decision for the Mavericks he was moved to Missoula (Rookie-Short Season)...he finished fourth in the Pioneer League with a 3.13 ERA, while limiting opposing hitters to a collective .210 average, the fifth best mark in the loop...he was the league Pitcher-of-the-Week for June 21-27. 1998—He made 14 appearances for Boca Chica (R), 8 of which were starts, going 2-3 with a sparkling 1.79 ERA...he did not allow a home run in 50.1 innings of work. 1997—Duaner signed with the Diamondbacks in the fall of '96 and as a 17-year old made his pro debut with Boca Chica...he worked mainly in relief, appearing in 21 games (6 starts), going 4-4 with a save.

PERSONAL

Duaner Sanchez...he is single and makes his home in Cotui, Dominican Republic, where he graduated from Francisco H. Carvajal High School in 1996...he was signed as a 16-year old by the Diamondbacks' Junior Noboa, who directs the organization's Latin America effort and currently heads up the Dominican baseball academy.

Curt Schilling

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-5

Wt: 235

B/T: R/R

Age: 35 (Turns 36 on November 14)

Born: November 14, 1966 in Anchorage, AK

Residence: Kennett Square, PA

M.L. Service: 11 years, 134 days

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies in exchange for pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and infielder/outfielder Travis Lee on July 26, 2000.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Curt finished second to teammate Randy Johnson in the National League Cy Young balloting, earning a pair of first place votes, 29 second place and somebody actually voted him third, the first time since 1956 that starting pitchers from the same club finished 1-2 in the voting...Schilling ended the regular season with a career-high 22 wins, surpassing his personal best season by 5 while tying the Cards' Matt Morris for the major league lead...he became the first 20-game winner in team history with a 7-2 victory in San Francisco on September 5, then was joined in the 20-win club by Randy Johnson on September 27...Schill's 293 strikeouts ranked second in the league to the Big Unit as the duo combined for a major league record 665 K's to break the mark previously held by Nolan Ryan and Bill Singer, who totaled 624 for the 1973 Angels...the 2001 season was also the first time a pair of teammates have ranked 1-2 in strikeouts since Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouser with the 1944 Detroit Tigers...Curt finished the year with a major league best 256.2 innings while leading the N.L. in complete games (6), ranking second in winning pct. (.786) and third in ERA (2.98)...the Diamondbacks went 27-8 in the 35 games Schilling started...he was most impressive in contests following an Arizona loss, posting a 13-1 record 1.72 ERA in 17 post-loss starts, allowing 25 earned runs in 131.0 innings...he was also tough on N.L. West rivals going 11-1 with a 2.55 ERA (37 earned runs in 130.1 innings)...he opened the season 5-0 for the first time in his career then after a loss on May 11, won his next 5 starts to begin the season 10-1 with a 2.60 ERA...one of his most dominant performances came against the Dodgers on April 10 in his second start of the year, tossing the first complete-game 2-hitter in franchise history taking only 1 hour, 53 minutes to post a 2-0 win over Kevin Brown...Curt earned his first 2 career N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors during the 2001 season...he tossed back-to-back complete games against the Giants on May 21 then in San Diego 5 nights later, totaling 3 earned runs on 9 hits over 18.0 innings...in the win over the Padres, Schill had a perfect game for 7.1 innings before Ben Davis broke it up with a bunt single...Curt garnered the weekly honor again for his work at home against Montreal on July 31 and the Mets on August 5, allowing 2 earned runs over 17.0 innings with 21 strikeouts...he was also named the National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for May, going 5-1 with a 2.35 ERA...he finished the campaign going 8-1 with a 2.57 ERA in his last 12 assignments allowing 26 earned runs in his last 91.0 innings...one of the no decisions in that stretch was an emotional afternoon in Philadelphia, his first appearance at The Vet since the trade that brought him to Arizona after 9 years as a Phillie...he worked 6.0 innings allowing 3 runs in a contest the D'Backs eventually won, 4-3 in 10 innings...Curt cracked the 2,000 mark in career strikeouts when he fanned Colorado's Juan Uribe on September 18 in Denver, the 56th pitcher in history to eclipse 2,000, third last year (John Smoltz and Kevin Brown)...Schilling's career total of 2,032 ranks eighth among active pitchers...Schill was named the All-Star starting pitcher, but passed the honor to Randy Johnson after pitching at home against Oakland just 2 days prior to the Midsummer Classic...it was the fourth time in the last 5 years that Schilling had been named to the National League squad...the durable hurler worked at least 7.0 innings in 29 of his 35 starts...one of the outings that he didn't get to the seventh was out of his control as an electrical box exploded in the top of the third inning at San Diego on July 18, suspending the game until the next day where Randy Johnson picked it up and completed the combined 1-hitter for a 3-0 Arizona win...he was tagged for a career-high 37 home runs during the year, 31 of which were solo shots...a grand slam by Barry Bonds on July 26 snapped a streak of 19 consecutive solos allowed, the longest such streak in major league history, 2 more than Jose Rijo (1993) and Mark Leiter (1995).

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

As if the regular season didn't prove that Curt was at the top of his game, he put an exclamation point on it during the post-season capped by sharing World Series MVP honors with teammate Randy Johnson...his Fall Classic work was reminiscent of the old days in baseball as he made 3 starts against the Yankees, twice taking the ball on 3 days rest, the first hurler to start 3 World Series games since Jack Morris with Minnesota in 1991...Curt's World Series totals included a 1.69 ERA, allowing only 4 earned runs over 21.1 innings while walking 2 and fanning 26...he cruised to a 9-1 win in game #1 of the Series allowing a run on 3 hits over 7.0 innings, extending his personal post-season winning streak to 5 consecutive starts dating back to the fifth game of the '93 Series, posting a 0.63 ERA with 3 earned runs over 43.0 innings...Schilling was then called upon twice on abbreviated rest and each time provided the Diamondbacks a chance to post a victory...he worked 7.0 frames in game #4 at Yankee Stadium, leaving the contest with a 3-1 advantage after allowing only 3 hits and a walk with 9 K's...unfortunately, the Yanks rebounded to post a 4-3 win in 10 innings...Curt then took the ball in the dramatic seventh game, entering the eighth inning in a 1-1 deadlock, but Alfonso Soriano staked New York to a short-lived 2-1 lead with a 1-out homer that ended Schilling's night...the Diamondbacks, who were defeated by a late-inning rally in Schilling's previous start, provided a comeback of their own by scoring twice in the ninth inning off of Mariano Rivera to win the final game by a 3-2 margin and ice their first World Championship...Schilling jumpstarted Arizona's post-season experience with a complete game 3-hitter in game #1 of the Division Series, a 1-0 victory over the Cardinals...it was his second consecutive post-season complete game shutout dating back to the '93 World Series when he blanked Toronto on a 5-hitter in game #5...it was also the first 1-0 complete game win in Division Series history and first in any post-season play since Jack Morris' game #7 gem in the '91 Fall Classic

25.0 consecutive shutout innings in post-season play by Schilling dating back to '93...due to the dates of the NLCS and status of Arizona's starting rotation, Schilling would only get one start against the Braves, going the distance in game #3 at Turner Field in a 5-1 win...he scattered 4 hits and 2 walks while fanning 12 for his fourth consecutive complete game in post-season play dating back to '93, and third route-going effort in as many tries in 2001...he is the first pitcher since Orel Hershiser in 1988 to complete 3 consecutive starts in the same post-season, and the first hurler to go the distance in 4 straight since Bob Gibson completed 8 in a row from 1964-68...Schilling is only the seventh pitcher since 1922 to complete at least 4 straight...all told, Curt went 4-0 with a 1.12 ERA in 6 post-season appearances, allowing 6 earned runs in a post-season MLB record 48.1 innings...he also established major league post-season records for starts (6) and strikeouts (56) while his 3 complete games tied the top spot.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—The year began on Philly's disabled list as he recovered from off-season arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder, and ended in his old hometown of Phoenix, acquired by the Diamondbacks in a July 26 swap that sent Travis Lee, Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla to the Phils...he posted career win #100 in his second start of the year, a 6-0 win in Atlanta on May 6...after opening the year 1-4 he went 5-2 with a 2.00 ERA in his last 8 starts for the Phillies...Schilling's last start as a Phil was a 4-1 complete game win in Pittsburgh on July 23, tossing a 3-hitter...it was his second complete game in 3 starts and occurred in a stretch in which he went the distance in 6 of 9 starts, 4 of them taking place as a Diamondback...the trade took place while the club was in St. Louis and Schilling in Philly, thus he met his new teammates just hours before taking the mound in Florida for his first start with Arizona...his D'Back debut on July 28 in Pro Player Stadium was a success, scattering 6 hits over 8.0 innings in a 4-1 victory over the Marlins...his 11-2 win over the Cubs on August 18 climaxed an 11-start stretch in which Schilling went 8-3 with a 1.90 ERA, giving up just 19 earned runs over 90.0 innings...he snapped a 5-game (6 start) losing streak with a complete game 7-1 win over the Giants in Pacific Bell Park...he was involved in the decision in 17 of his last 19 starts, including 15 consecutive decisions from June 27-September 7, going 8-7. 1999—Curt missed the last 2 months of the season, yet still finished second in the N.L. in complete games (8), fifth in winning pct. (.714) and opponents batting average (.237), seventh in ERA (3.54), eighth in fewest walks per 9-innings (2.2) and 10th in strikeouts per 9-innings (7.6)...he led the Phillies in complete games, strikeouts (152), tied for first in wins (15) and ranked second in innings (180.1) despite making just 5 starts after the All-Star break...he was the Opening Day starter for the fifth time as a Phillie and his third straight assignment, the most by a Philly righthander since Robin Roberts started 12 in a row (1950-61)...Curt won 13 games prior to the All-Star break, the most by a Philly hurler since Steve Carlton won 14 in that span in 1980...Schilling's first half was culminated by earning the starting role for the All-Star Game in Fenway Park, his third consecutive All-Star selection...his first half of work featured a career-best 5 consecutive complete games (May 7-29), joining Tommy Greene (Philly-1993) and Pat Hentgen (Toronto-1996) as the only pitchers in the 90's to accomplish the feat...he was rewarded with N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for May...he recorded the 1,500th strikeout of his career on June 3 getting the Giants' Rich Aurilia...Curt missed a start on July 28 vs. Florida with tendinitis in his right biceps, his first missed start since May 14, 1996, a streak of 117 consecutive starts...he lost an 8-2 decision to the D'Backs on August 7, then went on the D.L. with inflammation in his right shoulder...he was activated on September 3, winning that day over Cincinnati, 10-2, but then made his final start of the year, losing a 10-2 decision to Houston on September 8, fanning just 1 in the game, his lowest strikeout total since April 24, 1994...he was shut down for the remainder of the season and eventually had an anterior thermal capsular reduction and posterior capsule release on his right shoulder by Dr. Craig Morgan on December 13. 1998—Curt led the majors in complete games (15) and innings (268.2), while topping the N.L. in strikeouts (300)...at the time he was just the fifth pitcher in major league history to fan 300 in back-to-back seasons joining J.R. Richard, Nolan Ryan, Sandy Koufax and Rube Waddell (Randy Johnson has since fanned 300 in a major league record 4 straight)...Schilling's complete game total marked the most by a Phillie since Steve Carlton went the route in 19 games in 1982, and they were the most by a righthander since Jim Lonborg's 16 in 1974...Curt fanned a season-high 15 on April 15 at Atlanta...he was selected to his second consecutive All-Star team, but did not pitch...his 300th and final strikeout was Kevin Orie on September 26...Schilling was also a member of the MLB All-Star team that traveled to Japan in November. 1997—Finished fourth in the Cy Young balloting, leading the majors with 319 strikeouts, an N.L. record for K's by a righthander...Curt surpassed J.R. Richard's previous mark of 313 when he fanned Devon White on September 26 at Florida...he broke Carlton's club record of 310 K's when he fanned Sammy Sosa on September 21 at Chicago...recorded 17 double-digit strikeout games, and established a single-game best with 16 K's on September 1 vs. the Yankees...he was the Opening Day starter for the third time and earned his first win, combining with Ricky Bottalico on a 3-0 victory at Los Angeles, the Phillies first season-opening shutout since 1984...Curt was the Phils' lone All-Star Game representative, fanning 3 in 2.0 shutout innings at Cleveland...he stole the first base of his career on August 22 vs. the Dodgers. 1996—Season began on the disabled list as he recovered from previous season's surgery on his right shoulder...made 4 minor league rehab starts then made his '96 debut on May 14 vs. the Giants, posting a 7-0 win, his first career victory over San Francisco...despite missing 6 weeks, he led the league with 8 complete games...tossed a shutout on August 5 vs. Pittsburgh, his first blanking since Game #5 of the 1993 World Series...he struck out 7 consecutive batters on August 26 at San Francisco, the first pitcher to do so since Roger Clemens (1992)...he drove in a career-high 3 runs on July 4 vs. Florida. 1995—Season started with promise, but wound up being cut short by shoulder trouble...he was 4-0 through his first 9 starts, incurring first setback on June 13...he was among the N.L. leaders in innings, strikeouts and opposing average when he was forced to miss a start on July 23 due to tendonitis and inflammation in his right shoulder...he received a cortisone injection on August 4 by Dr. Craig Morgan, but still experienced discomfort...underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery by Dr. Morgan on August 23, repairing a superior labral tear anterior posterior (SLAP) lesion, while also cleaning up some fraying of the rotator cuff and removing a bone spur from the right shoulder. 1994—Made his first career Opening Day start, began the year 0-7 in 9 starts, his longest career losing streak...was disabled for the first time in his career from May 16-July 25 with a tender right elbow, and had a bone spur removed on May 20...injury trouble continued when he had surgery on his left knee on June 10 after a freak incident when the knee popped after getting up from a seated position...finally won his first game of the year on July 25 at Florida. 1993—Earned Philly's Player-of-the-Month award for April (4-1, 2.54 ERA) and September (4-1, 3.47 ERA)...finished tied for second in the N.L. in complete games (7) and fourth in strikeouts (186)...had a career-best 7-game winning streak from July 18-September 20. 1993 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Curt was the starter in Game #1 of the NLCS against the Braves and set a record by fanning the first 5 batters he faced, a game that ended up a no decision for Schilling and an eventual 4-3 Phillies' win in 10 innings...he was also not involved in the decision in Game #5, yet wound up the series MVP without earning a win, totaling 16.0 innings, a 1.69 ERA and 19 K's...he started 2 games of the World Series against the Blue Jays, losing his first start by an 8-5 count, but throwing a 5-hit shutout in Game #5. 1992—Went to spring training with Houston, but was traded on April 2 and led the major leagues in lowest opponents avg. (.201), while ranking second in the N.L. in complete games (10), tied for third in shutouts (4) and fourth in ERA (2.35), the lowest ERA by a Phillies' righthander since Jim Bunning's 2.29 mark in 1967...after 16 relief appearances Curt made his first start on May 19 against Houston, a 4-3 win that was also Curt's first start since September 6, 1989, with Baltimore...tossed his first career shutout on June 8, a 3-hitter over Pittsburgh...fired back-to-back shutouts on July 22 vs. San Diego and July 27 vs. the Mets...had an overall scoreless innings streak of 29.0 from July 22-August 1...he fired a 1-hitter on September 9 vs. the Mets, the first 1-hit effort by a Phillie since David Palmer on August 2, 1988 in St. Louis. 1991—Traded by Baltimore on January 10 in a 4-player deal that also put Steve Finley and Pete Harnisch in Houston uniforms in exchange for Glenn Davis...Curt worked exclusively in relief for the Astros, appearing in 56 games on the big league level and 13 other contests at Tucson (AAA)...set a career-best with 8 saves, opening the year as the club's closer, converting 5 of his first 6 chances...struggled in May and June and was optioned to Tucson on June 26...recalled on August 2 when Jim Clancy was traded to Atlanta. 1990—Opened the year at Rochester (AAA) and was recalled on June 29 after 15 appearances...earned his first major league save on June 29 vs. Minnesota...he did not allow a run in 20 of his first 23 outings, and had a stretch of 20.0 consecutive scoreless innings...recorded his first major league win on July 11 vs. Kansas City. 1989—Spent the majority of the season with Rochester (AAA), leading the International League in innings (185.1), while tying for the top spot in wins (13), starts (27), complete games (9) and shutouts (3)...earned a September recall and went 0-1 in 5 outings. 1988—Began the season with New Britain (AA) and was 8-5 with a 2.97 ERA in 21 games when traded to the Orioles on July 30...he went 5-2 with a 3.18 mark with Charlotte (AA) and was promoted to the big leagues...made his debut with a no decision vs. Boston on September 7, but wasn't as fortunate in next 3 starts, incurring losses each time out. 1987—Led the South Atlantic League in strikeouts (189) and ranked fourth in complete games (7), going 8-15 with Greensboro. 1986—Curt was selected by the Red Sox in the second round of the January draft and spent his first pro season at Elmira, leading the club with a 2.59 ERA in 16 games (15 starts).

PERSONAL

Curtis Montague (Curt) Schilling...he and his wife, Shonda, and sons, Gehrig (5/27/95) and Grant (10/13/99), and daughter, Gabriella (5/22/97), split their winter between Pennsylvania and Arizona...they are expecting their fourth child during the 2002 season...his trade to the Diamondbacks was a homecoming as Curt graduated from Shadow Mountain High School (Phoenix) in 1985...the school honored him by retiring his uniform number in a ceremony on August 11, 1998...he then attended Yavapai Junior College in Prescott, AZ, where his 1985 club advanced to the JUCO World Series...one of the more community aware players in the majors, Schilling was honored prior to game #2 of the 2001 World Series as the winner of the coveted Roberto Clemente Award presented by John Hancock, less than 24 hours after he won game #1 of the Fall Classic...for the first time in the award's history, a second honor was presented to the citizens of New York City for their humanitarian efforts following the tragedy of September 11...Schill was also named one of Sports Illustrated's Sportsmen-of-the-Year, sharing the honor with teammate Randy Johnson...Curt was 2001 Man-of-the-Year by The Sporting News, only the fifth pitcher to win the award (Denny McLain-1968; Tom Seaver-1969; Ron Guidry-1978; Nolan Ryan-1990)...Schilling was also the winner of Denver's Branch Rickey Award, the Hutch Award and the Jim "Catfish" Hunter Award...he initiated "Curt's Pitch for ALS" in 1993, making annual donations, and combined with money raised from his charity golf tournament, more than $1.5 million has been raised for ALS awareness...he was honored as the Phi Delta Theta's Lou Gehrig Award winner in 1996, presented annually to the major league player who best exemplifies the giving character of the Hall of Famer and fraternity member Lou Gehrig...Curt has continued his philanthropic ways since landing in the Valley, signing his new four-year deal after the 2000 season and in the process donating $1 million that was divided up between the United Way ($500,000) and the ALS Chapters of Philadelphia and Phoenix ($250,000 each)...despite leaving Philadelphia at mid-season last year, Schilling was still named the 2000 winner of the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association Humanitarian Award for his work with ALS...other winners have included Ozzie Smith, Tommy Lasorda, Julius Erving, Eric Lindros and John LeClair...Curt is also a supporter of the Garth Brooks "Touch 'em All" Foundation...the Schilling's have sponsored a family from the People's Emergency Center since 1997, and he was named by USA Today Weekend as Baseball's Most Caring Athlete in 1996...he received the March of Dimes Phillie-of-the-Year honor for '96, and was Philadelphia's True Value Roberto Clemente Award winner in both 1997 and 1998...a history buff, particularly the World War II era, Curt is the President of Multi-Man Publishing, a company that produces board games and war games for Hasbro Games, Inc., including a website: multimanpublishing.com...in this Olympic year, Schill participated in the Olympic Torch Relay when it came through the Valley in January.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a 36th round selection in the 1996 June free agent draft.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Junior was a prime example of Bob Brenly's managerial method of riding the hot hand at the right time, providing a mid-season spark to an offense that was in need of a jumpstart...frustrated with disabling injuries that allowed him to play in just 78 games over the last 2 minor league seasons, Spivey was recalled from Tucson on June 2 and brought an infusion of speed and solid defense at second base when called upon...he appeared in 3 games as a late-inning replacement upon arriving then made the starting lineup for the first time on June 7 at home against the Dodgers...he was on base 4 times in his first start, walking twice before delivering his first big league hit with a sixth inning single off of Gregg Olson...he finished up a memorable initial start with a solo homer off of veteran Jesse Orosco in the eighth as Arizona posted a 13-9 win over their N.L. West rivals...those highlights were just a precursor to bigger and better things for the 26-year old rookie infielder...Junior became just the fifth rookie in the last 50 years to record a pair of 5-hit games in starts against a pair of baseball's elite hurlers while joining Wally Moon (1954 St. Louis Cardinals), Ken Hubbs (1962 Chicago Cubs), Rico Carty (1964 Milwaukee Braves) and Chris Singleton (1999 Chicago White Sox)...his first 5-hit effort was in Coors Field on June 21 going 5-for-6 featuring a triple, 3 runs scored and 3 RBI with his first 3 hits of the game coming off of Mike Hampton...he duplicated the feat on August 12 in Atlanta going 5-for-5 with 3 runs scored, with 4 of those hits coming off of Greg Maddux...the 5-hit games were the only ones recorded by a Diamondback in 2001 and tied the club mark set initially by Tony Batista and tied later by Travis Lee...Junior reached base safely via a hit or walk in his first 13 major league starts and 25 of his first 26 starting assignments, hitting .337 in that span (32-for-95) with 16 walks...included were consecutive 2-hit games at home against the Mets on August 4 & 5, homering in each contest with the second roundtripper providing Arizona with a victory as Spivey snapped a 1-1 tie with a 2-out opposite field home run off of Rick White to stake Curt Schilling and the Diamondbacks to a victory...the return to form by Tony Womack and the emergence of Craig Counsell as an everyday player down the stretch limited Junior's playing time late in the year, but when called upon he still provided help...Junior's pinch hit RBI single in the fourth inning on August 19 snapped a 6-6 tie as Arizona rebounded from a 6-2 deficit to post a 13-6 win...the offense he provided as a Diamondback came a bit by surprise since he was hitting just .232 through 54 games with Tucson (AAA) at the time of his recall.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—As if his 1999 season wasn't brief enough with just 44 games played, Junior had another bout with the disabled list that kept his game tally down to just 28 for the Sidewinders and 6 games at El Paso...he opened the season going 8-for-16 at the plate...Junior recorded the first multi-homer game of his pro career on April 27 at Salt Lake, knocking in 5 runs in a 16-7 Tucson victory...his first bout with a left hamstring injury that would haunt him all year took place on May 7 in a game against Salt Lake, sending him to the disabled list until June 14...when deemed healthy he was sent to El Paso (AA) where he went 8-for-19 with 5 doubles and a home run in just 5 games before tearing the left hamstring on June 22 at San Antonio...he appeared as a pinch hitter 2 nights later but did not get an at bat and his season subsequently ended. 1999—The injury bug that haunted Junior in 2000 began biting in the '99 season, as he participated in just 44 games for El Paso (AA)...his season didn't begin until May 15, missing the first 6 weeks due to a ligament tear in his left thumb that occurred in spring training and required surgery...once healthy, he managed to bat .293 before requiring surgery to repair the hamate bone in his left hand, ending his season. 1998—Junior combined stops in High Desert (A) and Tulsa (AA) to accumulate an organization leading 42 stolen bases and 92 walks...he was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .337 with 7 RBI and 12 stolen bases while with the Mavericks, earning a spot in the California League All-Star Game, but a finger sprain prevented his participation...after hitting .281 in 79 games for High Desert, Spivey made the move to AA, playing on loan with Tulsa of the Texas organization...he hit .311 for Tulsa, but was most impressive in the post-season, hitting .342 in 10 playoff games as they won the Texas League title. 1997—Spent the entire season at High Desert, hitting .273 for the California League champs...his best stretch was a 16-game hitting streak from July 29-August 15...after a hitless game ended the 16-gamer, he immediately began a 10-game skein. 1996—First year as a pro, his career started in the Valley with the Phoenix (Rookie) club, ranking second in the league with a .333 mark, while leading the circuit with 11 stolen bases...he earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month for June, then was promoted to Lethbridge, hitting .336 in 31 games.

PERSONAL

Ernest Lee (Junior) Spivey, Jr....he is single and split last winter between Oklahoma City and the Valley... Junior graduated in 1993 from Douglass High School, then attended Northwestern Oklahoma State for a semester, intending to play basketball...he later transferred to Cowley County (KS) Junior College to test his skills on the baseball diamond and wound up a 36th round choice of the Diamondbacks in their original draft effort of 1996...upon conclusion of the '98 season in Tulsa, he played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a free agent, November 20, 1998.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Todd went to spring training with hopes that his health problems were behind him, but the thoracic nerve in his right shoulder did not respond to treatment and he was shut down for the entire season...Stott was able to participate in most drills in spring training and worked a simulated game before weakness in his shoulder led the diagnosis of the nerve problem...once the nerve began firing last summer, Todd had his right labrum surgically repaired by Dr. David Zeman...Stott spent the entire winter rehabilitating with Diamondback trainers Paul Lessard and Dave Edwards, and area physical therapist Derek Steveson of the Functional Performance Center...with the work, Stott has recovered from the injuries and opened spring training throwing off the mound.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Todd opened the year going 8-3 through 11 starts but a right elbow injury on May 29 caused an interruption for the second straight season...he was immediately placed on the disabled list until June 15, made 3 starts then was shelved again with a tender elbow that forced him out of action through August...he returned for 4 starts in September until undergoing season-ending elbow surgery on September 26 to readjust the nerve in his elbow that was the source of all of the pain...he was also diagnosed early in the year with a hernia injury that he pitched with, but had it surgically repaired at the time of his elbow surgery...Todd opened the year 7-1 through 8 starts, including victories in his first 3 assignments...he fanned only 12 batters in his first 5 starts, spanning 24.2 innings, but recorded 28 K's in his next 24.2 innings over the course of 4 starts...included were back-to-back 8-strikeout performances at San Diego (May 13) and at New York (May 19), splitting decisions...the 6-2 win on May 13 over the Padres was the 136th of Todd's career, giving him and his father, Mel, a combined career total of 300 victories, by far the most ever by a major league father-son tandem...Mel Stottlemyre won 164 games during his career with the Yankees...Dizzy and Steve Trout rank second all-time with 259 wins...Todd hit his first major league homer in his 216th career at bat with his parents in attendance at The Vet on April 26, a shot over the left field fence off of Amaury Telemaco in a 10-4 win over the Phils...he fanned a season-high 10 in a loss to San Diego, his 17th career double-digit strikeout game, first since July 9, 1998. 1999—Stott opened and closed the year in the starting rotation, ending with Arizona's only win in the Division Series, but missed the middle three months of the season with a partial tear of his right rotator cuff...the injury occurred on May 17 in San Francisco when Todd attempted to warm-up for the fifth inning of a game in which he held a 6-1 lead...instead of having the shoulder surgically repaired with hopes of coming back in 6 months to a year, he chose to rehab around the injury, add body strength and attempt to come back during the season...an intensive program was designed by Arizona's medical team and supervised by trainers Paul Lessard and Dave Edwards, as Stott went through a rigorous rehab to strengthen the muscles around the injury, as well as increase his leg strength, while adding 15 pounds of muscle to his frame...he was not allowed to touch a ball for 6 weeks, limited strictly to lifting and range of motion exercises...just prior to the All-Star break, Todd was finally allowed to test the arm with a throwing program that if all went well, would have him pitching competitively in August...all went well, and Stott returned to action with a trio of rehab starts in the Rookie League...he made his big league return in Pittsburgh on August 20, though Brian Giles spoiled the evening with a pair of homers in a 5-4 Pirate win...Todd posted his first post-injury victory 5 nights later in Florida, a 7-2 win with 7.0 innings of 2-run, 5-hit work. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Todd's regular season perseverance was rewarded in the second game of the series with the Mets, working 6.2 strong innings of a 7-1 win, the only victory Arizona enjoyed...he scattered a run on 4 hits, with 5 walks and 6 strikeouts, allowing the lone tally in the third inning...the start was his 15th career post-season appearance, ninth start, upping his overall record to 3-5. 1998—Todd joined current mound-mate Randy Johnson as a pair of the marquee hurlers who changed uniforms at the trade deadline...while Johnson was dealt from Seattle to Houston, Stottlemire left St. Louis and ended up in a pennant race with the Rangers...he and shortstop Royce Clayton were swapped for pitcher Darren Oliver, infielder Fernando Tatis and a player to be named (Mark Little)...Todd combined his stops for a 14-13 ledger and 3.74 ERA, going 9-9 with the Cardinals and 5-4 for the Rangers...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for June 22-28, going 2-0 with a 1.06 ERA...Todd was a 16-5 winner in Yankee Stadium on August 15 with his father on New York's coaching staff, the first time that he worked a major league game with his father in either dugout...he fanned 10 or more on 3 occasions, with a season-high of 13 K's on May 11 vs. Milwaukee. 1998 POST-SEASON: Todd was Texas' game #1 starter in the Division Series against New York, and lost a 2-0 decision in Yankee Stadium, going the distance (8.0 innings), allowing 2 runs on 6 hits, with 4 walks and 8 K's...the Yanks scored both of their runs in the second, which was all David Wells needed, combining with Mariano Rivera on the 5-hit shutout. 1997—Todd tied Matt Morris for the Redbird lead with 12 wins, despite missing the final month of the season with shoulder fatigue...he posted his 100th career victory on May 25 at San Francisco, joining Mel as the first father-son tandem to reach the century mark...at the plate, he had 4 doubles and a triple, and fashioned a 5-game hitting streak from June 21-July 13. 1996—Had a successful first year as a National Leaguer, joining the Cardinals in January as part of a 4-player trade with Oakland, working a career-high 223.1 innings, while posting 14 wins for the second straight year...had a season-high 13 K's in a 6-0 complete game win on May 15 at Florida...he recorded career-K #1,000 on August 2 at Shea...a 12-3 win over Houston on Sept. 3 vaulted Todd and Mel ahead of the Trout twosome (Dizzy & Steve) for most wins by a father/son duo (259)...offensively, he swiped a base on June 20 at Montreal, the first stolen base by a Redbird pitcher since Bob Forsch (1988)...Todd had 3 hits on June 30 vs. Pittsburgh, the first 3-hit game by a Cardinal hurler since Scott Terry (1988). 1996 POST-SEASON: Stott was the Cards' only multiple-game winner in the post-season, going 2-1 in 4 outings (3 starts)...he won for the first time in 10 post-season tries by winning the Division Series opener against San Diego on October 1, working 6.2 frames of a 3-1 win...he followed that with a victory on October 10 in the second game of the LCS at Atlanta, fanning 8 over 6.0 innings, an 8-3 triumph. 1995—Signing as a free agent on April 11, his only year with Oakland, Todd's 205 strikeouts ranked second in the A.L. (behind Randy Johnson), third in baseball...his season strikeout total and 7 double-digit "K" games were second only to Vida Blue's 301-K and 8 double digit strikeout games in Athletics' history...he set personal bests with a 10-inning, 15-K game, featuring 7 strikeouts in last 3.1 innings, in no decision vs. Kansas City on June 16. 1994—Opened the year in Toronto's bullpen going 2-0 with a save and 2.19 ERA in 7 appearances...earned only professional save on April 5 vs. the White Sox...returned to starting on April 26 with win over Kansas City...fired fourth career shutout with a 4-hitter vs. California on May 29...departed Toronto ranking in their top 5 in wins (59), starts (175), shutouts (4) and strikeouts (662). 1993—Ranked fourth in the A.L. in fewest homers allowed with 11 in 176.2 innings...was on the disabled list from May 23-June 13 with pulled lat muscle. 1993 POST-SEASON: Made the start in the fourth game of the LCS vs. Chicago, dropping a 7-4 contest...started fourth game of World Series vs. Philly, but was injured running the bases in second inning. 1992—Had a career-high 6 complete games, tying for top spot on Toronto staff...tossed first professional shutout on April 29 vs. California...went on the D.L. on June 20 with right knee injury and did not make another start until July 20...tossed second shutout with a career-low 1-hitter on August 26 at Chicago, a 9-0 win, carrying a no-no into the ninth before Dan Pasqua doubled with 1 out...was suspended by A.L. for Sept. 23-27, missing final start. 1992 POST-SEASON: He worked 3.2 innings in fourth game of LCS vs. Oakland, then made 4 relief appearances against the Braves in the World Series, fanning 4 in 3.2 shutout innings. 1991—Set a professional best with 15 wins, his first winning season in the majors...did not miss a start, making a career-high 34...went 5-0 through 7 starts to open the year, and 8-2 through first 14 starts. 1991 POST-SEASON: He started and lost the fourth game of the LCS vs. Minnesota, a 9-3 setback. 1990—First full major league season, worked exclusively as a starter, making 33 appearances, topping the Jays' staff with 4 complete games...was the youngest opening day starter in franchise history, taking the ball at 24 years old, losing a 4-2 decision vs. Texas. 1989—Opened the year in Toronto's pen, making 7 relief appearances, including a team-high 6-inning stint on April 18...was outrighted to Syracuse on May 15...returned to Jays on June 30 and joined the starting rotation for the remainder of the year, winning 7 of 8 decisions from July 6-Sept. 6, including 5 in a row. 1989 POST-SEASON: He made first post-season appearance in second game of ALCS vs. Oakland, losing a 6-3 decision. 1988—Made big league club out of spring training for first time, debuting with 1.2 shutout innings of relief on April 6 at Kansas City...first start was a 4-2 loss at Minnesota on April 10...earned first major league win on May 3 at Seattle, retiring the first 19 men he faced...lost 6 straight decisions at mid-season and was outrighted to Syracuse on July 27. 1987—Earned team MVP honors at Syracuse (AAA), just his second pro season, leading the league in starts (34), while ranking second in strikeouts and innings. 1986—Honored as the California League's top prospect by Baseball America, going 9-4 with a 2.43 ERA in 17 starts for Ventura (A)...was selected Topps Player-of-the-Month for May and the Toronto organization's Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...was promoted on June 21 to Knoxville (AA).

PERSONAL

Todd Vernon Stottlemire...he and his fiancé, Ericka, and daughters, Rachel (10/12/95) and Madison (6/12/01), make their home in Paradise Valley, AZ...Todd graduated in 1982 from Davis High School in Yakima, WA, going 10-0 with a 0.72 ERA as a senior...he then attended the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, going 10-4 in his freshman year...Todd sat out his sophomore season with a tender right elbow, enrolling in Yakima Valley Community College...he withdrew from UNLV during his junior year to be eligible for the January, 1985, draft, and was selected by St. Louis but chose not to sign...he was then drafted in the secondary phase of the '85 June draft by Toronto and inked his first pro contract...he is the son of former Yankee great and current pitching coach Mel Stottlemire...the Stottlemires are the only father-son combination in major league history to each record 100 or more wins, and their combined total of 302 (Mel-164, Todd-138) are the most ever by a father and son...the Stottlemires, Trout and Bagbys (Jim & Jim Jr.) are the only 3 father/son combinations to take part in post-season play...his brother, Mel Jr., is a former big league pitcher and now coaches in the Diamondbacks minor league system...Todd has been a huge contributor to the Leukemia Society and is donating $1 million over the term of his contract earmarked for Diamondbacks Charities and the Valley of the Sun United Way...he was twice honored for his off-field community service in 2000, earning the prestigious Branch Rickey Award from the Rotary Club of Denver, determined by a vote of the national media, formally receiving the award at a banquet in Denver last November...he was also named by The Sporting News as one of the 99 "Good Guys in Sports"...both honors came by virtue of his dedicated work and donations toward helping to find a cure for leukemia and other forms of cancer and his devotion to helping ailing children.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Greg pitched in 64 games to match his appearance total from a year ago and raise his franchise leading total to 191 over 3 seasons...the durable southpaw displayed the best control of his career, walking only 8 men in 53.2 innings while fanning 42...he tied a career best with 2 saves, working a scoreless 18th inning in San Francisco on May 29 to preserve Arizona's 1-0 win, then recording the final 2 outs of a 3-2 triumph over the Cubs on June 14...he experienced all of the emotions that go with being a reliever in the majors, providing stretches of brilliance, especially in inherited runner situations, while also going through a period at the mid-point that shot his ERA from 3.13 to a season-high 4.81...he kept the opposition off the board in 11 of his first 12 appearances, the only runs in that stretch occurring when the Rockies scored 3 times on a pair of homers on April 15 to saddle Greg with his first of 3 blown saves on the year...“Zeke” was scored upon in just 5 of his first 28 outings before the Rockies scored in all 3 games he appeared in from June 21-24 in Denver...Greg allowed only 1 of the first 16 runners he inherited to cross the plate through June 2...he Dodgers snapped the streak on June 5 when he allowed a 3-run double...his season ERA was dealt a blow from June 21-August 12 when he was charged with 13 earned runs over 16.2 innings, spanning 19 outings...he recorded some key outs for the D'Backs down the stretch, including a strikeout of Shawn Green at home on September 28, entering with the score tied at 3-3 to help set the stage for Luis Gonzalez's game-ending homer in the 11th...his last outing of the year was against Colorado on October 4 in Phoenix, retiring the final 2 men in the eighth inning of a 5-4 Arizona win to complete a 3-game sweep of the Rockies...Greg retired 71% of the first batters he faced (45 of 63) while only 9 of 32 inherited runners scored...the long ball proved to be a nemesis during the year allowing a dozen home runs, matching his career-high since becoming a full-time reliever in 1997.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

This was Greg's third career trip to the post-season, first beyond the Division Series...he responded by blanking the opposition in 6 of the 7 games he worked, appearing twice in both the Division Series and NLCS, and 3 times against the Yankees in his first-ever World Series action...after 1.2 shutout frames against the Cardinals in the first round of action, Swindell gave up his first career post-season run allowing a home run to Atlanta's B.J. Surhoff in Arizona's 8-1 game #2 loss...Zeke avenged that matchup 3 nights later in Turner Field, coaxing an infield pop-up by Surhoff as he represented the tying run in the seventh inning of game #4...Swindell totaled 2.2 shutout frames against the Bronx Bombers, including a solid 1.1 innings in game #3 at Yankee Stadium to keep the D'Backs within a run of an eventual 2-1 loss...in game #5 with the Diamondbacks leading by a 2-0 count in the eighth, Greg retired Tino Martinez with 2 aboard to end the Yankee threat...in 11 career post-season appearances, including 1 with the Red Sox in '98, Swindell has given up just 1 earned run over 9.1 innings for a 0.96 ERA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Greg tied the then club record with 64 appearances...he recorded his lone save in his only opportunity on April 15 with 3.0 innings for a 7-4 triumph over the Giants at Pacific Bell Park...he was tough early, giving up 2 earned runs over 16.0 innings (11 games) for a season-opening 1.13 ERA...after allowing 6 earned runs over 3.2 frames, Greg had his best overall streak of the year with 19.0 straight scoreless innings over 15 games from May 29-July 4...included was a streak of 55 batters faced without allowing a walk...Greg inherited 26 runners on the year with only 4 scoring, including just 1 of the last 12...he fanned 5 in a 3-inning stint at Philly on April 26. 1999—Greg allowed only 9 earned runs in his last 48 outings and 50.0 innings, a 1.62 ERA as the club ran away with the N.L. West crown...he missed the last 2 weeks of June with a rib cage injury, then was scored upon in just 4 of 35 appearances after coming off the D.L....Greg had a shutout streak from August 4-September 4, stretching 13.1 scoreless innings...his lone save was on April 19 in B.O.B., retiring the only Phillie he faced to preserve a 3-2 win, his first-ever National League save. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Greg appeared in the last 3 games of the series with Mets, totaling 3.1 innings allowing a hit and 3 walks (1 intentional), with a strikeout...he finished up Arizona's lone win, working the final 2.0 frames, allowing a hit, while fanning a man, retiring 6 of the 7 he faced...he tossed an inning in game #3 at Shea, then recorded an out in game #4. 1998—Greg's year began with Minnesota, his second straight with the Twins, but he joined the playoff race at the trade deadline with a trade to Boston...a starter for the first 10 years of his career, he worked exclusively in relief for the first time, appearing in a career-high 81 games, third most in the A.L....Swindell left stranded 90% of the runners he inherited, with only 5 of the 48 crossing the plate (3 of 30 with Minnesota and 2 of 18 with Boston)...he was most impressive during a 17-game stretch from May 8-June 10, allowing 2 earned runs in 23.2 innings, a 0.76 ERA. 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: After more than 12 years and 4 different franchises, Greg got his first shot at pitching in the post-season, working 1.1 shutout inning in the second game of the Division Series against Cleveland, the club he originally signed with in 1986. 1997—Made 65 appearances, with his lone start on May 10 vs. Toronto, still his last start...posted first career save on Sept. 20 against Milwaukee. 1996—Started his fourth consecutive year with the Astros, but was slowed by a groin injury that disabled him from April 20-May 22...Greg was released on June 3 and signed as a free agent with Cleveland on June 15...he was a winner on June 18 vs. the Red Sox, his first triumph in a Cleveland uniform since Sept. 21, 1991, vs. Baltimore...was outrighted on Sept. 6, then inked a contract with Minnesota. 1995—Appeared in 33 games, starting 26 of them...tossed the 12th shutout of his career on June 26 vs. St. Louis...posted 100th career victory on August 29 at Atlanta, working a pair of hitless innings of relief...he was also employed as a pinch hitter once during the '95 season, fanning in the at bat. 1994—Opened the year by winning 5 of his first 6 decisions, including a stretch of 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings from April 8-19. 1993—Tied for sixth in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings at 1.89...was disabled with a left shoulder strain from July 6-25...recorded 1,000th career strikeout, fanning Jim Deshaies on Sept. 20...finished year with 11th career shutout on October 1 in Cincinnati. 1992—Dealt to the Reds from Cleveland in exchange for pitchers Jack Armstrong, Scott Scudder and Joe Turek...made N.L. debut on April 9 in Houston, but didn't post first N.L. victory until April 25 at San Diego...finished ninth in the N.L. with a 2.70 ERA...had stint on disabled list (August 23-Sept. 7) with stress fracture in left rib cage...ranked third in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings (1.73). 1991—The last of 6 straight seasons with the Indians, led the staff in innings pitched, strikeouts and complete games...fanned a season-high 12 on April 24 vs. K.C....he tied a career-high with a 10-inning performance on June 11 vs. Toronto...walked only 31 men in 238.0 innings, a 1.17 walks per-9 inning ratio. 1990—Established a career best in starts, leading the Cleveland staff in that department as well as innings and strikeouts...snapped an 11-start drought with 8.1 innings in a win over California on July 1, a victory that kicked off a 4-game winning streak...he parlayed that into an 8-2 stretch from July 22-August 22. 1989—Made his first Opening Day start on April 3 vs. Milwaukee...tied a career-high with a 6-game winning streak from May 28-June 24, and through July 20 was victorious in 9 of 10 decisions...tied a career-low with a 2-hitter on June 7 vs. California, his third career...was named to the A.L. All-Star team and worked 1.2 innings allowing 2 hits and fanning 3 in Anaheim Stadium...disabled from July 26-August 30 with a left elbow ligament strain...gave up 3 earned runs or less in 20 of his 28 starts. 1988—Had a career-year, winning 18, including 12 complete games, leading the Cleveland staff in virtually every category...won 10 of his first 11 decisions from April 6-May 2, including a season-opening 6-game winning streak...tossed back-to-back complete games on April 6 at Texas and April 11 vs. Baltimore, earning A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors by posting a 0.95 ERA...established a career-high with a 10-inning stint on April 16 at Baltimore, blanking the Orioles...carried a no-hitter into the seventh on May 19 vs. Chicago, and wound up with 2-hit shutout...the Tribe scored only 28 runs in his 14 losses...was second in the A.L. in walks per 9-innings (1.67). 1987—Tossed his first career shutout, 3-0 on April 19 at Baltimore, a 6-hitter...made first professional relief appearance on April 15 at New York, retiring only man he faced...fanned a career-high 15 in 4-2 win vs. Kansas City on May 10...he suffered a broken middle finger on his right hand when hit by a Wade Boggs line drive on May 26 at Boston, but did not miss a start...had season cut short with a sore left elbow, sidelining him after July 2. 1986—Signed with Cleveland as the second overall pick in the June draft, and began pro career with Waterloo, going 2-1 with a 1.00 ERA in 3 starts, fanning 25 in 18.0 innings...was promoted to the majors on August 21, making big league debut vs. Boston...had a season-high 9 K's on Sept. 1 at Toronto...started a 4-game winning streak with first major league win on Sept. 6 at Milwaukee...final win in streak was Sept. 23 at California, his first career complete game.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Things started slowly for Luis in A-ball but he wound up with his first taste of AA action and emerged as one of Arizona's top farmhands, as evidenced by his selection by Baseball America as the D'Backs top prospect entering 2002...he began the year with South Bend (A) and struggled through the first month before doctors detected a left ankle fracture...after a month on the D.L., he returned to action with Yakima and began to flourish...he was sent to Lancaster (A) on June 30 and went 3-for-4 with a homer and 2 RBI in his first game...another 3-hit game on July 2 launched a 6-game hitting streak in which he batted .478 (11-for-23)...he hit safely in 12 of 13 games from July 2-23, interrupted only by an unsuccessful pinch-hit appearance on July 13, batting 23-for-50 (.460) with 10 runs during that stretch...Luis earned a promotion to El Paso (AA) on July 28...he kicked off his stay with a 17-game stretch in which he batted .362 (25-for-69) with 15 runs...overall on the year, he hit .296 (103-for-348) with 56 runs, 26 doubles, 5 triples, 8 homers, 27 RBI and 17 stolen bases...he then displayed his skills for Azucareros in the Dominican Winter League, batting .346 (18-for-52) with 7 doubles and 4 RBI in 21 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Spent the majority of the year with Missoula, finishing fourth in the Pioneer League in steals (23)...his season began on the disabled list with a broken hamate bone in his left wrist...he was activated May 21, then transferred to Missoula for the start of its season...he tasted the big league life playing for the Diamondbacks in the Hall of Fame Game on July 24 in Cooperstown, NY, earning MVP honors after going 2-for-4 with a double and 2 scored vs. Cleveland...named Pioneer League Player-of-the-Week for July 10-16 after batting .500 with 12 runs scored, 5 homers and 14 RBI...hit .353 (30-for-85) with 5 doubles, 6 home runs, 21 RBI in 19 games from July 10-August 1...selected to the Pioneer League post-season All-Star team. 1999—Led the league in runs (74) and ranked fourth in steals (27)...touched Helena for grand slams twice in 6 days, June 22 and June 27, earning league Player-of-the-Week honors for June 21-27...rated by Baseball America as the No. 8 prospect in the Pioneer League.

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for Travis Fryman and Tom Martin, December 2, 1997.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The 2001 campaign was actually 2 seasons for the veteran third baseman as Matt began the year healthy thanks to a rigorous off-season program, and ended the year in relative good health...unfortunately there was a 47-game stretch in the first half that witnessed his third stint on the disabled list in 2 years...things began optimistically as he was hitting .309 with 6 doubles, 3 homers and 13 RBI through 14 games as the cleanup hitter before going into a 3-for-27 dry spell...Matty broke out of the mini-drought by hitting safely in a season-high 12 straight games and 15 out of 16 before a leg injury put him on the shelf...while playing with a slight left hamstring strain, Matty suffered a left hip flexor injury scoring on a sacrifice fly on May 17 in Cincinnati as the D'Backs completed a 3-game sweep of the Reds...he was unable to play during a 3-game visit to Chicago and eventually landed on the disabled list on May 21 (retroactive to May 18)...the night before suffering the injury, he and Luis Gonzalez combined for back-to-back home runs in the seventh inning to stake the D'Backs to a 2-1 win over Cincinnati...it was the second time in 8 days that he had a game-winning RBI against the Reds, coaxing a pinch hit bases loaded game-ending walk off of Danny Graves in the 11th inning at home on May 8...Williams proved he was ready to return to work by going 6-for-17 with 2 doubles, 2 homers and 5 RBI in a 5-game injury rehab with Tucson, then rejoined the D'Backs out of the All-Star break in Anaheim...he was 3-for-5 with 2 doubles highlighted by a tie-breaking shot to the wall off of Troy Percival in the ninth inning to help stake Arizona to a 7-5 come-from-behind win in the series finale against the Halos...that contest signaled the beginning of a 38-game stretch in which Matt batted .324 (47-for-145) with 12 doubles, 8 homers and 27 RBI...during that span he hit safely in 15 consecutive starts from July 29-August 18, batting at a .328 clip (20-for-61) with 6 home runs and 17 RBI...he drove in runs in 6 consecutive games from August 10-15 with the D'Backs winning all 6 of those contests...included were home runs in 3 straight starts from August 12-15, blasting a trio of 2-run shots, and a run scoring single in the 10th inning of a 4-3 win over the Pirates in a game that he entered earlier as a pinch hitter...Williams also provided some big offensive assistance during the stretch run in September, beginning with a 10th inning walk-off 2-run homer off of San Diego's Wascara Serrano on September 9...Matt hammered the 11th grand slam of his career on September 21 in Los Angeles, his first of the year and sixth as a Diamondback, opening the scoring in the fourth inning on the way to a key 10-0 win over the Dodgers...he is tied with Devon White for sixth among active players in grand slams, and tied for 25th on the all-time slam list...as the regular season wound down, he had a 6-game hitting streak from Sept. 23-29, featuring a double in each of the first 5 games of the streak while hitting .385 (10-for-26)...statistically, he ascended from 61st to 53rd on the all-time home run list with 362, passing the likes of Yogi Berra, Johnny Mize and Joe DiMaggio...Matt collected his 1,700th hit (April 29), 300th double (April 27), 900th run (April 17), 1,100th RBI (April 6) and 350th homer (May 1) during the course of the 2001 season...his home run on August 25 in Philadelphia was the 59th ball to land in the upper deck in The Vet's 31-year history, the third time he's reached the upper tank...defensively, Matt committed only 3 errors in his last 67 games of the year at third base after returning from the disabled list, including none in his last 26 starts...Williams made 2 starts at shortstop, the last on April 27, his first work there since 1996...April 24 marked his first starting assignment at short since August 21, 1991.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Matty's third career trip to the World Series ended in the ultimate celebratory mode as he was waiting with open arms for Jay Bell, who crossed home plate as the deciding run in the seventh game, and as the two Diamondback originals embraced the comeback was complete...Williams started all 17 games of Arizona's title run, but due to a slow start at the plate he finished with a deceptively low .217 average (13-for-60)...he fashioned a .289 mark (13-for-45) over the last 13 games of the post-season after an 0-for-15 start...he snapped the 0'er with a leadoff double in the ninth inning of game #5 off the Cards' Dave Veres to ignite the Division Series winning rally...that hit also ignited a personal stretch in which Matty batted .321 (9-for-28) over the next 8 games, climaxed by a huge home run that iced the second game of the World Series...the blast, a 3-run seventh inning shot off of Andy Pettitte, expanded Arizona's lead to 4-0 and allowed Randy Johnson to cruise to a 3-hit shutout...the home run put Matty in the World Series record book as the first player in history to homer in the Fall Classic for 3 different teams (see below for details)...Williams went hitless in the 3-game visit to Yankee Stadium, but came home and had 3 hits in the game #6 blowout...included was another record when he became the first player ever to double twice in a World Series inning...he was also the 18th player in Fall Classic history with 2 hits in an

A Record Fall Classic for "The Marine"

Matty's clutch hitting in the World Series enabled him to set or tie 4 different records during the series against the Yankees.

His clutch 3-run homer in game #2 off of Andy Pettitte made Williams the first player in history to homer for 3 different teams in World Series history. Matt had gone deep in game #3 of the 1989 Fall Classic in the "Battle of the Bay" against Oakland, then he homered in the fourth game of the 1997 Series against Craig Counsell's Florida Marlins.

Williams' blast also made him the seventh player in history to hit World Series homers in both leagues joining Enos Slaughter, Bill Skowron, Roger Maris, Frank Robinson, Reggie Smith and Kirk Gibson. Matt was also only the fourth player ever to homer in 3 different decades, joining Joe DiMaggio (30's, 40's and 50's), Yogi Berra (40's, 50's and 60's) and Eddie Murray (70's, 80's and 90's)

Matt also made the record book with a pair of doubles in the third inning of the game #6 blowout of the Yankees, the 18th player in Series history to collect 2 hits in an inning, first to record 2 doubles.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Matt was one of 11 players who hit 300 home runs over the 1990's, joining Mark McGwire (405), Ken Griffey Jr. (382), Barry Bonds (361), Albert Belle (351), Juan Gonzalez (339), Sammy Sosa (332), Rafael Palmeiro (328), Jose Canseco (303), Frank Thomas (301) and Fred McGriff (300)...prior to the 90's there were only 12 players in history to hit at least 300 homers in a decade...he owns 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves and 4 Silver Slugger Awards... he entered the 2002 season fifth on San Francisco's all-time home run list with 247 while with the Giants.

2000—Matty's year literally got off on the wrong foot when a foul ball broke the second metatarsal in his right foot on March 28 in the final Tucson exhibition game of the spring...he had surgery performed 4 days later by Dr. Pete Mitchell, who inserted a metal plate into the affected area...it was the second time in Matt's career that he broke the second metatarsal in his right foot, missing 11 weeks of the 1995 season with San Francisco...he was on the disabled list from March 29-May 23...during a rehab stint with El Paso (AA), he suffered a right quadriceps strain that eventually led to another stint on the 15-day D.L., missing time from June 25-July 13...Matt finished the campaign strong by hitting safely in 14 of the final 15 games at a .421 clip (24-for-57) with 9 runs scored, 2 doubles, 5 homers and 18 RBI...he homered 5 times in the last 10 games of the year, beginning with an impressive visit to Pacific Bell Park on September 21-24, his first look at the Giants' new home due to the injuries, going 10-for-20 (.500) with 2 home runs and 9 RBI in a 5-game series...included was a grand slam off of Livan Hernandez in the series finale on the 24th, the 10th of his career...the slam also led to his second 5-RBI game of the year and 14th career game in which he drove in at least 5 runs. 1999—Had a monster year at the plate, finishing third in the National League MVP balloting, including a pair of first place votes...he was voted by the fans to start at third base in the All-Star Game in Boston, his fifth appearance at the Midsummer Classic, fourth time he'd been selected by the fans...he was an easy choice for the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA, earning team Player-of-the-Year honors...he destroyed his previous single-season RBI best with 142, 20 more than his league leading total from 1990 with the Giants...he also set personal bests in average (.303), hits (190) and doubles (37)...Matt had 8 games of at least 4 RBI and a pair of multi-homer games, upping his career total to 30...he was the league Player-of-the-Month for April, batting .357 with 8 homers and 25 RBI, locking up the award through the first 18 games, batting .385 (30-for-78) with 8 doubles, 7 homers and 21 RBI...included was his first of 2 Player-of-the-Week honors, winning for April 19-25 by batting .550 (11-for-20) with 4 homers and 11 RBI (also June 7-13)...his first homer on April 6 in Dodger Stadium was the 300th of his career...he was the first of 4 D'Backs to crack the century mark in RBI, and when teammates Jay Bell, Luis Gonzalez and Steve Finley achieved the mark, Arizona was the seventh club in N.L. history with a quartet of 100 RBI...the next-to-last weekend of the regular season was memorable for Matty, who returned to "The Stick" for a final time, getting 2 hits in the first game of the series, the night Arizona clinched its Western Division crown, then after a well deserved day off, he was honored in pre-game ceremonies as a member of the all-time San Francisco Giant starting lineup...his last game ever at Candlestick featured a double and run scored in his final plate appearance...Williams recorded his 1,500th career hit on July 15 at Texas, and just 12 days later posted his 1,000th career RBI with a double in San Diego...defensively, Matt tied a full-season career low with 10 errors, matching his miscue total from 1995 with the Giants. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Matt hit .375 in the 4 games against the Mels, going hitless in the series opener, then finishing on a 6-for-12 run...he had 3 hits, including a double and 3 runs scored in Arizona's lone win in the second game of the series, then added a pair of hits in game #3 at Shea. 1998—Matt persevered through a pair of injuries to land his ninth consecutive 20-homer campaign...homered in 3 straight games on April 14-16 in St. Louis, beginning the streak with his sixth career grand slam (off of Kent Mercker)...he was hitting .309 on May 2, before suffering an injury to his left hand that hampered him for the remainder of the year...after returning to action, he hammered his second slam of the year and seventh career, a fifth inning shot on May 20 at Florida off of Andy Larkin...the injury bug bit again in early July, fouling a ball off his left foot on July 3 in Houston, and though he continued to play for 2 weeks, he was eventually diagnosed with a stress fracture and placed on the D.L....he returned to action on August 3 in Chicago, and as luck would have it, he was hit on the right hand by a pitch in his first game back, forcing him to miss 4 more games. 1997—Only year as an American Leaguer, Matt was part of a 6-player deal on November 13, 1996, and wound up playing in his second World Series...earned his fourth Silver Slugger Award and was also rewarded defensively with his fourth Rawlings Gold Glove, first since 1994...led the Tribe with 105 RBI...hit 3 homers in a game for first time in major league career on April 25 at Milwaukee...followed the next night with 2 more home runs vs. the Brewers, tying the big league record with 5 in 2 games, the 20th time ever, third by an Indian (Joe Carter-1989 and Albert Belle-1995)...a 2-homer game on June 28 at New York also tied career bests with 4 hits and 6 RBI...had another 6-RBI game on August 27 at Anaheim, collecting all 6 RBI in the fourth inning to equal a major league record (a 3-run homer and 3-run double off of Allen Watson), Williams' fourth career 6-RBI game...second half included a career-high 24-game hitting streak (August 13-Sept. 8), the eighth longest in Tribe history...established a personal single-season best with 12 thefts, featuring his first career multi-steal game on June 8 at Boston, pilfering 3 bags...committed 12 errors in 402 total chances (.971 fielding pct.), second among A.L. third basemen...hit just 7 of his 32 homers in Jacobs Field, while his 25 road shots were 1 shy of Albert Belle's club record of 26. 1997 POST-SEASON: Hit safely in 14 of the 18 games he played in during the post-season, including a 7-game streak that began in the second game of the Division Series and ran into the LCS...homered in the second game of the Division Series off of losing pitcher Andy Pettitte...he had an outstanding Fall Classic, going 10-for-26 (.385) in the 7 games against the Marlins, with a homer and 3 RBI...hit safely in first 6 games of the series, going 10-for-24 (.417)...he homered in game #4, driving in a pair in the 10-3 win...also walked 7 times during the series, including 3 in game #7. 1996—Injury shortened campaign for second straight year, playing in just 105 games due to right shoulder that eventually required surgery...became the first San Francisco Giant to start 8 straight opening days...collected his 1,000th major league hit on April 26 off of Florida's Kevin Brown...originally damaged shoulder on July 16 in Colorado attempting to break up a double play in a collision with Walt Weiss...moved across to first base the following inning, then started 12 of the next 15 games at first before going on the D.L. on August 5...had the shoulder scoped on August 17 by Dr. Warren King in San Francisco, with the procedure revealing slight fraying of the labrum, bursa scarring and rotator cuff inflammation...was voted the N.L. starting third baseman in the All-Star Game, but was unable to play due to a severely bruised left elbow after a hit by a pitch in San Diego on July 6. 1995—Was limited to 76 games after fracturing the second metatarsal bone in his right foot on a foul tip off a Paul Quantrill pitch on June 3 vs. Philly...injury required surgery by Dr. King and Dr. Gordon Campbell, who inserted pins in the displaced fracture...missed 68 games with the injury, with Giants going 28-40 in his absence, dropping 8.0 games in the standings...at the time of the injury, he was leading the league in avg. (.381), homers (13), RBI (35) and hits (50)...was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .405 (45-for-111) with 12 homers and 31 RBI...was elected to start All-Star Game in Arlington, TX, but unable to play due to injury...hit fifth career grand slam, first since 1990, taking Cubs' Frank Castillo deep on Sept. 9 in Wrigley. 1994—Led the majors with a career-best 43 home runs in the strike-shortened season, setting an all-time franchise record (NY and SF) for homers by a third baseman...at the time of the strike he was on pace to tie Roger Maris' then single-season record of 61...voted the starting third baseman on the N.L. All-Star team, first time elected, second game...he finished second in the MVP balloting behind Jeff Bagwell, while earning a spot on The Sporting News, Associated Press and Baseball America Post-Season All-Star teams...earned third Rawlings Gold Glove, while also winning Silver Slugger...had more extra-base hits (62) than singles (57)...40 homers through July 31 set then N.L. record, surpassing previous mark of 36 by Johnny Bench, Willie Mays, Willie Stargell and Mike Schmidt...also set N.L. mark with 33 home runs prior to All-Star break...hit career HR #200 off of Cincy's Erik Hanson on August 1. 1993—Finished second in N.L. in total bases (325), second in extra-base hits (75), third in homers (38), third in slugging (.561), fifth in RBI (110) and sixth in runs (105), finishing sixth in MVP vote and earning the UPI Comeback Player-of-the-Year award...was also named the top third baseman in the majors by Associated Press...season mark of .294 was a 67-point increase over '92 season, the biggest gain in the N.L....teamed with Barry Bonds (46 HR) to produce SF's first 40/30 homer tandem since Bobby Bonds and Willie McCovey in 1969...earned second Rawlings Gold Glove. 1992—Hit a pair of homers on May 13 in Philadelphia, then had the longest home run drought of career, 128 AB's from May 22-July 7. 1991—Ranked second in the N.L. in home runs (34), fourth in total bases (294) and 10th in RBI (98)...earned first Rawlings Gold Glove, joining Jim Davenport as only Giant 3B to win award...drove in runs in 10 consecutive games (August 27-Sept. 6)...hit career homer #100 off Darryl Kile on October 1. 1990—His 122 RBI were most ever by a Giant third baseman, breaking Mel Ott's mark of 116 in 1938. 1989—Opened the year as the Giants' third baseman and hit his second career grand slam on April 9 in Cincy off of Danny Jackson...set LCS 5-game record for RBI with 9, featuring a homer and 4 RBI in game #4...homered off Dave Stewart in game #3 of the World Series vs. Oakland. 1988—Had a pair of stints with the Giants, recalled from Phoenix for the first time on June 2 and started 10 games at short...hit 3 homers and drove in 9, including first career grand slam on June 4 off Houston's Nolan Ryan...had second career 2-homer game on Sept. 24 at L.A....while with Phoenix, tied a 25-year old PCL record with 4 homers on May 25 vs. Albuquerque. 1987—Assigned to Phoenix, but had contract purchased on April 11 and had first major league hit that day off Dodgers' Orel Hershiser...hit first big league homer in Candlestick Park on April 19 off Atlanta's Jeff Dedmon...was the starting shortstop when Giants set MLB record for most double plays in 3 games, (13) and 4 games (17), on April 24-27 in Atlanta...replaced Joel Youngblood (broken wrist) on the LCS roster vs. St. Louis but did not play. 1986—Signed with Giants in June as the third overall pick in the draft and reported to Everett...knocked in 10 runs in 4 games before earning quick promotion to Clinton (A).

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player-to-be-named (Jason Boyd), February 26, 1999.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The 2001 season was the ultimate rollercoaster ride for Tony, both on and off the field, but climaxed with some of his best overall offensive production in a Diamondback uniform...in fact his post All-Star break average (.327) and on-base pct. (.370) was tops among starting shortstops in the N.L....he opened the year hitting .407 (11-for-27) through 6 games and was hitting .302 through 14 games, then hit a mini-offensive drought that was nothing compared to his personal life...on April 22 he received a shocking phone call that his father, Thomas C. Womack, had passed away...Tony physically left the club for a week, but emotionally struggled for the majority of the first half...he returned to the lineup on May 3, but combined with the slump that had begun before his father's passing, his season average dropped to .212 due to a 2-for-36 slide...Bob Brenly attempted to take some of the pressure off of Tony by moving him from his familiar leadoff role to the seventh spot in the order and he responded by going 11-for-33 (.333) in a 9-game stretch...his season average rebounded to .248 and he returned to the top of the order on May 18, but hit another slide that dropped his mark to .217 and he was moved to the eighth spot on June 13...Tony experienced another offensive resurgence after that switch, hitting .321 (18-for-56) in a 14-game stretch featuring a couple of key contributions to the club's success...he had an amazing afternoon on June 17 against the Tigers, honoring his dad's memory by going 3-for-4 with 2 doubles and a grand slam to lead Arizona to an 8-3 Father's Day victory...5 nights later in Colorado, Womack had 2 hits including a 10th inning tie-breaking double to stake the D'Backs to a 4-3 win...as if things hadn't been difficult enough, Tony suffered a right calf strain while running out a ground ball on July 21 in San Francisco and was forced to the disabled list until August 6...once healthy, he hit at a .323 clip (10-for-31) in his first 8 games back, but ran into another stretch of inconsistency at the plate and was in the starting lineup for only 8 of the next 18 games...Womack returned to the lineup for keeps on September 8 and saved his best production of the year for the stretch drive, hitting safely in 11 straight games from September 8-27 at a .434 clip (23-for-53), featuring 9 multi-hit games in that span...the hitting streak was climaxed with a huge 3-game set at home against the Brewers going 8-for-15 (.533) with 7 runs scored and 6 RBI...he tied a career-high with 4 RBI on September 26 vs. Milwaukee then tied a team record by scoring 4 runs in the series finale the next night...he closed the campaign by hitting safely at a .388 clip (33-for-85) with 12 multi-hit games in his final 19...included was a game-opening home run on October 5 in Milwaukee, the first by a Diamondback since Tony did it on May 14, 2000, and the fifth of his career.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

While his overall post-season average wound up at .246 (17-for-69), Tony will be long remembered around the Valley for a pair of ninth inning hits that enabled the Diamondbacks to achieve World Champion status...he snapped out of a 2-for-12 beginning to the Division Series by going 3-for-5 in game #5 vs. the Cardinals, capped by the series-winning hit under the toughest of circumstances...Womack came to the plate with runners at first and third and one out in the ninth inning of a 1-1 game with southpaw Steve Kline on the hill...a failed squeeze attempt on a pitch out of the strike zone represented the second out while pinch runner Danny Bautista advanced to second base on the play...Tony followed with a single into left-center field driving home Bautista and sending the D'Backs into their first NLCS...he hit .200 (4-for-20) against the Braves in the NLCS, with half of those hits and 3 runs coming in Arizona's 11-4 thrashing of Atlanta in game #4 at Turner Field...Tony's first career World Series experience started slowly but he apparently saved the best for last, finishing the Fall Classic by going 8-for-21 (.381) in the last 4 games...he singled to open game #4 of the Series in Yankee Stadium, snapping a personal 0-for-15, but that only scratched the surface of what was to come...he was the catalyst in Arizona's 15-2 triumph in game #6 against the Yankees, opening the contest with a double to right off of Andy Pettitte and finishing the night with 3 hits including a double, 2 runs and 2 RBI...despite the tremendous sixth game effort, Tony still had one more thrill up his sleeve and he saved it for the ninth inning of the deciding seventh game...with 1-out and runners on first and second, Womack pulled a Mariano Rivera pitch into right field for a run scoring double tying the contest at 2-2 and putting the eventual go ahead run at third base...a hit by pitch later, Luis Gonzalez hit the now famous loop over the drawn-in infield and the Diamondbacks were World Champions.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Tony topped the National League in triples with a club record 14, despite playing on an injured left knee that eventually required season-ending surgery on September 26...he established career highs in RBI (57), home runs (7) and triples...he also finished fourth in the league with 45 stolen bases, snapping a 3-year streak of winning the Lou Brock Award...Tony hit just .133 through his first 10 games (6-for-45), then opened the month of May with a 3-hit effort in Milwaukee on May 2 triggering a career-high 24-game hitting streak, tying for the longest in the N.L. in 2000 (Tony Eusebio)...Womack batted .360 (40-for-111) during his streak with 23 runs scored...he hit his fourth career game-opening home run on May 14 in San Diego...he recorded his 10th career 4-hit game on June 21 against the Padres, highlighted by a pair of triples, tying his own club record, the only Diamondback to triple twice in a game...he established a franchise record with 4 stolen bases vs. the Braves on August 3, tying his personal best...he made a late-season run in the stolen base race, matching a personal high for any month by stealing 17 bases in August while getting caught only once and featuring a streak of 15 consecutive successful thefts...Tony finished the year making good on 25 of his last 27 theft attempts...the most dramatic of his 7 home runs was the first walk-off homer of his career, staking Randy Johnson to a 3-2 win over the Cardinals on July 20, hitting a game-ending 2-run shot off of Dave Veres...Womack finished off the first triple play in franchise history on May 31, taking Damian Miller's throw and tagging out Edgar Renteria of St. Louis at third base after Mark McGwire's fly ball was caught by Steve Finley and relayed to Miller, catching Placido Polanco as he tried to score. 1999—Acquired from Pittsburgh just a week into spring training (February 26), Tony led the majors in stolen bases with 72 while making the position switch from second baseman to rightfielder...he became the first player to lead the N.L. in thefts for at least 3 straight seasons since Vince Coleman (1985-90)...the year did not start as smoothly as he would have liked, suffering a fractured right ulna just a couple of days into the exhibition season, the result of a Jim Parque pitch, delaying his D'Back debut until the home opener on April 12...he had a career-high tying 4-hit game on May 7 in New York, featuring the first 2-triple game in franchise history...he also established a club record with 14 consecutive thefts without being caught...he hit the first inside-the-park home run in franchise history on July 21 in Houston, a grand slam that staked the D'Backs to a 7-4 win...trailing 4-3 in the eighth inning and facing an 0-2 pitch from Billy Wagner, Tony delivered a sinking liner to left that went to the wall untouched, and the race was on...it was also the first grand slam of his career, and the first inside-the-park grand slam in the majors since May 3, 1998 (Seattle's Dan Wilson)...the last N.L. inside-the-park slam was Tony Gwynn on June 26, 1997 in Dodger Stadium...things only got better for Womack as the year progressed, hitting safely in 20 of the last 21 games, including a season-high 14-game hitting streak that ran through the season finale, hitting .317 (20-for-63)...on the bases, Tony went 63-for-76 (83%) when swiping second base, and was a perfect 9-for-9 while pilfering third base. DIVISION SERIES HIGHLIGHTS: Tony was the leadoff man in each of the 4 games vs. the Mets, playing in rightfield in the first and third games, and serving as the starting shortstop in games 2 & 4...he scuffled offensively, going just 2-for-18 (.111) with a triple and 2 runs scored...the triple occurred in his second post-season at bat in game #1 of the series. 1998—Tony's second full season with the Pirates, he led the N.L. in stolen bases for the second straight year, pilfering 58 bases, the first Pirate since Omar Moreno (1978-79) to lead the league in thefts in consecutive seasons...he was the second toughest to double-up in the N.L., hitting into just 4 double plays, a 1 in every 164 at bat ratio...Tony established a major league record by going 918 at bats without grounding into a double play (May 28, 1997 to August 5, 1998), spanning 220 games and 980 plate appearances...he had 32 infield hits, including 11 bunt hits...he was Pittsburgh's Opening Day second baseman for the second straight year, but closed the year with 5 starts in centerfield...he tied a career-high with 4 hits on July 5 at Wrigley Field...Tony had a then career-best 16-game hitting streak from July 3-22, the longest streak by a Buc in '98, hitting a sizzling .507 (34-for-67), raising his season average from .241 to .284...he had the second inside-the-park homer of his career on July 13 vs. the Cubs...he swiped 20 consecutive bases from July 5-August 16, the second best streak of his career...he was 50-for-56 (89%) when attempting to steal second base and 8-for-10 when trying to take third. 1997—His first full season in the majors, Tony led the N.L. in stolen bases (60)...he grounded into just 6 DP's, a 1 in 106.8 AB ratio, all 6 occurring before May 28...he led the Pirates with 51 multi-hit games, and had a team-high 28 infield hits, including 9 bunt hits...his 60 thefts were the most by a Pirate since Omar Moreno swiped 60 in 1982 (Moreno was also the last Pirate to lead the N.L. in steals with 77 in 1979)...Tony stole a club record 32 in a row between April 6 and July 4, breaking Max Carey's mark of 31 in 1922...he was named to the National League All-Star squad, just the fifth Pittsburgh second baseman to be named to the team, joining Carlos Garcia (1994), Phil Garner (1980-81), Bill Mazeroski (1958-59, 1962-64 & 1967) and Frank Gustine (1946)...hit his first major league homer on April 16 at San Diego off of Dario Veras...collected first career inside-the-park homer on May 26 vs. the Cubs...Tony hit his first career leadoff homer on July 27 at San Francisco, hitting Mark Gardner's first pitch of the first game of a doubleheader, then set a career-high with 4 hits in the second game...he hit his second game-opening homer on August 19 off of San Diego's Pete Smith in Three Rivers...he went 4-for-4 with a club record tying 4 stolen bases on Sept. 6 at Cincinnati (Moreno was also the last Pirate to swipe 4 in a game on June 2, 1980)...he was 44-for-49 (90%) when attempting to steal second base, and 16-of-18 (89%) when swiping third...Tony swiped second and third in the same inning 6 times...he had off-season surgery to repair soft tissue injury in his left knee. 1996—He spent the full-season with Calgary (AAA), earning the fans' vote as the Cannons' Most Popular Player...he ranked second in the PCL in stolen bases, while his 11 triples were the second most in team history...he played 79 games at shortstop, 40 at 2nd base and 16 in centerfield...Tony's contract was purchased by Pittsburgh on Sept.

4, and he made his first major league start in centerfield on Sept. 8 in Los Angeles...he made 3 starts in center and 2 at second with the Pirates, while also playing rightfield on Sept. 27 at Chicago. 1995—Opened the year on the Calgary roster, but was optioned to Carolina (AA) on June 3... despite abbreviated season with Carolina, he led the club with 31 thefts. 1994—Began the year with Buffalo (AAA)...he was recalled by the Pirates on May 31, appearing in 2 games, then was optioned back to Buffalo on June 8...was recalled again on July 20, appearing in 3 games, then was optioned once again on August 2, finishing the year with Buffalo...he led the club and ranked second in the American Association in stolen bases (41)... set a Buffalo franchise record for most at bats in a year without a home run (421), breaking Felix Fermin's mark in 1988 (352 at bats). 1993—Split the year between Salem (A) and Carolina, combining the 2 stops for a .301 mark with 41 RBI and 49 stolen bases in 132 games...his contract was purchased by the Bucs on Sept. 8 and he debuted 2 nights later as a pinch runner vs. Colorado...Tony made 5 starts at short for the Pirates and collected his first major league hit on Sept. 21 off the Mets' Dave Telgheder...picked up his first 2 major league stolen bases on Sept. 29 vs. Philly. 1992—Spent the entire year with Augusta (A), swiping 50 bases in 75 tries, ranking fourth in the league in thefts. 1991—His first professional season, Tony signed as a seventh round pick by the Pirates and spent the year with Welland (Rookie).

PERSONAL

Anthony Darrell (Tony) Womack...he and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Jessica (9/12/95), and a son, Alsdner (3/16/99), and split their winters between Greensboro, NC, and Phoenix...Tony graduated from Gretna (VA) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...his high school #7 was retired, the first Gretna athlete to have a jersey retired...he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Guilford (NC) College...Tony was the co-recipient with Kevin Young of the 1997 Clemente Award, given annually since 1973 by the Pittsburgh chapter of the BBWAA...he is a huge proponent of literacy, and has instituted the extremely successful "Tony Womack's Cover-to-Cover Reading Competition," a program to encourage grade school kids to read and attend Diamondback games as his guest as a reward...he is also a member of the Greater Phoenix Black Chamber of Commerce, and has spent the last 3 years at the opening day of the Phoenix Open signing autographs for kids...he has also been a 4-time participant in the Pepsi All-Star Softball Game in Palm Springs.

2002 Non-Roster Invitees

Troy Brohawn

54

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 190

B/T: L/L

Age: 29

Born: January 14, 1973 in Cambridge, MD

Residence: Woolford, MD

M.L. Service: 1 year, 33 days

HOW OBTAINED

Acquired from the San Francisco Giants with outfielder Chris Van Rossum as the players to be named in exchange for pitcher Felix Rodriguez, December 21, 1998.

2001 REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

A non-roster invitee to spring training, Troy was a finalist for one of the specialty jobs out of the bullpen, and while he didn't make the club at the outset his contract was purchased just 2 weeks into the season on April 12 and he remained on the big league roster for the remainder of the year...Brohawn completed the climb back to action after spending the majority of his first 2 seasons in the organization on the shelf with a surgically repaired left elbow...his main role with the big league club in 2001 was facing opposing club's lefthanded batters and Troy showed outstanding poise in those situations as evidenced by the way he handled San Francisco's Barry Bonds...Brohawn and the major league single-season home run king squared off 7 times during the season and Bonds went 0-for-6 with 2 strikeouts and a walk...his work was particularly vital in Arizona's 3-game sweep of the Giants in Pacific Bell Park on May 28-30, coming in to face Bonds in each game of the series and getting a strikeout, fly ball and comebacker in consecutive appearances, each time with the Giants' slugger representing either the tying or go-ahead run...from July 1-August 15, Troy appeared in 16 games allowing only 1 run over 13.1 innings for a 0.68 ERA, lowering his season mark to 3.43...Brohawn recorded his first major league save on April 29 at home against Atlanta, coaxing a game-ending double play by Rafael Furcal to preserve a 7-5 decision...he earned his first big league win on June 30, allowing a 2-run homer to Colorado's Adam Melhuse in the eighth, but benefitting from solo blasts in the bottom of the eighth by Damian Miller and Craig Counsell to win a 6-5 decision...Brohawn retired 36 of 59 (61%) first batters faced including 9 of 10 in a stretch from July 21-August 15...of the first 9 runners he inherited as a D'Back, 6 scored, but he then allowed only 3 of the last 16 to cross the plate.

2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Troy was not on the active post-season roster until the World Series...his lone appearance was in game #6 when he closed out the 15-2 Arizona victory over the Yankees, allowing a hit and fanning a man in an inning of work...he retired Luis Sojo on a comebacker and allowed a single to right-center by Alfonso Soriano before Scott Brosius popped out and Clay Bellinger struck out to end the game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Troy's season didn't get started until late-July due to ulnar nerve transposition surgery on April 28...Dr. Donald Sheridan performed the procedure that rerouted the nerve in his pitching arm to prevent elbow inflammation...the surgery was such a success that Brohawn was throwing in just 3 weeks...he made a trio of rehab starts in mid-July for the Rookie League club in Tucson, then was tabbed the starting pitcher for the Diamondbacks in their July 24 appearance at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, working an inning against Cleveland...Troy then reported to the AAA club in Tucson, making 11 appearances (1 start) for the Sidewinders. 1999—Troy was acquired from San Francisco in the winter leading up to the '99 campaign, going to spring training as part of Arizona's 40-man roster...he was optioned to AAA prior to the completion of camp and the injury bug bit hard early in the season with Tucson...after making 3 appearances (2 starts), he was diagnosed with a left elbow injury that required "Tommy John" surgery...Brohawn was subsequently disabled from April 24 through the end of the season. 1998—Troy had his first exposure to AAA action, spending the season with Fresno...he opened the year with 3 starts, then had only 2 starting assignments over his next 13 outings, before finishing the year with 14 starts. 1997—Had a breakthrough campaign for Shreveport (AA), earning Texas League in-season All-Star honors...led the league and the Giants' organization with a 2.56 ERA...he was a 3-time winner of the Howe SportsData Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week award...kept the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in 24 of his 28 regular season and post-season starts, including the last 20 in a row...had 3 consecutive scoreless starts from July 17-27, totaling 21.0 innings, going 3-0...went 9-1 with a 1.45 ERA in his final 12 starts, beginning the stretch with an 8-game winning streak. 1996—First full year at AA, where he was plagued by the long ball, surrendering a league-high 30. 1995—Second consecutive year to be affected by injury, undergoing left elbow surgery during the winter after missing latter half of '94...was not activated until July 19, but posted a 7-3 mark and 1.65 ERA in 11 outings (10 starts) for San Jose...was the Howe SportsData Pitcher-of-the-Week in final week of regular season...continued to shine in post-season play, going 2-0 with a 0.61 ERA (1 earned run in 14.2 innings), as San Jose advanced to league finals. 1994—Signed and was assigned to San Jose...season ended abruptly on July 19, when he was disabled due to left elbow tendinitis...the elbow was subsequently operated on over the winter.

PERSONAL

Michael Troy (Troy) Brohawn...he is single and makes his off-season home in Woolford, MD...he was a 1990 graduate of Cambridge South Dorchester (MD) High School...he then attended the University of Nebraska, setting 6 different team mound records, including 123 strikeouts in 111.0 innings, while earning All-America honors in 1993...he was also a teammate of current Anaheim Angel All-Star outfielder Darin Erstad.

Jason Bulger

Righthanded Pitcher

71

Ht: 6-4

Wt: 205

B/T: R/R

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on December 6)

Born: December 6, 1978 in Atlanta, GA

Residence: Snellville, GA

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED

Selected in the first round (22nd overall) of the 2001 June Free Agent Draft.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

The calendar year of 2001 was the first entire season that Jason spent on the mound, making a full-time move from the infield for his senior season at Valdosta (Ga.) State...it proved a success as the Blazer's closer, posting a 7-2 record with 7 saves, a 1.47 ERA and 64 strikeouts in 49.0 innings, limiting the opposition to an overall .231 average while working exclusively in relief (29 games)...though drafted for his work on the hill he was also a success at the plate, leading his team with a .354 batting average, 17 doubles and 48 RBI and finishing second with 22 stolen bases, helping him nab co-player of the year honors for the Gulf South Conference East Division, and the team MVP award...Jason was 2-1 with a 5.30 ERA on the hill during the 2000 college campaign, while hitting .348 with 10 homers and 49 RBI when serving as the third baseman...he was awarded the Cup of Excellence as the best all around athlete which not only takes into consideration his on-field skills, but also grades and personality.

PERSONAL

Jason Patrick Bulger...a 1997 graduate of Brookwood High School, he makes his home in Snellville, GA...Jason attended nearby Valdosta (Ga.) State...as Arizona's first round selection last June, Jason was the highest draft pick in Valdosta State history...he made 4 appearances (3 starts) for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, allowing 4 earned runs over 12.0 innings for a 3.00 ERA...though he hasn't appeared in a regular season minor league game, Jason was ranked by Baseball America as the ninth-best prospect in the Arizona organization.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a minor league free agent, December 26, 2001

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Jonathan spent the first month of the season on the Texas Rangers big league staff, making 5 relief appearances, when Arizona purchased his contract on April 27...the Diamondbacks sent him to Tucson (AAA) where he helped a pitching staff that was hit hard by major league call-ups by starting 12 games and relieving 3 times...he had a 3-game win streak that started with a relief victory on May 24 and was followed by wins in his next 2 starting assignments...following the win streak, he went 0-3 in 7 appearances, which included 6 starts...his July 20 starting role was given to Mike Morgan for a rehabilitation outing, but Jonathan followed Mo-Man's outing with 4.0 perfect innings before notching the victory with 5.0 innings of work...the following day, he was placed on the disabled list for the remainder of the season with a torn ligament in his right index finger.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—He opened the season with Oklahoma (AAA) working predominantly out of the bullpen, where he tied for the team lead in saves, led in games finished and ranked third in appearances...went 3-1 with a 2.37 ERA in 17 home games but struggled to a 1-6 record with an 8.20 ERA in 19 road outings...he was initially called up on June 6 and made his only appearance the following day, allowing 2 unearned runs in 3.0 frames...was sent back to Oklahoma on June 9 until his second promotion on August 1...tossed 4.1 frames in his longest outing of the season on August 15 against the Yankees...was optioned back to Oklahoma on August 16, then recalled on September 1...he defeated Chicago on the road on September 5 for his first major league win. 1999—Given a spot in the starting rotation with Oklahoma at the beginning of the season and delivered 3 wins in 5 starts from April 20-May 11...he fanned a season-best 6 hitters on May 6 at Colorado Springs...shoulder tendinitis shelved him on May 13 and was followed by rehab assignments at Gulf Coast and Tulsa...suffered a loss in his return on July 10 and was relegated to the bullpen through the season's end...called up by Texas on July 24, allowed 5 earned runs in 3.0 innings of relief on July 31, and returned to Oklahoma on August 1...posted a 1-0 record in 4 outings with a 1.35 ERA (1 ER in 6.2 IP) in the PCL playoffs...played in the Puerto Rican Winter League for Bayamon. 1998—After experiencing discomfort in his first outing on April 11 for Oklahoma (AAA), a herniated disc landed him on the disabled list on April 21, although he avoided surgery...made 3 rehab starts at Port Charlotte (A) before being activated on June 1 by Oklahoma...was promoted to the majors on September 26 and given a start in his major league debut on the final game of the season allowing 4 runs in 4.1 innings of a no decision...he made 9 starts for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League. 1997—Battled back problems that sidelined him for the first 2 weeks of action with Oklahoma (AAA)...went 1-8 in 9 starts leading up to his demotion to Tulsa (AA) on June 19...earned Texas League (AA) Player-of-the-Week honors for June 16-22...tossed 3 straight complete games from July 23-August 2...he made 5 starts for Zulia in winter ball in Venezuela. 1996—Spent the season as a starter for Tulsa (AA), pacing the Texas League in wins and complete games while finishing third in innings and eighth in ERA...he pitched in the Double-A All-Star game...notched Pitcher-of-the-Week honors three times, April 4-14, July 21-27 and August 19-25...his AAA debut came in a spot start on July 23 for Oklahoma tossing a complete game, 2-hit shutout against Louisville then returned to Tulsa following the game...earned a spot on the Texas League post-season All-Star team. 1995—Pitched during the summer in the Cape Cod League for Orleans and posted a 2-1 record with a 1.66 ERA in 4 games...assigned to Charlotte in the Florida State League after inking a contract on July 18...tossed 2.0 shutout innings of relief in his professional debut on July 23 against Daytona Beach.

PERSONAL

Jonathan Kent Johnson...he and his wife, Kristin, and son, James "Tucker" (5/28/98) reside in Irma, SC...Jonathan graduated in 1992 from Forest High School, where he was an all-area selection his junior and senior years and the Ocala-area Player-of-the-Year following his senior season...went on to Florida State University in Tallahassee, FL, posting a 10-1 record with a 1.68 ERA as a freshman and earning the ACC Rookie of the Year and Baseball America Freshman of the Year awards...named to the All-ACC Second Team and All-American Third Team the following season when he went 12-1 with a 3.17 ERA...also pitched for Team USA in 1994...earned first team All-American and second team all-ACC honors in 1995, going 12-3 in 19 starts with a 2.89 ERA and 130 strikeouts in 134.0 innings...led his team to wins over Old Dominion in the Atlantic I Regional NCAA tournament and Oklahoma at the College World Series...struck out 391 batters in 363.1 innings, the fifth highest strike-out total in ACC history...ended his 3-year career at FSU with a 34-5 record with a 2.63 ERA in 57 games (52 starts)...teamed with fellow prospect R.A. Dickey to form "Honoring Thy Father", a non-profit organization designed to impact school, athletic and church groups.

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a minor league free agent, December 3, 2001

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Yorkis went to spring training with the Los Angeles Dodgers, but was released on April 1 and signed with Mexico City...nothing could have prepared him for the events that transpired in his life following the baseball season as he lost his mother and sister in the tragic crash of American Airlines Flight 587 in Queens, NY, on November 12...Yorkis had planned to take the flight as well, but remained behind at his mother's behest as he worked on his return to the major leagues...a southpaw specialist out of the bullpen, he made 57 appearances for Mexico City...he stifled opponents over a 17-game stretch from May 5-June 3, tossing 13.2 shutout innings while giving up 7 hits and 6 walks with 14 strikeouts...he tossed 4.0 perfect innings, his longest outing of the season, and fanned a season-high 7 batters on June 30...he closed out his last 9 road appearances (June 29-August 7) with 11.0 shutout innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Yorkis worked out of Houston's bullpen, appearing in 33 games...he incurred his only loss of the year on April 22 allowing a pair of 10th inning runs to San Diego...he kept the Rockies' scoreless in the sixth inning and was the beneficiary of a come-from-behind victory on May 9 as the Astros scored 6 runs to post a 13-8 win. 1999—Started season with Philly and recorded a bullpen-best 13.0 scoreless innings from May 2-June 1...he was not scored upon in May, tossing 11.0 shutout innings (12 games)...defeated Montreal on May 24 for his first win since July 16, 1996...matched a career-high with 3 wins, his last on June 8 against the New York Yankees...he was shelved on July 2 with a sprained ligament in his left elbow and missed the rest of the season. 1998—Competed for a roster spot in spring training with Philadelphia but a strained right hamstring on March 22 landed him on Scranton's (AAA) disabled list to start the season...the Phillies purchased his contract on April 24 and he appeared in 11 games before returning to the D.L. on May 25 due to a strained right groin...held opponents scoreless from August 20 (game 2)-September 21, a span of 9.1 innings in 16 games...opponents batted .209 (40-for-191) against him...played for the Dominican Republic team from Licey in winter ball. 1997—In spring training with the Braves, he was claimed off waivers by the Mets on March 31...just one appearance into the season he was shelved on April 3 with a strained left shoulder...he rehabilitated the injury with Norfolk (AAA) from May 15-June 4 and was outrighted to Norfolk on June 5...he was transferred to Binghamton (AA) on June 26, returned to Norfolk on August 5 and joined the Mets on August 21. 1996—Appeared in 64 games for the Marlins, second on the staff, fanning 47 batters over 47.2 innings...matched a career-high with 4 strikeouts on May 15 vs. St. Louis...following his first 4 appearances, he was sent to Charlotte (AAA) on April 9, then recalled on April 20 where he remained until a second demotion on August 8...Yorkis was recalled on August 23 and closed out the season with Florida...he was traded to Atlanta on December 13. 1995—Established a career-high and Florida-record by working in 69 games, fourth in the National League...opponents hit .203 (35-for-172) against him with lefties batting only .157 (13-for-83)...notched his first major league save on June 9 vs. Pittsburgh...inherited 42 runners and allowed only 6 to score, a 14.3 percentage that was second to Montreal's Tim Scott (8.2%, 4 of 49)...dominated the first batters he faced as they hit .105 (6-for-57), second to Atlanta's Mark Wohlers' 6-for-62 effort (.097 average). 1994—A non-roster invitee to spring training, he established himself as the top lefty out of the Florida bullpen...he was shelved on June 16 (retro to June 10) with a strained left shoulder...lefties went 13-for-67 (.194) against him. 1993—Seattle released him on January 11 and he signed with Montreal on February 15, beginning the season with Harrisburg (AA)...promoted to Ottawa (AAA) on July 8...struck out a combined 75 hitters in 64.1 innings...granted free agency on October 15 and signed with Florida on December 15. 1992—Appeared in 3 games for Yomiuri before being released on August 17...picked up 2 days later by Seattle. 1991—A free agent signee for Atlanta on February 1, he played the entire season at Richmond (AAA)...shared the International League leads for wins and winning percentage...traded to the Cubs on September 29, Perez made his major league debut the following day at Philadelphia, striking out Darrin Fletcher with the bases loaded...defeated St. Louis in game 2 of a twinbill on October 5 for his first major league win...inked a contract on December 11 with the Yomiuri Giants of Japan's Central League. 1990—Bounced between Jacksonville (AA) and Indianapolis (AAA)...sidelined twice with a strained left shoulder, from June 20-29 and June 30-August 6. 1989—Named to the Florida State League All-Star team while starting for West Palm Beach (A)...promoted to Jacksonville on July 17, where he got his first taste of working out of the bullpen...struck out 50 batters in 35.0 innings, a ratio of 12.9 strikeouts per 9.0 innings, tops among league relievers. 1988—Yorkis was a starter in a career-high 25 games for Jacksonville (AA). 1987—Traded from the Twins to the Expos on February 3...went 6-2 in 15 starts for West Palm Beach (A) but after his promotion, went 2-7 in 10 starts with Jacksonville (AA).

PERSONAL

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as a minor league free agent, December 14, 2001.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Stephen split time between El Paso (AA) and Tucson (AAA), opening the season with 4 relief appearances with the Diablos before he was called up to Tucson, who was in need of a lefty out of the bullpen when Troy Brohawn was promoted to the big leagues...he picked up his first win of the season on May 14 with 2.0 shutout innings...he had a 5-game scoreless streak spanning 5.0 innings from May 30-June 10...he was returned to El Paso on June 18 and spent the rest of the season as a starter...he was 0-4 in his first 6 starts and picked up his first win on the road on July 24 at Midland, allowing 1 run on 4 hits in 6.0 innings...following that win, he went 4-2 in his final 7 starts...August 14 was a milestone date as he tossed the first complete game 9-inning no-hitter in Diamondbacks' franchise history, a 2-0 win over Arkansas...his efforts were rewarded as he was named Pitcher-of-the-Week for August 13-19...he followed the regular season by traveling to Venezuela where he went 5-4 in 12 starts for Aragua.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—He appeared in 5 games, making 3 starts for Tucson (AAA) before biceps tendinitis in his left arm sidelined him for the remainder of the season. 1999—Stephen fanned a season-high 10 batters in 6.0 innings vs. Arkansas in his final AA start...he was promoted to Tucson and lost his first 2 outings...was diagnosed with a left elbow ligament sprain, forcing him to the D.L. from June 1-July 25. 1998—Allowed 2 or fewer runs in 11 of his 17 starts, and after a 7-inning, 1-hit effort on July 10, was promoted to Tucson, where he did not allow over 2 earned runs in any outing...got an unofficial taste of the big league life, making the start in a D'Back uniform on June 29 at South Bend, when Arizona played an exhibition game against its' Class A affiliate...rain washed the game out in the fourth inning. 1997—Spent the entire year with Tampa (A) and was 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA as a reliever, but went 4-5 with a 3.03 ERA in a starting role...recorded a pair of 9-strikeout performances. 1996—Shared duties between starting and relief at Greensboro, working in 32 game (17 starts), fanning 111 men in 100.1 innings. 1995—His first year as a pro, he was 4-0 with a 2.22 ERA in 8 games in Rookie ball, but was 0-3 in 6 starts for Oneonta (A).

PERSONAL

Stephen LeCharles Randolph...he was born in Okinawa, Japan, and now makes his home in Austin, TX, where he graduated from James Bowie High School in 1992, lettering in baseball and basketball...he earned All-District honors as junior and senior, and was All-Central Texas in '92...Stephen attended Galveston Junior College and was part of the JUCO World Series champion in 1994, while earning All-Conference honors for both seasons at Galveston and was an All-Tourney selection at the World Series in Grand Junction, CO...he then attended the University of Texas in Austin for his junior year...Randolph was drafted by the New York Yankees in the 18th round of the 1995 draft and signed on June 7, 1995.

- 1995 Signed by the New York Yankees as their 18th round selection in the June free agent draft.
 1997 Selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks in the Rule V draft, December 16.

Erik Sabel

Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 195 B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on October 14)

Born: October 14, 1974 in West Lafayette, IN Residence: Indianapolis, IN

M.L. Service: 1 year, 3 days

HOW OBTAINED

Signed as Arizona's 42nd round selection in the 1996 June free agent draft.

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

Erik had not pitched in the big leagues since the 1999 season but he had 3 stints with the Diamondbacks during the 2001 season, posting a 3-2 record in 42 appearances...he was initially purchased from AAA on April 25 but appeared only twice before returning to Tucson on May 2...included in that abbreviated stay was his first major league win on April 29 against Atlanta, tossing a scoreless inning in a 7-5 decision...he was summoned to the D'Backs for a second time on May 12 and had an extended stay in the majors, working in 32 games...Sabel allowed only 1 earned run in his first 15.1 innings after returning to the Diamondbacks while posting a pair of wins...he ran into a rough stretch from June 8-July 28, surrendering 16 earned runs over 25.2 frames to jump his season ERA from 1.47 to 3.89...Erik was optioned back to Tucson on August 6 then was recalled when Arizona expanded its roster in September...while in AAA, Sabel appeared in 18 games including a pair of starts, posting a 2-2 record with 2 saves and 2.95 ERA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2000—Erik missed the final month of the season at Tucson (AAA) with inflammation of the right elbow...finished third on the staff with 15 starts and 98.1 innings pitched. 1999—He became the first Arizona draftee in franchise history to appear in a major league game when he worked a 1-2-3 ninth inning against Oakland on July 9...he did not allow an earned run in his first 7.2 big-league innings (4 appearances), including a 3.2-inning stint at Chicago after starter Brian Anderson was hit by a line drive and left the game on August 10...opened the season at El Paso (AA), but on May 1 was promoted to Tucson (AAA). 1998—He made the transition from starter to reliever, winning 7 decisions without a loss while on loan to Tulsa (AA)...he worked 7.1 innings in the playoffs, posting a 1-0 record with a 2.45 ERA as the Drillers won the Texas League championship. 1997—Erik won 5 consecutive starts from July 27-August 17 to help High Desert wrap up the California League's second-half division championship.

PERSONAL

Erik Douglas Sabel...he is single and makes his home in Indianapolis, IN, though he is building a home just northwest of Phoenix...Erik was a 3-sport letterman (cross country, basketball and baseball) at Harrison High School in West Lafayette, IN, graduating in 1993...he attended Tennessee Tech earning second team All-Ohio Valley Conference honors.

D'Backs Share Pinch Homer Record

The Diamondbacks had hit 10 pinch-hit home runs through the first 3 years of their existence, but Bob Brenly's 2001 bench hit a major league record 14 pinch homers, a mark that finished tied by the San Francisco Giants at season's end. The previous big league record was 12 shared by the 1957 Cincinnati Reds, 1983 New York Mets and 2000 Los Angeles Dodgers.

Arizona had the first twosome in major league history to hit 5 pinch home runs apiece in David Dellucci and Erubiel Durazo. Greg Colbrunn added 3 pinch blasts and Danny Bautista hit the other.

1999 Division Series vs. Mets

The Diamondbacks not only had their first taste of post-season play in 1999, they also had the fastest taste in major league expansion history, winning the Western Division by 14 games to qualify for the second season in their second season, a year faster than the previous best. Colorado held the previous quickest qualification at three years, though they did so in 1995 as a Wild Card entry and in a 144-game season. Arizona's division title came six years faster than any other expansion club, beating the New York Mets and Kansas City Royals who each won a title in their eighth campaign.

By virtue of their division title, the Diamondbacks had a home-field advantage, taking on the New York Mets, who qualified as the Wild Card club with a one-game playoff victory in Cincinnati the day before. The Mets seemed to still be riding the momentum from their visit to Cincinnati, immediately taking the home-field edge away from Arizona with an 8-4 win in the series opener. The D'Backs rallied to even the series at a game apiece behind the arm of Todd Stottlemire and bat of Steve Finley, cruising to a 7-1 win in game #2. Stottlemire, continuing his amazing return from a tear in his right labrum, worked 6.2 innings of 4-hit ball, allowing just a run, while Finley went 2-for-3 with a double and 5 RBI. Matt Williams also chipped in with 3 hits and 3 runs scored.

The Diamondbacks weren't as fortunate upon arriving in New York, losing both games before getting a shot at returning to Bank One Ballpark for a possible fifth game. The Mets dominated game #3, posting a 9-2 win in their return to Shea, scoring 3 times off of starter Omar Daal in a 4-inning stint, then putting the game away with a 6-run sixth inning.

Arizona's season came to an abrupt and heartbreaking end in a Saturday matinee at Shea, as Todd Pratt ended the affair and the Diamondbacks season with a 10th inning homer. The Diamondbacks had taken a 3-2 lead in the eighth, when Jay Bell doubled home a pair of runs, missing a 3-run homer by a matter of inches. Pratt, subbing for the injured Mike Piazza, had been hitless in 7 at bats in the series prior to sending the Mets to the next level with his shot just out of Finley's reach in centerfield.

Outfielder Doug Devore hit .294 for El Paso last season. He also played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League.

Scouting

Kendall Carter
National Supervisor

Kendall Carter is in his sixth season as the National Supervisor after a year as the Diamondbacks' Western Region Supervisor. He joined the Diamondbacks after five years as a scout for the Seattle Mariners.

Signed as the Texas Rangers' 14th round selection in the 1984 June draft, Carter spent two years in Class A with Ranger farm teams in the Midwest and Florida State Leagues.

An Arizona native, Carter was the Class AAA player-of-the-year at Scottsdale Coronado High in 1980. He stayed in the area and pitched for Arizona State University from 1981-84, compiling a 47-9 record. He still holds the school mark for most pitching appearances (102) and shares the school record for most victories (47) with Craig Swan. Carter set an NCAA freshman record for victories (19-1) for ASU's 1981 national championship team, and earned All-America honors for his effort. The 19 wins also tied the school record for victories in a single season. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame last fall. In February, he was inducted into the City of Scottsdale Sports Hall of Fame.

As an assistant coach at ASU from 1986-90, his primary position was recruiting coordinator. The Sun Devils advanced to the College World Series in 1987 and 1988.

Ed Durkin
Eastern Supervisor

Ed Durkin is in his sixth season with the Diamondbacks, his third as the Eastern Regional Supervisor. He joined the organization in September, 1996, serving as the club's professional scouting supervisor, which involved him heavily with the 1997 Major League Expansion Draft.

Durkin has 15 years of scouting experience, having served for 9 seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, first as a full-time scout (1988-92), and later as a national cross-checker (1993-96). He makes his home in Safety Harbor, FL.

Kris Kline
Central Supervisor

Kris Kline is in his third season with the Arizona organization, all as Supervisor for the Central Region. After four seasons as a player in the Anaheim Angels' minor league system, Kline spent the next 10 years as a scout for the Angels before joining the Diamondbacks.

Kline, a high school teammate of Diamondbacks' National Scouting Supervisor Kendall Carter, was on the Class AAA State Championship team at Scottsdale Coronado High School in 1979. He later played baseball at Grand Canyon College, helping the Antelopes to the 1982 NAIA National Championship.

Charles Scott West Supervisor

Charles Scott is in his second season with the Diamondbacks as Western Regional Supervisor. He joined the Diamondbacks in November, 2000, after serving four seasons as a scout with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. He received the Topps Scout-of-the-Month Award for August 1997. In addition to his scouting duties, Scott also coached a high school Connie Mack team in 1998 and 1999.

He played collegiately at Arizona State University and was drafted in 1985 by the Cleveland Indians. Scott played parts of nine seasons in the Indians, Minnesota Twins and Seattle Mariners systems. He resides in Novato, CA.

International Scouting

Junior Noboa

From the first players signed (both from the Dominican Republic) by the organization in 1995, the Diamondbacks have placed a great emphasis on scouting talent from around the globe. The D'Backs have scouted and signed players from Australia, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Korea, Mexico, Netherlands Antilles, Nicaragua, Panama, and Venezuela. In addition to players from the U.S. and Puerto Rico, the Diamondbacks have also signed players who previously played in Japan and Taiwan.

Junior Noboa serves as Latin-American Coordinator and also acts as director of the Diamondbacks' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

Noboa was the team's first international hire in August 1995, and a month later signed the organization's first players. In 1997, he was also the first recipient of the Roland Hemond Award, given annually to the member of the baseball department who best exemplifies the "Diamondback" approach to their work. In 1999, Noboa found Geraldo Guzman, a carpenter who had not played professionally since 1992 and appeared in 13 games for Arizona in 2000.

Jim Marshall continues to serve as Director of Pacific Rim Operations, a role he has filled since joining the organization in 1996. His main duty is to maintain relations with baseball organizations in Australia, Japan, Korea, and Taiwan. He also serves as a major league and advance scout for the Diamondbacks.

Marshall played in the major leagues for five seasons from 1958-62, including stints with the Baltimore Orioles, the Chicago Cubs, San Francisco Giants, the original 1962 New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. He managed the Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland Athletics in 1979.

His first visit to Japan came on a 1960 goodwill tour while with the Giants. Three years later he signed with the Chunichi Dragons of the Japanese Central League and hit .268 with 78 home runs and 252 RBI in three seasons there.

2001 First-Year Player Draft

Arizona's first selection in the 2001 June free agent draft was righthanded pitcher Jason Bulger from Valdosta State. After selecting high school players with the first pick in each of the organization's drafts from 1996-1999, it was the second consecutive time that the team's initial pick was a collegiate player. Bulger was the first of 18 college pitchers taken by Arizona in the draft. The D'Backs signed eight of their first nine picks, 17 of their first 20, and 25 of 50 overall.

Player Development

Ron Hassey Field Coordinator

Ht: 6-2

Born: February 27, 1952 in Tucson, AZ
Wt: 200

Residence: Tucson, AZ

As Field Coordinator, Ron Hassey oversees the hitting, pitching, and catching programs throughout the Arizona's farm system. He will be responsible for the minor league spring training operations and after the season will run the Diamondbacks' instructional league in Tucson. During the season he will serve as a roving instructor.

Hassey spent 14 seasons in the majors as a catcher playing for the Cleveland Indians, Chicago Cubs, New York Yankees, Chicago White Sox, Oakland Athletics and Montreal Expos. He hit .266 in 1,192 career contests and is the only catcher in major league history to catch 2 perfect games. While with Cleveland, Hassey called the signals on May 5, 1981 for Len Barker's perfect game against the Toronto Blue Jays, then was behind the plate ten years later when the Expos' Dennis Martinez mastered the Dodgers in Los Angeles on July 28, 1991.

After his playing career ended, Hassey spent 1992 as an advance scout for the New York Yankees before becoming a member of the Colorado Rockies' original coaching staff in 1993. Following three seasons in Denver, Hassey served as bench coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and joined the Diamondbacks prior to the 1997 season. He was involved in scouting for the 1997 Major League Expansion Draft.

A native of Tucson, Hassey played baseball at the University of Arizona, earned All-America honors and was a member of the 1976 squad that won the national championship.

Tom Spencer Outfield Coordinator

Ht: 6-0

Born: February 28, 1951 in Gallipolis, OH
Wt: 180

Residence: Tucson, AZ

Tom is in his first season as the organization's outfield coordinator after spending the last 2 years as manager of the Diamondbacks' AAA affiliate in Tucson. He managed at the AAA level for 6 straight campaigns prior to this new assignment, coming to the Arizona chain from the White Sox, where he led Charlotte to the International League championship in 1999, and Calgary to the Pacific Coast League championship series in 1998. "Sporty" also managed Nashville (White Sox) of the American Association in 1997. He has served a total of 10 seasons as a manager.

Coaching Career: Spencer began his coaching career in Tucson on the staff of the Toros, Houston's AAA club, in 1981. He has also worked on major league staffs as a first base coach (Cleveland, 1988-89, and New York Mets, 1991) and as a third base coach (Houston, 1992-93).

Playing Career: Tom played professionally for 11 seasons, reaching the majors in 1978 with the Chicago White Sox. He had a career minor league batting average of .274, playing in 1,228 games, leading the American Association outfielders in fielding percentage in 1974 (.982) and 1975 (.993), earning a Silver Glove award in 1975.

Dennis Lewallen Pitching Coordinator

Ht: 6-4

Born: August 11, 1953 in Pensacola, FL
Wt: 200

Residence: Pensacola, FL

Dennis is in his seventh season in the Diamondbacks' organization, first year as the pitching coordinator for the minor league system. One of the first player development acquisitions by the Diamondbacks, Lewallen was the pitching coach spent the last 3 years with the El Paso Diablos.

Coaching Career: He began his stint with the Diamondbacks as pitching coach for Rookie Advanced Lethbridge in 1996, guiding Black Diamonds to the lowest team ERA in the Pioneer League (3.68). Dennis later served as pitching coach at Class A South Bend 1997 and Class A High Desert in 1998 before making the move to El Paso. Lewallen spent 13 seasons as a pitching instructor in the Los Angeles Dodgers' organization.

Playing Career: Lewallen pitched professionally for 11 seasons, eight of those in the major leagues. He made his major league debut in 1975 with the Los Angeles Dodgers, then also pitched in the majors with Texas (1980) and Cleveland (1981). He was named the Pacific Coast League Player of the Year in 1980, recording a 15-2 record with 24 saves for Albuquerque (Los Angeles). Dennis also earned a spot on the Class AAA All-Star Team in 1980 and 1981.

2001 Organizational Awards

Lyle Overbay
Player of the Year

Beltran Perez
Pitcher of the Year

Lyle Overbay was the organizational leader in six different offensive categories, including batting average (.352), games played (138), at-bats (532), hits (187), total bases (281) and doubles (49). His 187 hits and 49 doubles led Minor League Baseball, and he was named to Baseball Weekly's Minor League All-Star Team., and was a Texas League Post-Season All-Star.

Selected in the 18th round of the 1999 First Year Draft, Overbay owns a combined batting average of .346 (464-for-1351) for his three seasons in minor league baseball. He led the organization in four offensive categories (hits, doubles, RBI and total bases) during the 2000 season.

Beltran Perez led the organization in wins (12), earned run average (2.81) and tied for the organizational lead in complete games (2) during the 2001 season. In his first full professional season, Perez anchored a South Bend staff that led the Silver Hawks to a runner-up finish in the Midwest League.

Perez, signed as a non-drafted free agent in 1999, owns a career organizational won-loss record of 23-5, with a career ERA of 3.38. He recorded 157 strikeouts last season in 160.0 innings. He began his Diamondbacks' career pitching for Boca Chica in the Dominican Summer League.

Perez was signed by Diamondbacks' Latin American coordinator and Diamondbacks Academy Director Junior Noboa.

Schilling Wins Clemente Honor

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others. The 2001 individual winner was Arizona's own Curt Schilling, but for the first time in the Award's history a second honor was presented to the citizens of New York City for their humanitarian efforts following the tragedy of September 11.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to a panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services. The panel will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners prior to Schilling and the citizens of New York include: Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

John Hancock is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the title sponsor of The John Hancock All-Star FanFest, an interactive "Baseball Heaven on Earth" held in conjunction with MLB's All-Star Game.

Covering the Diamondbacks

Manager Bob Brenly holds the World Series trophy during an interview immediately following the game #7 victory.

Diamondback Broadcasters

Thom Brenneman Television Play-by-Play

One of the most versatile announcers in the industry, Thom Brenneman is in his fifth season with the Diamondbacks. Thom will handle the play-by-play duties on 3TV and FOX Sports Net, and will make periodic appearances in the play-by-play chair on KTAR Radio. He also serves as host of the Emmy Award winning weekly magazine show "D-Backs, Playin' Hardball" on 3TV.

In addition to his work with the Diamondbacks, Brenneman continues his role with FOX Network's Major League Baseball telecasts, having served last season as play-by-play announcer for games in both the American and National League Championship Series.

A graduate of Ohio University, Thom added to an already impressive play-by-play resume over the winter by calling Atlantic Coast Conference College Basketball every Sunday night for FOX Sports Net, and served this spring as a radio play-by-play announcer for the NCAA Basketball Tournament. This past New Year's Day, he called his third consecutive Cotton Bowl for the FOX Network. Thom previously handled University of Cincinnati basketball telecasts and NFL Football for FOX.

Brenneman, 38, joined the Diamondbacks two years before they took the field. He came to Arizona after six years with the Chicago Cubs, working on both WGN Television and Radio. Prior to that, Thom spent two seasons working alongside his father, Hall of Fame broadcaster Marty Brenneman, with the Cincinnati Reds. In addition to calling Reds games on television with Hall of Fame catcher Johnny Bench, Thom spent time as a weekend sports anchor for WLWT-TV, and as morning drive sports anchor on WLW Radio.

Fans can even hear Thom's work on their computers. Thom serves as the "voice" of Acclaim Sports' All-Star Baseball 2002, teaming with his former broadcast partner, and current Diamondbacks Manager, Bob Brenly.

Thom and his wife Polly reside in Scottsdale with their three dogs, Bear, Wiley and Bora. In their spare time, Thom and Polly work with R.E.S.C.U.E., an organization that saves dogs and cats from euthanasia, and works to have them adopted into new homes. The active twosome also work with Sunshine Acres, a Christian Children's Home.

Jim Traber Television and Radio Analyst

Former major league first baseman/outfielder Jim Traber is in his second season as an analyst for Diamondbacks telecasts on 3TV, as well as the radio network.

Traber spent seven seasons in the Baltimore Orioles organization, playing in 264 games at the major league level over a four-year span (1986-89). Traber then spent two seasons with the Kintetsu Buffaloes in Japan. While playing overseas, Traber had a batting average of .287, with 53 home runs and 184 RBI, tying Orestes Destrade for the Pacific League RBI title with 92 in 1991.

Traber made a successful transition from athlete to broadcaster, becoming a sports talk show host. Traber's broadcast experience includes a stint in the Valley, hosting a talk show in Phoenix for one year, and has been host of a show for the past 10 years in Oklahoma City, and has been a frequent host of ESPN Radio's "GameNight". While in Phoenix, Traber also appeared as a contributor to FOX Sports Net's pregame show prior to Diamondbacks' telecasts during the 1999 season. Last year, Traber also served as an analyst for the FOX Network Saturday Game of the Week package.

He was a two-sport star at Oklahoma State, starting at quarterback for the Cowboys under Jimmy Johnson in 1980, while earning All-American honors on the diamond in both 1981 and 1982, participating in the College World Series in each season.

Traber and his wife Julie have five children, Trabes (14), Chelsea (12), Beau (11), Katelyn (10) and Courtney (9).

Greg Schulte

Radio and Television Play-by-Play

Valley sportscasting veteran Greg Schulte is in his fifth year as a play-by-play announcer for the Diamondbacks. Greg will be heard again on KTAR Radio, and will move to the television side on both 3TV and FOX Sports Net when Thom Brennaman is away on his network assignments on weekends.

A part of the Phoenix radio scene since 1979, Greg joined the Diamondbacks after spending 14 years at the Diamondbacks flagship radio station, KTAR. Over that time, Schulte was involved with nearly every major sports entity in the market. He served for 15 seasons with the Phoenix Suns, working with Al McCoy first as producer, and, for his final two seasons, as color commentator. He also served as analyst for Arizona State University football and basketball, and shared play-by-play duties for ASU Baseball. In addition, Greg spent three years as pre and post-game host for the NFL Cardinals broadcasts after they arrived from St. Louis.

While he has been involved in a variety of sports, it doesn't take long to realize that baseball is Greg's passion. Intense preparation is the key to each Schulte broadcast. That, coupled with a natural enthusiasm for his craft, has made Greg a favorite with Diamondbacks fans. Greg's talent has also been noticed nationally, as he broadcast selected Arizona Fall League games last November on MLB Radio for the second consecutive year.

Prior to his arrival in Arizona, Schulte was sports director at WQUA in Moline, IL, and also handled play-by-play duties for University of Iowa basketball. Greg and his wife of 28 years, Nancy, have two children, Scott (21) and Stephanie (17), and reside in Glendale.

Rod Allen

Radio and Television Analyst

A former player and coach, Rod Allen brings a unique insight to Diamondbacks' game broadcasts. Allen is in his fifth year on the broadcast team, and will offer analysis on Diamondbacks telecasts as well as the Diamondbacks Radio Network. In addition to his work on the game broadcasts, Allen also appears on FOX Sports Net's Diamondbacks pregame show.

Rod's knowledge of the game and the players is evident in each broadcast, and has made him a favorite with D'Back fans. His work has also gained him notoriety with his peers, as he was selected as analyst for FOX's telecast of the Atlanta Braves-Houston Astros National League Division Series last October. He served as an analyst for FOX Network's Saturday Game of the Week package as well.

Allen spent 15 seasons as a player in pro baseball, including major league stints with Seattle (1983), Detroit (1984) and Cleveland (1988). Allen then played three seasons with Hiroshima of Japan's Central League. Allen hit a pair of home runs in the 1991 Japan Series against Seibu, and set a Japan Pro Baseball record with home runs in 4 consecutive at-bats. He was originally selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 6th round of the 1977 draft. Rod's coaching resume includes four seasons as a hitting instructor with the Florida Marlins (1992-95).

He and his wife, Adrian, have a son, Andrew (7/10/89), and daughter, Rachel (2/12/91). Rod also has a son, Rod Jr. (9/21/83), and a daughter, Rhonda (11/13/76). The younger Rod Allen is following in his dad's footsteps on the baseball diamond and was a pre-season All-American for nationally ranked Arizona State.

Thom Brennaman interviews former broadcast partner Bob Brenly, during the post-game celebration in the Arizona clubhouse. The twosome shared the booth for the Cubs, Diamondbacks and FOX Network before Brenly was named manager.

Joe Garagiola

Television Analyst

Any baseball team would love to have a Hall of Famer to pinch-hit when necessary, and the Diamondbacks' broadcast team can boast just that, as Joe Garagiola returns for his fifth season as an analyst.

The 1991 winner of the Ford C. Frick award and member of the broadcasters' wing of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Garagiola has combined insight and humor over five decades of baseball broadcasting, including nearly 25 years on the Saturday Game of the Week telecasts on NBC. In addition, Garagiola spent 11 years as a co-host on NBC's Today Show, as well serving as host of a number of popular game shows.

Garagiola's broadcasting career began shortly after his playing career ended. Joe broke into the major leagues in 1946 as a catcher with the St. Louis Cardinals, and contributed four hits in Game Four of the 1946 World Series, won by the Cardinals in six games. Joe also played with the Chicago Cubs, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates. Upon retirement in 1954, Garagiola was offered a position on the Cardinals' broadcast team, working with fellow Hall of Famers Harry Caray and Jack Buck. Garagiola would eventually move to the television booth with the New York Yankees, working with the initial co-winner of the Ford C. Frick award, Red Barber. At NBC, Garagiola shared the booth with two more Cooperstown enshrinees, Curt Gowdy and Vin Scully.

A Valley resident, Garagiola has been extremely active in the community and was honored as the 1998 recipient of the Children's MVP Award presented by the Jim Eisenreich Foundation. The award goes to a former player who has made significant contributions to children's causes. He works tirelessly for B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, and is very visible at major league spring training camps, educating players on the evils of spit tobacco.

Garagiola was honored this past November by the Arizona Chamber of Commerce for his work in the community, which includes his efforts on behalf of the St. Peter's Indian Mission in the Gila River Indian Community. Nicknamed "Awesome Fox" by the staff of St. Peter's, the baseball field at St. Peter's School is named "Awesome Fox Field" in his honor.

Jeff Munn

Radio Play-by-Play

Jeff Munn, the Arizona Diamondbacks' Public Address Announcer since the club's inception, is in his second season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer during weekends when Thom Brennaman is away on assignment for FOX, and Greg Schulte is handling television play-by-play duties.

Munn will continue to serve as the Public Address Announcer when he is not behind the radio microphone. Over the past 11 seasons, Munn has also been the Public Address Announcer for the NBA Phoenix Suns, and has been the voice of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl for 11 years.

In 1996, Munn was selected as one of four announcers for the basketball competition at the Atlanta Summer Olympics, and handled the announcing duties for the Men's Gold Medal Game. He has also served as an announcer for the 1993 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the 1995 NBA All-Star Game, 2000 WNBA All-Star Game, and the 1997 ArenaBowl (Arena Football).

Munn has been an announcer for 26 years, starting as a senior at Phoenix Carl Hayden High School. A year later, he took on the football and men's basketball announcing at Phoenix College. In 1980, he was hired by Arizona State to be the baseball stadium announcer, and served in that capacity for 12 seasons. In addition to baseball, Munn announced Women's Volleyball, Wrestling, Gymnastics, Women's Basketball, Softball and Track and Field for the Sun Devils. He also served as football announcer for 14 seasons, and men's basketball announcer for four seasons.

Munn, 43, attended Arizona State University, majoring in history. He resides in Tempe with his wife Laurie, and their two children, Patrick (6) and Hayley (3).

Diamondbacks en Español

Once again this season, the Diamondbacks will present a Spanish language broadcast package, with all 81 home games and 10 selected road games will be broadcast on KNLY (1190 AM), and 25 home games are set for telecast on ¡MAS!

Miguel Quintana Spanish Radio Play-by-Play

Miguel Quintana, who began his broadcast career in Phoenix 20 years ago, begins his fifth season as the Diamondbacks' Spanish play-by-play voice. Quintana will be heard on all 91 games to be broadcast on KNLY Radio.

Miguel began his career as a 15-year-old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora. In 1981, he joined KIFN Radio (now KVVA) in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to KTVW (Channel 33), eventually becoming sports director. Quintana also worked in Los Angeles for KVEA-TV, before returning to the Valley in 1995 to serve as play-by-play voice for the Arizona Sandsharks indoor soccer team.

Miguel has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. He has three daughters, Lisette (18), Jasmine (13) and Jennifer (8).

Oscar Soria Spanish Television and Radio Analyst

At the tender age of 31, Oscar Soria is one of the most respected baseball commentators in the Hispanic community. Oscar is in his third full season as an analyst on Diamondbacks' Spanish broadcasts, working with Miguel Quintana on KNLY Radio, and lending his insights to the telecasts on ¡MAS!

Soria is a veteran of 12 seasons as a broadcaster with the Hermosillo Naranjeros, and has been in the booth for four Carribean Series, including the 1996 series when Mexico took the crown in Santo Domingo. He also covers the Diamondbacks for El Imparcial, writing a daily column, and when in Hermosillo, he hosts a television show on baseball. Oscar was among the nominees of announcers for the Mexican Pacific League "All Century Team", finishing second in the balloting.

Oscar has also covered basketball, boxing, soccer, tennis and football for Teleman in Sonora. He graduated from Universidad del Noroeste with a degree in accounting. Oscar and his wife, Benny, make their home in Hermosillo.

Richard Saenz Director of Hispanic Marketing/Spanish Radio Analyst

The man overseeing the Diamondbacks' marketing efforts in the Hispanic community puts on the headsets again this season, as Richard Saenz will serve as a fill-in analyst for the second consecutive year on the Diamondbacks' Spanish radio broadcasts on KNLY, when Oscar Soria is working on ¡MAS! Telecasts.

Saenz has been with the Diamondbacks' organization since 1996. Prior to that, he spent 18 years with the Arizona Electric Power Cooperative in his native Benson, eventually becoming the company's Director of Business Development. Saenz also served for years as the Mayor of Benson (1989-93).

Saenz played baseball for two years at Cochise College in Douglas, then continued his education at Eastern Oregon State University in LaGrand, Ore.

Remembering Our Friends

John Michaelson Radio Booth

The KTAR Radio booth in Bank One Ballpark was named after John Michaelson prior to last season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away after the 2000 season. A veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons on Diamondback broadcasts, John was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

Steve Pascente Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the Diamondbacks opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the Diamondbacks' front office, as his son, Rich, serves as team President.

Diamondback and Major League Baseball Media Policies

Director - Public Relations — Mike Swanson

Media Coordinator - Public Relations — Susan Webner

Staff Assistants — Jeff Munn and Casey Wilcox

It is once again a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks. Bank One Ballpark already ranks as one of the premier sports facilities in the world, and our department will do its best to take care of any reasonable requests. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 2002 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Pursuant to newly adopted Major League Baseball policy, all season credentials issued by the Diamondbacks will include a laminated picture identification laminated. Due to security issues, no member of the media will be allowed access to Bank One Ballpark without showing a photo ID. Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, on company letterhead at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. Requests may be made via FAX only if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the P.R. office.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations, and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Bank One Ballpark is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. For the 2002 season, we have also designated a small space for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Bank One Ballpark where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. The clubhouse is the dressing and preparation area for the players for that day's game and is not a place for the media to congregate. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to the first pitch, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Bank One Ballpark prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones for radio interviews is prohibited on the field or in the clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Diamondbacks' Public Relations Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game could be stopped by the umpiring crew and any stoppage in play due to a camera light will result in revocation of the credential. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Bank One Ballpark is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least 2 hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The Diamondbacks are also pleased to offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a nominal charge ($8.00), and will be served 2 hours prior to game time and up through the end of the first inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Bank One Ballpark, please contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 462-6099.

Bank One Ballpark

What About B.O.B.?

Like the team that calls it home, Bank One Ballpark has a remarkable list of accomplishments in just four years. Since its official opening on March 31, 1998, the Ballpark has hosted events ranging from Monster Truck shows to a college bowl game, with conventions, college basketball and concerts thrown in for good measure. This past October and November, the Ballpark added Baseball's premier event, the World Series to its resume.

Owned by Maricopa County, the Ballpark (seating capacity 49,033) joins its next-door neighbor, America West Arena, in making Downtown Phoenix the sports hub of the Valley of the Sun. Located just one block east of the Arena, the Ballpark is bounded by Jefferson Street on the north, Fourth Street on the west and Seventh Street on the east, and is within easy driving distance of two major freeways (Interstate 10 to the north, Interstate 17 to the south).

Bank One Ballpark also holds the distinction of being the second-highest facility in the major leagues, sitting 1,100 feet above sea level. It trails only Denver's Coors Field in terms of elevation.

THE STRUCTURE

Ground was broken on Bank One Ballpark on November 16, 1995, with the construction project taking 28 months at a cost of $354 million. Bank One Ballpark was designed by Ellerbe Becket, with architect Bill Johnson as the design principal. John Wasson was the project manager for the Diamondbacks, with Huber Hunt & Nichols serving as the managing contractor.

The Ballpark incorporates the traditional look of red brick and green structural steel in a setting that blends into its surroundings. Many of the building's design details are borrowed from the historic warehouse district that surrounds it. One former warehouse, the Arizona Citrus Growers' Packing House, is actually preserved and incorporated into the south façade of the building. Appropriately, that former food warehouse is used as a commissary for the Ballpark's concession stands.

THE ROOF

Game in and game out, fans attending Diamondbacks games are always anxious to see the retractable roof in action before or after the game.

The roof comprises nine million pounds of structural steel, operating on the same tried-and-true technology found in drawbridges and overhead traveling cranes. A pair of 200-horsepower motors open or close the roof in slightly more than four minutes, utilizing more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. Each half of the roof consists of three moveable trusses, which telescope over a fixed-end truss. The east and west sides of the roof can operate either in unison or independently. Either side of the roof can be opened to any position in order to maximize sunlight on the turf and minimize sunlight on the interior steel and concrete.

In 2001, the Diamondbacks played 48 games with the roof closed, 10 fewer than the previous season, while 33 were played with the roof open. The highest temperature for a game played with the roof open last season was 104 degrees (May 9, a night game versus Cincinnati).

ROOF OPEN - ROOF CLOSED?

It's a major discussion point among fans on a daily basis - to open or not to open the Ballpark roof. The decision is made on a game-to-game basis, and it depends on the outside conditions. In the early portion of the season, conditions are generally more favorable to opening the roof, not just because the air temperature is lower, but also because the air is drier, meaning the temperature drops rapidly after sunset.

Into the summer months, the famed Arizona monsoon adds higher humidity to the triple-digit temperatures, making it necessary to keep the roof closed. Even with that, there have been days where daytime cloud cover has kept the temperatures down, allowing for the roof to be opened that night.

Last season, a hotline was established for fans to call in and get that day's "roof forecast". The number is 602-379-ROOF (7663).

THE FIELD

The playing field at Bank One Ballpark consists of Bull's Eye Bermuda, which has proven to be the best suitable grass for a facility with a retractable roof. A sign of that suitability is the fact that, in 1999, 135,000 square feet of sod had to be replaced during the season. Last season, with nine additional postseason games, and a concert held during the All-Star break, only 8,500 square feet of sod needed replacement, which is a slight increase over the amount replaced in 2000.

Even though more than half of the Diamondbacks' games are played with the roof closed, the turf receives sunlight at every opportunity. On game days, the roof remains open into the afternoon to allow maximum exposure. When areas of the field receive little natural sunlight, incandescent growth lights provide a substitute.

A visible feature of the field takes fans back in time almost 100 years. There is a dirt path between the pitcher's mound and home plate, reminiscent of the paths seen in very early pictures of the game.

The path is actually symbolic of the Bank One Ballpark experience - The best of baseball history and tradition displayed in a setting that features all the modern conveniences.

KEEPING COOL

Midway through the 2001 season, the Ballpark became the beneficiary of the new Northwinds cooling system designed for highly populated facilities in Downtown Phoenix. The Northwinds system site is located directly south of the Ballpark.

The unique aspect of the system is that, while conventional cooling systems use cold water, the Northwinds system uses ice, which is produced on site during the overnight hours. The system starts with a base of three million pounds of ice. On a typical summer day, with no Diamondbacks game schedule approximately one million pounds will have to be reproduced. On a scheduled game day, the figure jumps to two million. With the new system, the time needed to cool the Ballpark is reduced, allowing more time for the roof to remain open, which in turn allows more sunlight on the grass.

SEATING AND TICKETS

Sightlines in Bank One Ballpark are second to none. More than 80 percent of the seats are inside the foul poles, and there is no upper deck around the outfield. What's more, the seats down the foul lines beyond the infield are slightly canted toward the infield so that no fan will have to twist his or her body to look toward second base and the pitcher's mound.

All lower-deck seating is directly accessible from the lower concourse, which is at the same level as the outside pedestrian entry plazas and gates. The concourse itself is open to the playing field so fans can stay in touch with the game while visiting the concession stands, merchandise stores or other amenities.

The Infiniti Diamond Level provides exclusive locations and amenities. Lounges and dining areas serving approximately 4,400 club seats are featured. Above the club seats are 69 private luxury suites, which offer the utmost in comfort and catering.

The upper concourse seats approximately 20,000 fans. Escalators on the west side of the Ballpark can take fans to either of the upper levels.

VERSATILITY

While it is primarily known for baseball, Bank One Ballpark has hosted a wide range of events in its three years of operation. The list includes concerts, religious convocations, the Arizona National Boat Show and two annual motorsport events. The Ballpark has also served as site of the Fiesta Bowl National Band Championship each of the last four years. The Ballpark was also the site of the first-ever outdoor college basketball game, as Arizona State's women's basketball team hosted Tennessee on December 27, 2000. In February, just prior to the start of this season, B.O.B. hosted a soccer match between the national squads from Mexico and Yugoslavia.

Shortly after the Diamondbacks won the 2001 World Series, the Ballpark was converted into the site of a major pool and spa trade show. Once the show ended, and the pools, spas and plywood needed to place them on were taken out, new sod was brought in to allow the Ballpark to host, for the second consecutive year, the Insight.Com Bowl. Matching Syracuse and Kansas State, the game drew another large crowd, and gave a national television audience evidence of the ability to do much more than just play baseball inside the Ballpark.

Bank One Ballpark proved its versatility by hosting the Syracuse Orangemen and Kansas State Wildcats in the Insight.Com Bowl last December.

FOOD

You name it and you can find it at the nearly quarter mile of concession stands in the Bank One Ballpark concourses, but the dining experience begins before fans go through the Ballpark gates.

Fans entering the Ballpark through the main gates will notice Hi-Tops Café and Sporting Nightlife, located on the west side of the Ballpark Plaza. Hi-Tops, which also boasts a location across the street from Chicago's Wrigley Field, offers traditional pre-game pub fare, and has also become a popular nighttime destination.

Among the concession stands on the concourses are those that feature McDonald's, Little Caesar's Pizza, Blimpie's Subs and Garcia's Mexican Food. In addition, specialty ice cream, yogurt, smoothies, shaved ice and specialty popcorn are also available. Fielder's Choice offers fans a wide selection of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Friday's Front Row Sports Grill continues to be a popular year-round destination for Ballpark visitors. Friday's offers fine food and beverages, along with patio seating during Diamondbacks' games. The restaurant is open every day except Christmas.

The upper concourse features two Miller Lite beer gardens, which overlook the playing field.

The Arizona Baseball Club, located in right field on the Infiniti Diamond Level, provides fine dining and a spectacular view for fans with club seats or luxury suites.

MASTERCARD POOL PARTY PAVILION

No matter what the event in Bank One Ballpark, the MasterCard Pool Party Pavilion always attracts attention, even when it's not in use.

It is in use, of course, during Diamondbacks games. The Pavilion offers up to 35 guests the chance to watch Diamondbacks' games while enjoying a swimming pool and Jacuzzi. Catering and other amenities are included in the nightly rental of the Pavilion.

Located behind the outfield wall in right-center, the MasterCard Pool Party Pavilion sits 415 feet from home plate. This, of course, means home runs will occasionally find their way into the Pavilion. When a Diamondback homers into the Pavilion, water cannons fire streams of water 30 to 35 feet into the air.

For the trivia buffs, the first player to hit a home run into the pool is in his second season as a Diamondback. Mark Grace had the first official "splashdown" on May 12, 1998, while a member of the Chicago Cubs.

PARKING

Bank One Ballpark utilizes the established downtown parking infrastructure for its guests. An attached 1,500-car parking garage provides parking for guests on the Infiniti Diamond Level. Away from the park, downtown Phoenix offers some 33,000 parking spaces within a 15-minute walk of the Ballpark. The Diamondbacks estimate that about 15,000 spaces are needed to accommodate a sellout crowd.

Downtown parking was virtually unaffected by the Diamondbacks' first-ever weekday day game on July 20, 2000, when a near capacity crowd watched the Diamondbacks and St. Louis Cardinals. During the 2001 post-season, two games were played on weekdays, as well as the post-Victory Parade celebration following the World Series. All were done without significant interruption to downtown activities.

FOX SPORTS NET DIAMONDTOWN

Fans making their way along the Ballpark's main concourse can experience baseball's history and tradition through Fox Sports Net's DiamondTown. Video walls, a graphic timeline and three-dimensional exhibits give fans 10 themed areas featuring the best of baseball and Diamondbacks history.

BAXTER'S DEN

Every mascot needs a home, and the home of D. Baxter the Bobcat can be found behind the picnic area in centerfield. Baxter's Den offers a variety of interactive games, and gives fans of all ages a chance to meet Baxter at home. Baxter appears in his "den" during each Diamondbacks' game to pose for pictures and sign autographs.

MUSIC

As is the case with the overall atmosphere of Bank One Ballpark, music at Diamondbacks' game is a blend of the old and the new. Bobby Freeman provides traditional organ music. Freeman also served as ballpark organist for the Pacific Coast League Phoenix Firebirds before joining the Diamondbacks in 1998.

In addition to the organ, Diamondbacks' Audio Engineer Eric Hanson "plays the hits" through a variety of current songs recorded on tape. As is the case in many ballparks, Diamondbacks' players are serenaded with their favorite tunes as they come to bat.

Grant Trenbeath
Head Groundskeeper

Like the Diamondbacks themselves, Bank One Ballpark Head Groundskeeper Grant Trenbeath reached a career milestone by being involved in the 2001 World Series. It's the latest in a series of accomplishments for Trenbeath, in his fifth season with the Diamondbacks.

Days after the World Series trophy was presented to the Diamondbacks on the Ballpark turf, Trenbeath and his outstanding staff began preparations for a major pool and spa trade show. Just weeks later, Trenbeath supervised the conversion of the field into a football venue for the Insight.com Bowl. Trenbeath's staff also assisted in preparing the Ballpark to host two motocross events and a soccer exhibition match.

In each of the last two seasons, the tireless efforts of Trenbeath and his staff have produced one of the top playing surfaces in the Major Leagues. Trenbeath has been a pioneer in handling grass in a retractable roof venue, and his work has resulted in having to replace only 8,000 and 9,000 square feet of sod in the last two seasons respectively. He has served as a consultant to other retractable roof venues in Major League Baseball, sharing his expertise on how to balance maintaining a strong playing surface with the need for fan comfort.

Trenbeath has worked in turf management for 10 years, spending three seasons with the Oakland Athletics' minor league affiliate in Medford, Oregon. He then joined the A's as head groundskeeper for their minor league complex and spring training for three seasons before signing on with the Diamondbacks seven months prior to their inaugural season.

Trenbeath attended Willamette University in Oregon. Grant and his wife, Trina, make their home in Chandler.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities

Established in 1997, before the Arizona Diamondbacks ever played a major league game, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities focuses on the three areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball field development.

A 13-member board of Diamondback and Maricopa County appointees are responsible for annually approving all grant applications. The grant application period runs through the calendar year closing on December 31. Any 501(c)3 non-profit organization in Arizona is welcome to apply.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities generated over $1,000,000 in 2001 to be distributed before the beginning of the 2002 season. Funds for Arizona Diamondbacks Charities are raised through events such as the annual Diamondbacks Charities Golf Classic, "Shirts Off Our D'backs," ALS Autograph Party, MDA Wives Auction, Bank One Ballpark tour program and other team related activities.

The Arizona Diamondbacks take great pride in being recognized as a leader in community giving. Our commitment to the needs of our state will continue to be a cornerstone of our corporate mission.

Diamondback Field & Community Programs

Pitcher and aspiring novelist, Miguel Batista (left), spends time away from the field reading to school children in the Phoenix-metro area.

A year ago, the Diamondbacks kicked off their youth field program with a pair of original D'Backs joining corporate sponsors with donations to construct fields for area youth. Matt Williams Field was the first diamond dedicated, followed in the spring of '99 with the opening of Jay Bell Field (below).

A Cy Young Award winner in each of the three seasons he's worn a Diamondback uniform, Randy Johnson has given back to the community via his strikeouts and by co-sponsoring a youth field in the shadow of Bank One Ballpark. The Big Unit has raised nearly $100,000 in his "Strikeout Homelessness" cause in three seasons as well.

D. Baxter the Bobcat

Mascot

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 200

B/T: R/R

Introduced: June 23, 2000

Residence: The confines of Bank One Ballpark

D. Baxter the Bobcat came out of the bag on June 23, 2000 at Bank One Ballpark. The idea for the mascot came from Diamondback second baseman Jay Bell's son, Brantley, who explained to his dad that the team should have a "BOB" cat as a mascot since the team plays in the BOB (Bank One Ballpark). Jay informed management about his son's idea and the mascot was developed.

Today, Baxter has gained acceptance throughout the baseball world for his athleticism and his mean "fur" ball. Along with his numerous game-day responsibilities, Baxter also serves as an ambassador for the Diamondbacks organization via visits to hospitals, schools, community festivals, and corporate functions throughout the Phoenix-metro area and the state of Arizona.

For more information on Baxter, call (602) 462-6632.

Bargains at B.O.B.

Baseball has always been regarded as the best value in sports, and the Arizona Diamondbacks strive to make attending home games at Bank One Ballpark affordable for every fan.

For the 2002 season, the Diamondbacks will again offer several ticket discount specials, which include:

DiamondBackers Mondays - Members of the DiamondBackers and 76/Circle K StrikeZone Kids Club receive $1.00 off the price of reserved seat tickets for Monday home games by presenting their membership cards when purchasing tickets. In addition, members of the DiamondBackers receive double points when they swipe their cards at Monday home games.

Tuesday Group Nights - Groups of 30 or more receive a two-for-one discount on tickets for Tuesday home games.

Wednesday Family Nights - Families (minimum three people) get a $6.00 game ticket, a hot dog and Pepsi for $9.00 per person with a coupon from Fry's Food and Drug Stores.

In addition, the Diamondbacks will again feature a wide range of giveaway nights and events that have quickly become fan favorites. In April, the club stages its annual Fuji Film Fan Photo Day, where fans can come on to the field prior to batting practice and take photos of Diamondbacks players and coaches. Miller Lite Disco Night will again celebrate the music and styles of the 1970's. The final two regular season home games feature Fandemonium, with major prize giveaways throughout the game. Following the final regular season contest, Arizona Diamondbacks Charities stages Shirts Off Our D-Backs, during which fans can win an authentic jersey worn by a Diamondbacks player or coach.

Selected Saturday home games are Sabados con los Diamondbacks, celebrating Arizona's and baseball's Hispanic heritage, and following each Sunday home game, kids are invited to come down to the field for Run Around The Bases.

Last, but certainly not least, the Diamondbacks plan more Bobble Head Doll giveaways during the course of the season. Last season, Bobble Head Dolls of Luis Gonzalez, Randy Johnson, Mark Grace, Matt Williams and Tony Womack drew near-sellout crowds, and brought fans to the ballpark in long lines hours before the gates opened.

A complete listing of Giveaway Nights and Ticket Specials can be viewed at the Diamondbacks' official website, azdiamondbacks.com.

Arizona Diamondbacks Chronology

1990

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

1993

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

November 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

February 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of Seventh Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

November 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named president and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes vice president and general manager.

March 11: Season ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The Diamondbacks finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

Aug. 17: The Diamondbacks unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounties, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

November 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the Diamondbacks have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the American League's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees, leading them to a wild-card playoff spot in 1995, signs a 7-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a Diamondbacks' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: Lefthanded pitcher Nick Bierbrodt of Long Beach, Calif., becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the Diamondbacks' Arizona League team make its debut. Outfielder Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie-league team wins, 15-7.

October 11: The Diamondbacks announce the signing of Olympic first baseman Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, righthanded pitcher John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

January 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place Arizona in the National League's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the Diamondbacks' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

September 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the Diamondbacks sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Class AAA affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

November 17: Shortstop Jay Bell becomes the Diamondbacks' first major leaguer when he leaves the Kansas City Royals to sign a five-year contract with Arizona.

November 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the MLB Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The Diamondbacks' first choice is lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians.

December 1: Third baseman Matt Williams comes to the Diamondbacks from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends third baseman Travis Fryman and lefthanded pitcher Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension which commits him to Arizona through 2003.

January 10: Single game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

February 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial Sportspark in Tucson to inaugurate the Diamondbacks' first major-league spring training.

February 27: In the Diamondbacks' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz hits a ninth inning sacrifice fly that scores Kelly Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the Diamondbacks celebrate the first regular season game in franchise history. Colorado wins, 9-2, but not before Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 4: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win over San Francisco that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete game shutout, scattering four hits in a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Bank One Ballpark.

September 4: A 3-1 win over Houston gives the Diamondbacks their seventh consecutive victory, equalling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

September 13: Andy Benes comes within two outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win at Cincinnati, highlighting a September in which he was 3-0 with an 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

December 1: Lefthanded pitcher Randy Johnson decides to pitch in his hometown and agrees to a 4-year contract.

February 25: President Clinton visits the Diamondbacks at their spring training facilities in Tucson, visiting with players and staff members before accepting a team uniform jersey with his name and the numeral 1 on the back.

February 26: Tony Womack arrives from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player to be named later (pitcher Jason Boyd).

April 11: Luis Gonzalez cracks a seventh-inning homer off Atlanta's Greg Maddux, beginning a hitting streak that will last through May 18. Gonzalez is the 37th player in major-league history to reach the 30-game plateau.

April 19: Jay Bell is named National League Player-of-the-Week, becoming the first Diamondback ever to win the award. Before the season ends, he will be joined by Matt Williams (twice), Randy Johnson (twice) and Steve Finley. Williams was also NL Player-of-the-Month for April and Johnson was Pitcher-of-the-Month for July.

May 12: Matt Williams 2-run, game-winning homer caps a 5-run ninth as Arizona comes from behind for an 8-6 win over Montreal. It is the third straight night that the Diamondbacks beat the Expos with a homer in their final at bat. Jay Bell was the hero on May 10, with Luis Gonzalez doing the honors on May 11.

June 25: Bank One Ballpark plays host to its first no-hitter as St. Louis' Jose Jimenez outduels the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson, 1-0. The game's only run scores on Thomas Howard's single in the top of the ninth inning.

July 9: Arizona's bullpen is solidified with the addition of closer Matt Mantei, acquired from Florida for pitcher Vladimir Nuñez, pitcher Brad Penny and a player to be named later.

July 11: Jay Bell's grand slam in the sixth inning wins $1 million for fan Gylene Hoyle of Chandler, who predicted the player and the inning before the game as part of Shamrock Farms Grand Slam Sundae. As an afterthought, the Diamondbacks beat Oakland, 7-4.

July 13: Third baseman Matt Williams and second baseman Jay Bell become the first Diamondbacks to start an All-Star Game. Pitcher Randy Johnson and left fielder Luis Gonzalez also make appearances. No team had more representatives.

July 21: Tony Womack legs out a ninth-inning, inside-the-park grand slam off relief ace Billy Wagner to give the Diamondbacks a 7-4 victory in Houston. It is the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

September 24: Matt Williams scoops up Doug Mirabelli's ground ball and throws to first base for the final out of an 11-3 victory in San Francisco that mathematically clinches the National League West championship for the Diamondbacks. Arizona becomes the first expansion team to reach the playoffs or win a division title in its second year of competition.

September 26: An estimated 8,000 fans jam the Bank One Ballpark Plaza to greet the Diamondbacks on their return home from their sweep of the Giants.

October 3: The Diamondbacks notch win No. 100 of the year in the season finale. Bernard Gilkey and Rod Barajas hit back-to-back home runs in a 10-3 win over San Diego at Bank One Ballpark.

October 5: In the team's first post-season appearance, Arizona drops an 8-4 decision to the New York Mets. Edgardo Alfonzo's ninth-inning grand slam, his second homer of the day, makes the difference.

October 6: Todd Stottlemyre scatters 4 hits over 6.2 innings to help the Diamondbacks notch their first post-season win, 7-1, Steve Finley's two-run single in the third puts Arizona ahead to stay.

October 9: Arizona's season ends when Todd Pratt homers in the bottom of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory in Game Four of the NL Division Series.

November 11: The Diamondbacks earn their first Gold Glove Award when Steve Finley is honored as one of the National League's top fielding outfielders.

November 16: After leading the major leagues in strikeouts, innings pitched and complete games, Randy Johnson gives the Arizona franchise its first major individual trophy by winning his second Cy Young Award.

2000

April 11: Randy Johnson is selected co-National League Player-of-the-Week, sharing the honors with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero. Johnson was also selected N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for April. Later in the season, Luis Gonzalez would be selected Player-of-the-Week for the week of June 5-11, and again for the week of July 24-30.

May 31: Arizona turns its first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning of a home game with St. Louis. With the bases loaded and nobody out, the Cardinals' Mark McGwire hit a fly ball to center, which was caught by Steve Finley, who then fired to home plate, where catcher Damian Miller tagged Placido Polanco, then threw to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack tagged out Edgar Renteria.

July 5: Luis Gonzalez becomes the first Diamondback to hit for the cycle, accomplishing the feat in Houston with a ninth-inning home run in a 12-9 Diamondbacks win.

July 11: Pitcher Randy Johnson and outfielder Steve Finley represent the Diamondbacks at the All-Star Game in Atlanta. Johnson is the starting pitcher for the National League, while Finley enters the game as a defensive replacement as singles home a run in his only at-bat.

July 20: The first-ever weekday matinee at Bank One Ballpark ends in dramatic fashion, as Tony Womack's two-run homer in the ninth gives Arizona a 3-2 win over St. Louis, in front of 40,937 fans.

July 24: The Diamondbacks defeat the Cleveland Indians, 12-7, in the Hall of Fame Game at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown. Minor league outfielder Luis Terrero was named the game MVP collecting 2 hits with a double and 2 runs.

July 26: Pitcher Curt Schilling is acquired from Philadelphia for pitchers Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and first baseman/outfielder Travis Lee.

July 28: In his debut game with the Diamondbacks, Curt Schilling scatters six hits over eight innings, leading the Diamondbacks to a 4-1 win at Florida.

September 10: Randy Johnson becomes the 12th pitcher in major league history to record 3,000 career strikeouts with a fourth inning strikeout of Florida's Mike Lowell at Pro Player Stadium. Earlier in the game, Johnson records his 300th strikeout of the season, joining Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers to collect 300 strikeouts in three consecutive seasons.

October 2: Buck Showalter is relieved of his duties as manager of the Diamondbacks.

October 30: Former major league catcher and broadcaster Bob Brenly is named Diamondbacks manager.

November 7: Outfielder Steve Finley wins his second consecutive Gold Glove award, his fourth award overall.

November 14: Randy Johnson wins his second consecutive National League Cy Young Award, becoming the eighth pitcher in history to win the award three times.

December 8: Free agent first baseman Mark Grace signs a two-year contract with the Diamondbacks. Grace comes to Arizona after nearly 13 full seasons with the Chicago Cubs.

April 3: The Bob Brenly managerial era opens with the Diamondbacks defeating Los Angeles, 3-2.

April 23: Reggie Sanders is named National League Player-of-the-Week for the week of April 16-22. Sanders hits .421, with six home runs and 11 runs batted in.

April 26: Luis Gonzalez sets a National League record and ties Ken Griffey Jr.'s Major League record for home runs in the month of April by hitting his 12th and 13th round-trippers in a 13-6 victory over Atlanta...Gonzalez also earns National League Player of the Month honors.

May 8: Randy Johnson ties a Major League record with 20 strikeouts over 9.0 innings. Johnson did not get the decision, as the Diamondbacks scored three runs in the bottom of the 11th for a 4-3 win over Cincinnati...the performance later earns him co-National League Player-of-the-Week honors for the week of May 7-13.

May 28: Curt Schilling is named National League Player-of-the-Week for the week of May 21-27, after pitching two consecutive complete games.

May 29: Erubiel Durazo's game-winning RBI double in the top of the 18th gives Arizona a 1-0 win at San Francisco in the longest game, by innings, in franchise history. The marathon comes one day after the two teams played a 12-inning contest, with the Diamondbacks also coming out victorious.

June 4: Curt Schilling is named National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for May, after going 5-1, with a 2.35 ERA.

June 8: Luis Gonzalez ties a club record with three home runs in a game, one to each field, as the Diamondbacks defeat the Royals in Kansas City, 11-4.

June 17: Tony Womack's grand slam in the fourth inning sparked an 8-3 Father's Day home win over Detroit. It was an emotional moment for Womack, as his father had passed away two months earlier.

June 25: Luis Gonzalez earns the Diamondbacks' fourth National League Player-of-the-Week award of the season, sharing honors with Houston's Lance Berkman.

July 2: Luis Gonzalez earns his second National League Player-of-the-Month award of the season, after hitting .417 in June, with 12 home runs and 35 runs batted in.

July 19: Randy Johnson sets a major league record for strikeouts by a relief pitcher, fanning 16 San Diego Padres in a 3-0 Diamondbacks win. The relief appearance was necessitated when a transformer blew at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium the night before, suspending play in the bottom of the second inning. Johnson had been scheduled to pitch the next day, and took over for starter Curt Schilling when the game resumed.

August 6: Curt Schilling earns his second National League Player-of-the-Week award of the season, going 2-0, with a 1.06 ERA. For the season, Diamondbacks players are named to the award five times.

August 12: Junior Spivey becomes the fifth rookie in the last 50 years to record a pair of 5-hit games, as Arizona completes a sweep of the Braves in Atlanta, winning 9-1. Spivey's first 5-hit game came June 21 in Colorado.

August 19: Arizona completes a sweep of the Chicago Cubs to extend its winning streak to a club record-tying 9 games.

August 23: Randy Johnson becomes the first pitcher in major league history to record four consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons, recording his 300th strikeout of the 2001 season in Pittsburgh.

August 30: Steve Finley becomes the first position player to pitch in a Diamondback game, losing a scoreless ninth inning against San Francisco.

September 5: Curt Schilling becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, defeating the Giants, 7-2, in San Francisco. Schilling is also the season's first 20-game winner.

September 8: Matt Williams' 2-run homer in the bottom of the tenth gives Arizona an 8-6 win over San Diego. Steve Finley ties the game in the ninth with his second home run of the game, ending Padre reliever Trevor Hoffman's streak of 27 consecutive save conversions.

September 11: Tragedy strikes America, as terrorist attacks in New York, Washington D.C. and Pennsylvania lead to a postponement of baseball for one week. The games are rescheduled for the week following the original end of the regular season, which pushes the World Series into November for the first time.

September 17: Baseball resumes play, as the Diamondbacks open a series at Colorado with a 7-3 victory over the Rockies.

September 27: Randy Johnson becomes a 20-game winner for the second time in his career, as he defeats Milwaukee at Bank One Ballpark. During the same game, Johnson ties a major league record by recording his 23rd double-digit strikeout game of the season, the third consecutive season he has recorded 23 double-digit strikeout games. Johnson also joins Schilling as the first 20-game winning teammates since 1999.

September 28: Luis Gonzalez' 54th home run of the season comes in the bottom of the 11th inning, giving Arizona a crucial 4-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

October 5: Behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Albie Lopez, the Diamondbacks clinch a tie for their second National League West Division crown in 3 years, blanking the Brewers in Milwaukee, 5-0. Later that night, San Francisco loses at home to the Dodgers, giving the Diamondbacks the title outright.

October 9: The Diamondbacks open the National League Division Series with a 1-0 victory over St. Louis, behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Curt Schilling.

October 12: Craig Counsell's 3-run homer in the seventh gives the Diamondbacks a dramatic 5-3 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis, and a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five Division Series. St. Louis attempts to rally in the ninth, but falls short as pinch-hitter Mark McGwire grounds into a game-ending double play.

October 14: Tony Womack's ninth-inning single scores Danny Bautista with the game-winner as the Diamondbacks post their first-ever playoff series win, defeating the Cardinals 2-1 of the Division Series. Curt Schilling tosses his second complete game of the series, limiting the Cardinals to six hits, while striking out nine.

October 16: The Diamondbacks are victorious in their first-ever National League Championship Series game, defeating Atlanta in Phoenix, 2-0. Randy Johnson ends a personal 7-game post-season losing streak with a complete-game 3-hitter.

October 19: Arizona takes a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven series with a 5-1 win in Atlanta. Curt Schilling throws a complete-game 4-hitter, and singled and scored as part of a 3-run fifth inning.

October 20: Arizona explodes for 12 hits en route to an 11-4 victory over the Braves, to take a 3-1 series lead. The Diamondbacks capitalize on 4 Atlanta errors.

October 21: The Diamondbacks become the fastest team to reach the World Series, winning the National League pennant in their fourth year of existence by defeating the Braves 3-2 in Turner Field, winning the NLCS. Craig Counsell is named series Most Valuable Player, after hitting .381 in the series. Randy Johnson wins his second game of the series, with Byung-Hyun Kim recording his second save with 2.0 scoreless innings of relief. Erubiel Durazo's 2-run, pinch-hit homer in the fifth inning is the game-winner.

October 27: The World Series comes to Arizona, as the Diamondbacks open the Fall Classic with a 9-1 victory over the American League Champion New York Yankees. Curt Schilling limits New York to 3 hits over 7.0 innings, while Craig Counsell and Luis Gonzalez each homered.

October 28: Randy Johnson tosses a 3-hit shutout and strikes out 11 in his first World Series appearance, as the Diamondbacks defeat the Yankees 4-0 to take a 2-0 series lead. Matt Williams' 3-run homer in the seventh inning breaks open a pitcher's duel between Johnson and Andy Pettitte.

November 3: After dropping 3 heartbreaking games in New York, the Diamondbacks respond with a 15-2 blowout of the Yankees, sending the World Series to a decisive seventh game. Arizona does all its scoring in the first 4 innings, including a series record 8 runs in the third. Randy Johnson goes 7.0 innings to pick up his second victory of the series, while Danny Bautista goes 3-for-4 with 5 RBI.

November 4: The Diamondbacks complete one of the most dramatic World Series in history, and become the fastest team to win a World Championship, by defeating the Yankees 3-2 in the seventh and deciding game. Luis Gonzalez' looping single just beyond shortstop Derek Jeter's grasp scores Jay Bell with the series-winning run. Randy Johnson comes on in relief to pick up his record-tying third Series victory. Johnson and fellow pitcher Curt Schilling are named World Series co-Most Valuable Players.

November 7: Over 400,000 people line the streets of Downtown Phoenix for a parade honoring the World Champion Diamondbacks. Following the parade, over 50,000 people pack Bank One Ballpark for a celebration rally.

November 13: Randy Johnson wins his third consecutive National League Cy Young Award, and the fourth of his career. Johnson collects 30 of the 32 first-place votes, with the other 2 going to teammate Curt Schilling, who finished second.

December 13: The Diamondbacks are the guests of President George W. Bush at the White House. Earlier in the day, the team is treated to a tour of the United States Capitol by Arizona Senator John McCain. President Bush congratulates the Diamondbacks and thanks them for giving the country something to take its mind off the tragedy of the September 11th terrorist attacks.

Spring Training 2002

The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox share Tucson Electric Park during the month of March, with thousands of fans from both the Valley and Windy City making the trip to the Old Pueblo for exhibition action. T.E.P. seats 11,000 which includes room for 3,000 fans on the lawn beyond the outfield fence.

The World Champion Diamondbacks not only have the good fortune of training less than two hours away from Bank One Ballpark, they work in one of the top-of-the-line spring facilities in baseball. Tucson Electric Park is the centerpiece of the Pima County Kino Sports Complex, that also includes six-field practice facilities for both the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox.

Tucson Electric Park has a capacity of 11,000, including 8,000 seats in the main grandstand and another 3,000 available on the outfield lawn. Also the summer home of the Tucson Sidewinders, T.E.P. features a major league clubhouse that the Diamondbacks use during the spring, and clubhouses for visiting clubs and umpires. The home clubhouse also has an indoor batting cage located on the lower level on the way to the playing field.

During the spring session, the Diamondbacks will dress daily in the major league clubhouse at Tucson Electric Park, while doing the majority of their work at the minor league complex across Ajo Way. Once the exhibition season begins, Arizona will take batting practice either on the stadium field, or on a diamond behind T.E.P., where the D'Backs also have a half-field for infield work. Arizona generally hits the field at 9:30 on a daily basis during the workout phase of camp.

The spring of 2002 marks the 56th year for spring training in the Tucson community, with last season the first time that three clubs called the Old Pueblo home. While the D'Backs and White Sox work at the Kino Complex, the Colorado Rockies continue to call Hi Corbett Field their spring home.

Tucson Electric Park has a symmetrical playing surface, measuring 340 feet down each foul line and 405 to straightaway centerfield. The spring home for the Diamondbacks is located at 2500 East Ajo Way in Tucson.

Items Of Interest

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual field champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

(NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.)

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

- (1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or
- (2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

How To Figure

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

THE POWER TO MAKE IT HAPPEN

IT TAKES POWER TO DO BIG THINGS. LIKE LIGHTING UP A SCOREBOARD, ILLUMINATING A PARKING LOT OR OPENING THE ROOF OF A STADIUM. BUT IT ALSO TAKES POWER TO DO LITTLE THINGS. LIKE RUNNING A BLENDER, TURNING ON A STEREO OR JUST MAKING A PIECE OF TOAST. AT APS, IT'S OUR JOB TO MAKE SURE THAT POWER IS AVAILABLE WHENEVER AND WHERE EVER YOU NEED IT. FOR JUST CRUMBS.
